Item 8.01 Other Events.

Lattice Semiconductor Corporation ( Lattice ) recently provided notice to Arrow Electronics, Inc. and certain affiliates ( Arrow ), a sell-through distributor, of Lattice s intention to terminate the distribution agreements between Lattice and Arrow, effective July 2, 2010. This action was taken by Lattice in connection with a reorganization of its distribution channels in the United States, Europe and Australia. Revenues attributable to resales of products by Arrow accounted for approximately 9% and 11% of Lattice s revenue in each of fiscal 2009 and 2008, respectively.

In connection with the termination of the distribution agreements, Lattice will be contractually obligated to repurchase from Arrow certain inventory. Lattice presently estimates this repurchase obligation to be approximately $5 million, subject to adjustment based on sales of such inventory by Arrow prior to the termination date. Because Lattice does not recognize revenue until products are resold by sell-through distributors, Lattice had not previously recognized revenue with respect to the initial sale of this inventory to Arrow and its repurchase will not affect Lattice s revenue. In addition, Lattice does not anticipate that the termination of the distribution agreements will have a material effect on Lattice s revenue.

Forward-Looking Statements Safe Harbor Statement

The foregoing paragraphs contain forward-looking statements, including statements relating to Lattice s obligation to repurchase approximately $5.0 million in inventory from Arrow and to Lattice s belief that the termination of the distribution agreements will not have a material effect on Lattice s revenue. These statements are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements, including, without limitation, any changes in the amount of inventory to be purchased due to sales of such inventory by Arrow prior to the termination date, any non-recurring accounting adjustments required as a result of the termination or the inventory repurchase transaction, Lattice s ability to successfully maintain revenue levels through direct product sales or sales to or through other distributors, and other risks described in Lattice s SEC filings, including its most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K. All forward-looking statements are based on management s estimates, projections and assumptions as of the date of this report. Lattice undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements.

SIGNATURES
