Subject: Today's Big News and What it Means for All of Us

Team,

I have some big and exciting news to share with you this morning. Moments ago we announced that Market Leader has accepted an offer to be acquired by Trulia for $355M or $11.33/share. We'll have an All Hands meeting at 9:30am today to discuss this big news, and what it means for all of us, our customers, our partners, and our shareholders.

Market Leader + Trulia = Category Leadership

Market Leader and Trulia are both highly successful and rapidly-growing companies because of the tremendous value we deliver to our real estate professional customers. Trulia brings massive consumer demand with 31 million unique users on their site in just the last month and we bring the only comprehensive software solution in the real estate industry as well as our deep industry partnerships. And of course, we both have tens of thousands of loyal customers who count on us to help them manage and grow their businesses. Together we leapfrog all of the competition, creating one company with great products and services that address all of the needs of real estate professionals and the consumers they serve.

It's Business as Usual at Market Leader

We've all done great work to get us here, and that's exactly what we will continue to do moving forward. We will continue to operate under the Market Leader brand and we will continue to create, market, and sell innovative Market Leader products to our customers.

I am very excited about this new chapter in our continued success story, and will continue to lead this business moving forward. Additionally, our Leadership Team and all of our managers will continue to lead their groups, with the same employee responsibilities and goals we have in place today. The only big change you may see in the coming months are the efforts we make to get to know the rest of our team, and how we will start working together to determine the best ways to cross-promote each other's products, and over time, create new ones that leverage the best of what we both have to offer.

Make no mistake, Trulia is purchasing Market Leader because of the great work we are doing for our customers; for the industry-leading software products that we are delivering; and for the incredible partnerships we have put in place with the biggest names in the real estate industry. In a nutshell, they love what we are doing, want us to do more of it, and like us, they believe we can do even bigger things together.

This is big news, and I'm sure you will have a ton of questions. We have devoted time throughout the day today to brief you on the specifics, and to ensure you get the answers that you need for both yourself and for communicating effectively with our customers and partners. I look forward to seeing you at 9:30 this morning and to answering any questions you may have today, and in the days and weeks to come. In the meantime, I have included some FAQs below for your reference.
