Item 4. Description of Securities.

The deferred compensation obligations (the "Deferred Compensation Obligations") represent PNC's unsecured obligations to pay deferred compensation pursuant to the DCIP.

Under the terms of the DCIP, PNC provides eligible employees, who are designated as eligible by the DCIP plan manager and satisfy certain income requirements as of the October 1 before the year of participation, with the opportunity to defer up to 20% of base salary and/or up to 75% of eligible short-term incentive pay earned with respect to a plan year. The DCIP's plan year is the calendar year and the DCIP's first plan year begins January 1, 2012. All deferral elections apply to a single plan year and must be made prior to, and cannot be changed once, the DCIP's plan year begins on each January 1. Deferral elections will be credited to fully vested bookkeeping accounts based on distribution elections that the participant makes at the time of his or her deferral election. A participant may elect to receive distribution of his or her accounts under the DCIP upon his or her separation from service (in a lump sum or in annual installments for between 2 and 10 years or a combination of a partial lump sum followed by installment payments) and/or on up to five dates certain (in a lump sum). Except in the case of a participant's retirement on or after reaching age 55 and accruing five years of service, all of the participant's accounts will be distributed in connection with his or her separation from service. In the event of a participant's death, all of the participant's accounts will be distributed to his or her beneficiaries within 90 days of death. A participant may be permitted to withdraw all or a portion of his or her accounts in the case of an unforeseeable emergency that causes severe financial hardship.

Participants may make certain modifications to their distribution elections, subject to the following limitations: a new distribution election will not become effective for at least 12 months; the modification must be made at least 12 months prior to the distribution date in effect at that time; and the distribution date must be delayed by at least five years. In addition, if the participant separates from service for any reason before the modification takes effect, the modification will be automatically cancelled. All distributions of participant accounts under the DCIP are paid in cash.

A participant's accounts under the DCIP are credited with earnings pursuant to deemed investment alternatives selected by the participant from a list of available investment alternatives specified by PNC from time to time. The available investment alternatives do not include a phantom PNC stock fund nor PNC stock itself. Each participant's account will be adjusted to reflect the rate of return, positive or negative, based upon the actual investment performance of the deemed investment funds corresponding to the deemed investment alternatives selected by the participant. A participant may change the deemed investment alternatives from time to time as set forth in the DCIP. A participant will receive quarterly reports concerning their accounts.

Although the value of a participant's accounts (and, therefore, the amount of the liability under an obligation) will be based upon the performance of the investment funds corresponding to the deemed investment alternatives selected by the participant, participants will not have an actual interest in such funds but only in the Deferred Compensation Obligations. PNC is under no obligation to invest any portion of the Deferred Compensation Obligations in any of the funds to which deemed investment alternatives are indexed.

No participant or beneficiary may transfer (other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution), alienate, or otherwise encumber the Deferred Compensation Obligations. PNC's obligations under the DCIP are not assignable or transferable except to (i) any corporation or partnership which acquires all or substantially all of the PNC's assets or (ii) any corporation or partnership into which PNC may be merged or consolidated.

A participant may not redeem the Deferred Compensation Obligations prior to an applicable distribution event. The Deferred Compensation Obligations are not convertible into another security of PNC. The Deferred Compensation Obligations will not have the benefit of a negative pledge or any other affirmative or negative covenant on the part of PNC. The DCIP is not qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). No trustee has been appointed having the authority to take action with respect to the Deferred Compensation Obligations, and each participant will be responsible for acting independently with respect to, among other things, the giving of notices, responding to any requests for consents, waivers or amendments pertaining to the Deferred Compensation Obligations, enforcing covenants and taking action upon a default. Although PNC may elect to hedge the Deferred Compensation Obligations by making contributions to a grantor trust (known as a Rabbi Trust), the DCIP is an unfunded plan and PNC is under no obligation to make contributions to the Rabbi Trust, and the assets of any such Rabbi Trust will be subject to the claims of PNC's creditors in the event of PNC's bankruptcy. The Deferred Compensation Obligations may be satisfied from the general assets of PNC or from the assets of any such Rabbi Trust. If PNC elects to use a Rabbi Trust to hedge the Deferred Compensation Obligations, PNC Bank, N.A. will be the trustee. However, in the event of a change in control of PNC (as defined in the trust agreement), any assets in that Rabbi Trust will be transferred automatically to a different Rabbi Trust that has a third-party as the trustee.

The DCIP is administered by, or under the direction of, the Personnel and Compensation Committee of PNC's Board of Directors, or its delegates, and may be amended or terminated by such Committee or such delegates at any time. Participation in the DCIP is limited to a select group of management or highly compensated employees. The DCIP is intended to constitute a top hat plan within the meaning of Sections 201(2), 301(a)(3) and 401(a) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended. Deferrals under the DCIP will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax until they are distributed to the participant in accordance with the terms of the DCIP. The DCIP is also intended to comply with Code Section 409A.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The legal opinion regarding the validity of the securities to be issued is rendered by George P. Long, III, Chief Governance Counsel and Corporate Secretary of PNC. Mr. Long beneficially owns or has the rights to acquire an aggregate of less than 1% of PNC's common stock.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

PNC is incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Sections 1741 and 1742 of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law (PBCL) provide that a Pennsylvania corporation has the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that the person is or was a representative of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the action or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. In the case of an action brought by or in the right of the corporation, indemnification of any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to the action by reason of the fact that the person is or was a representative of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action is permitted if such person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. No indemnification is permitted under this provision, however, in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court of common pleas of the judicial district embracing the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located or the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses that the court of common pleas or other court deems proper.

Section 1743 of the PBCL provides, in general, that a corporation must indemnify any representative of a business corporation who has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action or proceeding referred to in Section 1741 or Section 1742 or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, against expenses (including attorney fees) actually and reasonably incurred therein.

Section 1746 of the PBCL provides that the foregoing provisions shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under, among other things, any by-law provision, provided that no indemnification may be made in any case where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness.

Our By-Laws provide for the mandatory indemnification of directors and officers in accordance with and to the full extent permitted by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as in effect at the time of such indemnification. Our By-Laws also eliminate, to the maximum extent permitted by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the personal liability of directors for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action as a director, except in any case such elimination is not permitted by law.

Section 1747 of the PBCL provides, in general, that a corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a representative of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another entity against any liability asserted against the person in any capacity, or arising out of the person's status as such, regardless of whether the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against that liability under the provisions of the PBCL. PNC has purchased directors' and officers' liability insurance covering certain liabilities that may be incurred by its directors and officers in connection with the performance of their duties.

The foregoing is only a general summary of certain aspects of Pennsylvania law and PNC's bylaws dealing with indemnification of directors and officers, and does not purport to be complete. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the detailed provisions of Sections 1741, 1742, 1743, 1746 and 1747 of the PBCL and the bylaws of PNC.

Item 8. Exhibits.

The Exhibit Index of this Registration Statement, filed herewith, is incorporated herein by reference. The file number of all filings referenced in the Exhibit Index is 001-09718.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
  - (a) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act");
  - (b) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change to the information set forth in this Registration Statement; and
  - (c) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that Paragraphs 1(a) and 1(b) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and each filing of the DCIP's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
