Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On October 25, 2011, the Board of Directors (the Board of Directors) of DCT Industrial Trust Inc. (the Company) (NYSE: DCT) amended the Bylaws of the Company to change the voting standard for uncontested director elections from a plurality voting standard to a majority voting standard (the Bylaw Amendment). Accordingly, pursuant to the Bylaw Amendment, in future uncontested director elections, a director nominee will be elected only if the votes cast for his or her election exceed the votes cast against his or her election. The Bylaw Amendment retains a plurality voting standard in contested elections, which includes an election for which the Company receives a notice that a stockholder has nominated a person for election to the Board of Directors at a meeting of the Company's stockholders at which the election is to occur that is not withdrawn on or before the tenth day before the Company first mails its notice for such meeting to its stockholders.

In connection with the approval of the Bylaw Amendment, on October 25, 2011, the Board of Directors approved an amendment to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines (the Guidelines Amendment). The Guidelines Amendment creates a director resignation policy that sets forth the Board of Directors' expectation that any director that fails to receive the required majority vote in an uncontested election will promptly tender his or her resignation to the Board of Directors for its consideration. The Guidelines Amendment also provides that the Board of Directors will act on any such tendered resignation within 90 days following certification of the stockholder vote and will promptly and publicly disclose its decision.

The summary of the Bylaw Amendment above is qualified in its entirety by the Bylaw Amendment filed herewith as Exhibit 3.1 to this report and incorporated herein by reference.
