Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

Effective May 27, 2011, Columbia State Bank, a Washington state-chartered bank (the Bank) and wholly-owned subsidiary of Columbia Banking System, Inc., a Washington corporation (the Company), assumed all of the deposits and acquired certain of the assets of First Heritage Bank, a Washington state-chartered bank headquartered in Snohomish, Washington (First Heritage) from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), as receiver for First Heritage (the Acquisition).

The Acquisition was made pursuant to the terms of a purchase and assumption agreement entered into by the Bank and the FDIC effective as of May 27, 2011 (the Purchase and Assumption Agreement). Based upon a preliminary closing with the FDIC as of May 27, 2011, the Bank acquired approximately $168 million in assets and approximately $159 million in deposits located in five branches in Washington State. The Bank paid the FDIC a 0.75% deposit premium on non-brokered deposits and a negative bid of $10.5 million on net assets acquired.

Approximately $142 million of First Heritage's total assets will be subject to loss-share agreements between the FDIC and the Bank - one for single family loans and the other for all other loans and foreclosed real estate. Under these agreements, the FDIC will cover 80% of covered loan and foreclosed real estate losses. The term for loss sharing on residential real estate loans is ten years. The term for loss sharing on non-residential real estate loans is eight years, with the first five years for losses and recoveries, and the final three years for recoveries only. The losses reimbursable by the FDIC are based on the book value of the relevant loan as determined by the FDIC at the date of the transaction. New loans made after that date are not covered by the loss share agreements. In addition, the FDIC transferred to the Bank all qualified financial contracts to which First Heritage was a party and such contracts remain in full force and effect.

The foregoing summary of the Purchase and Assumption Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase and Assumption Agreement and certain exhibits attached thereto, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1.
