On January 27, 2014, pursuant to a privately-negotiated Investment Agreement (as amended, the Investment Agreement) with the Issuer, the Blackstone Funds purchased 199,000 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share (Preferred Stock), of the Issuer and Gregg S. Ribatt purchased 1,000 shares of Preferred Stock, in each case, for a cash purchase price of $990 per share of Preferred Stock, or approximately $198 million in the aggregate.

The Blackstone Funds' payment of their portion of the aggregate purchase price was funded by capital contributions by the Blackstone Funds' partners. Mr. Ribatt's payment of his portion of the aggregate purchase price was made with cash on hand.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The Blackstone Funds purchased the Preferred Stock under the Investment Agreement for investment purposes, subject to the following:

Pursuant to the Investment Agreement, the Issuer appointed two members to its board of directors (the Board) designated by BCP VI at the consummation of the purchase of Preferred Stock. The Investment Agreement further provides that, so long as BCP VI or certain of its permitted transferees (together, the Blackstone Parties) beneficially owns either the lesser of (i) 95% of the Preferred Stock or the as-converted Common Stock purchased pursuant to the Investment Agreement or (ii) 12.5% of the total outstanding shares of common stock of the Issuer (such level of ownership, the Two-Director Threshold), the Blackstone Parties will have the right to designate two directors to the Board. So long as the Blackstone Parties beneficially owns at least 25% of the Preferred Shares or the as-converted Common Stock purchased pursuant to the Investment Agreement, but less than the Two-Director Threshold, Blackstone will have the right to designate one director to the Board. The Blackstone Parties will also have the right to appoint one of its director designees to the CEO Search Committee of the Board. The representation afforded by the appointment of BCP VI's representative on the Board may allow the Blackstone Entities to have influence over the corporate activities of the Issuer, including activities that may relate to items described in subparagraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Further, pursuant to the Investment Agreement, until the date on which the Blackstone Parties are no longer entitled to designate any directors to the Board, BCP VI may not, without the consent of the Board, directly or indirectly, among other things (i) acquire beneficial ownership (as defined in Rule 13d-3 and Rule 13d-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) of any securities convertible or exchangeable into Common Stock if such action would result in the Blackstone Parties beneficially owning more than 25% of the Company's total outstanding Common Stock, (ii) solicit any proxies to seek to control the Board or management of the Issuer, (iii) offer to acquire the Issuer's, or certain of its subsidiaries', Common Stock or assets or otherwise engage in any business combination involving the Issuer or (iv) enter into any discussions or agreements involving items (i) to (iii) of this sentence. Additionally, until the second anniversary of the closing under the Investment Agreement, without the consent of the Board, the Blackstone Parties may not transfer any Preferred Stock issued pursuant to the Investment Agreement or any Common Stock issued upon conversion of such Preferred Stock, except to certain permitted transferees, and the Blackstone Parties are further restricted for so long as any shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued pursuant to the Investment Agreement are outstanding from transferring to certain competitors of the Issuer or certain large stockholders of the Issuer.

Also pursuant to the terms of the Investment Agreement, the Board formed a special committee of the Board (the Search Committee) on January 24, 2014 and has granted to such committee the sole power and authority to identify, consider, assess, evaluate, research, and recommend individual nominees for the position of chief executive officer of the Issuer to replace John McCarvel, who announced his resignation from his position as president and chief executive officer of the Issuer. The Search Committee must include at least one designee of BCP VI and consistent with this provision, on January 27, 2014, the Board appointed Prakash Melwani, the designee of BCP VI, to the Search Committee. Any recommendation from the Search Committee with respect to a chief executive officer nominee requires the unanimous consent of the members of the Search Committee, and the Board may not appoint a new chief executive officer without the recommendation of the Search Committee. The Reporting Persons may engage in conversations with Prakash Melwani regarding the assessment of candidates for the position of chief executive officer of the Issuer and related matters.

The description of the Investment Agreement in Item 3 and this Item 4 is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the agreement, which is filed as an exhibit hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.

The Reporting Persons intend to review on a continuing basis the Blackstone Funds' investment in the Issuer. As a result of the Reporting Persons' continuous review and evaluation of the business of the Issuer, the Reporting Persons may communicate with the Board, members of management and/or other stockholders from time to time with respect to operational, strategic, financial or governance matters or otherwise work with management and the Board with a view to maximizing stockholder value. Subject to the agreements described herein, the Reporting Persons may seek to sell or otherwise dispose some or all of the Issuer's securities (which may include, but is not limited to, transferring some or all of such securities to its affiliates or distributing some or all of such securities to such Reporting Person's respective partners, members or beneficiaries, as applicable) from time to time, and/or may seek to acquire additional securities of the Issuer (which may include rights or securities exercisable or convertible into securities of the Issuer) from time to time, in each case, in open market or private transactions, block sales or otherwise. Any transaction that the Reporting Persons may pursue may be made at any time and from time to time without prior notice and will depend on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, the price and availability of the Issuer's securities, subsequent developments affecting the Issuer, the Issuer's business and the Issuer's prospects, other investment and business opportunities available to the Reporting Persons, general industry and economic conditions, the securities markets in general, tax considerations and other factors deemed relevant by the Reporting Persons.

Other than as described in this Item 4, none of the Reporting Persons has any current plans or proposals that relate to or that would result in any of the transactions or other matters specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D; provided, that the Reporting Persons at any time and from time to time, may review or reconsider and change their position and/or change their purpose and/or develop such plans and may seek to influence management or the board of directors of the Issuer with respect to the business and affairs of the Issuer, and may from time to time consider pursuing or proposing any such transactions with advisors, the Issuer or other persons.
