Item 8.01 Other Events.

MetLife, Inc. is filing this Current Report on Form 8-K to reflect the impact on its previously filed financial statements and other disclosures included in MetLife, Inc.'s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 (the 2011 Annual Report) filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) of three actions taken by MetLife, Inc., its subsidiaries and affiliates (the Company or MetLife) in the first quarter of 2012: (i) the retrospective application of the adoption of new accounting guidance regarding accounting for deferred policy acquisition costs (DAC); (ii) the reorganization of its business into three broad geographic regions to better reflect its global reach; and (iii) the retrospective application of the adoption of new accounting guidance regarding comprehensive income, each as detailed below.

On January 1, 2012, the Company adopted new guidance regarding accounting for DAC, which was applied retrospectively. The guidance specifies that only costs related directly to successful acquisition of new or renewal contracts can be capitalized as DAC; all other acquisition-related costs must be expensed as incurred. Under the new guidance, advertising costs may only be included in DAC if the capitalization criteria in the direct-response advertising guidance in Subtopic 340-20, Other Assets and Deferred Costs Capitalized Advertising Costs, are met. As a result, certain direct marketing, sales manager compensation and administrative costs previously capitalized by the Company will no longer be deferred. See Note 1 of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included within Item 8 of Part II in Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K for the effects of the retrospective application of such new accounting guidance.

The 2011 Annual Report is also being revised to reflect the reorganization of the Company's business. As announced in November 2011, effective in the first quarter of 2012, the Company reorganized its business from its former U.S. Business and International structure into three broad geographic regions. As a result, in the first quarter of 2012, the Company reorganized into six segments, reflecting these broad geographic regions: Retail Products; Group, Voluntary and Worksite Benefits; Corporate Benefit Funding; and Latin America (collectively, The Americas); Asia; and Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA). In addition, the Company reports certain of its results of operations in Corporate & Other, which includes MetLife Bank, National Association and other business activities. Prior period results have been revised in connection with this reorganization.

Lastly, on January 1, 2012, the Company adopted new guidance regarding comprehensive income, which was applied retrospectively, that provides companies with the option to present the total of comprehensive income, components of net income, and the components of other comprehensive income either in a single continuous statement of comprehensive income or in two separate but consecutive statements in annual financial statements. The objective of the standard is to increase the prominence of items reported in other comprehensive income and to facilitate convergence of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and International Financial Reporting Standards. The standard eliminates the option to present components of other comprehensive income as part of the statement of changes in stockholders' equity. The amendments in this guidance do not change the items that must be reported in other comprehensive income or when an item of other comprehensive income must be reclassified in net income. The Company adopted the two-statement approach for annual statements in the first quarter of 2012. See the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income in the Consolidated Financial Statements included within Item 8 of Part II in Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The following items of the 2011 Annual Report (collectively, the Revised Sections) are being revised as and to the extent reflected in Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K:
