Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 9, 2010, Nara Bancorp, Inc. (the Company) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Center Financial Corporation, a California corporation (Center Financial), pursuant to which, among other things, Center Financial will be merged (the Merger) with and into the Company.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of both the Company and Center Financial, upon the completion of the Merger each issued and outstanding share of Center Financial's common stock will be converted into 0.7804 shares of the Company's common stock (the Exchange Ratio), with cash to be paid in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares of the Company's common stock.

Each issued and outstanding share of Center Financial's Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A (Center Financial Series A Preferred Stock) held by the U.S. Department of the Treasury will be exchanged for one fully paid and nonassessable share of the Company's preferred stock designated as Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series B with substantially the same rights, powers and preferences as the Center Financial Series A Preferred Stock. The warrant issued to the U.S. Department of the Treasury in connection with the issuance of the Center Financial Series A Preferred Stock will be converted automatically into a warrant to purchase the Company's common stock, subject to appropriate adjustments.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of the Company and Center Financial, including, among others, covenants (i) to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course consistent with past practice during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger and (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period. The board of directors of each of the Company and Center Financial has adopted a resolution recommending the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement by its stockholders, and each party has agreed to hold a stockholder meeting to put these matters before their stockholders for their consideration. Each party has also agreed not to (i) initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate any proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) enter into discussions or negotiations or provide any confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions, with certain exceptions.

The consummation of the Merger is subject to various conditions, including, among others, (i) receipt of requisite approvals of the stockholders of the Company and Center Financial, (ii) receipt of all required regulatory approvals and required consents or approvals from any governmental entity or other third party, (iii) absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing, (iv) absence of any governmental action, law, regulation, rule or order that would have a material adverse effect on the combined company after the Merger, (v) accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (vi) material compliance by the other party with its obligations under the Merger Agreement and (vii) exercise of dissenters rights under California law by less than 6% of Center Financial's stockholders.

Under the Merger Agreement, upon completion of the Merger, Mr. Ki Suh Park will serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors, Mr. Chang Hwi Kim will serve as Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Mr. Alvin D. Kang will serve as Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

The Merger Agreement requires that the Company and Center Financial submit the Merger Agreement to their respective stockholders for approval and adoption and that the board of directors of each company recommend that the stockholders vote to approve and adopt it. The Merger Agreement further provides that in the event the board of directors of the Company or Center Financial changes its recommendation, the Company or Center Financial, as applicable, must nonetheless submit the Merger Agreement to its stockholders for a vote and must also pay the other party a termination fee of $10,000,000.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein. The Merger Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other financial information about the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties of the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties or covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the Company.
