Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 14, 2014, the Board of Directors (the Board) of The Timken Company (the Company) increased the size of the Board from thirteen to fourteen members and elected Christopher L. Mapes as a director to fill the vacancy. Mr. Mapes was also appointed to the Audit and Compensation Committees of the Board. Mr. Mapes will immediately begin serving as a director for a term that expires at the 2014 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company. Mr. Mapes is currently the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Lincoln Electric Holdings, Inc.

In connection with his appointment to the Board, Mr. Mapes will receive the same compensation as all other non-employee directors of the Company as disclosed in the Company's definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on March 21, 2013. Mr. Mapes and the Company will also enter into the Company's standard director indemnification agreement, the form of which was previously filed with the SEC as Exhibit 10.12 to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012 (the 2012 Form 10-K).

The Company also announced that:

Ward J. Timken, a director of the Company since 1971, is retiring from the Board, effective as of the 2014 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, pursuant to the Board's policy that a director retire from the Board at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders after reaching age 72;

James W. Griffith, a director since 1999 and the current President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, is, as previously announced, expected to retire at the time the planned spinoff of the Company's steel business is completed (the Spinoff), and will not stand for re-election at the 2014 Annual Meeting of Shareholders;

John M. Ballbach, a director since 2009, also will not stand for re-election at the 2014 Annual Meeting of Shareholders; and Diane C. Creel, a director since 2012, and Phillip R. Cox, a director since 2004, are expected to resign from the Board at the time the Spinoff is completed to become directors of TimkenSteel Corporation.

Also on February 14, 2014, the Company appointed Philip D. Fracassa, age 45, Chief Financial Officer of the Company, effective March 1, 2014, replacing Glenn A. Eisenberg, the Company's Executive Vice President Finance and Administration, who will remain with the Company until March 31, 2014.

Prior to his appointment, Mr. Fracassa served as Senior Vice President of Planning and Development of the Company since August, 2012. Since joining the Company in 2005, Mr. Fracassa has held a variety of senior financial leadership positions with the Company, including Vice President of Tax, Senior Vice President of Tax and Treasury and Senior Vice President and Group Controller of the Company's bearings and power transmission business.

In connection with his appointment, Mr. Fracassa and the Company entered into the Company's standard officer indemnification agreement and a severance agreement (the Severance Agreement), the forms of which were previously filed with the SEC as Exhibits 10.13 and 10.10, respectively, to the 2012 Form 10-K.

As Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Fracassa will receive an annual base salary and will participate in the Company's Senior Executive Management Performance Plan and in the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan, which provides for long-term incentive grants the value of which is linked directly to the performance of the Company or the price of its common shares. Mr. Fracassa will also be entitled to participate in the Company's retirement income programs and its broad-based benefit programs, including health, disability and life insurance programs, and will be entitled to certain perquisites.

Pursuant to the Severance Agreement, in the event Mr. Fracassa's employment is terminated without cause by the Company, Mr. Fracassa will receive, among other benefits, severance equal to 1.5 times the sum of: (a) his annual base salary; and (b) an amount equal to the highest annual incentive payout percentage (not to exceed 100%) during the preceding five years multiplied by the target amount of incentive pay for the year in which he is terminated. Moreover, if certain events occur, such as a reduction in his responsibilities or termination of his employment without cause following a change in control, Mr. Fracassa will be entitled to receive, among other benefits, a payment in an amount equal to a multiple of 3 times the sum of: (a) the greater of (i) his annual base salary in effect prior to the termination or (ii) his annual base salary in effect prior to the change in control; and (b) the greater of (i) his target annual amount of incentive compensation for the year in which his employment is terminated or (ii) his target annual amount of incentive compensation for the year in which the change in control occurs.
