To the shareholders of Nexstar Broadcasting Group, Inc. and Media General, Inc.:

On January 27, 2016, Nexstar Broadcasting Group, Inc., which we refer to as Nexstar, and Media General, Inc., which we refer to as Media General, entered into a merger agreement providing for the acquisition of Media General by Nexstar. We are excited about the prospects for the combined company, which will be one of the nation's leading providers of local news, entertainment, sports, lifestyle and network programming and content through its broadcast and digital media platform. The combined company will own 171 full power television stations in 100 markets and a diverse and growing digital media operation.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each share of Media General common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held by any Media General subsidiary, Nexstar, or any Nexstar subsidiary) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $10.55 in cash, without interest, (ii) 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock and (iii) one non-transferable contingent value right, or CVR (unless the CVRs are distributed prior to the merger). The CVRs relate to the net proceeds (if any) from the sale of Media General's spectrum in the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction, which we refer to as the FCC auction, subject to certain reductions described in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus.

It is anticipated that, upon the closing of the transaction, Nexstar shareholders will own approximately 66%, and Media General shareholders will own approximately 34%, of the combined company's outstanding shares. Following the closing of the transaction, Media General will no longer be a publicly held company, and the Media General voting common stock will be delisted from the New York Stock Exchange. Nexstar Class A common stock will continue to be listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol NXST and Nexstar will continue the combined business of Nexstar and Media General under the name Nexstar Media Group, Inc. No vote of Nexstar shareholders or Media General shareholders is required to change Nexstar's name under applicable law.

Nexstar will hold an annual meeting of its shareholders and Media General will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to consider and vote on matters necessary to complete the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. At the Nexstar annual meeting, Nexstar shareholders will also be asked to vote on the election of Class I directors and on the ratification of the selection of Nexstar's independent registered public accounting firm, which we refer to as the Other Annual Meeting Matters. Information about each company's respective meeting, the proposals to be voted on at each company's respective meeting, the transaction and other related matters is contained in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus, which we urge you to read carefully and in its entirety, including the Annexes thereto, the documents incorporated by reference therein, and the exhibits to the registration statement to which the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus relates.

Nexstar and Media General have entered into a voting agreement with certain Media General shareholders holding approximately 8.8% of the outstanding shares of voting common stock of Media General as of the record date for the Media General special meeting. These Media General shareholders have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the approval of the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at the Media General special meeting.

In particular, you should consider the matters discussed under Risk Factors beginning on page 40 of the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Your vote is very important. To ensure your representation at your company's meeting, please complete and return the enclosed proxy card or submit your proxy or voting instructions over the Internet or by telephone.

The board of directors of Nexstar has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and the Other Annual Meeting Matters, and recommends that Nexstar shareholders vote FOR the approval of each of the proposals to be voted on by Nexstar shareholders at the Nexstar annual meeting, as described in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The board of directors of Media General has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the transactions contemplated thereby, and recommends that Media General shareholders vote FOR the approval of each of the proposals to be voted on by Media General shareholders at the Media General special meeting, as described in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Sincerely,

Perry A. Sook

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF MEDIA GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS

To be held on June 8, 2016

To the Holders of Voting Common Stock of Media General, Inc.:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special meeting of Media General shareholders will be held on June 8, 2016 at 11:00 a.m., local time, at 375 Park Avenue, 36th Floor, New York, NY 10152, for the following purposes:

1. to consider and vote on a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 27, 2016, by and among Nexstar Broadcasting Group, Inc., Neptune Merger Sub, Inc. and Media General, Inc., and the related plan of merger, which are attached to the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and Annex G, respectively;
2. to consider and vote on a proposal to approve, on a non-binding and advisory basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Media General's named executive officers in connection with the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement; and
3. to consider and vote on a proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the Media General special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

In the merger, each share of Media General common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held by any Media General subsidiary, Nexstar, or any Nexstar subsidiary) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $10.55 in cash, without interest, (ii) 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock and (iii) one non-transferable contingent value right, or CVR (unless the CVRs are distributed prior to the merger). The CVRs relate to the net proceeds (if any) from the sale of Media General's spectrum in the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction, which we refer to as the FCC auction, subject to certain reductions described in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus. There can be no assurance that any payment will be made under the CVRs, or the amount or timing of any such payment. Any amounts to be received in connection with the CVRs, and the timing of any payments of any such amounts, are contingent upon the occurrence of certain events which may or may not occur, and which may be outside the control of Nexstar and Media General. There may be no cash consideration ultimately paid in respect of the CVRs. The CVRs will be non-transferable and, accordingly, will not be listed on any securities exchange. Under certain circumstances, including the completion of the FCC auction prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs may be distributed prior to the closing of the transaction. Also, the tax consequences arising from the receipt and ownership of the CVRs are uncertain. See Chapter One: The Transaction Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 149 of the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What is the transaction?

A: Nexstar, Neptune Merger Sub, Inc., one of Nexstar's wholly owned subsidiaries, which we refer to as Neptune, and Media General entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger on January 27, 2016 which, as it may be amended from time to time, we refer to as the merger agreement. The merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. The merger agreement provides for the merger of Neptune with and into Media General, as a result of which Media General will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Nexstar, which we refer to as the merger. We sometimes refer to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, taken as a whole, as the transaction. The merger will be effective at the time a certificate of merger is issued by the State Corporation Commission of the Commonwealth of Virginia or at such later time and date designated jointly by Nexstar and Media General in the articles of merger, which we refer to as the effective time of the merger.

In the merger, each share of Media General voting common stock, no par value, and non-voting common stock, no par value, which we refer to as the Media General voting common stock and the Media General non-voting common stock, respectively, and together as the Media General common stock, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held by any Media General subsidiary, Nexstar, or any Nexstar subsidiary) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $10.55 in cash, without interest, which we refer to as the cash consideration, (ii) 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar Class A Common Stock, which we refer to as stock consideration, and (iii) one non-transferable contingent value right, which we refer to as a CVR, relating to the net proceeds (if any) from the sale of Media General's spectrum in the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction, which we refer to as the FCC auction (unless the CVRs are distributed prior to the closing of the transaction), subject to certain reductions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We refer to the cash consideration, the stock consideration and the CVR, collectively, as the merger consideration. There can be no assurance that any payment will be made under the CVRs, or the amount or timing of any such payment. Any amounts to be received in connection with the CVRs, and the timing of any payments of any such amounts, are contingent upon the occurrence of certain events which may or may not occur, and which may be outside the control of Nexstar and Media General. There may be no cash consideration ultimately paid in respect of the CVRs. The CVRs will be non-transferable and, accordingly, will not be listed on any securities exchange. Under certain circumstances, including the completion of the FCC auction prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs may be distributed prior to the closing of the transaction. Also, the tax consequences arising from the receipt and ownership of the CVRs are uncertain. See Chapter One: The Transaction Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

Following the closing of the transaction, Nexstar will be renamed Nexstar Media Group, Inc., which we refer to as Nexstar Media Group or the combined company. No vote of Nexstar shareholders or Media General shareholders is required to change Nexstar's name under applicable law, nor is any vote being requested.

Table of Contents

We expect that, following the closing of the transaction, the current shareholders of Nexstar, which we refer to as the Nexstar shareholders, will hold approximately 66%, and the former shareholders of Media General, which we refer to as the Media General shareholders, will hold approximately 34%, of the combined company's outstanding shares.

Q: What happened to the proposed combination between Media General and Meredith Corporation, which was announced on September 7, 2015?

A: On January 27, 2016, prior to entering into the merger agreement, Media General and Meredith Corporation, which we refer to as Meredith, terminated the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 7, 2015, by and among Media General, Montage New Holdco, Inc., Montage Merger Sub 1, Inc., Montage Merger Sub 2, Inc. and Meredith, which we refer to as the Meredith merger agreement. Simultaneously with the termination of the Meredith merger agreement, and in accordance with the terms thereof, Media General paid to Meredith a termination fee of $60 million and provided Meredith with the opportunity to negotiate for the purchase of certain broadcast and digital assets owned by Media General.

Accordingly, the proposed combination between Media General and Meredith will not occur, and Media General shareholders will not be asked to vote on such transaction. Neither Media General nor Nexstar owes any further obligation to Meredith with regards to the Meredith merger agreement.

Q: Why am I receiving this document?

A: In order to complete the transaction, Media General shareholders must approve the merger agreement and the related plan of merger. Furthermore, under the rules of the NASDAQ Global Select Market, which we refer to as the NASDAQ, Nexstar shareholders must approve the issuance of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01, of Nexstar Broadcasting Group, Inc., which we refer to as Nexstar Class A common stock, as contemplated by the merger agreement. Nexstar will hold an annual meeting of its shareholders and Media General will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to obtain these approvals. At the Nexstar annual meeting, Nexstar shareholders will also be asked to vote on the election of Class I directors and on the ratification of the selection of Nexstar's independent registered public accounting firm, which we refer to as the Other Annual Meeting Matters. We are sending you these materials to help you decide how to vote your shares with respect to the matters to be considered at Nexstar annual meeting and the Media General special meeting. This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the transaction, including the Nexstar annual meeting and the Media General special meeting. You should read it carefully and in its entirety. The enclosed proxy or voting instruction cards allow you to authorize the voting of your shares without attending either the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting.

Your vote is important. We encourage you to submit a proxy or voting instructions as soon as possible.

Q: What will Media General shareholders receive in the merger?

A:

In the merger, each share of Media General common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held by any Media General subsidiary, Nexstar, or any Nexstar subsidiary) will be converted into the right to receive (i) the cash consideration, (ii) the stock consideration and (iii) one non-transferable CVR (unless the CVRs are distributed prior to the closing of the transaction). The cash consideration and the stock consideration are fixed amounts and do not increase or decrease based upon the proceeds (if any) from the disposition of either Nexstar's or Media General's spectrum in the FCC auction. There can be no assurance that any payment will be made under the CVRs, or the amount or timing of any such payment. Any amounts to be received in connection with the CVRs, and the timing of any payments of any such amounts, are contingent upon the occurrence of certain events which may or may not occur, and which may be outside the control of Nexstar and Media General. There may be no cash consideration ultimately paid in respect of the CVRs. The CVRs will be non-transferable and, accordingly, will not be listed on any securities exchange. Under certain circumstances, including the completion of the FCC auction prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs may be distributed prior to the closing of the transaction. Also, the tax consequences arising from the receipt and ownership of the CVRs are uncertain. See Chapter One: The Transaction Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 149.

No fractional shares of Nexstar Class A common stock will be issued in the merger, and Media General shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares.

Based on the closing price of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock on the NASDAQ on January 26, 2016, the last trading day before the public announcement of the merger agreement, the merger consideration, excluding any value attributable to the CVRs, represented approximately $16.69 per share of Media General common stock.

Q. What are the CVRs?

A: The CVRs are non-transferable contingent value rights that will be issued as part of the merger consideration. Under the merger agreement, holders of Media General common stock and stock options and other stock-based awards have the right to receive one CVR for each share of Media General common stock, stock option or other stock-based award held by such person. Each CVR will entitle its holder to receive a pro rata share of the net proceeds (if any) from the disposition of Media General's spectrum in the FCC auction, which we refer to as the Media General Auction Proceeds, subject to reduction pursuant to the formula described in Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the CVR Agreement beginning on page 174. This formula is designed to take into account the fact that former Media General shareholders will receive Nexstar Class A common stock as part of the merger consideration, and as shareholders of Nexstar will obtain economic benefits from the net proceeds (if any) from the disposition of Nexstar's spectrum in the FCC auction. As a result, the aggregate cash amount payable under the CVRs may be less than the full amount of the Media General Auction Proceeds.

The CVRs may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged, or encumbered in any manner, subject to limited exceptions, that include transfers by will or intestacy, by inter vivos, or pursuant to a court order.

There can be no assurance that any payment will be made under the CVRs, or the amount or timing of any such payment. Any amounts to be received in connection with the CVRs, and the timing of any payments of any such amounts, are contingent upon the occurrence of certain events which may or may not occur, and which may be outside the control of Nexstar and Media General. There may be no cash consideration ultimately paid in respect of the CVRs. The CVRs will be non-transferable and, accordingly, will not be listed on any securities exchange. Under certain circumstances, including the completion of the FCC auction prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs may be distributed prior to the closing of the transaction. Also, the tax consequences arising from the receipt and ownership of the CVRs are uncertain. See Chapter One: The Transaction Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 149.

See also Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the CVR Agreement beginning on page 174 for more detail. The form of CVR agreement is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Nexstar and Media General encourage you to read the entire form of CVR agreement carefully because it is the principal document governing the CVRs.

Q. What is the FCC auction? What is the likely timing?

A: The FCC auction is a one-time, voluntary auction administered by the Federal Communications Commission, which we refer to as the FCC, to reallocate broadcast television spectrum for wireless use. Television broadcast licensees will have the opportunity to accept bids to receive compensation for relinquishing the spectrum that they use for their over-the-air broadcasts. Broadcasters that accept a successful bid to relinquish their spectrum usage rights will need to cease over-the-air broadcasting using that spectrum on their existing channel (although they still may distribute content by other means, such as direct-to-cable, by sharing a channel with another station, or by moving to a high or low VHF channel). The FCC may move any remaining television stations that do not relinquish their spectrum usage rights in the FCC auction to a different channel, although such stations would retain must-carry rights on cable and satellite systems.

The FCC auction began, as scheduled, on March 29, 2016. A number of variables will affect the length of the FCC auction, which most likely will conclude no earlier than September 2016. Under regulations announced by the FCC in connection with the FCC auction, we expect that, absent a waiver from the FCC, the closing of the transaction cannot occur prior to the completion of the FCC auction.

Q. What will be the treatment of options and other equity awards?

A: The merger agreement provides that each unvested Media General stock option outstanding immediately prior to the merger will become fully vested and will be converted into an option to purchase Nexstar Class A common stock, in the same amount and at the same price as provided in the underlying Media General stock option, adjusted to account for the cash consideration and the exchange ratio for the stock consideration. All other stock-based awards of Media General outstanding immediately prior to the merger will vest in full and be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement. In the event CVRs are distributed prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs to be distributed to holders of Media General stock options and other stock-based awards may be withheld by Media General at the time of distribution. In that case, the CVRs will be distributed to such holders prior to, or in connection with, the closing of the transaction, together with any amounts that would have been distributed in respect of such CVRs had such CVRs been distributed to such holders at the time the CVRs were distributed to holders of Media General common stock.

Q: When do you expect the transaction to be completed?

A: The transaction is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2016. However, the closing of the transaction is subject to various conditions, including the approval of the Nexstar share issuance proposal (defined below) by Nexstar shareholders and approval of the Media General merger proposal (defined below) by Media General shareholders, as well as required regulatory and other third-party consents and approvals. No assurance can be provided as to when or if the transaction will be completed, and it is possible that factors outside the control of Nexstar and Media General could result in the transaction being completed at a later time, or not at all. See Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Efforts to Consummate the Transaction beginning on page 168 and Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Conditions to the Transaction beginning on page 170.

Q: Will current Nexstar shareholders be affected by the transaction?

A:

Upon the closing of the transaction, each Nexstar shareholder will continue to hold the same number of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock that such shareholder held immediately prior to closing of the transaction. However, because, in connection with the merger, Nexstar will be issuing shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to Media General shareholders in exchange for their shares of Media General common stock, each share of Nexstar Class A common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger will represent a smaller percentage of the aggregate number of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock outstanding after the merger.

Q: When and where will the meetings be held?

A: The Nexstar annual meeting will be held at 545 E. John Carpenter Freeway, Suite 120, Irving, TX 75062, on June 8, 2016 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

Table of Contents

The Media General special meeting will be held at 375 Park Avenue, 36th Floor, New York, NY 10152 on June 8, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. local time.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for each meeting?

A: Holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Nexstar Class A common stock, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the Nexstar annual meeting. The shares of Nexstar Class A common stock held by a shareholder present in person at the Nexstar annual meeting, but not voting, shares of Nexstar Class A common stock for which Nexstar has received proxies indicating that the holders thereof have abstained, and shares for which a broker or other nominee does not receive voting instructions or broker non-votes, will be counted as present at the Nexstar annual meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum is established. Holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Media General voting common stock, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the Media General special meeting. The shares of Media General voting common stock held by a shareholder present in person at the Media General special meeting, but not voting, and shares of Media General voting common stock for which Media General has received proxies indicating that the holders thereof have abstained will be counted as present at the Media General special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum is established. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposals to be considered at the Media General special meeting.

Q: What are the proposals on which the holders of Nexstar Class A common stock are being asked to vote and what is the recommendation of the board of directors of Nexstar with respect to each proposal?

A: At the Nexstar annual meeting, the holders of Nexstar Class A common stock are being asked to:

1. consider and vote on a proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock as contemplated by the merger agreement, which we refer to as the Nexstar share issuance proposal ;
2. consider and vote on a proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the Nexstar annual meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the Nexstar share issuance proposal, which we refer to as the Nexstar adjournment proposal ;
3. elect directors to serve as Class I directors for a term of three years, which we refer to as the Nexstar election proposal ;
4. ratify the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as Nexstar's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2016, which we refer to as the Nexstar ratification proposal ; and
5. transact any other business which may properly come before the Nexstar annual meeting.

The board of directors of Nexstar unanimously recommends a vote FOR the Nexstar share issuance proposal, FOR the Nexstar election proposal and FOR each of the other proposals referred to above and described in more detail in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Nexstar does not expect any other business to be conducted at the Nexstar annual meeting.

- A:
1. To be approved at the Nexstar annual meeting, the Nexstar share issuance proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all votes cast by holders of Nexstar Class A common stock (assuming a quorum is present at the Nexstar annual meeting). Under NASDAQ rules, abstentions will be considered as votes cast and, accordingly, will have the same effect as votes AGAINST the Nexstar share issuance proposal. Shares not present at the Nexstar annual meeting and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the Nexstar share issuance proposal.
 2. To be approved at the Nexstar annual meeting, the Nexstar adjournment proposal (if necessary or appropriate) requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock represented at the Nexstar annual meeting (whether or not a quorum is present at the Nexstar annual meeting). If your shares of Nexstar Class A common stock are present at the special meeting but are not voted on the adjournment proposal, or if you vote to abstain on the adjournment proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the Nexstar adjournment proposal. Shares not present at the Nexstar annual meeting and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the Nexstar adjournment proposal.

3. To be approved at the Nexstar annual meeting, the Nexstar election proposal requires a plurality of the votes of holders of Nexstar Class A common stock cast, and votes may be cast in favor of the nominees or withheld (assuming a quorum is present at the Nexstar annual meeting). Accordingly, the nominee who receives the greatest number of votes for election to a director position will be elected. Abstentions, shares not present at the Nexstar annual meeting and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the Nexstar election proposal.

4. To be approved at the Nexstar annual meeting, the Nexstar ratification proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all votes cast by holders of Nexstar Class A common stock (assuming a quorum is present at the Nexstar annual meeting). Abstentions will have the same effect as votes AGAINST the Nexstar ratification proposal. Shares not present at the Nexstar annual meeting and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the Nexstar ratification proposal.

Q: Will the holders of Nexstar Class A common stock be asked to vote on the Nexstar share issuance proposal at the Nexstar annual meeting if the Nexstar board of directors has changed its recommendation of such proposal?

A: Yes. Nexstar will notify its shareholders before the Nexstar annual meeting if the board of directors of Nexstar has changed its recommendation with respect to the Nexstar share issuance proposal. Despite any such change of recommendation, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Nexstar shareholders will be asked to vote on such proposal at the Nexstar annual meeting unless the merger agreement has otherwise been terminated in accordance with its terms.

Q: What are the proposals on which Media General shareholders are being asked to vote and what is the recommendation of the Media General board of directors with respect to each proposal?

A: At the Media General special meeting, the holders of Media General voting common stock are being asked to:

1. consider and vote on a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the related plan of merger, which are attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and Annex G, respectively, and which we refer to as the Media General merger proposal ;
2. consider and vote on a proposal to approve, on a non-binding and advisory basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Media General's named executive officers in connection with the transaction, which we refer to as the Media General compensation proposal. See Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Interests of Media General's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction beginning on page 138 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus; and

3. consider and vote on a proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the Media General special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the Media General merger proposal, which we refer to as the Media General adjournment proposal.

The board of directors of Media General unanimously recommends a vote FOR the Media General merger proposal, FOR the Media General compensation proposal and FOR the Media General adjournment proposal, each described in more detail in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Media General does not expect any other business to be conducted at the Media General special meeting.

Q: What vote is required to approve the proposals being presented at the Media General special meeting?

- A: 1. To be approved at the Media General special meeting, the Media General merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all votes cast by holders of shares of Media General voting common stock (assuming a quorum is present at the Media General special meeting). Shares not present at the Media General special meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the Media General merger proposal.
2. To be approved at the Media General special meeting, the Media General compensation proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all votes cast by holders of shares of Media General voting common stock (assuming a quorum is present at the Media General special meeting). Shares not present at the Media General special meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the Media General compensation proposal.
3. To be approved at the Media General special meeting, the Media General adjournment proposal (if necessary or appropriate) requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all votes cast by holders of shares of Media General voting common stock (whether or not a quorum is present at the Media General special meeting). Shares not present at the Media General special meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes, will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the Media General adjournment proposal.

Q: What is the effect if the Nexstar share issuance proposal and/or the Media General merger proposal are not approved at the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting?

- A: If the Nexstar share issuance proposal is not approved by the requisite vote at the Nexstar annual meeting or any adjournment thereof, and/or if the Media General merger proposal is not approved by the requisite vote at the Media General special meeting or any adjournment thereof, then the transaction will not occur. Instead, Nexstar and Media General would each remain an independent public company, and the merger consideration to be received by Media General shareholders would not be paid. Each of Nexstar and Media General have the right to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances, including failure to obtain the required shareholder votes. Upon a termination for failure of either party to obtain a required vote, the party whose shareholders did not approve the applicable proposal at the meeting of its shareholders will be required to pay to the other party a termination fee in the amount of $20 million, which termination fee would increase to $80 million (inclusive of the $20 million fee) if, following termination of the merger agreement, certain events occur. For example, if a third-party makes a public proposal for Media General which is not withdrawn prior to the Media General special meeting and Media General shareholders do not approve the Media General merger proposal and the merger agreement is subsequently terminated, then Media General would be required to pay Nexstar a termination fee of $80 million (inclusive of the $20 million fee) if Media General enters into an alternative transaction within one year of such termination and such alternative transaction is subsequently consummated.

Q: Why are Media General shareholders being asked to consider and vote on the Media General compensation proposal?

A:

Under SEC rules, Media General is required to seek a non-binding, advisory vote with respect to the compensation that may be paid or become payable to its named executive officers in connection with the transaction.

Q: What will happen if Media General shareholders do not approve the Media General compensation proposal?

A: Approval of the Media General compensation proposal is not a condition to closing of the transaction. Accordingly, Media General shareholders may vote against the Media General compensation proposal and vote in favor of the Media General merger proposal. The compensation proposal vote is an advisory vote and will not be binding on Media General. If the transaction is completed, the compensation described in the Media General compensation proposal will be paid to Media General's named executive officers to the extent payable in accordance with the terms of their compensation agreements and contractual arrangements even if Media General shareholders do not approve the Media General compensation proposal.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the Nexstar annual meeting and the Media General special meeting?

Q: What if my broker, bank or other nominee holds my shares in street name ?

A: If a broker, bank or other nominee holds your shares for your benefit but not in your own name, such shares are in street name. In that case, your broker, bank or other nominee will send you a voting instruction form to use in order to instruct the vote of your shares. The availability of telephone and Internet voting depends on the voting procedures of your broker, bank or other nominee. Brokers, banks or other nominees will not have discretionary authority on any matter at the Media General special meeting, and thus will not vote on any matter at the Media General special meeting without having received a properly completed voting instruction form. Brokers, banks or other nominees will not have discretionary authority on the Nexstar share issuance proposal, the Nexstar adjournment proposal or the Nexstar election proposal, and thus will not vote on such matters at the Nexstar annual meeting without have received a properly completed voting instruction form. However, if you are a beneficial owner of Nexstar Class A common stock whose shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee, your broker, bank or other nominee will have discretionary voting authority under NASDAQ rules to vote your shares on the Nexstar ratification proposal, even if the broker, bank or other nominee does not receive voting instructions from you. Please follow the instructions on the voting instruction form they send you.

If your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee and you wish to attend or vote in person at the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting, you must contact your broker, bank or other nominee and request a document called a legal proxy. You must bring this legal proxy to the meeting in order to vote in person. Your broker, bank or other nominee will not vote your shares unless you provide instructions on how to vote.

Q: Do the holders of Media General non-voting common stock have the right to vote on the proposals?

A: No. In addition, there are no shares of Media General non-voting common stock currently outstanding.

Q: What do I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

A: You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your shares in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. If you are a holder of record and your shares are held in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. You may also receive multiple copies of this joint proxy statement/prospectus if you are a shareholder of both Nexstar and Media General. Please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card and voting instructions you receive, or submit each proxy or voting instruction by telephone or Internet by following the instructions on your proxy cards or the voting instruction.

Q: How will my proxy be voted?

- A: If you submit a proxy or voting instructions by completing, signing, dating and mailing your proxy card, or over the Internet or by telephone, your shares will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you are a shareholder of record as of the applicable Nexstar record date or Media General record date and you sign, date, and return your proxy card but do not indicate how you want to vote on any particular proposal and do not indicate that you wish to abstain with respect to that proposal, the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock represented by your proxy will be voted as recommended by the Nexstar board of directors with respect to that proposal or the shares of Media General voting common stock represented by your proxy will be voted as recommended by the Media General board of directors with respect to that proposal. However, this would not apply if you sign, date and return your proxy card and indicate that you vote against the

Nexstar share issuance proposal, but do not indicate how you want to vote on the Nexstar adjournment proposal. In that case, the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock represented by your proxy will not be voted in favor of the Nexstar adjournment proposal. Similarly, if you sign, date and return your proxy card and indicate that you vote against the Media General merger proposal, but do not indicate how you want to vote on the Media General adjournment proposal or the Media General compensation proposal, the shares of Media General voting common stock represented by your proxy will not be voted in favor of the Media General adjournment proposal or the Media General compensation proposal. If you are a beneficial owner, your broker, bank or other nominee will vote your shares on each of the Nexstar share issuance proposal, the Nexstar adjournment proposal and the Nexstar election proposal only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voting instruction form sent to you by your broker, bank or other nominee with this joint proxy statement/prospectus. If you are a beneficial owner of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock whose shares are held of record by a broker, your broker will have discretionary voting authority under NASDAQ rules to vote your shares on the Nexstar ratification proposal, even if the broker does not receive voting instructions from you. If you are a beneficial owner, your broker, bank or other nominee will vote your shares on each of the Media General merger proposal and the Media General compensation proposal only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voting instruction form sent to you by your broker, bank or other nominee with this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: *What if I mark abstain when voting or do not vote on the proposals?

A: If you fail to vote in person or by proxy any shares for which you are the record owner as of the applicable Nexstar record date or Media General record date or fail to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote the shares you hold in street name (unless you are a beneficial owner of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock whose shares are held of record by a broker, which broker will have discretionary voting authority under NASDAQ rules to vote your shares on the Nexstar ratification proposal), your shares will not be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at either the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting. If you mark abstain when voting, your shares will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting.

If you are a Nexstar shareholder and abstain from voting on the Nexstar share issuance proposal, the Nexstar adjournment proposal or the Nexstar ratification proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST each such proposal. Abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the Nexstar election proposal.

If you are a Media General shareholder and abstain from voting on the Media General merger proposal, the Media General compensation proposal or the Media General adjournment proposal, it will have no effect on the outcome of each such proposal.

Q: Can I revoke or change my vote after I have submitted a proxy or voting instruction card?

A: Yes. If you are a holder of record of Nexstar Class A common stock or Media General voting common stock, you can change your vote in one of three ways:

you can send a signed notice of revocation, which must be received prior to the beginning of the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting, to the Secretary of Nexstar or the Secretary of Media General, as appropriate;

you can submit a revised proxy bearing a later date by mail, over the Internet or by telephone as described above, which revised proxy must be received prior to the deadlines set forth above for each method of voting; or you can attend the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting and vote in person, which will automatically cancel any proxy previously given, though your attendance alone will not revoke any proxy that you have previously given.

Table of Contents

If you are a beneficial owner of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock or Media General voting common stock held in street name, you must contact your broker, bank or other nominee to change your vote or obtain a written legal proxy to vote your shares if you wish to cast your vote in person at the applicable meeting.

Q: If I am a Media General shareholder, should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Media General shareholders should not send in their certificates representing Media General voting common stock at this time. After closing of the transaction, Nexstar's exchange agent will send you a letter of transmittal informing you how to receive the merger consideration. See Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Exchange of Shares beginning on page 144.

Q: Are there any risks that I should consider?

A: Yes. There are risks associated with all business combinations, including the transaction. There are also risks associated with the business of the combined company after closing of the transaction, the ownership of Nexstar Class A common stock and the ownership of the CVRs. We have described certain of these risks in more detail under Risk Factors beginning on page 40. You also should read and carefully consider the risk factors relating to Nexstar and Media General contained in the documents that are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including Nexstar's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 and Media General's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015. See Chapter Three: Additional Information Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference beginning on page 40.

Q: Are Nexstar or Media General shareholders entitled to appraisal rights?

A: Nexstar shareholders are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the transaction under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, which we refer to as the DGCL, in connection with the merger. Under Virginia law, appraisal rights will be available to the holders of Media General voting common stock in connection with the merger unless the CVRs are distributed prior to the closing of the transaction, in which event appraisal rights will not be available to the holders of Media General voting common stock. If the CVRs are not distributed to the holders of Media General voting common stock prior to the closing of the transaction, the holders of Media General voting common stock will be entitled to assert appraisal rights in connection with the merger and seek an appraisal of the fair value of his, her or its shares, provided the proper procedures set forth in Article 15 of Section 13.1 of the VSCA are followed. In addition, in the event any Media General voting common stock is converted to Media General non-voting common stock prior to the Media General special meeting, holders of Media General non-voting common stock so converted will be entitled to assert appraisal rights in connection with the merger and seek an appraisal of the fair value of his, her or its shares, provided the proper procedures set forth in Article 15 of the VSCA, are followed. See Chapter One: The Transaction Appraisal Rights beginning on page 179, as well as Article 15 of Section 13.1 of the VSCA which is attached as Appendix H to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to a holder of Media General common stock?

A: In general, the receipt of the merger consideration is intended to be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The amount of gain or loss recognized by a Media General shareholder, and the timing of such gain or loss, will depend in part on the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the CVRs, which is uncertain. For a more detailed summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see Chapter One: The Transaction – Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger – beginning on page 149.

Media General shareholders should also consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the merger (including the application and effect of any U.S. federal estate, gift and other non-income tax laws and tax consequences under state, local or non-U.S. tax laws).

Q: What happens if I sell my shares after the applicable Nexstar record date or Media General record date but before the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting?

A: If you transfer your shares of Nexstar Class A common stock or Media General voting common stock after the Nexstar record date or Media General record date but before the date of the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting, as applicable, you will retain your right to vote at the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting, as applicable, but, if you are a Media General shareholder, you will not have the right to receive the merger consideration with respect to the shares that were transferred. If you are a Media General shareholder, you must hold your shares through closing of the transaction in order to receive the merger consideration.

Q: What are the conditions to the closing of the transaction?

A: In addition to approval of the Nexstar share issuance proposal and the Media General merger proposal as described above, closing of the transaction is subject to the satisfaction a number of other conditions, including:

the expiration or early termination of the waiting period applicable to the transaction under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended;

the grant by the FCC of its consent to the transfer of control of the broadcast licensee subsidiaries of Media General to Nexstar, and the assignment of licenses for two full power and two low power television stations from a subsidiary of Media General to a subsidiary of Nexstar in connection with the transaction;

the absence of any order or injunction in effect issued by a U.S. federal or state court of competent jurisdiction preventing the consummation of the transaction;

the effectiveness of a registration statement on Form S-4 registering the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued to Media General shareholders in connection with the transaction and absence of any stop order related thereto;

the listing on the NASDAQ of the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued to Media General shareholders in the merger, subject to official notice of issuance;

the receipt of third-party consents under certain of Nexstar's and Media General's material contracts;

the accuracy of each party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement (generally subject to a material adverse effect standard);

no material adverse effect with respect to the other party has occurred since the date of the merger agreement;

the performance in all material respects by each party of all obligations required to be performed by it under the merger agreement; and the execution and delivery of the CVR agreement by Nexstar.

Additionally, under regulations announced by the FCC in connection with the FCC auction, we expect that, absent a waiver from the FCC, the closing of the transaction cannot occur prior to the completion of the FCC auction.

Table of ContentsMedia General, Inc.

Media General, Inc., a Virginia corporation founded in 1850 as a newspaper company in Richmond, Virginia, is a leading local television broadcasting and digital media company, providing top-rated news, information and entertainment in high quality broadcast markets across the U.S. Media General owns and operates or provides services to 71 network-affiliated broadcast television stations, and their associated digital media and mobile platforms, in 48 markets. These stations reach approximately 23% of U.S. TV households. Media General's primary network affiliations include CBS (23), NBC (13), ABC (8), Fox (8), MyNetwork TV (7) and CW Television (8). Fifty of the 71 stations are located in the top 100 designated market areas, which we refer to as DMAs, as grouped by Nielsen Media Research, which we refer to as Nielsen, while 27 of the 71 stations are located in the top 50 DMAs. Media General first entered the local television business in 1955, when Media General launched WFLA in Tampa, Florida as an NBC affiliate. Subsequently, Media General expanded its station portfolio through several acquisitions, first by purchasing high-quality, privately owned stations in the Southeast and later by purchasing four NBC-owned affiliates in 2006.

Since 2013, Media General has been a pure-play broadcaster, following a rapid and complete transformation of the company, which included the sale of its newspapers, the sale or exit of certain advertising services businesses and the sale of a broadcast equipment company. On November 12, 2013, Media General and New Young Broadcasting Holding Co., Inc., which we refer to as Young, were combined in an all-stock, tax-free merger transaction, which we refer to as the Young merger. On December 19, 2014, Media General and LIN Media LLC, which we refer to as LIN Media or LIN, were combined in a business combination transaction, which we refer to as the LIN merger.

Media General's voting common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, which we refer to as NYSE, under the trading symbol MEG. Media General's principal executive office is located at 333 E. Franklin Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219 (telephone number: (804) 887-5000).

This joint proxy statement/prospectus incorporates important business and financial information about Media General from other documents that are not included in or delivered with this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For a list of the documents that are incorporated by reference, see Chapter Three: Additional Information Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference beginning on page 226.

Neptune Merger Sub, Inc.

Neptune Merger Sub, Inc., a Virginia corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Nexstar, was formed solely for the purpose of consummating the merger of Neptune with and into Media General, as provided for in the merger agreement. Neptune has not carried on any activities to date, except for activities incidental to its formation and activities undertaken in connection with the transaction.

Neptune's office is located at Bank of America Center, 16th Floor, 1111 E. Main Street, Richmond, VA 23219.

The Transaction (Page 68)

On January 27, 2016, Nexstar entered into a merger agreement with Media General and Neptune, pursuant to which Neptune will merge with and into Media General, with Media General surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Nexstar.

In the merger, each share of Media General common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held by any Media General subsidiary, Nexstar, or any Nexstar subsidiary) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $10.55 in cash, without interest, which we refer to as the cash consideration, (ii) 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock, which we refer to as the stock consideration, and (iii) one non-transferable CVR relating to the net proceeds (if any) from the sale of Media General's spectrum in the FCC auction (unless the CVRs are distributed prior to the closing of the transaction), subject to certain reductions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The cash consideration and the stock consideration are fixed amounts and do not increase or decrease based upon the proceeds (if any) from the disposition of either Nexstar's or Media General's spectrum in the FCC auction. We refer to the cash consideration, the stock consideration and the CVR, collectively, as the merger consideration.

No fractional shares of Nexstar Class A common stock will be issued in the merger, and Media General shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares.

Under the merger agreement, holders of Media General common stock, stock options and other stock-based awards have the right to receive one CVR for each share of Media General common stock, stock option or other stock-based award held by such person. Each CVR will entitle its holder to receive a pro rata share of the net proceeds (if any) from the disposition of Media General's spectrum in the FCC auction, which we refer to as the Media General Auction Proceeds, subject to reduction pursuant to the formula described in Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the CVR Agreement beginning on page 174. This formula is designed to take into account the fact that former Media General shareholders will receive Nexstar Class A common stock as part of the merger consideration, and as shareholders of Nexstar will obtain economic benefits from the net proceeds (if any) from the disposition of Nexstar's spectrum in the FCC auction. As a result, the aggregate cash amount payable under the CVRs may be less than the full amount of the Media General Auction Proceeds. There can be no assurance that any payment will be made under the CVRs, or the amount or timing of any such payment. Any amounts to be received in connection with the CVRs, and the timing of any payments of any such amounts, are contingent upon the occurrence of certain events which may or may not occur, and which may be outside the control of Nexstar and Media General. There may be no cash consideration ultimately paid in respect of the CVRs. The CVRs will be non-transferable and, accordingly, will not be listed on any securities exchange. Under certain circumstances, including the completion of the FCC auction prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs may be distributed prior to the closing of the transaction. Also, the tax consequences arising from the receipt and ownership of the CVRs are uncertain. See Chapter One: The Transaction Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 149.

The merger agreement also provides that each unvested Media General stock option outstanding immediately prior to the merger will become fully vested and will be converted into an option to purchase Nexstar Class A common stock, in the same amount and at the same price as provided in the underlying Media General stock option, adjusted to account for the cash consideration and the exchange ratio for the stock consideration. All other stock-based awards of Media General outstanding immediately prior to the merger will vest in full and be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement. In the event CVRs are distributed prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs to be distributed to holders of Media General stock options and other stock-based awards may be withheld by Media General at the time of distribution. In that case, the CVRs will be distributed to such holders prior to, or in connection with, the closing of the transaction, together with any amounts that would have been distributed in respect of such CVRs had such CVRs been distributed to such holders at the time the CVRs were distributed to holders of Media General common stock.

Following the closing of the transaction, Nexstar will be renamed Nexstar Media Group. No vote of Nexstar shareholders or Media General shareholders is required to change Nexstar's name under applicable law, nor is any vote being requested.

Nexstar and Media General both own television stations in the following markets: (i) Davenport, Iowa-Rock Island-Moline, Illinois; (ii) Fort Wayne, Indiana; (iii) Green Bay-Appleton, Wisconsin; (iv) Lafayette, Louisiana; (v) Roanoke-Lynchburg, Virginia; and (vi) Terre Haute, Indiana. Additionally, Media General owns multiple stations currently rated among the top four stations in the Albuquerque-Santa Fe, New Mexico market. We refer to these seven markets as the Overlap Markets. In order to comply with FCC's local television ownership rule and obtain clearance under The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, which we refer to as the HSR Act, necessary to consummate the transactions, Nexstar and Media General have agreed in the merger agreement to divest a television station in each of these Overlap Markets. At this time, neither Nexstar nor Media General has entered into any agreement to sell any of the television stations in the Overlap Markets. In addition, Nexstar and Media General have also agreed in the merger agreement to divest certain additional television stations in order to comply with the FCC's national television ownership rule. Media General and Nexstar expect to identify qualified buyers, enter into sale agreements on acceptable terms, and file any necessary FCC assignment or transfer applications as soon as practicable.

Termination of the Transaction with Meredith

On January 27, 2016, prior to entering into the merger agreement, Media General and Meredith terminated the Meredith merger agreement. Simultaneously with the termination of the Meredith merger agreement, and in accordance with the terms thereof, Media General paid to Meredith a termination fee of $60 million and agreed to provide Meredith with the opportunity to negotiate for the purchase of certain broadcast and digital assets owned by Media General. As a result, the related debt commitment letter previously entered into by Media General in connection with the financing for such merger was automatically terminated in accordance with its terms. Accordingly, the proposed combination between Media General and Meredith will not occur, and Media General shareholders will not be asked to vote on such transaction.

Nexstar's board of directors has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger and the issuance of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to Media General shareholders in the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of Nexstar and its shareholders, and approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger and the issuance of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to Media General shareholders in the merger and the related transaction agreements and documents. The board of directors of Nexstar recommends that holders of Nexstar Class A common stock vote FOR the Nexstar share issuance proposal.

The Nexstar board of directors considered a number of factors in making its determination that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger and the issuance of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to Media General shareholders in the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of Nexstar and its shareholders. For a more complete discussion of these factors, see Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Nexstar's Reasons for the Transaction and Recommendation of Nexstar's Board of Directors beginning on page 90.

In connection with the merger, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, which we refer to as BofA Merrill Lynch, Nexstar's financial advisor, delivered to Nexstar's board of directors a written opinion, dated January 26, 2016, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the merger consideration to be paid by Nexstar in the merger. The full text of the written opinion, dated January 26, 2016, of BofA Merrill Lynch, which describes, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex D to this document and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. BofA Merrill Lynch provided its opinion to Nexstar's board of directors (in its capacity as such) for the benefit and use of Nexstar's board of directors in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the merger consideration from a financial point of view. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion does not address any other aspect of the merger and no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the merger in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Nexstar or in which Nexstar might engage or as to the underlying business decision of Nexstar to proceed with or effect the merger. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion does not address any other aspect of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how to vote or act in connection with the proposed merger or any related matter.

Opinions of Media General's Financial Advisors (Page 108)Opinion of RBC Capital Markets, LLC

In connection with the merger, Media General's financial advisor, RBC Capital Markets, LLC, which we refer to as RBC Capital Markets, delivered a written opinion, dated January 26, 2016, to Media General's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of such date, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of Media General voting common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. RBC Capital Markets' opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of such opinion, of the merger consideration (to the extent expressly specified in such opinion), without regard to individual circumstances of specific holders that may distinguish such holders or the securities of Media General held by such holders, and did not address any other aspect of the merger or any related transactions. RBC Capital Markets' opinion also did not address the underlying business decision of Media General to engage in the merger or related transactions or the relative merits of the merger or related transactions compared to any alternative business strategy or transaction that might be available to Media General or in which Media General might engage. make any recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to any proposal to be voted upon in connection with the merger, any related transactions or otherwise.

Opinion of Goldman, Sachs & Co.

Goldman, Sachs & Co., which we refer to as Goldman Sachs, delivered its opinion to Media General's board of directors that, as of January 27, 2016 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the merger consideration to be paid to holders (other than Nexstar and its affiliates) of shares of Media General common stock, taken in the aggregate, pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated January 27, 2016, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex F to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of Media General's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the transaction. The Goldman Sachs opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of Media General common stock should vote with respect to the transaction or any other matter.

Key Terms of the Merger Agreement (Page 153)

Conditions to the Closing of the Transaction

As more fully described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and as set forth in the merger agreement, the closing of the transaction depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or waived. These conditions include:

receipt of Nexstar shareholder approval of the Nexstar share issuance proposal;

receipt of Media General shareholder approval of the Media General merger proposal;

the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act;

the grant by the FCC of its consent to the transfer of control of the broadcast licensee subsidiaries of Media General to Nexstar, and the assignment of licenses for two full power and two low power television stations from a subsidiary of Media General to a subsidiary of Nexstar in connection with the transaction;

the absence of any order or injunction in effect issued by a U.S. federal or state court of competent jurisdiction preventing the consummation of the transaction;

the effectiveness of a registration statement on Form S-4 registering the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued to Media General shareholders in connection with the transaction and the absence of any stop order related thereto;

the listing on the NASDAQ of the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued to Media General shareholders in the merger, subject to official notice of issuance;

the receipt of third-party consents under certain of Nexstar's and Media General's material contracts;

the accuracy of each party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement (generally subject to a material adverse effect standard);

no material adverse effect with respect to the other party has occurred since the date of the merger agreement;

the performance in all material respects by each party of all obligations required to be performed by it under the merger agreement; and

Additionally, under regulations announced by the FCC in connection with the FCC auction, we expect that, absent a waiver from the FCC, the closing of the transaction cannot occur prior to the completion of the FCC auction.

Approval of the Other Annual Meeting Matters at the Nexstar annual meeting and the Media General compensation proposal at the Media General special meeting are not conditions to the closing of the transaction.

If permitted under applicable law, either of Nexstar or Media General may waive a condition for its own respective benefit and consummate the transaction even though one or more of these conditions has not been satisfied. Nexstar and Media General cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger agreement will be satisfied or waived, or when or whether the transaction will be completed.

No Solicitation

As more fully described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and as set forth in the merger agreement, Nexstar and Media General have agreed, among other things:

not to solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate alternative acquisition proposals from third parties; and subject to certain exceptions, not to engage in any discussions or negotiations with any third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals.

Prior to the time that Nexstar receives shareholder approval of the Nexstar share issuance proposal:

the Nexstar board of directors may, upon receipt of a bona fide unsolicited acquisition proposal, contact the person making such proposal to clarify the terms and conditions and if the Nexstar board of directors determines that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior offer and that the failure to take certain actions would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Nexstar board of directors' fiduciary duties to Nexstar shareholders under applicable law, then Nexstar may furnish information with respect to Nexstar and its subsidiaries to the person making the proposal and participate in discussions or negotiations with such person; and the Nexstar board of directors may change its recommendation to Nexstar shareholders regarding approval of the transaction in response to an intervening event or a superior offer if the Nexstar board of directors determines that the failure to do so would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to Nexstar shareholders under applicable law, subject in each case to customary notice and matching rights in favor of Media General.

Prior to the time that Media General receives shareholder approval of the Media General merger proposal:

the Media General board of directors may, upon receipt of a bona fide unsolicited acquisition proposal, contact the person making such proposal to clarify the terms and conditions and if the Media General board of directors determines that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior offer and that the failure to take certain actions would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Media General board of directors' fiduciary duties to Media General shareholders under applicable law, then Media General may furnish information with respect to Media General and its subsidiaries to the person making the proposal and participate in discussions or negotiations with such person;

Media General may, subject to compliance with certain obligations set forth in the merger agreement, including the payment of a termination fee to Nexstar, terminate the merger agreement to enter into a definitive agreement to accept a bona fide acquisition proposal that constitutes a superior offer in accordance with the merger agreement, subject to customary notice and matching rights in favor of Nexstar; and the Media General board of directors may change its recommendation to Media General shareholders regarding adopting the merger agreement in response to an intervening event or a superior offer if the Media General board of directors determines that the failure to do so would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to Media General shareholders under applicable law, subject in each case to customary notice and matching rights in favor of Nexstar.

Subject to the parties' rights to terminate the merger agreement, including Media General's right to terminate the merger agreement as described above, each party has agreed to submit the transaction in the manner described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus to a vote of its shareholders for approval notwithstanding any change in recommendation by its board of directors.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the closing of the transaction in any of the following ways:

by mutual consent of Nexstar and Media General;

by either Nexstar or Media General:

if any U.S. federal or state court shall have issued a final and nonappealable order permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting either of the merger;

if the transaction has not been consummated on or before the outside date, which is January 27, 2017, subject to an automatic extension to April 27, 2017 in certain circumstances, which we also refer to herein as the outside date, described in the section entitled Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 153, if the only outstanding unfulfilled conditions relate to HSR or FCC approval, and subject to an extension, in the event the marketing period has not ended by the last business day prior to the outside date, to the fifth business day following the final date of the marketing period;

if, after completion of the Nexstar annual meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof), Nexstar shareholders have not approved the Nexstar share issuance proposal;

if, after completion of the Media General special meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof), Media General shareholders have not approved the Media General merger proposal;

if there has been an uncured breach by the other party of any of the representations and warranties or covenants of the other party in the merger agreement and as a result of such breach the related closing conditions cannot be satisfied by the earlier of (x) 30 days following notice of such breach or (y) the outside date; or if the other party fails to consummate the closing of the transaction within three business days after the day such party is required to consummate the closing of the transaction under the merger agreement;

by Nexstar:

prior to the approval of the Media General merger proposal by Media General shareholders, if Media General breaches or fails to perform in any material respect its no solicitation covenant or its obligations with respect to the Media General special meeting; or

prior to the approval of the Media General merger proposal by Media General shareholders, if Media General's board of directors (x) fails to include its recommendation of the Media General merger proposal in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or changes its recommendation for the Media General merger proposal or (y) fails to reaffirm its recommendation of the Media General

merger proposal within ten business days after both an acquisition proposal for Media General is made public and Media General receives a written request from Nexstar to do so;

by Media General:

prior to the approval of the Nexstar share issuance proposal by Nexstar shareholders, if Nexstar breaches or fails to perform in any material respect its no solicitation covenant or its obligations with respect to the Nexstar annual meeting;

prior to the approval of the Nexstar share issuance proposal by Nexstar shareholders, if Nexstar's board of directors (x) fails to include its recommendation of the Nexstar share issuance proposal in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or changes its recommendation for the Nexstar share issuance proposal or (y) fails to reaffirm its recommendation of the Nexstar share issuance proposal within ten business days after both an acquisition proposal for Nexstar is made public and Nexstar receives a written request from Media General to do so; or prior to the approval of the Media General merger proposal by Media General shareholders, if the Media General board of directors determines to enter into a definitive agreement for an unsolicited alternative business combination transaction that the board of directors of Media General determines to be superior to the transaction, so long as Media General complies with certain notice and other requirements set forth in the merger agreement and pays to Nexstar a termination fee substantially concurrently with such termination.

Termination Fee

Nexstar would be required to pay Media General (including following a change of recommendation of Nexstar's board of directors):

an $80 million termination fee if it consummates an alternative business combination transaction within one year after termination of the merger agreement or enters into an agreement for such a transaction within one year after termination of the merger agreement and that transaction is consummated; and

- (i) an acquisition proposal in respect of Nexstar is made public (and not withdrawn) at or prior to the Nexstar annual meeting and the merger agreement is terminated due to the failure of Nexstar shareholders to approve the Nexstar share issuance proposal; or
- (ii) the merger agreement is terminated due to the transaction not being consummated by the outside date and an acquisition proposal in respect of Nexstar is made public (and not withdrawn) prior to such termination and Nexstar shareholders failed to approve the Nexstar share issuance proposal at the Nexstar annual meeting; or a $20 million termination fee if Nexstar shareholders do not approve the Nexstar share issuance at a shareholder meeting held for such purpose. If paid, the $20 million termination fee would be credited against any $80 million termination fee that Nexstar subsequently is required to pay Media General.

Media General would be required to pay Nexstar:

an $80 million termination fee if, prior to the Media General annual meeting, Media General terminates the merger agreement to enter into a definitive agreement to accept a superior offer;

an $80 million termination fee if it consummates an alternative business combination transaction within one year after termination of the merger agreement or enters into an agreement for such a

transaction within one year after termination of the merger agreement and that transaction is consummated; and

- (i) an acquisition proposal in respect of Media General is made public (and not withdrawn) at or prior to the Media General special meeting and the merger agreement is terminated due to the failure of Media General shareholders to approve the Media General merger proposal; or
- (ii) the merger agreement is terminated due to the transaction not being consummated by the outside date and an acquisition proposal in respect of Media General is made public (and not withdrawn) prior to such termination and Media General shareholders failed to approve the Media General merger proposal at the Media General special meeting; or a $20 million termination fee if Media General shareholders do not approve the Media General merger proposal at a shareholder meeting held for such purpose. If paid, the $20 million termination fee would be credited against any $80 million termination fee that Media General subsequently is required to pay Nexstar.

In no case will either Nexstar or Media General be required to pay to Media General or Nexstar, as applicable, a termination fee in excess of $80 million.

Nexstar is required under the terms of the merger agreement to apply to list the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued to Media General shareholders in the merger on the NASDAQ.

Delisting and Deregistration of Media General Voting Common Shares (Page 142)

The Media General voting common stock is listed and trades on the NYSE under the symbol MEG. Following the closing of the transaction, Media General voting common stock will be delisted from the NYSE and deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which we refer to as the Exchange Act, and will cease to be publicly traded.

CVR Agreement (Page 174)

Under the merger agreement, holders of Media General common stock, stock options and other stock-based awards have the right to receive one CVR for each share of Media General common stock, stock option or other stock-based award held by such person. Each CVR will entitle its holder to receive a pro rata share of the Media General Auction Proceeds, subject to reduction pursuant to the formula described in Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the CVR Agreement beginning on page 174. This formula is designed to take into account the fact that former Media General shareholders will receive Nexstar Class A common stock as part of the merger consideration, and as shareholders of Nexstar will obtain economic benefits from the net proceeds (if any) from the disposition of Nexstar's spectrum in the FCC auction. As a result, the aggregate cash amount payable under the CVRs may be less than the full amount of the Media General Auction Proceeds.

Distributions (if any) will be made to CVR holders only when cash proceeds from the sale of Media General's spectrum are received and may be made prior to the closing of the transaction.

Because distributions (if any) will be made to CVR holders based on estimates of transaction expenses, tax adjustments and all other components of the total cash proceeds, an amount equal to 5% of all distributions to CVR holders (other than the final distribution) will be held back to cover any adjustments to the estimated total distribution amount once actual amounts are determined. The final calculation of the net proceeds distributable to CVR holders will be made after all proceeds from the FCC auction are received and all expenses and adjustments are determined (or, if earlier, five years following the completion of the FCC auction). Accordingly, depending on whether net proceeds distributable to CVR holders are greater or less than the amounts previously distributed to CVR holders under the terms of the CVR agreement, the holdback amount will be paid out to CVR holders or retained by Nexstar, respectively.

The CVRs may be distributed before or after the closing of the transaction. In the event CVRs are distributed prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs to be distributed to holders of Media General stock options and other stock-based awards may be withheld by Media General at the time of distribution. In that case, the CVRs will be distributed to such holders prior to, or in connection with, the closing of the transaction, together with any amounts that would have been distributed in respect of such CVRs had such CVRs been distributed to such holders at the time the CVRs were distributed to holders of Media General common stock. If the completion of the FCC auction occurs prior to the closing of the transaction, Media General has the right to execute the CVR agreement and cause the distribution of the CVRs to the holders of Media General common stock, Media General stock options and Media General stock-based awards. In such case, Nexstar would be required to enter into the CVR agreement (or a joinder thereto) as a substitute obligor. In the event that Media General has not distributed CVRs prior to the closing of the transaction, Nexstar is required to enter into the CVR agreement upon the closing of the transaction.

The CVRs may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged, or encumbered in any manner, subject to limited exceptions, that include transfers by will or intestacy, by inter vivos, or pursuant to a court order.

The CVRs do not have any voting or dividend rights, and interest shall not accrue on any amounts payable on the CVRs to any holder. The CVRs do not represent any equity or ownership interest in Media General, Nexstar, the combined company or in any other person.

There can be no assurance that any payment will be made under the CVRs, or the amount or timing of any such payment. Any amounts to be received in connection with the CVRs, and the timing of any payments of any such amounts, are contingent upon the occurrence of certain events which may or may not occur, and which may be outside the control of Nexstar and Media General. There may be no cash consideration ultimately paid in respect of the CVRs. The CVRs will be non-transferable and, accordingly, will not be listed on any securities exchange. Under certain circumstances, including the completion of the FCC auction prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs may be distributed prior to the closing of the transaction. Also, the tax consequences arising from the receipt and ownership of the CVRs are uncertain. See Chapter One: The Transaction Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 149.

See also Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the CVR Agreement beginning on page 174 for more detail. The form of CVR agreement is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Nexstar and Media General encourage you to read the entire form of CVR agreement carefully because it is the principal document governing the CVRs.

Media General Voting Agreement (Page 177)

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, certain affiliates of Kainos Capital and John R. Muse, a member of the Media General board of directors, which we refer to as the Media General supporting shareholders, have entered into a voting and support agreement with Nexstar and Media General, pursuant to which, prior to the earlier of the closing of the transaction or the termination of the merger agreement, the Media General supporting shareholders have agreed to vote all of their shares of Media General voting common stock

(i) in favor of the approval of the Media General merger proposal and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and (ii) against other acquisition proposals and certain other actions and transactions, as described in the Media General voting agreement. The Media General supporting shareholders also agreed to certain transfer restrictions with respect to their Media General voting common shares and to refrain from solicitation of other acquisition proposals prior to the earlier of the closing of the transaction or the termination of the merger agreement. See Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Media General Voting Agreement beginning on page 177 for more detail. The Media General supporting shareholders collectively control approximately 8.8% of the outstanding shares of Media General voting common stock as of the Media General record date.

Financing of the Transaction (Page 145)

On January 27, 2016, in connection with signing the merger agreement, Nexstar entered into a commitment letter, which we refer to as the debt commitment letter (as further amended and restated), with Bank of America, N.A., which we refer to as BANA, Credit Suisse AG, which we refer to as Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch and Deutsche Bank AG Cayman Islands Branch, which we collectively refer to as Deutsche Bank, and certain of their respective affiliates for a commitment with respect to the financing required by Nexstar to consummate the transaction and the refinancing of certain indebtedness of Nexstar, Media General and certain of their VIEs. On February 5, 2016, the debt commitment letter was amended and restated to join the following additional financial institutions with BANA, Credit Suisse and Deutsche Bank as commitment parties in connection with the financing for the transaction: SunTrust Bank, Barclays Bank PLC, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association and WF Investment Holdings, LLC and certain of their respective affiliates. On February 11, 2016, the debt commitment letter was further amended and restated to join the following financial institutions as commitment parties: The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd., Capital One, N.A., Citizens Bank, National Association and Fifth Third Bank and certain of their respective affiliates. On February 11, 2016, the debt commitment letter was also amended by increasing the commitment under the senior secured term A loan facilities from $250.0 million to $255.0 million. On February 24, 2016, the debt commitment letter was further amended and restated to increase the commitment under the senior secured term A loan facilities from $255.0 million to $270.0 million and to decrease the commitment under the senior secured term B loan facilities from $2,870.0 million to $2,850.0 million. Commitments of the commitment parties were also adjusted on February 24, 2016. The financing under the debt commitment letter, the availability of which is contingent on the satisfaction of certain conditions, including the closing of the transaction, provides for credit facilities in an aggregate principal amount of up to $4,725.0 million, consisting of a combination of the following: (i) senior secured revolving credit facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $175.0 million, (ii) senior secured term A loan facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $270.0 million, (iii) senior secured term B loan facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $2,850.0 million, (iv) a senior secured short-term term facility in an aggregate principal amount of $250.0 million, which will be reduced by the amount of unrestricted cash and cash equivalents on hand at Nexstar and Media General immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction in excess of certain divestiture proceeds received by Nexstar and (v) senior unsecured bridge facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $1,180.0 million to the extent Nexstar fails to issue senior unsecured notes or other securities with an aggregate principal amount of up to $1,180.0 million on or prior to the consummation of the transaction. Each of the facilities will bear interest at LIBOR plus an applicable margin. The senior secured facilities will be secured by liens on substantially all of Nexstar's assets and will be guaranteed by certain of its subsidiaries and VIEs. Various economic terms of the debt financing are subject to change in the process of syndication. In connection with the transaction, it is currently expected that substantially all of Nexstar's, Media General's and certain of their respective VIEs' existing credit facilities will be repaid and the commitments thereunder terminated at or prior to the closing of the transaction, and LIN Television Corporation's 6.375% Senior Notes due 2021, which we refer to as the Media General 2021 Notes, will be repaid in full (whether by redemption, tender offer or other defeasance) and LIN Television Corporation's 5.875% Senior Notes due 2022, which we refer to as the Media General 2022 Notes, will be subject to a change of control offer in accordance with the indenture governing the Media General 2022 Notes. See Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Financing of the Transaction beginning on page 145.

Regulatory Approvals (Page 142)

The closing of the transaction is conditioned, among other things, on the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, receipt from the FCC of consent to the transfers of control of the broadcast licensee subsidiaries of Media General to Nexstar, and the assignment of licenses for two full power and two low power television stations from a subsidiary of Media General to a subsidiary of Nexstar (collectively, the transfers of control and assignments). Each of Nexstar and Media General filed a Notification and Report Form with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, which we refer to as the FTC, and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, which we refer to as the Antitrust Division, on February 11, 2016. On March 14, 2016, each of Nexstar and Media General received a request for additional information (second request) from the Antitrust Division. As a result, the HSR Act waiting period will expire 30 days after both Nexstar and Media General substantially comply with the second request, unless the waiting period is earlier terminated by the Antitrust Division.

The applications for FCC consent to the transaction were filed on February 10 and 11, 2016, and the FCC provided public notice of the filing of the applications on February 16 and 17, 2016. Additionally, under regulations announced by the FCC in connection with the FCC auction, we expect that, absent a waiver from the FCC, the closing of the transaction cannot occur prior to the completion of the FCC auction.

For additional information relating to the regulatory approvals, see Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Regulatory Approvals beginning on page 142, and Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Efforts to Consummate the Transaction beginning on page 168.

In general, the receipt of the merger consideration is intended to be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The amount of gain or loss recognized by a Media General shareholder, and the timing of such gain or loss, will depend in part on the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the CVRs, which is uncertain. For a more detailed summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see Chapter One: The Transaction Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 149.

Media General shareholders should also consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the merger (including the application and effect of any U.S. federal estate, gift and other non-income tax laws and tax consequences under state, local or non-U.S. tax laws).

Officers and Directors of the Combined Company after the Transaction (Page 137)

Prior to the closing of the transaction, Nexstar will take all actions necessary such that, effective as of immediately following the effective time of the merger, the size of its board of directors will be nine members and two current members of the Media General board of directors will be appointed to serve as directors of Nexstar (currently expected to be Dennis FitzSimons and John Muse). Assuming the Class I directors are re-elected at the Nexstar annual meeting, the seven current Nexstar directors are expected to remain on the board of directors following the closing of the transaction. The current executive officers of Nexstar are expected to remain unchanged.

Interests of Nexstar's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction (Page 138)

In considering the recommendation of the Nexstar board of directors, Nexstar shareholders should be aware that certain of Nexstar's executive officers and directors may have interests in the transaction that are different from, or in addition to, those of Nexstar shareholders generally. The Nexstar board of directors was aware of these interests during its deliberations on the merits of the transaction and in deciding to recommend that Nexstar shareholders vote for the Nexstar share issuance and Nexstar adjournment proposals. For additional information on the interests of Nexstar's directors and officers in the transaction, see Chapter One: The Transaction Interests of Nexstar's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction beginning on page 138.

The Media General board of directors was aware of these interests during its deliberations on the merits of the transaction and in deciding to recommend that Media General shareholders vote for the Media General merger proposal and the Media General compensation proposal. Table of ContentsMEDIA GENERAL SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT DATA Set forth below are selected consolidated financial data for Media General. As a result of the LIN merger, Media General, formerly known as Mercury New Holdco, Inc., became the parent public-reporting company of the combined company, LIN Television became a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Media General and Old Media General became a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of LIN Television and an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Media General. Also on the LIN closing date, Media General, through its wholly owned subsidiaries, completed the sale of the following television stations: (i) WJAR-TV in Providence, Rhode Island; (ii) WLUK-TV and WCWF-TV in Green Bay-Appleton, Wisconsin; (iii) certain assets of WTGS-TV in Savannah, Georgia; (iv) WVTM-TV in Birmingham, Alabama; (v) WJCL-TV in Savannah, Georgia; and (vi) WALA-TV in Mobile, Alabama. On November 12, 2013, Media General and Young were combined in the Young merger. Although Old Media General was the legal acquirer of Young in the transaction, the transaction was accounted for as a reverse merger, whereby Young was deemed to have acquired Old Media General for accounting purposes only. Consequently, the consolidated financial statements of Old Media General, which we refer to for this purpose as Legacy Media General, the legal acquirer and the continuing public corporation in the transaction, have been prepared with Young as the surviving entity but named Media General, Inc. Accordingly, prior period financial information presented for Media General in the consolidated financial statements reflects the historical activity of Young for all periods through the date of the consummation of the Young merger.

The financial data as of and for the years ended December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, and for the year ended December 31, 2013 are derived from Media General's audited financial statements that are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus from Media General's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 and reflect the operating results of LIN from the LIN closing date through December 31, 2014, and the results of Young from January 1, 2013 to November 11, 2013, and the results of the combined Media General and Young from November 12, 2013 through December 31, 2013. The financial data as of December 31, 2013 and as of and for the years ended December 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011 are derived from the audited financial statements of Media General, which financial statements are not included in or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus and reflect the historical results of Young for those periods prior to the date of the consummation of the Young merger. Earnings per share was not previously presented in the audited financial statements of Young but is included for the successor periods below for comparison purposes.

The increase in long-term debt during the year ended December 31, 2012 is primarily the result of draw-downs from a new $175 million senior credit facility, which was put in place in December in 2011. Long-term debt as of December 31, 2013 reflects the impact of the Young merger. Long-term debt as of December 31, 2014 reflects the impact of the LIN merger.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table presents for the years ended December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014 selected historical per share information of Nexstar and Media General. Also set forth below is information for the combined company on an unaudited pro forma basis, calculated using the acquisition method of accounting, as if the transaction had been effective as of January 1, 2015, the first day of the pro forma combined company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2015, in the case of earnings per share, which we refer to as pro forma combined information. The pro forma combined information is also presented on a hypothetical basis per Media General voting common share, which we refer to as Media General equivalent information.

The historical per share information of Nexstar below is derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of Nexstar as of, and for the years ended, December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014. The historical per share information of Media General below is derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of Media General as of, and for the years ended, December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014.

The pro forma combined and the Media General equivalent per share information presented below is calculated using the acquisition method of accounting, as if the transaction had been effective on January 1, 2015, the first day of the combined company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2015, in the case of earnings per share.

The acquisition method of accounting is based on Accounting Standards Codification, which we refer to as ASC, 805, and uses the fair value concept as defined in ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures. Acquisition accounting requires, among other things, that assets acquired and liabilities assumed be recognized at their fair values as of the acquisition date. Fair value measurements recorded in acquisition accounting are dependent upon certain valuation studies of Media General's assets and liabilities and other studies that have yet to commence or progress to a stage where there is sufficient information for a definitive measurement. Accordingly, the pro forma adjustments reflect the assets and liabilities of Media General at their preliminary estimated fair value. Differences between these preliminary estimates and the final values in acquisition accounting will occur, and these differences could have a material impact on the unaudited pro forma combined per share information set forth below.

The pro forma combined and the Media General equivalent per share information does not purport to represent the actual results of operations that Media General would have achieved had the companies been combined during these periods or to project the future results of operations that the combined company may achieve after closing of the transaction.

The Media General equivalent per share information is calculated by multiplying the pro forma combined amounts for the combined company by 0.1249, which represents the ratio of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to be received for each Media General common share in the merger. This calculation does not take into account the cash consideration or any value attributable to the CVRs to be received by holders of Media General common shares in the merger.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER SHARE MARKET PRICE AND DIVIDEND INFORMATIONMarket Prices

The following table sets forth the closing sales prices per share of the Nexstar Class A common stock, which trades on the NASDAQ under the symbol NXST, and Media General voting common stock, which trades on the NYSE under the symbol MEG, on the following dates:

January 26, 2016, the last full trading day before the announcement of the execution of the merger agreement; and

May 5, 2016 the last full trading day for which this information could reasonably be calculated before the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

There is no established trading market for the non-voting common stock of Media General, which is convertible at any time (subject to limitations in Media General's articles of incorporation) into Media General voting common stock. There are no outstanding shares of non-voting common stock of Media General currently.

	Nexstar Class A common stock	Media General voting common stock	Implied Per Share Value of Merger Consideration (Excluding CVR)
January 26, 2016	$ 49.14	$ 16.13	$ 16.69
May 5, 2016	$ 51.87	$ 17.37	$ 17.03

The table above also shows the implied value of the merger consideration proposed for each share of Media General voting common stock as of the same two dates, excluding any value attributable to the CVRs. This implied value was calculated by multiplying the closing price of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock on the relevant date by the exchange ratio of 0.1249, representing the stock portion of the merger consideration, and adding $10.55, the cash portion of the merger consideration. Media General shareholders will not receive any consideration for their Media General common shares until the merger is completed, which may be a substantial time period after the meetings. In addition, the exchange ratio for determining the number of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock that Media General shareholders will receive in the merger is fixed and the stock consideration will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of the Nexstar Class A common stock or the Media General voting common stock. Therefore, the market value of the Nexstar Class A common stock that Media General shareholders will be entitled to receive on the closing of the transaction will depend on the market value of the Nexstar Class A common stock immediately before the transaction is completed and could vary significantly from the market value on the date of the announcement of the merger agreement, the date that this joint proxy statement/prospectus was first mailed to Nexstar shareholders or Media General shareholders or the date of the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting.

common stock and no holders of Nexstar Class B common stock and Class C common stock, and there were approximately 1,132 registered holders of Media General voting common stock and no holders of Media General non-voting common stock.

Past price performance is not necessarily indicative of likely future performance. Nexstar shareholders and Media General shareholders are advised to obtain current market quotations for the Nexstar Class A common stock and the Media General voting common stock. The market price of Nexstar Class A common stock and Media General voting common stock will fluctuate between the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the closing of the transaction, which may be a substantial time period after the meetings. No assurance can be given concerning the market price of either shares of Nexstar Class A common stock or shares of Media General voting common stock before the closing of the transaction.

Table of ContentsRISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in, incorporated by reference in, or found in the Annexes attached to, this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 50, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote for the proposals to be considered at the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting. Please see Chapter Three: Additional Information Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 228 and Chapter Three: Additional Information Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference beginning on page 226 for more information about the documents incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to Nexstar or Media General or that are not currently believed to be important also may adversely affect the transaction and the combined company following the transaction.

Risks Related to the Transaction

The number of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock that Media General shareholders will receive in the merger is based on a fixed exchange ratio. Because the market price of the Nexstar Class A common stock will fluctuate, Media General shareholders cannot be certain of the value of the merger consideration that Media General shareholders will receive in the merger.

Upon closing of the transaction, each outstanding Media General common share will be converted into the right to receive the cash consideration, the stock consideration and the CVRs. The exchange ratio for determining the number of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock that Media General shareholders will receive in the merger is fixed and the stock consideration will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of the Nexstar Class A common stock or the Media General common stock. Therefore, the market value of the Nexstar Class A common stock that Media General shareholders will be entitled to receive on the closing of the transaction will in part depend on the market value of the Nexstar Class A common stock immediately before that transaction is completed and could vary significantly from the market value on the date of the announcement of the merger agreement, the date that this joint proxy statement/prospectus was first mailed to Nexstar shareholders or Media General shareholders or the date of the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting. The merger agreement does not provide for any adjustment to the stock consideration based on fluctuations of the per share price of the Nexstar Class A common stock or the Media General voting common stock. In addition, the market value of the Nexstar Class A common stock will fluctuate after the closing of the transaction.

Fluctuations in the share price of the Nexstar Class A common stock could result from changes in the business, operations or prospects of Nexstar or Media General prior to the closing of the transaction or the combined company following the closing of the transaction, regulatory considerations, general market and economic conditions and other factors both within and beyond the control of Nexstar or Media General. The transaction may be completed a considerable amount of time after the date of the Nexstar annual meeting or the Media General special meeting. As such, at the time of the meetings, Media General shareholders will not know the value of the stock consideration that Media General shareholders will receive in the merger for each Media General voting common share.

Until final resolution of the FCC auction, Media General shareholders will not be entitled to receive any amount under the CVRs, and the amount of any such payment will not be determinable, which makes it difficult to value the CVRs.

Under the merger agreement, holders of Media General common stock, stock options and other stock-based awards have the right to receive one CVR for each share of Media General common stock, stock option or other stock-based award held by such person. Each CVR will entitle its holder to receive a pro rata share of the Media General Auction

Proceeds, subject to reduction pursuant to the formula described in Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the CVR Agreement beginning on page 174. This formula is designed to take into account the fact that former Media General shareholders will receive Nexstar Class A common stock as part of the merger consideration, and as shareholders of Nexstar will obtain economic benefits from the net proceeds (if any) from the disposition of Nexstar's spectrum in the FCC auction.

Therefore, Media General shareholders' right to receive any future payment on the CVRs will be contingent upon the final resolution of the FCC auction. Accordingly, the value, if any, of the CVRs is speculative, and the CVRs may ultimately have no value at all.

The CVRs are non-transferable, which limits the value of the CVRs, and Media General shareholders may not receive any payment on the CVRs.

The CVRs are non-transferable and, accordingly, will not be listed on any securities exchange. The lack of transferability, listing and the uncertainty as to whether any payments on CVRs will be made may limit the value of the CVRs.

Although Nexstar and Media General may participate in the FCC auction, there can be no assurance that they will receive any proceeds from the disposition of their respective spectrum. In addition, the CVRs will not have any voting or dividend rights, and interest shall not accrue on any amounts payable on the CVRs. Accordingly, Media General shareholders may not receive any payments on the CVRs.

The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the CVRs is uncertain.

The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the CVRs is uncertain. Accordingly, there will be some uncertainty as to the amount and timing of any gain or loss recognized by a Media General shareholder in connection with the merger. For a more detailed summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see Chapter One: The Transaction Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 149.

The transaction is subject to certain conditions, including conditions that may not be satisfied or completed on a timely basis, if at all.

Consummation of the transaction is subject to certain closing conditions which make the closing and timing of the transaction uncertain. The conditions include, among others, the obtaining of the requisite approvals by Nexstar shareholders and Media General shareholders (as described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus), the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, the grant by the FCC of consent to the transfer of control of the broadcast licensee subsidiaries of Media General to Nexstar and the assignment of licenses for two full power and two low power television stations from a subsidiary of Media General to a subsidiary of Nexstar, the absence of any governmental order or injunction preventing the consummation of the transaction, the effectiveness of the registration statement to which this joint proxy statement/prospectus relates, that register the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued in connection with the transaction (and the absence of any stop order suspending such effectiveness), the listing of such shares on the NASDAQ and the receipt of third-party consents under certain of Nexstar's and Media General's material contracts. See Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Conditions to the Transaction beginning on page 170.

Although Nexstar and Media General have agreed in the merger agreement to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain the requisite approvals and consents and take all actions necessary to effect certain regulatory divestitures, there can be no assurance that these approvals and consents will be obtained, and that the divestitures will be completed. Even if obtained, these approvals and consents may be obtained, and the divestitures may be completed, later than anticipated. In addition, Nexstar's and Media General's obligations to obtain the requisite consents and approvals from regulatory authorities are subject to certain limitations,

including that Nexstar, Media General and the combined company are not required to take any actions or to make any divestitures that may be required by the regulatory authorities if taking such actions or making such divestitures would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of a company the size of (and with results of operations equal to those of) Nexstar and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the merger, which we refer to as a regulatory material adverse effect. See Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Efforts to Consummate the Transaction beginning on page 168.

The merger agreement contains provisions that restrict Media General's ability to pursue alternatives to the transaction and, in specified circumstances, could require Media General to pay to Nexstar a termination fee.

Under the merger agreement, Media General is restricted, subject to certain exceptions, from soliciting, initiating, knowingly facilitating or negotiating, or furnishing non-public information with regard to, any inquiry, proposal or offer for an alternative business combination transaction from any person.

Media General may terminate the merger agreement and enter into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal only if specified conditions have been satisfied, including a determination by the Media General board of directors (after consultation with outside legal counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor) that such proposal is more favorable to Media General shareholders than the merger from a financial point of view. A termination in this instance would result in Media General being required to pay Nexstar a termination fee of $80 million. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated in certain other circumstances, Media General will be required to pay Nexstar a termination fee of $80 million. Media General will be required to pay Nexstar $20 million, which would be deducted from the $80 million termination fee if ultimately paid, in the event Media General shareholders do not approve the Media General merger proposal at the Media General special meeting and either Media General or Nexstar subsequently terminates the merger agreement. These provisions could discourage a third-party that may have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Media General from considering or proposing an alternative business combination transaction with Media General, even if such third-party were prepared to pay consideration with a higher value than the value of the transaction. If Media General shareholders approve the Media General merger proposal at the Media General special meeting, Media General will be restricted under the terms of the merger agreement (without exception) from having any discussions or negotiations with any third-party that may have an interest in entering into an alternative business combination transaction with Media General. See Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Termination Fee beginning on page 172.

In addition, Media General shareholders holding approximately 8.8% of the outstanding shares of Media General voting common stock as of the Media General record date have agreed to vote in favor of the Media General merger proposal and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to vote against any other acquisition proposals and certain other actions and transactions. These provisions could discourage a third-party that may have an interest in entering into an alternative business combination transaction with Media General from pursuing such transaction.

The merger agreement contains provisions that restrict Nexstar's ability to pursue alternatives to the transaction and, in specified circumstances, could require Nexstar to pay Media General a termination fee.

Under the merger agreement, Nexstar is restricted, subject to certain exceptions, from soliciting, initiating, knowingly facilitating or negotiating, or furnishing non-public information with regard to, any inquiry, proposal or offer for an alternative business combination transaction from any person.

Nexstar may not terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal.

If the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, including following a change of recommendation of Nexstar's board of directors, Nexstar will be required to pay Media General a termination fee of $80 million. For example, if a third-party makes a public proposal for Nexstar which is not withdrawn prior to the Nexstar annual meeting and Nexstar shareholders do not approve the Nexstar share issuance proposal and the merger agreement is subsequently terminated, then Nexstar would be required to pay Media General a termination fee of $80 million (inclusive of the $20 million fee described below) if Nexstar enters into an alternative transaction within one year of such termination and such alternative transaction is subsequently consummated. Nexstar will be required to pay Media General $20 million, which would be deducted from the $80 million termination fee if ultimately paid, in the event Nexstar shareholders do not approve the Nexstar share issuance proposal at the Nexstar annual meeting and either Media General or Nexstar subsequently terminates the merger agreement. See Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Termination Fee beginning on page 172 and Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Media General Voting Agreement beginning on page 177.

The merger agreement also requires that Nexstar submit the Nexstar share issuance proposal to the vote of Nexstar shareholders notwithstanding any acquisition proposal made by a third-party or change of the recommendation by Nexstar's board of directors. If Nexstar shareholders approve the Nexstar share issuance proposal at the Nexstar annual meeting, Nexstar will be restricted under the terms of the merger agreement (without exception) from having any discussions or negotiations with any third-party that may have an interest in entering into an alternative business combination transaction with Nexstar.

Uncertainties associated with the transaction may cause employees to leave Nexstar, Media General or the combined company and may otherwise affect the future business and operations of the combined company.

The combined company's success after the transaction will depend in part upon its ability to retain key employees of Nexstar and Media General. Prior to and following the closing of the transaction, current and prospective employees of Nexstar and Media General may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Nexstar, Media General or the combined company and choose to pursue other opportunities, which could have an adverse effect on Nexstar, Media General or the combined company. If key employees depart, the integration of the two companies may be more difficult and the combined company's business following the closing of the transaction may be adversely affected.

Nexstar will incur substantial additional indebtedness to finance the transaction which could significantly impact the operation of the combined company and adversely affect the holders of Nexstar common stock.

If the transaction is completed, the combined company will incur substantial additional indebtedness to, among other things, fund the cash consideration to be paid to Media General shareholders in the merger, refinance certain existing third-party indebtedness of Media General, Nexstar and certain of their VIEs and to pay transaction related costs, fees and expenses. This new indebtedness is expected to be credit facilities in an aggregate principal amount of up to $4.725 billion, consisting of a combination of one or more of the following: (i) senior secured revolving credit facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $175.0 million, (ii) senior secured term A loan facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $250.0 million, (iii) senior secured term B loan facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $2.870 billion, (iv) a senior secured short-term term facility in an aggregate principal amount of $255.0 million, which will be reduced by the amount of unrestricted cash and cash equivalents on hand at Nexstar and Media General immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction in excess of certain divestiture proceeds received by Nexstar and (v) senior unsecured bridge facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $1.180 billion to the extent Nexstar fails to issue senior unsecured notes or other securities with an aggregate principal amount of up to $1.180 billion on or prior to the consummation of the transaction. Various economic terms of the debt financing are subject to change during syndication.

The combined company is expected to have a significant amount of indebtedness after the closing of the transaction that may have important consequences, including:

making it more difficult for the combined company to satisfy its obligations, which may in turn result in an event of default; impairing the combined company's ability to obtain additional financing in the future for working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions, general corporate purposes or other purposes;

diminishing the combined company's ability to withstand a downturn in its business, the industries in which it operates, or the economy generally and to react to general economic and industry conditions; limiting the flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in the combined company's business and the industries in which it operates; and placing the combined company at a competitive disadvantage compared to certain competitors that may have proportionately less debt.

Despite the current debt levels, and the debt levels anticipated following the transaction, the combined company may be able to incur significantly more debt in the future, which could increase the foregoing risks related to the combined company's indebtedness.

The agreements governing the combined company's debt will contain various covenants that limit management's discretion in the operation of our business.

The credit agreement and indenture that will govern the indebtedness of the combined company will contain various covenants that restrict the combined company's ability to, among other things:

incur additional debt and issue preferred stock;

pay dividends and make other distributions;

make investments and other restricted payments;

make acquisitions;

merge, consolidate or transfer all or substantially all of our assets;

enter into sale and leaseback transactions;

create liens;

sell assets or stock of our subsidiaries; and enter into transactions with affiliates.

As a result of these restrictions, management's ability to operate the combined company's business may be limited, and the combined company may be unable to compete effectively, pursue acquisitions, or take advantage of new business opportunities, any of which may harm the combined company's business. If the combined company fails to comply with the restrictions in present or future financing agreements, a default may occur. A default may allow creditors to accelerate the related debt as well as any other debt to which a cross-acceleration or cross-default provision applies. A default may also allow creditors to foreclose on any collateral securing such debt.

Nexstar and Media General may not be able to obtain the required approvals from the FCC or pursuant to the HSR Act.

Nexstar's and Media General's obligations to complete the transaction are subject to obtaining receipt from the FCC of consent to the transfers of control and assignments in connection with the transaction and termination or expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act. Under the merger agreement, Nexstar and Media General are each obligated to use reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as practicable the necessary consents from the FCC and termination or expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act regarding the transactions subject to certain limitations. Although Nexstar and Media General believe that they will be able to obtain the required approvals from the FCC and termination or expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act, they cannot be sure they will do so or as to the timing thereof. Failure to obtain the required FCC approvals and termination or expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act would prevent Nexstar and Media General from completing the transaction.

Nexstar and Media General will be required to divest assets in certain markets in order to obtain approval from regulatory authorities and may not be able to realize the full benefit of the sold assets.

Nexstar and Media General both own television stations in the following markets: (i) Davenport, Iowa-Rock Island-Moline, Illinois; (ii) Fort Wayne, Indiana; (iii) Green Bay-Appleton, Wisconsin; (iv) Lafayette, Louisiana; (v) Roanoke-Lynchburg, Virginia; and (vi) Terre Haute, Indiana. Additionally, Media General owns multiple stations currently rated among the top four stations in the Albuquerque-Santa Fe, New Mexico market. We refer to these seven markets as the Overlap Markets.

In order to comply with FCC's local television ownership rule and obtain clearance under the HSR Act necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, Nexstar and Media General have agreed in the merger agreement to divest a television station in each of the Overlap Markets. At this time, neither Nexstar nor Media General has entered into any agreement to sell any of the television stations in the Overlap Markets. In addition, Nexstar and Media General have also agreed in the merger agreement to divest certain additional television stations in order to comply with the FCC's national television ownership rule. If the combined company's ownership of the combined stations in the Overlap Markets would not comply with FCC rules, Nexstar and Media General may be required to divest assets in additional markets, or to accept other restrictions or conditions with respect to the operation of television stations in such markets. Media General and Nexstar expect to identify qualified buyers, enter into sale agreements on acceptable terms and file any necessary FCC assignment or transfer applications as soon as practicable.

In addition to the proposed divestitures in the Overlap Markets, regulatory authorities may in connection with the approval process also require Nexstar and Media General to divest assets in other markets, make modifications to or terminate certain of the agreements pursuant to which Nexstar or Media General provide programming or advertising services to other stations or accept other restrictions or conditions with respect to the operation of television stations in other markets.

The FCC auction's related anti-collusion rule may complicate the discussions required for completion of the divestiture process. Any such divestitures, other restrictions, or the conditions under which the divestitures take place may diminish the anticipated benefits of the transaction to the combined company and its shareholders by adversely affecting the operations of the combined company after the closing of the transaction, and may result in a delay in closing and additional transaction costs.

Failure to complete the transaction may negatively impact the share price and the future business and financial results of each of Nexstar and Media General.

The merger agreement provides that either Nexstar or Media General may terminate the merger agreement if the transaction is not consummated on or before January 27, 2017 (which shall be automatically extended to April 27, 2017, in the event all closing conditions have been satisfied or waived or are then capable of being satisfied on January 27, 2017 other than those closing conditions related to regulatory approvals). In addition, the merger agreement contains certain termination rights for both Media General and Nexstar including, among others, by Media General, in the event the Media General board of directors determines to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior offer for Media General. Upon termination of the merger agreement under specific circumstances, Media General would be required to pay Nexstar a termination fee of $80 million. The merger agreement also provides that Nexstar would be required to pay a termination fee to Media General of $80 million if the merger agreement is terminated under specific circumstances, including following a change of recommendation of Nexstar's board of directors.

If the transaction is not completed, the price of Nexstar Class A common stock and the price of the Media General voting common stock may decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the transaction will be completed and that the related benefits will be realized, or a market perception that the transaction was not consummated due to an adverse change in the business of Nexstar or Media General.

If the transaction is not completed on a timely basis, Nexstar's and Media General's ongoing businesses may be adversely affected. If the transaction is not completed at all, Nexstar and Media General will be subject to a number of risks, including the following:

being required to pay costs and expenses relating to the transaction, such as legal, accounting, financial advisory and printing fees, whether or not the transaction is completed; and time and resources committed by each company's management to matters relating to the transaction that could otherwise have been devoted to pursuing other beneficial opportunities.

The combined company's results of operations and financial condition following the closing of the transaction may materially differ from the pro forma information presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The pro forma financial information included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is derived from the historical audited consolidated financial statements of Nexstar and Media General, as well as from certain internal, unaudited financial information. The preparation of this pro forma information is based upon available information and certain assumptions and estimates that Nexstar and Media General believe are reasonable. However, this pro forma information may be materially different from what the combined company's actual results of operations and financial condition would have been had the transaction occurred during the periods presented or what the combined company's results of operations and financial position will be after the consummation of the transaction. In particular, the assumptions used in preparing the pro forma financial information may not be correct and expected synergies may not be realized, and other factors may affect the combined company's financial condition and results of operations following the closing of the transaction.

The integration of Nexstar and Media General following the closing of the transaction will present challenges that may reduce the anticipated potential benefits of the transaction.

Nexstar and Media General will face challenges in consolidating functions and integrating the two companies' organizations, procedures and operations in a timely and efficient manner, as well as retaining key personnel. The integration of Nexstar and Media General will be complex and time-consuming due to the locations of their corporate headquarters and the size and complexity of each company. The principal challenges will include the following, among others:

integrating Nexstar's and Media General's existing businesses, including with respect to Nexstar's and Media General's ongoing integration of previous acquisitions; preserving significant business relationships;

integrating information systems and internal controls over accounting and financial reporting;

consolidating corporate and administrative functions; conforming standards, controls, procedures and policies, business cultures and compensation structures between Nexstar and Media General; and retaining key employees.

The management of the combined company will have to dedicate substantial effort to integrating the businesses of Nexstar and Media General during the integration process. These efforts may divert management's focus and resources from the combined company's business, corporate initiatives, or strategic opportunities. If the combined company is unable to integrate Nexstar's and Media General's organizations, procedures and operations in a timely and efficient manner, or at all, the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the transaction may not be realized fully, or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected, and the value of the combined company's common stock may be affected adversely. An inability to realize the full extent of the anticipated benefits of the transaction, as well as any delays encountered in the integration process, may also have an adverse effect upon the revenues, level of expenses and operating results of the combined company.

Table of ContentsNexstar and Media General will incur significant transaction and merger-related integration costs in connection with the transaction.

Nexstar and Media General expect to pay significant transaction costs in connection with the transaction. These transaction costs include legal, accounting and financial advisory fees and expenses, expenses associated with the new indebtedness that will be incurred in connection with the transaction, SEC filing fees, printing expenses, mailing expenses and other related charges. A portion of the transaction costs will be incurred regardless of whether the transaction is consummated, including the $60 million fee incurred and paid by Media General to Meredith in connection with the termination of the Meredith merger agreement.

Nexstar and Media General will each generally pay their own costs and expenses in connection with the transaction, except that each is obligated to pay 50% of the FCC and HSR Act filing fees relating to the transaction. Nexstar will also reimburse Media General's costs for assistance in connection with the financing Nexstar obtains in connection with the transaction. Nexstar is also responsible for implementation of the CVR. The combined company may also incur costs associated with integrating the operations of the two companies, and these costs may be significant and may have an adverse effect on the combined company's future operating results if the anticipated cost savings from the transaction are not achieved. Although Nexstar and Media General expect that the elimination of duplicative costs, as well as the realization of other efficiencies related to the integration of the two businesses, should allow the combined company to offset these incremental expenses over time, the net benefit may not be achieved in the near term, or at all.

While the transaction is pending, Nexstar and Media General will be subject to business uncertainties, as well as contractual restrictions under the merger agreement that may have an adverse effect on the businesses of Nexstar and Media General.

Uncertainty about the effect of the transaction on Nexstar's and Media General's employees and business relationships may have an adverse effect on Nexstar and Media General and, consequently, on the combined company following the closing of the transaction. These uncertainties may impair each of Nexstar's and Media General's ability to retain and motivate key personnel until and after the closing of the transaction and may cause third parties who deal with Nexstar and Media General to seek to change existing business relationships with Nexstar and Media General. If key employees depart or if third parties seek to change business relationships with Nexstar and Media General, the combined company's business following the closing of the transaction may be adversely affected. In addition, the merger agreement restricts Nexstar and Media General, without the other party's consent, from making certain acquisitions and taking other specified actions until the transaction closes or the merger agreement terminates. These restrictions may prevent Nexstar and Media General from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to closing of the transaction or termination of the merger agreement, and from making other changes during that interim period to the businesses of Nexstar and Media General.

Some of Nexstar's and Media General's directors and executive officers may have interests in the transaction that are different from the interests of Nexstar shareholders and Media General shareholders, as applicable.

Some of Nexstar's and Media General's directors and executive officers may have interests in the transaction that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of Nexstar shareholders and Media General shareholders, as applicable. These interests include their designation as directors or executive officers of the combined company following the closing of the transaction. See Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Interests of Media General's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction beginning on page 138 and Chapter One: The Transaction Interests of Nexstar's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction beginning on page 138.

The Nexstar Class A common stock to be received by Media General shareholders upon closing of the transaction will have different rights from shares of Media General common stock.

Upon closing of the transaction, Media General shareholders will no longer be shareholders of Media General, a Virginia corporation, but will instead become shareholders of the combined company, a Delaware corporation, and their rights as shareholders of the combined company will be governed by Delaware law and the terms of the combined company's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Delaware law and the terms of the combined company's articles of incorporation and bylaws are in some respects materially different than Virginia law and the terms of Media General's articles of incorporation and bylaws. See Chapter One: The Transaction Comparison of Shareholder Rights beginning on page 195 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Media General voting common stock and Nexstar Class A common stock.

Nexstar shareholders and Media General shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the transaction is completed and will exercise less influence over management.

Nexstar shareholders and Media General shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of their respective board of directors and on other matters affecting Nexstar and Media General, respectively. Upon the closing of the transaction, each Nexstar shareholder and each Media General shareholder will be a shareholder of the combined company with a percentage ownership of the combined company that generally is smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of Nexstar or Media General, as applicable, immediately prior to the closing of the transaction. It is currently expected that, upon closing of the transaction Nexstar shareholders will hold approximately 66%, and Media General shareholders will hold approximately 34%, of the combined company's outstanding shares. Because of this, Nexstar shareholders and Media General shareholders, respectively, as a group will have less influence on the management and policies of the combined company than they now have on the management and policies of Nexstar and Media General, as the case may be, prior to the closing of the transaction.

Media General's ability to use its NOL carryforwards to offset future taxable income currently is subject to limitation under Section 382 of the Code. The merger will result in an ownership change of Media General pursuant to Section 382 of the Code, further limiting the ability of the combined company to use the Media General NOL carryforwards to offset future taxable income of the combined company for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

In general, under Section 382 of the Code, a corporation that undergoes an ownership change is subject to limitation on its ability to utilize its pre-change net operating loss carryforwards, which we refer to as NOL carryforwards, to offset future taxable income for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, an ownership change occurs if the aggregate stock ownership of certain shareholders increases by more than 50 percentage points over such shareholders' lowest percentage ownership during the testing period (generally three years).

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, as of December 31, 2015, the Media General consolidated group had approximately $601 million of NOL carryforwards. Media General's ability to use these NOL carryforwards to offset future taxable income currently is subject to limitation under Section 382 of the Code.

The merger will result in an ownership change of Media General pursuant to Section 382 of the Code, potentially further limiting the ability of the combined company to use the Media General NOL carryforwards to offset future taxable income of the combined company for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

These Section 382 limitations may impact the timing of when cash is used to pay the taxes of the combined company and could cause some portion of its NOL carryforwards to expire unused, in each case, reducing or eliminating the benefit of such NOL carryforwards. Similar rules and limitations may apply for state income tax purposes.

The merger will result in an ownership change of Nexstar pursuant to Section 382 of the Code, further limiting the ability of the combined company to use the Nexstar NOL carryforwards to offset future taxable income of the combined company for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In addition, any subsequent ownership changes could result in additional limitations.

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, as of December 31, 2015, Nexstar's consolidated group had approximately $222 million of NOL carryforwards. Nexstar's ability to use these NOL carryforwards to offset future taxable income currently is subject to limitation under Section 382 of the Code.

Risks Related to Nexstar and Media General

Nexstar and Media General are subject to the risks described in (i) Item 1A – Risk Factors, in Nexstar's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 as filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and (ii) Item 1A – Risk Factors, in Media General's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 as filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference. We are asking our shareholders to indicate their approval of the compensation that will or may become payable by Media General to its named executive officers in connection with the merger. These payments are set forth in the section entitled Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Interests of Media General s Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction beginning on page 138 and the accompanying footnotes. In general, the various plans and arrangements pursuant to which these compensation payments may be made have previously formed part of Media General s overall compensation program for its named executive officers, and previously have been disclosed to Media General shareholders as part of the Compensation Discussion and Analysis and related sections of Media General s annual proxy statements or in other publicly available filings. These historical arrangements and the amendments made in connection with the merger in order to facilitate the retention of certain named executive officers were adopted and approved by Media General s board of directors and are believed by Media General s board of directors as necessary to achieve the transaction with Nexstar.

Accordingly, we are seeking approval of the following resolution at the special meeting:

RESOLVED, that the shareholders of Media General, Inc. approve, on a nonbinding, advisory basis, the compensation that will or may become payable to Media General s named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in the section entitled Chapter One: The Shareholders should note that this proposal is not a condition to closing of the transaction, and as an advisory vote, the result will not be binding on Media General, Media General's Board of Directors or Nexstar. Accordingly, regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote, if the merger is consummated our named executive officers will be eligible to receive the compensation that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger in accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to the arrangements that provide for the payments or benefits.

Media General Adjournment Proposal

Media General is requesting that holders of the outstanding Media General voting common stock consider and vote on a proposal to grant authority to proxy holders to vote in favor of one or more adjournments of the Media General special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Media General special meeting to approve the Media General merger proposal. Media General intends to move to adjourn the Media General special meeting in order to enable the Media General board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Media General merger proposal if, at the Media General special meeting, the number of shares of Media General voting common stock present in person or by proxy and voting to approve the Media General merger proposal is insufficient to approve the proposal.

If Media General shareholders approve the Media General adjournment proposal, Media General could adjourn the Media General special meeting and any adjourned session of the Media General special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from Media General shareholders who have previously voted. Media General is not required to notify shareholders of any adjournment if the new day, time and place is announced at the Media General special meeting before adjournment. The following is a description of certain material aspects of the transaction. This description may not contain all of the information that may be important to you. The discussion of the transaction in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, the plan of merger, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex G, the CVR agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B and the Media General voting agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C. We encourage you to read carefully this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the Annexes to, and the documents incorporated by reference in, this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the exhibits to the registration statement to which this joint proxy statement/prospectus relates, for a more complete understanding of the transaction. This section is not intended to provide you with any factual information about Nexstar and Media General. Such information can be found elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the public filings Nexstar and Media General make with the SEC, as described in Chapter Three: Additional Information Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 228 and Chapter Three: Additional Information Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference beginning on page 226.

General Description of the Transaction

On January 27, 2016, Nexstar entered into a merger agreement with Media General and Neptune, pursuant to which Neptune will merge with and into Media General, with Media General surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Nexstar.

It is anticipated that, upon the closing of the transaction, Nexstar shareholders will own approximately 66%, and Media General shareholders will own approximately 34%, of the combined company's outstanding shares.

Prior to the closing of the transaction, Nexstar will take all actions necessary such that, effective as of immediately following the effective time of the merger, the size of its board of directors will be nine members and two current members of the Media General board of directors will be appointed to serve as directors of

Nexstar (currently expected to be Dennis FitzSimons and John Muse). Assuming the Class I directors are re-elected at the Nexstar annual meeting, the seven current Nexstar directors are expected to remain on the board of directors following the closing of the transaction. The current executive officers of Nexstar are expected to remain unchanged.

Further, following the closing of the transaction, Nexstar will be renamed Nexstar Media Group. No vote of Nexstar shareholders or Media General shareholders is required to change Nexstar's name under applicable law.

Merger Consideration

In the merger, each share of Media General common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held by any Media General subsidiary, Nexstar, or any Nexstar subsidiary) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $10.55 in cash, without interest, (ii) 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock and (iii) one non-transferable CVR relating to the net proceeds (if any) from the sale of Media General's spectrum in the FCC auction (unless the CVRs are distributed prior to the closing of the transaction), subject to certain reductions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The cash consideration and the stock consideration are fixed amounts and do not increase or decrease based upon the proceeds (if any) from the disposition of either Nexstar's or Media General's spectrum in the FCC auction.

No fractional shares of Nexstar Class A common stock will be issued in the merger, and Media General shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each CVR will entitle its holder to receive a pro rata share of the Media General Auction Proceeds, subject to reduction pursuant to the formula described in Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the CVR Agreement beginning on page 174. This formula is designed to take into account the fact that former Media General shareholders will receive Nexstar Class A common stock as part of the merger consideration, and as shareholders of Nexstar will obtain economic benefits from the net proceeds (if any) from the disposition of Nexstar's spectrum in the FCC auction. As a result, the aggregate cash amount payable under the CVRs may be less than the full amount of the Media General Auction Proceeds.

The merger agreement also provides that each unvested Media General stock option outstanding immediately prior to the merger will become fully vested and will be converted into an option to purchase Nexstar Class A common stock, in the same amount and at the same price as provided in the underlying Media General stock option, adjusted to account for the cash consideration and the exchange ratio for the stock consideration. All other stock-based awards of Media General outstanding immediately prior to the merger will vest in full and be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement.

Background of the Transaction

In the ordinary course of business, Nexstar's board of directors and senior management actively review strategic opportunities that might be available to enhance shareholder value. As part of these initiatives, Nexstar has acquired or begun providing services to 58 full-power broadcast television stations since 2011, resulting in Nexstar's growth to the seventh-largest broadcast television station operator in the United States, operating or providing services to 99 full-power broadcast television stations in 61 markets as of December 31, 2015.

Over the past several years, Media General's board of directors and senior management actively have pursued strategic transactions designed to enhance Media General's scale to better position Media General to capture the operating synergies of a larger company, participate in industry-wide retransmission revenue growth and provide opportunities for broadcast and digital market share growth. In that connection, on November 12, 2013, Media General completed a business combination with Young. As a result of the Young merger, Media

General owned and operated or provided services to 31 network-affiliated broadcast television stations, and their associated digital media and mobile platforms, in 28 markets and realized annual operating and financing synergies of approximately $65 million.

On March 21, 2014, Media General and LIN Media entered into a merger agreement, pursuant to which Media General acquired LIN Media on December 19, 2014. As a result of the LIN merger, Media General became one of the largest broadcast television groups in the U.S., owning and operating or providing services to 71 stations across 48 markets, reaching approximately 26.5 million households, or 23% of U.S. TV households.

Upon the closing of the LIN merger, Media General's board of directors established a finance committee, which we refer to as the Media General finance committee, comprised of directors H.C. Charles Diao, Soohyung Kim (Committee Chair), John R. Muse and Thomas J. Sullivan. Media General's board of directors established the Media General finance committee to assist the full board in reviewing, and authorized it to oversee and provide recommendations to the full board on, matters relating to Media General's capital structure, financing arrangements, share repurchase opportunities, potential acquisitions and dispositions, and other potential strategic transactions. From time to time after the closing of the LIN merger, Mr. Kim, in his capacity as chairman of the Media General finance committee, and Vincent L. Sadusky, in his capacity as President and Chief Executive Officer of Media General, met with various participants in the broadcasting industry to explore strategic opportunities.

Between September 11 and 14, 2014 and again between January 21 and 23, 2015, John Zieser, Meredith's Chief Development Officer and General Counsel, had various conversations with Mr. Kim, Chair of the Media General finance committee. During these conversations, Mr. Zieser and Mr. Kim discussed the possibility of Meredith and Media General exploring strategic sourcing and co-production opportunities and selected asset sales and swaps. In addition, during the September 11 event, Mr. Zieser met with Perry A. Sook, Chief Executive Officer of Nexstar, regarding potential business opportunities and determined that it would be beneficial to arrange a follow-up meeting in early 2015, after completion of the respective companies' potential transaction and strategic initiatives that needed to be completed during the remainder of 2014. Subsequently, in October 2014, Meredith, SagamoreHill LLC and Nexstar entered into an agreement pursuant to which Meredith and SagamoreHill LLC sold television station KASW-TV (Phoenix), a CW affiliate, to Nexstar for $68 million.

On November 20, 2014, following a National Association of Broadcasters board meeting, Mr. Zieser and Paul Karpowicz, Meredith's President of the Local Media Group, met in New York City with Mr. Sadusky, then in his capacity as President and Chief Executive Officer of LIN Media, to discuss various potential strategic initiatives between Meredith and Media General (prior to completion of the then pending LIN merger), including strategic sourcing and co-production, digital opportunities and asset sales and swaps.

On December 4, 2014, Mr. Zieser, David Johnson, Meredith's Vice President, Corporate Development, and Doug Olson, Executive Vice President of Meredith's National Media Group, met with Ron Bloom, Chief Executive Officer of Bitesize TV, a digital and video production subsidiary of Media General, at Bitesize TV's studios in Los Angeles, California, to discuss video programming and digital opportunities.

From February to June 2015, Meredith's senior management, with the assistance of BDT & Company, which we refer to as BDT, and Moelis & Company LLC, which we refer to as Moelis, confidentially contacted each of Media General and Nexstar to discuss potential strategic transactions, including strategic sourcing and co-production opportunities, selected asset sales and swaps, and potential business combination opportunities.

On January 29, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a regular meeting to review Nexstar's 2014 financial performance and discuss potential initiatives for the upcoming year. At this meeting, Mr. Sook provided the Nexstar board of directors with an overview of the industry landscape and discussed possible counterparties for a strategic and transformative acquisition, including both Media General and Meredith. The Nexstar board of directors supported exploratory discussions between Mr. Sook, together with other members of Nexstar management, and both Media General and Meredith regarding a possible strategic acquisition.

On February 19, 2015, Mr. Sook and Thomas Carter, Chief Financial Officer of Nexstar, met with Messrs. Zieser and Karpowicz and Mr. Joe Ceryanec, Chief Financial Officer of Meredith, at Nexstar's headquarters in Irving, Texas. At that meeting, Mr. Sook indicated that Nexstar was primarily interested in discussing a transaction involving Meredith's broadcast business, although it might be interested in a broader discussion. No specific transaction terms were proposed or discussed. On February 20, 2015, Nexstar and Meredith executed a mutual confidentiality agreement for the purposes of discussion relationships in ownership, joint operations and provision of services.

Beginning in early 2015, the Media General finance committee, together with Media General senior management, met from time to time to review and consider potential transactions involving participants in the broadcasting and digital media industries. RBC Capital Markets, which previously had served as Media General's financial advisor in connection with prior transactions, attended certain of those meetings at the request of the Media General finance committee.

In early March 2015, representatives of Moelis, on behalf of Meredith, contacted Mr. Kim to discuss a number of topics, including the potential for strategic sourcing and co-production opportunities, selected asset sales and swaps, and business combination opportunities between Meredith and Media General. It was determined that Meredith and Media General should seek to negotiate a mutual confidentiality agreement so that the companies could exchange information for the purpose of further exploring these opportunities. Meredith and Media General executed a mutual confidentiality agreement on March 13, 2015.

On March 23, 2015, Media General announced that its board of directors had authorized a share repurchase program of up to $120 million.

On March 24, 2015, as part of Media General's ordinary course meetings to explore strategic opportunities with other participants in the broadcasting industry and at Mr. Sook's request, Messrs. Kim and Sadusky met with Mr. Sook. At the meeting, Mr. Sook discussed generally the potential benefits of a potential combination between Nexstar and Media General, including a potential sale of Nexstar to Media General or a potential purchase of Media General by Nexstar. No specific transaction terms were proposed or discussed.

On March 25, 2015, Moelis, on behalf of Meredith, provided certain preliminary diligence information about Meredith to Media General for the purpose of facilitating Media General's evaluation of potential strategic opportunities with Meredith.

On April 8, 2015, Media General provided certain preliminary diligence information about Media General to Meredith for the purpose of facilitating Meredith's evaluation of potential strategic opportunities with Media General.

On April 23, 2015, during an executive session at a regular meeting of the Media General board of directors, Mr. Sadusky provided Media General's board of directors, among other updates on strategic initiatives, an update on the discussions with Meredith. The Media General board of directors instructed the Media General finance committee and the senior management team to continue exploring strategic opportunities with Meredith. Mr. Sadusky also provided an update on the March 24, 2015 meeting he and Mr. Kim had with Mr. Sook about a potential transaction with Nexstar. During the executive session, Media General's board of directors determined not to proceed with evaluating a potential transaction with Nexstar at that time since Nexstar had not made any specific proposal and Media General was focused on evaluating other strategic initiatives.

Also on April 23, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a regular meeting at which Mr. Sook provided an update on the meetings he and Mr. Carter had with representatives from Media General and Meredith, respectively. The Nexstar board of directors continued to support pursuing exploratory discussions regarding these possible transactions. The Nexstar board of directors also discussed several alternative strategic transactions but believed that the Media General and Meredith discussions were most likely to result in an attractive combination opportunity.

In late April 2015, Mr. Sadusky contacted Mr. Sook to convey the determination of the Media General board of directors, and Mr. Sook communicated this determination to the Nexstar board of directors.

On May 11, 2015, Messrs. Zieser and Ceryanec and a representative from Moelis met with Mr. Kim in New York City. At this meeting, the parties discussed shifting the focus of the discussions between Media General and Meredith, which had been focused on strategic opportunities and sourcing, to a potential business combination of Media General and Meredith.

On May 27, 2015, Steve Lacy, Chief Executive Officer of Meredith, and Messrs. Ceryanec and Zieser met in New York City with Mr. Kim. At the meeting, the Meredith representatives indicated that a transaction with primarily cash consideration reflecting a market premium would likely be more attractive to Meredith and its shareholders than an all-stock transaction not reflecting a market premium.

On May 28, 2015, during an executive session held during a meeting of the Media General finance committee, Mr. Kim briefed the committee on his May 27th meeting with Messrs. Lacy, Ceryanec and Zieser.

On July 2, 2015, Messrs. Lacy, Ceryanec and Zieser met with Mr. Kim in Des Moines, Iowa, to further discuss the potential of a business combination between Media General and Meredith. At that meeting, the Meredith representatives communicated that certain major shareholders of Meredith, which we refer to as the Meredith supporting shareholders, would be supportive of a transaction with Media General if the parties could reach acceptable economic terms. Mr. Kim indicated that he would communicate his discussions with Meredith's senior management to the Media General board of directors and, in light of the support for a transaction by the Meredith supporting shareholders, would suggest to the Media General board of directors that Media General engage a financial advisor to assist Media General in evaluating a potential business combination with Meredith. The parties preliminarily discussed a process and timeline for further mutual diligence and next steps. It was decided that the next step should be for the senior management teams of Media General and Meredith to meet and make management presentations to each other.

On July 7, 2015, at a special telephonic meeting of the Media General finance committee, and then on July 16, 2015, at a special telephonic meeting of Media General's board of directors, Mr. Kim described the history of discussions with Meredith and provided an overview of Meredith's business. At its July 7, 2015 meeting, the Media General finance committee unanimously determined to recommend that Media General's board of directors approve the engagement of RBC Capital Markets as Media General's financial advisor to assist Media General in exploring a possible combination with Meredith. At its July 16, 2015 meeting, the Media General board of directors unanimously approved the engagement of RBC Capital Markets in that role.

On July 22, 2015, senior management teams from Media General and Meredith met at BDT's offices in Chicago, Illinois, to each make management presentations and to discuss the potential synergies and other aspects of a potential business combination. Representatives of RBC Capital Markets, BDT and Moelis also attended this meeting.

Also on July 22, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a regular meeting at which strategic opportunities, including with Meredith and Media General, were discussed. Mr. Sook informed the Nexstar board of directors that Meredith had engaged Moelis in an effort to sell the entire company, but that Meredith was a less attractive potential target for a strategic combination than Media General for several reasons, including the fact that Meredith was seeking to include its publishing assets in a transaction. Mr. Sook also indicated that Media General remained a potential acquisition target and, of potential transformative acquisition targets, it was the most attractive strategic fit for Nexstar. Mr. Sook suggested that a possible next step was to submit a written, non-binding proposal to acquire Media General in order to persuade Media General to engage regarding a possible transaction. The Nexstar board of directors discussed possible options, was supportive of Mr. Sook's suggestion and directed management to retain financial and legal advisors to advise the Nexstar board of directors with respect to a proposal. Following this meeting, Nexstar management contacted BofA Merrill Lynch, and Kirkland & Ellis LLP, which we refer to as Kirkland, as financial and legal advisors, respectively, because each advisor has a historical relationship with Nexstar.

During the weeks of July 26, 2015 and August 2, 2015, management and other representatives of both Meredith and Media General exchanged information and conducted various diligence discussions.

On July 31, 2015 and August 5, 2015, the Media General finance committee held special telephonic meetings to discuss the results of Media General's diligence activities and the advisability of a business combination with Meredith. All but one of the Media General directors who were not members of the Media General finance committee also attended the August 5, 2015 meeting. At both meetings, senior management of Media General provided an update on its work to date. RBC Capital Markets attended both meetings and discussed with the Media General finance committee preliminary financial aspects of a potential business combination with Meredith.

On August 6, 2015, Media General's board of directors held a special telephonic meeting to consider whether to make a non-binding proposal to acquire Meredith. Senior management of Media General presented the strategic rationale, potential downside risks, upside opportunities and a synergies overview for the potential combination with Meredith. RBC Capital Markets discussed with the full Media General board of directors preliminary financial aspects of a potential combination with Meredith. At that meeting, Media General's board of directors unanimously approved the submission of a formal proposal to Meredith for a combination in which Media General would acquire Meredith for consideration consisting of $30.91 of cash and 1.4894 shares of Media General common stock for each outstanding share of Meredith common stock and Meredith Class B stock.

On August 7, 2015, Mr. Sadusky delivered a letter to Mr. Lacy communicating this proposal, which we refer to as Media General's August 7 proposal.

On August 10, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a telephonic meeting with representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch and Kirkland present to consider whether to make a written, non-binding proposal to acquire Media General as a means to engage in discussions with Media General about a possible transaction. The Nexstar board of directors discussed a draft written, non-binding proposal to acquire Media General for $17.00 per share, consisting of approximately 64% cash and 36% shares of Nexstar common stock. BofA Merrill Lynch discussed with the Nexstar board of directors preliminary financial analyses regarding a potential acquisition of Media General. Kirkland provided an overview to the Nexstar board of directors of its fiduciary duties in connection with such a proposal. Mr. Sook, along with BofA Merrill Lynch, also discussed the anticipated synergies that could result from such a transaction. At that meeting, the Nexstar board of directors unanimously directed Nexstar management to submit the written, non-binding proposal to acquire Media General. On August 7, 2015, the last business day before the Nexstar board of directors submitted such proposal, the NYSE closing price of a share of Media General voting common stock was $13.75 per share and Media General voting common stock had a 30-day volume-weighted average price of $15.26 per share.

On August 10, 2015, Mr. Sook sent a letter to Mr. Sadusky and J. Stewart Bryan III, then Chairman of the Board of Directors of Media General, containing an unsolicited, non-binding proposal to acquire Media General for $17.00 per share, consisting of approximately 64% cash and 36% shares of Nexstar common stock, subject to diligence and obtaining financing, which we refer to as the Nexstar August 10 proposal.

On August 13, 2015, representatives of BDT spoke by phone with representatives of RBC Capital Markets to provide feedback from an August 11, 2015 meeting of Meredith's board of directors, during which the Meredith board of directors had reviewed and considered Media General's August 7 proposal, and to explain the view of Meredith's board of directors regarding the need and rationale for higher consideration to be paid by Media General in any business combination with Meredith.

On August 14, 2015, Media General's board of directors held a special telephonic meeting to consider both Meredith's response to Media General's August 7 proposal and the Nexstar August 10 proposal. At this meeting, a representative of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP, which we refer to as Fried Frank, outside counsel to Media General, reviewed the directors' fiduciary duties in evaluating the potential business combination with Meredith and the Nexstar August 10 proposal. RBC Capital Markets discussed, among other things, the potential pro forma financial impact on Media General of a transaction with Meredith. Media General's directors discussed making a revised proposal with respect to a business combination with Meredith and unanimously authorized the Media General finance committee to communicate a revised proposal to Meredith, consisting of one of two separate alternatives for the consideration to be paid per outstanding share of Meredith common stock and Meredith Class B stock: $33.00 of cash and 1.4894 shares of Media General common stock; or $35.00 of cash and 1.3615 shares of Media General common stock, with additional negotiating authority of up to $2.00 of cash per share. On August 13, 2015, the last business day preceding this board meeting, the NYSE closing price of a share of Media General voting common stock was $13.05 per share.

Also at the August 14, 2015 meeting, RBC Capital Markets discussed with the Media General board of directors financial aspects of the Nexstar August 10 proposal. Media General's board of directors then discussed various considerations relating to a potential transaction with Nexstar, including Media General's financial performance and future prospects, the ability of Nexstar to achieve its proposed synergies from a transaction with Media General, the leverage that Nexstar would need to incur to complete a transaction with Media General and the fact that Media General's shareholders would be significant shareholders in Nexstar after a combination. After full discussion, the Media General board of directors unanimously determined that pursuing the Nexstar August 10 proposal at that time was not in the best interests of Media General and its shareholders. The Media General board directed that a formal response rejecting Nexstar's proposal be sent to Nexstar.

Later on August 14, 2015, in accordance with the directives of the Media General board of directors, representatives of RBC Capital Markets communicated to representatives of BDT the two revised consideration alternatives authorized by Media General's board of directors for a potential transaction with Meredith.

On August 16, 2015, representatives of BDT communicated a counterproposal to representatives of RBC Capital Markets providing for consideration for each outstanding share of Meredith common stock and Meredith Class B stock of $36.00 in cash and 1.85 shares of Media General common stock. Representatives of RBC Capital Markets communicated this counterproposal to senior management of Media General and Mr. Kim. Later on August 16, 2015, Mr. Kim called representatives of BDT and indicated that Media General could not agree to the terms of Meredith's counterproposal. Representatives of BDT asked Mr. Kim to request that Media General's board of directors and senior management consider whether Media General could increase its proposed purchase price offered on August 14, 2015. Later that same day, in accordance with the directives of the Media General board of directors, representatives of RBC Capital Markets called representatives of BDT to relay Media General's revised proposal consisting of $35.00 in cash and 1.4894 shares of Media General common stock for each outstanding share of Meredith common stock and Meredith Class B stock.

In the afternoon on August 18, 2015, representatives of BDT communicated to representatives of RBC Capital Markets a counterproposal from Meredith's board of directors of $34.55 of cash and 1.5928 shares of Media General common stock for each outstanding share of Meredith common stock and Meredith Class B stock.

That evening, the Media General finance committee held a special telephonic meeting to consider Meredith's counterproposal. At this meeting, RBC Capital Markets discussed financial aspects of Meredith's counterproposal and the Media General finance committee discussed the appropriate basis for valuing the stock portion of the merger consideration given recent volatility in the trading price of Media General voting common stock. After full discussion, the Media General finance committee unanimously approved and subsequently communicated to representatives of BDT through representatives of RBC Capital Markets a best and final offer for each outstanding share of Meredith common stock and Meredith Class B stock having a value of $54.82 per share (based upon the prior day's NYSE closing price of a share of Media General voting common stock of $13.31), consisting of either: (i) $35.00 in cash per share and 1.4894 shares of Media General common stock or (ii) $34.57 in cash per share and 1.5214 shares of Media General common stock.

On August 20, 2015, representatives of BDT communicated to representatives of RBC Capital Markets that Meredith was in agreement with Media General's revised offer of $54.82 per share and that, based on Media General's revised offer, Meredith was willing to proceed with further confirmatory diligence and to negotiate definitive documentation. Representatives of BDT also emphasized that, although the economic terms had been settled, it was important to the Meredith board of directors and the Meredith supporting shareholders that the combined company's senior management team consist primarily of Meredith senior management, led by Mr. Lacy as Chief Executive Officer.

Also on August 20, 2015, at a special telephonic meeting of the Media General finance committee, representatives of RBC Capital Markets informed the Media General finance committee that representatives of BDT had indicated, among other things, that, while Meredith was in agreement with Media General's $54.82 per share offer, Meredith's board of directors' position was that Mr. Lacy should be the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company. At that meeting, following discussion regarding Meredith's position that Mr. Lacy be the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company, the Media General finance committee determined to recommend that Meredith's board of directors be provided the opportunity to meet with Mr. Sadusky prior to Meredith taking a firm position on the leadership of the combined company.

From August 21 to 23, 2015, after consultation with senior management of Meredith and Mr. Kim, representatives of BDT and RBC Capital Markets had several conversations regarding the composition of the combined company's senior management team. It was determined that Messrs. Lacy and Sadusky would each meet with a group of members of the other company's board of directors before the respective boards further considered the combined company's senior management.

On August 23, 2015, representatives of Cooley LLP, Meredith's legal advisor, which we refer to as Cooley, provided to representatives of RBC Capital Markets a first draft of the Meredith merger agreement.

During the weeks of August 23, 2015 and August 30, 2015, senior management of Meredith and Media General, the Media General finance committee and representatives of their respective advisors engaged in numerous diligence conversations and other communications.

On August 24, 2015, Mr. Bryan sent a letter to Mr. Sook to convey the determination of the Media General board of directors not to pursue the Nexstar August 10 proposal.

During late August and early September 2015, representatives of Meredith, Media General and their respective legal and financial advisors negotiated the terms of a merger agreement between Media General and Meredith.

On August 28, 2015, Messrs. Lacy and Ceryanec made a presentation to all of the Media General directors, and Mr. Sadusky made a presentation to several Meredith directors. During these meetings, Messrs. Lacy and Sadusky each presented his views and plans concerning the strategy, operations, opportunities, synergies and challenges of the combined company and his candidacy for Chief Executive Officer of the combined company and discussed the same with such directors.

On September 1, 2015, Media General's board of directors held a special meeting to discuss the proposed terms of transaction between Media General and Meredith. Representatives of RBC Capital Markets and Fried Frank, as well as Media General's senior management, attended. Senior management of Media General reviewed the progress in negotiations and diligence since the last meeting of the Media General board of directors on August 19, 2015. RBC

Capital Markets discussed financial aspects of the proposed business combination, including the proposed financing terms for such transaction. Representatives of Fried Frank provided a summary of the proposed transaction structure and key merger agreement terms, including the structure of the transaction, the material conditions to closing, the deal protection terms, pre-closing covenants, Meredith's request for a voting agreement from Standard General and Kainos Capital and the termination fees and triggering events for payment of the fees by both companies. However, following discussion regarding the proposed management for the combined company and Mr. Lacy's background and experience, the Media General board of directors' view was that Mr. Sadusky should be the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company. Dennis FitzSimons, a director of Media General, was selected by the Media General board of directors to communicate the view of the board to representatives of BDT.

On September 2, 2015, Mr. FitzSimons contacted representatives of BDT to inform them of the Media General board of directors' view regarding the identity of the combined company's chief executive officer.

Also on September 2, 2015, Mr. Sook contacted representatives of Moelis to communicate that Nexstar would be interested in acquiring Meredith in a transaction that included both the broadcasting and publishing businesses. He specified that Nexstar would consider making an offer with a per share price in the mid-$50s per outstanding Meredith common share, consisting of approximately 70% cash and 30% Nexstar common stock. Mr. Sook also stated that Nexstar could move quickly to reach an agreement. He also indicated that Nexstar's interest was due in part to its belief that, based on a rumor in the market, a transaction between Media General and Meredith was imminent. Moelis immediately communicated Mr. Sook's conversation to Mr. Zieser at Meredith. Later that day, Mr. Sook again contacted representatives of Moelis and indicated that the stock component of the consideration would more likely be in the 13% to 17% range, rather than 30% as earlier indicated. Moelis again contacted Meredith to convey this additional information from Mr. Sook.

On September 3, 2015, following a special telephonic meeting of the Meredith board of directors, representatives of BDT communicated to Mr. FitzSimons the view of Meredith's board of directors that its willingness to proceed with a business combination with Media General was contingent on the senior management team of the combined company being led by Mr. Lacy.

Also on September 3, 2015, the Media General finance committee held a special telephonic meeting. A representative of Fried Frank was also in attendance. During an executive session, the Media General finance committee determined by a three-to-one vote (with Mr. Muse voting against based on concern that Media General's stock price had recently declined, concerns regarding Meredith's management's ability to execute and achieve the synergies necessary for the merger with Meredith to be successful, and that it might be beneficial for Media General to have more time to assess the transaction) to recommend to the Media General board of directors that it approve the Meredith merger transaction with Mr. Lacy to serve as chief executive officer of the combined company.

On September 4, 2015, Media General's board of directors held a special meeting in New York City. Media General's senior management and representatives of its advisors, including RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank and Media General's regulatory counsel, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, which we refer to as Pillsbury, were also in attendance. In executive session, with Mr. Sadusky not attending, the Media General directors discussed their views regarding the appropriate chief executive officer, chairman of the board, and senior management of the combined company.

At the conclusion of its September 4, 2015 meeting, after full discussion, Media General's board of directors, by a vote of seven to four, approve the proposed Meredith merger agreement. Directors Royal W. Carson, III, Douglas W. McCormick, Sadusky and Muse expressed their concern about Media General's recent stock price decline, their concerns about the ability of Meredith's management to execute and achieve the synergies necessary for the merger with Meredith to be successful, and that it might be beneficial for Media General to have more time to assess the transaction, and, as such, voted against the proposed transaction with Meredith and the proposed debt financing.

After the September 4, 2015 meeting of the Media General board of directors, in accordance with the directives of Media General's board of directors, Mr. Kim and a representative of RBC Capital Markets informed representatives of Meredith of the Media General board's decision at its board meeting and that Kainos Capital had indicated that it would be unwilling to enter into a voting and support agreement.

Thereafter, representatives of Fried Frank and Cooley finalized the Meredith merger agreement substantially on the terms approved by the Media General board of directors at its September 4, 2015 meeting.

On September 7, 2015, the Media General board of directors held a special telephonic meeting. Members of Media General senior management and representatives of RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank and Joele Frank, Wilkinson Brimmer Katcher, Media General's public relations firm, which we refer to as Joele Frank, were present. Representatives of Fried Frank provided an overview of the final transaction terms.

That night, Media General and Meredith entered into the Meredith merger agreement.

On the morning of September 8, 2015, Meredith and Media General issued a joint press release announcing the proposed transaction and hosted a joint conference call and webcast to discuss the announcement.

On September 9, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a telephonic meeting. Messrs. Sook and Carter provided the Nexstar board of directors with an overview of the financial aspects of the announced Meredith-Media General transaction and stated that, in light of that transaction, Nexstar's options were to make a public proposal to acquire either Media General or Meredith, or to pursue the television stations that Meredith and Media General had agreed to divest as part of that transaction. Nexstar's management did not believe that pursuing an acquisition of Meredith in the context of the announced Meredith-Media General transaction was advisable but believed that consideration of continued pursuit of Media General or acquisition of the television stations to be divested could make strategic sense. The Nexstar board of directors requested that Nexstar management prepare further information regarding the television stations that Meredith and Media General had agreed to divest and further analysis on a public proposal to acquire Media General for further consideration of Nexstar's options at a later meeting.

On September 17, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a telephonic meeting to discuss whether to continue to pursue a transaction with Media General or to pursue the acquisition of the television stations that Meredith and Media General had agreed to divest. Messrs. Sook and Carter discussed with the Nexstar board of directors their perceptions of the views of shareholders of both Nexstar and Media General, which generally disfavored the Meredith-Media General deal, and several inquiries they had received from those shareholders encouraging Nexstar to pursue an acquisition of Media General. Mr. Carter discussed with the Nexstar board of directors an update to the preliminary financial analysis of an acquisition of Media General previously discussed by the Nexstar board of directors on August 10, 2015. Mr. Carter also noted that no confidential information regarding the television stations that Meredith and Media General had agreed to divest was available yet, but that pursuing these television stations would be a less transformative strategic opportunity than an acquisition of Media General, and that there were few transformational alternatives to an acquisition of Media General providing as attractive of a strategic fit for Nexstar's business. Following discussion, the Nexstar board of directors instructed management to prepare, with Nexstar's advisors, a public proposal to acquire Media General for consideration at a later meeting and to engage additional advisors.

During the period from September 9, 2015 through September 25, 2015, Nexstar's management engaged additional advisors, including Sard Verbinnen & Co., which we refer to as Sard, as public relations advisor, and Innisfree M&A Incorporated, which we refer to as Innisfree, as proxy solicitation advisor, to analyze and plan for the possibility of making a proposal to acquire Media General and the option of making such a proposal public. BofA Merrill Lynch, Kirkland and Sard discussed with Nexstar's management at various meetings and telephone calls during this time drafts of a proposal and tactical considerations with respect to the public relations aspect of making such a proposal public. BofA Merrill Lynch also reviewed with Nexstar's management preliminary financial analyses with respect to an acquisition of Media General, and Kirkland reviewed with Nexstar's management the terms of the Meredith merger agreement.

On September 25, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a telephonic meeting, at which representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch, Kirkland, Sard and Innisfree were present, to further discuss the possibility of making a public proposal to acquire Media General. Mr. Sook reviewed with the Nexstar board of directors the events that had transpired since the Nexstar August 10 proposal, as well as Nexstar's previous discussions with Media General. Mr. Sook then reviewed with the Nexstar board of directors a proposal to acquire Media General in a cash-and-stock transaction valued at $14.50 per share of Media General common stock, consisting of $10.50 in cash and 0.0898 Nexstar shares per outstanding share of Media General common stock. BofA Merrill Lynch discussed with the Nexstar board of directors financial analyses with respect to this proposal, as well as a comparison of the financial analyses of this proposal compared to the Nexstar August 10 proposal. Representatives of Kirkland then reviewed with the Nexstar board of directors their fiduciary duties in the context of making an unsolicited public proposal and related legal considerations, including a review of the terms of the Meredith merger agreement. Representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch, Kirkland, Sard and Innisfree also discussed with the Nexstar board of directors various tactical considerations regarding the making of a proposal and whether to make it public, particularly in light of the "force the vote" provision in the Meredith merger agreement that would permit Meredith to require Media General to hold a shareholder vote before Media General would be able to terminate the Meredith merger agreement. Representatives of Sard and Innisfree discussed with the Nexstar board of directors considerations relating to a public relations strategy in connection with making an unsolicited, public proposal. Following discussion and questions of management and Nexstar's advisors, the Nexstar board of directors directed Nexstar's management to make a proposal to acquire Media General on Monday, September 28, 2015, for consideration valued at $14.50 per share, consisting of $10.50 per share of cash and 0.0898 of a share of Nexstar common stock per outstanding share of Media General common stock and publicly announce such a proposal shortly thereafter.

On September 28, 2015, Nexstar delivered to Media General and publicly announced an unsolicited, non-binding proposal to acquire Media General for consideration valued at $14.50 per share, consisting of $10.50 per share of cash and 0.0898 of a share of Nexstar common stock per outstanding share of Media General common stock, conditioned upon Media General and Meredith terminating the Meredith merger agreement. We refer to this proposal as the Nexstar September 28 proposal. On September 25, 2015, the last business day preceding delivery of the Nexstar September 28 proposal, the NYSE closing price of a share of Media General voting common stock was $11.15 per share.

Also on September 28, 2015, Media General announced that the Media General board of directors, in consultation with its legal and financial advisors, would carefully review and consider the Nexstar September 28 proposal to determine the course of action that it believed was in the best interests of Media General and its shareholders.

On September 30, 2015, the Media General board of directors held a special telephonic meeting to discuss the Nexstar September 28 proposal. At the meeting, Mr. Sadusky reviewed the terms of the proposal with the Media General board of directors. A representative of Fried Frank discussed with the Media General board of directors their fiduciary duties in evaluating the Nexstar September 28 proposal, Media General's obligations under the Meredith merger agreement in connection with the Nexstar September 28 proposal and the possibility of retaining additional advisors to assist the Media General board in evaluating the Nexstar September 28 proposal. RBC Capital Markets discussed with the Media General board of directors preliminary financial perspectives with respect to the Nexstar September 28 proposal. After full discussion, the Media General board of directors requested that directors H.C. Charles Diao, Dennis FitzSimons and Douglas W. McCormick evaluate and make a recommendation to the Media General board of directors with respect to additional legal and financial advisors to advise Media General's board of directors in connection with the Nexstar September 28 proposal.

At a special telephonic meeting held on October 4, 2015, the Media General board of directors approved the engagement of Goldman, Sachs & Co., which we refer to as Goldman Sachs, and Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, which we refer to as Weil Gotshal, as additional financial and legal advisors, respectively, to assist the Media General board of directors in, among other things, its evaluation and consideration of the Nexstar September 28 proposal.

On October 5, 2015, Media General announced that it had engaged Goldman Sachs and Weil Gotshal. Also on October 5, 2015, Nexstar issued a press release in response to Media General's retention of additional financial and legal advisors.

On October 7, 2015, the Media General board of directors held a special telephonic meeting to further discuss the Nexstar September 28 proposal. Representatives of RBC Capital Markets, Goldman Sachs, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal attended the meeting. At the meeting, representatives of Goldman Sachs discussed with the Media General board of directors potential steps to be taken by the Media General board of directors in connection with the Nexstar September 28 proposal. After full discussion, the Media General board of directors authorized senior management of Media General to seek a waiver under the Meredith merger agreement from Meredith to permit Media General to engage in due diligence and discussions with Nexstar.

On October 7, 2015, in accordance with the directives of the Media General board of directors, Media General's legal and financial advisors contacted Meredith's legal and financial advisors to request a waiver. Over the next several days, Media General's and Meredith's advisors negotiated the terms of a limited waiver that permitted Media General to exchange with Nexstar certain financial and related information to confirm potential synergies and other financial matters relating to the Nexstar September 28 proposal.

On October 13, 2015, the Media General board of directors held a regularly scheduled meeting. Representatives of RBC Capital Markets, Goldman Sachs, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal attended the meeting. At the meeting, representatives of Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal reviewed the fiduciary duties of the directors, Media General's obligations under the Meredith merger agreement, the terms of the limited waiver being negotiated with Meredith and the terms of a potential mutual confidentiality agreement to be entered into with Nexstar. At the meeting, RBC Capital Markets discussed with the Media General board of directors its preliminary financial perspectives with respect to the Nexstar September 28 proposal and the proposed transaction with Meredith and representatives of Goldman Sachs separately reviewed with the Media General board of directors their preliminary financial analyses with respect to the Nexstar September 28 proposal and the proposed transaction with Meredith. After full discussion, the Media General board of directors unanimously authorized senior management of Media General to enter into a waiver to certain terms of the Meredith merger agreement to allow for the mutual exchange of certain information with Nexstar and, if the limited waiver was entered into with Meredith, to enter into a mutual confidentiality agreement with Nexstar and to begin exchanging with Nexstar due diligence information, as permitted under the limited waiver.

On October 14, 2015, Meredith and Media General entered into the limited waiver, and each of Meredith and Media General publicly announced the execution of the limited waiver. Also on October 14, 2015, Nexstar issued a press release in response to Media General's announcement, stating that it looked forward to exchanging information with Media General.

After full discussion, the Media General board of directors unanimously reached the determination under the Meredith merger agreement that allowed Media General to explore a potential transaction and negotiate with a third party. The Media General board of directors also concluded that the Nexstar September 28 proposal was unacceptable as currently constructed. The Media General board of directors, however, authorized Media General's management and advisors to engage in negotiations with Nexstar regarding the Nexstar September 28 proposal.

On November 16, 2015, Mr. Sadusky notified Messrs. Lacy and Sook of the determination of the Media General board of directors to engage in discussions with Nexstar, and Media General issued a press release announcing such determination. Also on November 16, 2015, Meredith issued a press release regarding Media General's announcement, and Nexstar issued a press release reiterating the Nexstar September 28 proposal in light of Media General's announcement.

The parties also discussed Media General's potential participation in the FCC auction, and the possibility of issuing a CVR to Media General's shareholders as part of the consideration, which CVR would allow Media General's shareholders to receive their pro rata share of the net after-tax proceeds received in the FCC auction from the sale of existing Media General spectrum, subject to certain reductions.

On November 19, 2015, representatives of Media General's management, together with representatives of Goldman Sachs and RBC Capital Markets, and representatives of Nexstar's management, BofA Merrill Lynch and Kirkland again met in New York City. of directors and representatives of RBC Capital Markets, Goldman Sachs, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal also discussed a potential revised transaction with Meredith structured as a merger of equals in which both Media General and Meredith shareholders would receive shares of the combined company and cash, and Meredith shareholders would no longer receive a premium for their shares.

On November 21, 2015, at the direction of the Media General board of directors, representatives of Goldman Sachs and RBC Capital Markets discussed with representatives of BDT the possibility of a revised merger of equals transaction between Media General and Meredith and communicated a merger transaction structure that could be unanimously supported by the Media General board of directors and could be supported by Mr. Muse in his capacity as a shareholder, and that Media General's board of directors believed would be better supported by Media General's shareholders. The revised transaction would involve both the Media General and Meredith shareholders receiving shares of the combined company and cash as well as an annual dividend and a CVR that would entitle each set of shareholders to a pro rata share of the net after-tax proceeds that its respective company would receive in the incentive auction for the sale of each such company's pre-transaction assets. Media General's proposal would have resulted in Media General shareholders receiving $4.00 in cash per share and ownership of 52.9% of the pro forma combined company, Meredith shareholders receiving $10.46 in cash per share and ownership of 47.1% of the pro forma combined company, and shareholders of both Media General and Meredith receiving a first year dividend of $0.80 per share as well as a CVR.

On November 24, 2015, also at the direction of the Media General board of directors, representatives of Goldman Sachs and RBC Capital Markets, on behalf of Media General, communicated to representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch a proposal under which Nexstar would acquire Media General for consideration per share consisting of $10.54 in cash, 0.1400 of a share of Nexstar common stock and a CVR.

Later on November 24, 2015, Nexstar's management updated the Nexstar board of directors on Media General's proposal conveyed by Goldman Sachs and RBC Capital Markets.

Following these discussions, Nexstar's management authorized BofA Merrill Lynch to communicate a proposal to Media General's financial advisors for an acquisition of Media General consisting of $10.54 in cash, 0.1024 of a share of Nexstar common stock and a CVR, conditioned upon Media General and Meredith terminating the Meredith merger agreement. On December 1, 2015, representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch, on behalf of Nexstar, communicated this revised proposal to representatives of Goldman Sachs and RBC Capital Markets. We refer to this proposal as the December 1 Nexstar proposal.

On December 4, 2015, the Media General board of directors held an information session at which representatives of Goldman Sachs and RBC Capital Markets updated the Media General board of directors regarding the status of discussions with Meredith regarding potential terms for a revised merger of equals transaction with Meredith in which both Media General and Meredith shareholders would receive shares of the combined company and cash as well as an annual dividend and a CVR. The December 1 Nexstar proposal was also discussed during this session. The Media General board of directors instructed Media General's management to deliver a letter to Nexstar indicating Media General's willingness to consider a transaction in which Media General's shareholders receive for each share $11.00 in cash, 0.1350 of a share of Nexstar common stock and a CVR and requesting that Nexstar provide to the Media General board of directors its best and final offer for an acquisition of Media General. The Media General board of directors also instructed Media General's management and advisors to continue discussions with Meredith regarding a revised merger of equals transaction with the objective of reaching a deal that would be attractive to both companies shareholders.

On December 6, 2015, Mr. Sadusky sent a letter to Mr. Sook reflecting the terms discussed by the Media General board of directors and requesting that Nexstar submit to Media General a best and final proposal.

On December 8, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a meeting to discuss potential next steps with respect to the Nexstar proposal to acquire Media General. Mr. Sook reviewed with the Nexstar board of directors the current state of the negotiations between the parties, which were at an impasse. Mr. Sook proposed that Nexstar issue a press release on December 9, 2015, publicly disclosing that impasse in order to generate shareholder support for a Nexstar acquisition of Media General. The Nexstar board of directors discussed various alternatives should the discussions with Media General continue to result in an impasse. Following discussion, the Nexstar board of directors directed management to issue such a press release.

On December 9, 2015, Nexstar issued a press release disclosing the impasse in the discussions with respect to an acquisition of Media General by Nexstar.

During the weeks of December 6, 2015 and December 13, 2015, Media General and Meredith, together with their respective advisors, held discussions and exchanged proposals relating to a potential merger of equals transaction. As of December 17, 2015, Media General and Meredith, together with their respective advisors, had exchanged several proposals for a revised merger of equals transaction. Media General's last proposal of December 15, 2015 would have resulted in Media General shareholders receiving $4.15 in cash per share and ownership of 50.6% of the pro forma combined company, Meredith shareholders receiving $14.00 in cash per share and ownership of 49.4% of the pro forma combined company, and shareholders of both Media General and Meredith receiving a first year dividend of $0.68 per share as well as a CVR. Meredith's response proposal of December 17, 2015 would have resulted in Media General shareholders receiving $3.90 in cash per share and ownership of 50.2% of the pro forma combined company, Meredith shareholders receiving $14.95 in cash per share and ownership of 49.8% of the pro forma combined company, and shareholders of both Media General and Meredith receiving a first year dividend of $0.68 per share as well as a CVR.

On December 10, 2015, the Media General board of directors held a regular meeting. At this meeting, Media General's senior management and representatives of RBC Capital Markets and Goldman Sachs updated the Media General board of directors regarding the status of discussions with Meredith. RBC Capital Markets also discussed with the Media General board of directors its preliminary financial perspectives with respect to a revised transaction with Meredith and representatives of Goldman Sachs reviewed with the Media General board of directors their preliminary financial analyses with respect to a revised transaction with Meredith. At this meeting, Media General's board of directors instructed Media General's senior management and financial advisors to continue their discussions with Meredith. Representatives of Fried Frank were also present at this meeting.

Thereafter, on behalf of and at the direction of the respective boards of directors of Meredith and Media General, representatives of BDT, Goldman Sachs and RBC Capital Markets continued to discuss a proposed merger of equals transaction between Media General and Meredith.

At Mr. Sook's request, on December 17, 2015, Mr. Muse, in his capacity as a shareholder of Media General, met with Mr. Sook in Dallas, Texas. At that meeting, and in discussions with Mr. Sook over the next several days, Mr. Muse and Mr. Sook discussed potential terms of Nexstar's proposal to acquire Media General.

Also on December 17, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a meeting to discuss revisions to its proposal to acquire Media General. Mr. Sook updated the Nexstar board of directors on the ongoing discussions with Media General and his earlier meeting with Mr. Muse. The Nexstar board of directors discussed potential revisions to the terms of the Nexstar proposal to acquire Media General given the feedback from Mr. Muse and additional financial information presented by Mr. Carter. Following discussion, the Nexstar board of directors directed management to deliver a revised proposal to acquire Media General for $10.55 in cash (less any termination fee in excess of $60 million payable by Media General) and $7.00 per share of Nexstar common stock, as well as a CVR, conditioned upon Media General and Meredith terminating the Meredith merger agreement.

On December 20, 2015, Nexstar delivered to Media General a written, non-binding revised proposal to acquire Media General for consideration consisting of $10.55 in cash (less any termination fee in excess of $60 million payable by Media General), $7.00 per share of Nexstar common stock (indicating that this reflected an exchange ratio of 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar, based on the closing price of the Nexstar common stock on December 18, 2015, the last completed trading day, but that the exchange ratio would be based on the closing price of the Nexstar common stock at the time of execution of a merger agreement), as well as a CVR. The proposal was conditioned upon the termination of the Meredith merger agreement, and Media General executing a merger agreement with Nexstar on or prior to January 12, 2016. Along with this proposal, Nexstar delivered a debt financing commitment from BANA and BofA Merrill Lynch in support of its revised proposal, which debt financing commitment was subject to additional lender due diligence.

Also on December 20, 2015, the Media General board of directors held an information session, together with members of management and representatives of Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal. At this meeting, RBC Capital Markets updated the Media General board of directors regarding its preliminary financial perspectives with respect to Nexstar's December 20 proposal and representatives of Goldman Sachs updated the Media General board of directors regarding their preliminary financial analyses with respect to Nexstar's December 20 proposal. The Media General board of directors and representatives of RBC Capital Markets, Goldman Sachs, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal also discussed the revised transaction then under discussion with Meredith.

On December 21, 2015, at the direction of the Media General board of directors, Mr. Muse communicated to Mr. Sook that Nexstar would need to agree either to provide for a floating exchange ratio that would ensure that the Media General shareholders received Nexstar shares with a $7.00 value as of the closing or to provide for a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar. Mr. Muse also communicated that it was critical that Nexstar obtain a financing commitment providing for sufficient funds to ensure that Nexstar would be able to complete a transaction and provide contractual and regulatory commitments that would provide high certainty of consummation of a transaction on an expeditious basis.

On December 21 and 22, 2015, at the direction of the Media General board of directors, representatives of Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank, Weil Gotshal and Pillsbury engaged in discussions with representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch, Kirkland and Wiley Rein LLP, Nexstar's regulatory counsel, which we refer to as Wiley, regarding the terms of Nexstar's proposed financing and Nexstar's plan to obtain regulatory approval for an acquisition of Media General.

On December 21, 2015, Kirkland sent to Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal a term sheet reflecting proposed terms for a CVR, which was followed on December 23, 2015 by a draft of a CVR agreement reflecting the terms contained in the term sheet. On December 22, 2015, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal sent to Kirkland a mark-up of the draft merger agreement initially sent to Media General by Nexstar on October 30, 2015. Over the next several days, representatives of Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal engaged in discussions and exchanged drafts of the CVR term sheet, the CVR agreement and the merger agreement with Kirkland.

On December 24, 2015, the Media General board of directors held an information session at which members of management, together with representatives of Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal, updated the Media General board of directors on the discussions with Nexstar, including Nexstar's most recent suggestion that the stock consideration payable in a transaction reflect $7.00 per Media General share at the time of the announcement of a transaction. The Media General board of directors noted that based on Nexstar's closing share price as of December 23, 2015, this would have resulted in Media General shareholders receiving stock consideration consisting of 0.1196 of a Nexstar share, rather than the 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar. The Media General board of directors discussed the exchange ratio and believed that the 0.1249 ratio was appropriate. Following this session, at the direction of the Media General board of directors, representatives of RBC Capital Markets and Goldman Sachs contacted representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch to inform them that the stock consideration would need to be a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar common stock for each Media General share.

On December 27, 2015, representatives of BDT communicated to representatives of RBC Capital Markets that Meredith did not intend to waive the force the vote requirement under the Meredith merger agreement. BDT also urged that Media General finalize the proposed merger of equals transaction and submit it to a vote of Media General's shareholders. Also on December 27, 2015, representatives of Cooley provided to representatives of Fried Frank an initial draft of an amendment to the Meredith merger agreement reflecting the potential terms of a proposed merger of equals transaction that had been discussed by Meredith and Media General. Under this revised transaction, both Media General and Meredith shareholders would receive shares of the combined company, cash, an annual dividend and a CVR, with shareholders of both companies being able to elect to receive all stock, all cash or the standard stock-cash mix (subject to overall caps for each company's shareholders on the total number of shares issued and amount of cash paid).

On December 28, 2015, Messrs. Sadusky and Muse had a call with Messrs. Sook and Carter, to communicate Media General's requirements that the stock consideration that Nexstar would pay in the transaction be based on a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar common stock, which based on the closing price of the Nexstar shares on December 24, 2015, would have a value of $7.49, Nexstar obtain a financing commitment that would provide Nexstar with sufficient financing to consummate a proposed transaction, including the refinancing of both companies existing indebtedness that would need to be repaid in connection with a transaction, and commit to take necessary actions to obtain regulatory approval for a transaction without delay. The parties also discussed certain matters relating to the CVR agreement and the merger agreement.

Also on December 28, 2015, the Nexstar board of directors held a meeting, at which representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch and Kirkland were present. Representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch updated the Nexstar board of directors on the status of the discussions with Media General and presented its financial analysis with respect to an acquisition of Media General for $10.55 in cash, shares of Nexstar common stock worth $7.00 per Media General share at a fixed exchange ratio and a CVR. Representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch and Nexstar management also discussed with the Nexstar board of directors open points in the discussions with Media General, including Media General's proposal to provide for a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1249 Nexstar shares for each Media General share and Nexstar's proposal to fix the exchange ratio to provide for $7.00 worth of Nexstar common stock per Media General share as of the date immediately prior to the execution of a merger agreement. The Nexstar board of directors discussed various aspects of the proposed acquisition of Media General as well as Nexstar management's projections of the anticipated synergies to be achieved and anticipated divestitures that would be required to satisfy FCC rules. Mr. Carter provided an overview of the debt financing commitments that had been negotiated by Nexstar's management. Representatives of Kirkland reviewed with the Nexstar board of directors the terms of the proposed merger agreement, as well as the directors' fiduciary duties in the context of the terms of the proposed merger agreement. Following discussion and questions of Nexstar's management and its advisors, the Nexstar board of directors directed Nexstar's management to continue to negotiate with Media General to finalize the terms of the acquisition.

Later that day, Nexstar delivered to Media General a draft of a financing commitment that would provide Nexstar with sufficient financing to consummate a proposed transaction, which draft financing commitment was subject to additional lender due diligence.

On December 29, 2015, the Media General board of directors held an information session at which members of management, together with representatives of Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank, Weil Gotshal and Pillsbury, updated the Media General board of directors on the discussions with Nexstar, including the open issues in the draft merger agreement and CVR agreement and the terms reflected in the debt financing commitment delivered by Nexstar. A representative of Pillsbury discussed with the board the divestitures that likely would be necessary to obtain expeditious approval of a transaction by the FCC. The Media General board of directors instructed senior management and the representatives of Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank, Weil Gotshal and

Pillsbury to communicate to Nexstar that the stock consideration that Nexstar would pay in the transaction would need to be based on a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1249 of a Nexstar share and reiterate to Nexstar Media General's insistence that Nexstar provide contractual and regulatory commitments that would provide high certainty of consummation of a transaction on an expeditious basis.

Later on December 29, 2015, representatives of BDT communicated to representatives of RBC Capital Markets and Goldman Sachs certain matters, including that Meredith was focused on finalizing a proposed merger of equals transaction between Media General and Meredith and that Meredith then had no interest in terminating the Meredith merger agreement.

Also, on December 29, 2015, Messrs. Sadusky and Muse and Messrs. Sook and Carter had a phone call to discuss open issues. On that call, Nexstar agreed to a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1249 and to make divestitures Media General believed necessary to obtain FCC approval for a transaction on an expeditious basis. The parties also resolved most of the remaining open issues on the merger agreement and the CVR agreement. The proposed transaction with Nexstar remained conditioned upon the termination of the Meredith merger agreement, and Media General executing a merger agreement with Nexstar on or prior to January 12, 2016.

On December 31, 2015, the Media General board of directors held an information session at which members of management, together with representatives of Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank, Weil Gotshal and Pillsbury, updated the Media General board of directors on the discussions with Nexstar.

On December 31, 2015, Mr. Lacy, on behalf of the Meredith board of directors, communicated in writing to Mr. Sadusky that Meredith (i) remained confident in the combination of Media General and Meredith, (ii) would not agree to an early termination of the Meredith merger agreement at such time, and (iii) was prepared to reengage with Media General on a revised transaction structure at any time.

On January 2, 2016, Mr. Sadusky contacted Mr. Lacy by phone to discuss the status of Media General's negotiations with Nexstar and requested that Meredith reconsider its position not to agree to an early termination of the Meredith merger agreement.

During the period from January 2, 2016 through January 6, 2016, Media General and Nexstar substantially completed negotiation of the terms of a merger agreement and CVR agreement. Key terms of the negotiated agreements included consideration per share of Media General common stock consisting of:

$10.55 in cash per share;

0.1249 of a share of Nexstar common stock; and a CVR entitling Media General shareholders to net cash proceeds as received from the sale of Media General's spectrum in the upcoming FCC auction.

The proposed transaction with Nexstar was conditioned upon the termination of the Meredith merger agreement, and Media General executing a merger agreement with Nexstar on or prior to January 12, 2016. Upon closing of the negotiated transaction, former Media General shareholders would hold approximately 33.4% of Nexstar's outstanding shares. The proceeds that CVR holders would receive would be reduced in accordance with a formula designed to take into account the fact that former Media General shareholders will receive Nexstar Class A common stock as part of the merger consideration and as shareholders of Nexstar will obtain economic benefits from the net proceeds (if any) from the disposition of Nexstar's spectrum in the FCC auction. In addition, under the terms of the negotiated transaction, Nexstar would agree to divest television stations necessary to obtain FCC regulatory approval (without relying on any UHF or similar discount to the FCC's 39% national ownership cap). A transaction would not be subject to any financing condition. Two Media General directors would join the Nexstar board of directors at closing.

On January 4, 2016, Mr. Sadusky communicated in writing to Mr. Lacy that Media General and Nexstar had fully negotiated transaction agreements, obtained fully committed financing and reached a regulatory plan that Media General believes is FCC/DOJ-compliant and, absent the restrictions in the Meredith merger agreement, would be in a position to execute and announce a transaction imminently. Mr. Sadusky proposed the possibility of Media General and Meredith negotiating an early termination of the Meredith merger agreement.

On January 5, 2016, Mr. Lacy sent a letter to the Media General board of directors declining to terminate the Meredith merger agreement at that time and urging Media General to continue to negotiate regarding a merger of equals transaction. Mr. Lacy indicated that Meredith's proposed merger of equals transaction of December 17, 2015 could provide Media General shareholders with over $20 per share in near term value, including $3.90 per share in cash at closing, implied pro forma equity value in the combined company of $14.94 per share (with ownership of 50.2% of the combined company), a CVR representing the pro rata share of the after-tax net cash proceeds from the sale of Media General's spectrum in the FCC auction (estimated by Meredith to have a value of $1.50 per share based on a published analyst report) and an annual dividend starting at $0.68 per share per year, and that Meredith believed that the value of a merger of equals transaction with Meredith was higher than the value the Nexstar proposal represented to Media General shareholders in 12 to 18 months.

Later on January 5, 2016, the Media General board of directors held an information session at which the Media General board of directors, together with members of management and representatives of Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal, considered Mr. Lacy's letter. Later that day, at the direction of the Media General board of directors, Mr. Sadusky communicated in writing to Mr. Lacy that, in Media General's view, Meredith's proposed merger of equals transaction of December 17, 2015 was not competitive with Media General's proposed transaction construct with Nexstar.

On January 6, 2016, Mr. Sadusky and Mr. Lacy made proposals to each other regarding a potential termination of the Meredith merger agreement. The parties were unable to reach an agreement to terminate the Meredith merger agreement.

On January 7, 2016, the Media General board of directors held an information session at which Mr. Sadusky reviewed his discussions with Mr. Lacy regarding a potential termination of the Meredith merger agreement. Other members of management and representatives of Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal also were present at the information session. At the information session, the Media General board of directors considered the fact that under the terms of the Meredith merger agreement, unless that agreement between Meredith and Media General was terminated, (i) Media General must submit the transaction contemplated thereby to a vote of Media General's shareholders, and (ii) Media General could not enter into any agreement with Nexstar despite having substantially completed negotiation of the terms of a proposed merger agreement and CVR agreement with Nexstar. In light of these factors, the Media General board of directors approved the issuance of a press release, which described the material terms of the proposed merger agreement and CVR agreement with Nexstar, but also indicated that the Media General board of directors continued to recommend the proposed transaction with Meredith. Later that morning, Media General issued this press release. Nexstar also issued a press release announcing the completion of negotiation of terms for a transaction with Media General.

Also on January 7, 2016, Meredith issued a press release disclosing that it had proposed an amendment to the terms of the Meredith merger agreement reflecting a merger of equals transaction as described above.

On January 8, 2016, representatives of BDT presented on behalf of Meredith a revised proposal for a merger of equals transaction to Media General. In its presentation Meredith noted that under the improved terms, Media General shareholders would receive $4.00 per Media General share in cash (rather than the $3.90 per share previously proposed by Meredith and closer to the $4.15 proposed by Media General in its December 15 offer) and Meredith shareholders would receive $13.95 per Meredith share in cash (rather than the $14.95 per share previously proposed by Meredith and less than the $14.00 proposed by Media General in its December 15 offer). In total, Media General shareholders would receive $522 million of cash consideration and Meredith shareholders would receive $638 million of cash consideration in the transaction proposed by Meredith.

Also on January 8, 2016, the Nexstar board of directors held a meeting at which representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch, Kirkland and Nexstar's regulatory counsel, Wiley were present. Mr. Sook provided the Nexstar board of directors with an update on the status of the discussions with Media General and, in turn, Media General's discussions with Meredith to terminate the Meredith merger agreement. Mr. Sook discussed with the Nexstar board of directors the likelihood that an agreement to acquire Media General would not be entered into prior to January 12, 2016. Representatives of Wiley discussed with the Nexstar board of directors the regulatory implications of entering into an agreement to acquire Media General after January 12, 2016, including the FCC's guidance that it would continue to process applications during the FCC auction. Representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch and Kirkland reviewed with the Nexstar board of directors the potential timeline for Media General and Meredith to negotiate a termination of the Meredith merger agreement. Following discussion, the Nexstar board of directors supported continued efforts to acquire Media General, even if an agreement were entered into after January 12, 2016.

On January 11, 2016, Nexstar issued a press release reiterating its commitment to pursuing an acquisition of Media General on the terms that had been negotiated. As indicated above, Nexstar's prior transaction proposal had been subject to Media General and Nexstar executing a definitive merger agreement by January 12, 2016, and stating that it expected to execute a definitive agreement with Media General as soon as the Meredith merger agreement was terminated.

On January 12, 2016, the Media General board of directors held an information session at which the Media General board of directors, with the assistance of members of management and representatives of Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank and Weil Gotshal, considered the revised merger of equals transaction proposed by Meredith on January 8, 2016. After discussion, the Media General board of directors unanimously determined that the revised merger of equals was not an attractive transaction that Media General should pursue and directed Mr. Sadusky to communicate their determination to Meredith.

Later that day, Mr. Sadusky communicated the Media General board of directors' determination to Mr. Lacy and suggested that Media General and Meredith put pencils down on a merger of equals transaction.

On January 19, 2016, Media General filed an amendment to the Media General proxy statement/prospectus that had been filed in relation to the Meredith merger agreement and disclosed therein that the Media General board of directors would be prepared to authorize the execution of a merger agreement with Nexstar on the terms negotiated between Media General and Nexstar, subject to the termination of the Meredith merger agreement.

On January 22, 2016, Meredith reopened discussions regarding a possible termination of the Meredith merger agreement. Representatives of Cooley provided to representatives of Fried Frank a draft agreement to terminate the Meredith merger agreement, which we refer to as the termination agreement. Mr. Sadusky called Mr. Sook to inform him that (i) Meredith had indicated that it was potentially amenable to agreeing to a termination of the Meredith merger agreement so long as it received the $60 million termination fee provided in the Meredith merger agreement and a 30-day exclusivity period to negotiate with Media General regarding certain television stations in markets where Media General would agree to divest television stations in a Nexstar acquisition and (ii) Meredith desired to effect such a termination by January 27, 2016. Following this call, Media General's and Nexstar's respective legal advisors worked over the next several days to finalize the documentation providing for Nexstar's acquisition of Media General and discussed the terms of the termination of the Meredith merger agreement. Over the next several days, Media General's and Meredith's respective legal advisors negotiated the terms of the termination agreement.

Later on January 22, 2016, Nexstar and Media General continued to work on finalizing the terms of the merger agreement and the CVR agreement.

On January 23, 2016, representatives of Fried Frank, Pillsbury, Weil Gotshal, Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Kirkland and BofA Merrill Lynch had a telephonic meeting to discuss the terms of the merger agreement, including each party's commitment to obtain regulatory approvals. Over the next several days, Media General's and Nexstar's respective legal advisors finalized the terms of the merger agreement.

On January 26, 2016, the Nexstar board of directors held a meeting, at which representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch and Kirkland were present. Mr. Sook updated the Nexstar board of directors on the progress of Media General's discussions regarding the termination of the Meredith merger agreement and the terms proposed by Meredith. Representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch reviewed with the Nexstar board of directors its financial analyses with respect to the consideration to be paid by Nexstar in its acquisition of Media General and delivered to the Nexstar board of directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated January 26, 2016, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions and limitations described in its opinion, the consideration to be paid by Nexstar in the proposed merger, was fair, from a financial point of view, to Nexstar. Representatives of Kirkland summarized the terms of the merger agreement and CVR that had been negotiated with Media General. Following discussion, the Nexstar board of directors unanimously approved the entry by Nexstar into the merger agreement following the termination of the Meredith merger agreement.

Also on January 26, 2016, the Media General board of directors held a special telephonic meeting. Members of Media General senior management and representatives of its advisors, including Goldman Sachs, RBC Capital Markets, Fried Frank, Weil Gotshal and Pillsbury, also were in attendance. At the meeting, Fried Frank provided an overview of the final transaction terms, including the terms of the termination agreement.

At the meeting, Goldman Sachs reviewed its financial analysis of the proposed transaction and rendered an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated January 27, 2016, to Media General's board of directors that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in that opinion, the merger consideration to be paid to holders (other than Nexstar and its affiliates) of shares of Media General common stock, taken in the aggregate, pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

Also at the meeting, RBC Capital Markets reviewed with Media General's board of directors its financial analysis of the merger consideration and rendered an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated January 26, 2016, to Media General's board of directors to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, factors considered and qualifications and limitations described in the opinion, the merger consideration to be received by holders of Media General voting common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

At the meeting, Media General's senior management also presented to the Media General board of directors a summary of the communications plan to be implemented in connection with the announcement of the transaction.

At the conclusion of its January 26, 2016 meeting, after full discussion, Media General's board of directors, by a unanimous vote, (i) determined that the termination agreement, the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the transactions contemplated thereby, were advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Media General and its shareholders, (ii) approved and adopted the merger agreement and the plan of merger and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and (iii) recommended that holders of Media General's voting common stock vote to approve the applicable proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

On January 27, 2016, Media General and Meredith entered into the termination agreement, which terminated the Meredith merger agreement upon payment of a termination fee of $60 million by Media General. Media General and Meredith issued a joint press release announcing the termination of the Meredith merger agreement.

Immediately thereafter, Nexstar and Media General entered into the merger agreement. In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Nexstar and Media General entered into a voting and support agreement with affiliates of Kainos Capital. That morning, Nexstar and Media General issued a joint press release announcing the proposed transaction and hosted a joint conference call to discuss the announcement.

Nexstar's Reasons for the Transaction and Recommendation of Nexstar's Board of Directors

At its meeting on January 26, 2016, the board of directors of Nexstar (i) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger and the issuance of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to Media General shareholders in the merger, were advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Nexstar and its shareholders, (ii) approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger and the issuance of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to Media General shareholders in the merger and the related transaction agreements and documents, and (iii) recommended that holders of Nexstar Class A common stock vote FOR the Nexstar share issuance proposal.

In its evaluation of the merger agreement and the transactions, Nexstar's board of directors consulted with Nexstar's management and legal and financial advisors, and considered a number of factors, which are discussed below. Nexstar's board of directors considered these factors as a whole and considered the relevant information and factors to be favorable to, and in support of, its determinations and recommendations.

Larger Scale. Following the acquisition of Media General, the Nexstar board of directors expects that Nexstar would become one of the nation's leading pure-play broadcast providers of local news, entertainment, sports, lifestyle and network programming and content through its broadcast and digital media platform, with annual revenue in excess of $2.3 billion and 171 full power television stations in 100 markets.

Audience Reach. The Nexstar board of directors expects that the transaction will more than double Nexstar's audience reach to nearly 39% of all U.S. television households, resulting in a more robust advertiser base and more favorable syndicated programming arrangements.

Diversification. The Nexstar board of directors expects that the merger would increase Nexstar's broadcast portfolio by approximately two-thirds with very limited overlap with Nexstar's existing properties and add 15 new top-50 DMAs to Nexstar's portfolio. This enhanced footprint will reduce Nexstar's dependence on any single region of operation.

Expected Synergies. The Nexstar board of directors expects that the combined company will begin to realize approximately $76 million of annual run-rate synergies within the first year of the closing of the transaction.

Increased Revenue and Free Cash Flow. The Nexstar board of directors expects that the merger will more than double Nexstar's revenue and result in over $500 million of average free cash flow in the first two years, which can be used to reduce leverage, fund additional strategic growth investments and return capital to Nexstar shareholders.

Digital Footprint. The Nexstar board of directors expects that the combination of Nexstar's and Media General's digital properties will realize expense and operating synergies and increase the deployment of various digital products and services across a larger footprint of additional websites.

Nexstar's board of directors considered the following additional factors as generally supporting its determination and recommendation:

its belief that the merger is more favorable to Nexstar's shareholders than the potential value that would result from Nexstar continuing as a stand-alone company or from other potential alternative transactions;

information and discussions with Nexstar's management regarding Media General's business, results of operations, financial and market position, and anticipated benefits of size and scale of the combined company, as well as the recommendation of the transaction by management of Nexstar;

the opinion, dated January 26, 2016, of BofA Merrill Lynch to Nexstar's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of such date, to Nexstar of the merger consideration to be paid by Nexstar in the merger, which opinion was based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken as more fully described in the section entitled Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Opinion of Nexstar's Financial Advisor beginning on page 93;

the fact that Nexstar has received a debt commitment from BANA, Credit Suisse and Deutsche Bank in the amount of $4.725 billion to provide debt financing for the transaction;

the fact that the stock consideration is a fixed exchange ratio and thus avoids fluctuations in the number of shares of Nexstar common stock payable as consideration in the merger;

the Nexstar board of directors' view as to the likelihood that the transaction will be consummated, based on, among other things, the conditions to closing contained in the merger agreement, the commitment by Nexstar to obtain financing, the commitment by Nexstar and Media General to obtain regulatory clearances subject to certain limitations, and the voting agreement with Media General supporting shareholders holding approximately 8.8% of the outstanding Media General voting common stock;

the scope and results of Nexstar's due diligence investigation of Media General, which included review of historical financial results and projections, existing agreements and legal and other matters; and the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including:

the right of Nexstar to negotiate with a third-party that submits an unsolicited alternative acquisition proposal that Nexstar's board of directors determines would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior offer for Nexstar;

the ability of Nexstar's board of directors, under certain circumstances described in the section entitled Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements The Merger Agreement Change of Recommendation by Nexstar's Board of Directors beginning on page 162, to change its recommendation in favor of the Nexstar share issuance proposal;

the termination fee of $80 million payable by Media General to Nexstar under certain circumstances described in the section entitled Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements The Merger Agreement Termination Fees beginning on page 172.

Nexstar's board of directors weighed the foregoing advantages and benefits against a variety of potentially negative factors, including:

the challenges inherent in the combination of two businesses, including the risk that integration of the two companies may take more time and be more costly than anticipated, and the risk that the cost savings, synergies and other benefits expected to be obtained as a result of the transaction might not be fully or timely realized;

the potential for diversion of management focus for an extended period, potential employee attrition and the possible effects of the announcement and pendency of the transaction on customers and business relationships;

the fact that substantial costs will be incurred by both Nexstar and Media General in connection with the transaction;

the risk that Media General might not meet its financial projections;

Table of Contents

the fact that Nexstar and Media General own television stations in the six Overlap Markets and that regulatory authorities will require Nexstar and Media General to make divestitures in the Overlap Markets and possibly other markets to comply with the FCC's national television ownership rule;

the fact that Nexstar may incur up to $4.7 billion in indebtedness in connection with the merger, which may adversely impact Nexstar's operations following the merger;

the fact that there could be an increase in the cost of the debt financing for the merger during the period of time required to complete the transaction;

the amount of time it could take to complete the transaction, including the fact that closing of the transaction depends on factors outside of Nexstar's control and the fact that the transaction is not likely to be consummated until the completion of the FCC auction, and the risk that the conditions to closing will not be satisfied, including as a result of (i) Nexstar's or Media General's shareholders failing to grant the requisite approvals to complete the transaction or (ii) the required regulatory approvals for the transaction failing to be obtained;

certain terms of the transaction agreements, including:

the restriction on Nexstar's ability to solicit alternative transaction proposals, including the fact that Nexstar does not have the right to terminate the merger agreement to enter into an alternative transaction representing a superior offer;

the requirement that Nexstar hold a shareholder vote on the Nexstar share issuance proposal, even though Nexstar's board of directors might have withdrawn its recommendation prior to the shareholder vote;

the termination fee of $20 million that Nexstar would be required to pay to Media General if Nexstar's shareholders do not approve the Nexstar share issuance proposal at the Nexstar shareholder meeting and the merger agreement is subsequently terminated, and the termination fee of $80 million that Nexstar would be required to pay to Media General if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances described in the section entitled "Chapter One: The Transaction" "The Agreements" "the Merger Agreement" "Termination Fee" beginning on page 172; and the restrictions on the conduct of Nexstar's business until the closing of the transaction (or the termination of the merger agreement), which may delay or prevent Nexstar from undertaking business opportunities that may arise or negatively affect Nexstar's ability to attract and retain key personnel;

the possibility that the transaction is not completed and the potential consequences of not completing the transaction, including the potential negative impact on Nexstar, its business and the trading price of the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock;

the risk that the transaction may delay Nexstar from repurchasing shares of Nexstar Class A common stock under its previously-announced share repurchase program or completing other significant acquisitions;

the fact that the stock consideration is a fixed exchange ratio and thus the exchange ratio will not change based on changes to Media General's share price if the value of Media General's business declines relative to the value of Nexstar's business prior to closing of the transaction;

the potential downward pressure on the share price of the combined company that may result if Media General shareholders seek to sell their Nexstar shares after the closing;

the fact that the potential CVR payments are unknown and that the payments made to Media General shareholders under the CVR would otherwise be retained by the combined company; and the risks of the type and nature described under Risk Factors beginning on page 40.

In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, Nexstar's board of directors did not consider it practicable to, nor did it attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific material factors it considered in reaching its decision. In addition, individual members of Nexstar's board of directors may have given different weight to different factors.

Nexstar's board of directors believed that the potential benefits of the transaction to Media General and its shareholders outweighed the risks, many of which are mentioned above. Nexstar's board of directors realized, however, that there can be no assurance about future results, including results considered or expected as described in the factors listed above. This explanation of the reasoning of Nexstar's board of directors and all other information in this section are forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under "Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 50.

Opinion of Nexstar's Financial Advisor

Nexstar has retained BofA Merrill Lynch to act as Nexstar's financial advisor in connection with the merger. BofA Merrill Lynch is an internationally recognized investment banking firm which is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. The full text of BofA Merrill Lynch's written opinion to Nexstar's board of directors, which describes, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex D to this document and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. BofA Merrill Lynch delivered its opinion to Nexstar's board of directors for the benefit and use of Nexstar's board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the merger consideration from a financial point of view. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion does not address any other aspect of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how to vote or act in connection with the proposed merger or any related matter.

BofA Merrill Lynch assumed, at the direction of Nexstar, that the merger would be consummated in accordance with its terms, without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory and other approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition, including any divestiture requirements or amendments or modifications, would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Media General, Nexstar or any other entity of the merger (including the contemplated benefits thereof); provided, however, that at the direction of Nexstar, BofA Merrill Lynch has taken into account the impact of certain regulatory divestitures based upon specific valuations and other assumptions provided to BofA Merrill Lynch by management of Nexstar. BofA Merrill Lynch also assumed, at the direction of Nexstar, that the final executed merger agreement and CVR Agreement would not differ in any material respect from the Draft Agreement and Draft CVR Agreement, respectively, reviewed by BofA Merrill Lynch.

BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects or implications of the merger (other than the merger consideration to the extent expressly specified in its opinion), including, without limitation, the form or structure of the merger. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion was limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Nexstar of the merger consideration to be paid in the merger and no opinion or view was expressed with respect to any consideration received in connection with the merger by the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of any party. Except as described above, Nexstar imposed no other limitations on the investigations made or procedures followed by BofA Merrill Lynch in rendering its opinion.

Media General Financial Analyses.

Selected Publicly Traded Companies Analysis. BofA Merrill Lynch reviewed publicly available financial and stock market information for Media General and the following six publicly traded companies in the diversified broadcasting and the pure play broadcasting industries:

Diversified Broadcasting

Tegna, Inc.

Tribune Media Company

Meredith Corporation

Pure Play Broadcasting

Sinclair Broadcast Group, Inc.

The E.W. Scripps Company

Gray Television, Inc.

BofA Merrill Lynch reviewed, among other things, per share equity values, based on closing stock prices on January 22, 2016, of the selected publicly traded companies as a multiple of calendar year 2015, calendar year 2016 and blended 2015/2016 estimated free cash flow, commonly referred to as FCF. BofA Merrill Lynch also reviewed enterprise values of the selected publicly traded companies, calculated as equity values based on closing stock prices on January 22, 2016, plus debt, less cash, as a multiple of calendar year 2015, calendar year 2016, and blended 2015/2016 estimated earnings (including stock-based compensation expense) before interest, taxes, depreciations and amortization, commonly referred to in this section as EBITDA. BofA Merrill Lynch then applied blended 2015/2016 FCF multiples of 6.0x to 14.5x derived from the selected publicly traded companies to Media General's blended 2015/2016 FCF and then applied blended 2015/2016 EBITDA multiples of 7.5x to 9.5x derived from the selected publicly traded companies to Media General's blended 2015/2016 estimated EBITDA. Estimated financial data of the selected publicly traded companies were based on publicly available research analysts' estimates, and estimated financial data of Media General were based on the Adjusted Media General Projections. This analysis indicated the following approximate implied per share equity value reference ranges for Media General, as compared to the merger consideration:

Implied Per Share Equity Value Reference Ranges for Media General				Merger Consideration
Blended 2015E/2016E FCF		Blended 2015E/2016E EBITDA
$11.00	$26.25	$8.25	$15.00	$16.75

The merger consideration was calculated using an implied stock consideration value of $6.20 per share of Media General common stock, obtained by multiplying the exchange ratio in the merger agreement of 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar common stock for each share of Media General Common stock by $49.65, the closing price for shares of Nexstar common stock as of January 22, 2016.

No company used in this analysis is identical or directly comparable to Media General. Accordingly, an evaluation of the results of this analysis is not entirely mathematical. Rather, this analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or other values of the companies to which Media General was compared.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis. BofA Merrill Lynch reviewed, to the extent publicly available, financial information relating to the following four selected transactions involving companies in the diversified broadcasting, pure play broadcasting and publishing industries:

Acquiror	Target
Media General, Inc.	Meredith Corporation
Media General, Inc.	Lin Media LLC
Sinclair Broadcast Group, Inc.	Allbritton Communications Company
Gannett Co., Inc.	Belo Corp.

BofA Merrill Lynch reviewed transaction values, calculated as the enterprise value implied for the target company based on the consideration payable in the selected transaction, as a multiple of the target company's one-year forward and two-year forward estimated EBITDA. BofA Merrill Lynch then applied one-year forward and two-year forward EBITDA multiples of 9.0x to 11.0x derived from the selected transactions to Media General's blended 2015/2016 estimated EBITDA. Estimated financial data of the selected transactions were based on publicly available information at the time of announcement of the relevant transaction. Estimated financial data of Media General were based on the Adjusted Media General Projections. This analysis indicated the following approximate implied per share equity value reference ranges for Media General, as compared to the merger consideration:

Implied Per Share Equity Value Reference Ranges for Media General 2015E/2016E EBITDA	Merger Consideration

The merger consideration was calculated using an implied stock consideration value of $6.20 per share of Media General common stock, obtained by multiplying the exchange ratio in the merger agreement of 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar common stock for each share of Media General Common stock by $49.65, the closing price for shares of Nexstar common stock as of January 22, 2016.

No company, business or transaction used in this analysis is identical or directly comparable to Media General or the merger. Accordingly, an evaluation of the results of this analysis is not entirely mathematical. Rather, this analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions to which Media General and the merger were compared.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. BofA Merrill Lynch performed a discounted cash flow analysis excluding synergies of Media General to calculate the estimated present value of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Media General was forecasted to generate during Media General's fourth fiscal quarter of 2015 and fiscal years 2016 through 2020 based on the Adjusted Media General Projections. BofA Merrill Lynch calculated terminal values for Media General by applying terminal forward multiples of 7.5x to 9.5x to Media General's blended 2019/2020 estimated EBITDA. The cash flows and terminal values were then discounted to present value as of September 30, 2015 using discount rates ranging from 7.25% to 9.00%, which were based on an estimate of Media General's weighted average cost of capital. BofA Merrill Lynch also performed a discounted cash flow analysis of the Nexstar Synergies to calculate the present value of the after-tax Nexstar Synergies that Nexstar forecasted would be generated during calendar years 2016 (using only the fourth quarter of 2016) through 2020 and of the terminal value of the Nexstar Synergies by applying perpetuity growth rates of 1.00% to 3.00% to the calendar year 2020 after-tax free cash flows. The cash flows and terminal values were discounted to present value as of September 30, 2015 using discount rates ranging from 7.25% to 9.00%, which were based on an estimate of Media General's weighted average cost of capital. The merger consideration was calculated using an implied stock consideration value of $6.20 per share of Media General common stock, BofA Merrill Lynch also performed a has/gets analysis to calculate the theoretical change in value for Nexstar shareholders resulting from the merger based on their pro forma ownership of Nexstar Class A common stock resulting from the merger as compared to their ownership of Nexstar Class A common stock on a standalone basis, based on the discounted cash flow analyses for each of Media General and Nexstar described above under Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

BofA Merrill Lynch calculated the implied per share equity values for Nexstar on a standalone basis including the present value of NOLs using (a) the high end of the implied equity value reference range (being a terminal forward multiple of 9.5x and a discount rate of 6.50%), (b) the midpoint of the implied equity value

Miscellaneous.

As noted above, the discussion set forth above is a summary of the material financial analyses presented by BofA Merrill Lynch to Nexstar's board of directors in connection with its opinion and is not a comprehensive description of all analyses undertaken by BofA Merrill Lynch in connection with its opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a financial opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. BofA Merrill Lynch believes that its analyses summarized above must be considered as a whole. BofA Merrill Lynch further believes that selecting portions of its analyses and the factors considered or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying BofA Merrill Lynch's analyses and opinion. The fact that any specific analysis has been referred to in the summary above is not meant to indicate that such analysis was given greater weight than any other analysis referred to in the summary.

In performing its analyses, BofA Merrill Lynch considered industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Media General and Nexstar. The estimates of the future performance of Media General and Nexstar in or underlying BofA Merrill Lynch's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those estimates or those suggested by BofA Merrill Lynch's analyses. These analyses were prepared solely as part of BofA Merrill Lynch's analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be paid by Nexstar and were provided to Nexstar's board of directors in connection with the delivery of BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities have traded or may trade at any time in the future. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the ranges of valuations resulting from, any particular analysis described above are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty and should not be taken to be BofA Merrill Lynch's view of the actual values of Media General or Nexstar.

The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger was determined through negotiations between Media General and Nexstar, rather than by any financial advisor, and was approved by Nexstar's board of directors. The decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of Nexstar's board of directors. As described above, BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion and analyses were only one of many factors considered by Nexstar's board of directors in its evaluation of the proposed merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of Nexstar's board of directors or management with respect to the merger or the merger consideration.

Nexstar has agreed to pay BofA Merrill Lynch for its services in connection with the merger an aggregate fee of $16 million, of which $1.5 million was paid in connection with its opinion and $14.5 million of which is contingent upon the completion of the merger. Nexstar also has agreed to reimburse BofA Merrill Lynch for its expenses incurred in connection with BofA Merrill Lynch's engagement and to indemnify BofA Merrill Lynch, any controlling person of BofA Merrill Lynch and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and affiliates against specified liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

In the ordinary course of their businesses, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates invest on a principal basis or on behalf of customers or manage funds that invest, make or hold long or short positions, finance positions or trade or otherwise effect transactions in the equity, debt or other securities or financial instruments (including derivatives, bank loans or other obligations) of Media General, Nexstar and certain of their respective affiliates.

BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing, and in the future may provide, investment banking, commercial banking and other financial services to Nexstar and certain of its affiliates and have received or in the future may receive compensation for the rendering of these services, including (i) having acted or acting as an administrative agent, collateral agent, sole or joint bookrunner and/or joint lead arranger for, and/or as a lender under, certain term loans, letters of credit, credit and leasing facilities and other credit arrangements of Nexstar and/or certain of its affiliates (including acquisition financing), (ii) having acted as an initial purchaser and joint bookrunner for a debt offering of an affiliate of Nexstar and (iii) having provided or providing certain treasury management services and products to Nexstar and/or certain of its affiliates. From January 1, 2014 through December 31, 2015, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates received aggregate revenues from Nexstar and certain of its affiliates of approximately $5 million for corporate and investment banking services. As described in Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Financing of the Transaction beginning on page 145, pursuant to the debt commitment letter, BofA Merrill Lynch and certain of its affiliates have agreed to act as administrative agent, joint lead arranger and joint bookrunner and lender for an aggregate $4,725.0 million of financing. If Nexstar finances the transaction by utilizing the financing provided under the debt commitment letter, BofA Merrill Lynch and certain of its affiliates currently expect to receive aggregate revenues of at least $31 million.

In addition, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing, and in the future may provide, investment banking, commercial banking and other financial services to Media General and certain of its affiliates and have received or in the future may receive compensation for the rendering of these services, including (i) having acted or acting as a lender under certain term loans, letters of credit, credit facilities and other credit arrangements of Media General and/or certain of its affiliates (including acquisition financing), (ii) having acted as co-manager for a debt offering of an affiliate of Media General and (iii) having provided or providing certain treasury management services and products to Media General and/or certain of its affiliates. In addition, BofA Merrill Lynch and/or certain of its affiliates have maintained, currently are maintaining, and in the future may maintain, commercial (including vendor and/or customer) relationships with Media General and/or certain of its affiliates. From January 1, 2014 through December 31, 2015, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates received aggregate revenues from Media General and certain of its affiliates of approximately $3 million for corporate and investment banking services.

Media General's Reasons for the Transaction and Recommendation of Media General's Board of Directors

At its meeting on January 26, 2016, Media General's board of directors unanimously (i) determined that the merger agreement, the plan of merger and the transaction contemplated thereby were advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Media General and its shareholders, (ii) approved and adopted the merger agreement, the plan of merger and the transactions contemplated thereby and (iii) recommended that holders of Media General voting common stock vote FOR the Media General merger proposal.

In its evaluation of the merger agreement and the transaction, Media General's board of directors consulted with Media General's management and legal and financial advisors, and considered a number of factors, including those that are discussed below. Media General's board of directors considered these factors as a whole and unanimously considered the relevant information and factors to be favorable to, and in support of, its determinations and recommendations.

Strategic Factors and Synergies

the fact that the combined company will be one of the nation's leading providers of local news, entertainment, sports, lifestyle and network programming and content through its broadcast and digital media platform;

the fact that the combined company will be named Nexstar Media Group, reflecting a broadened base of operations and capabilities of the combined company;

the belief of Media General's board of directors that the combination of Media General's and Nexstar's complementary assets, technologies and capabilities will result in a combined company that will be able to provide a more comprehensive, integrated and competitive offering across all markets than Media General as a stand-alone company through the combined company's increased scale and more diversified portfolios, the leveraging of the best practices of each company, the reduction of administrative costs and an enhanced ability to compete in the digital media market, including combining Media General's national brands and digital media infrastructure with Nexstar's robust digital platform to give the combined company a significant presence in key growth sectors such as content, mobile, social, video and native advertising, which will benefit advertisers and brands;

the belief of Media General's board of directors that the combined company can generate annual revenue in excess of $2.3 billion; the fact that the combined company is expected to (i) achieve approximately $76 million in synergies in the first year and (ii) have an average of $500 million per year in free cash flow, which is expected to allow it to decrease leverage and permit strategic growth investments, with Media General shareholders sharing in the potential upside; and the fact that the combined company will be a pure-play broadcast operator and the second largest operator of television properties, with 171 full power television stations in 100 markets, including large-scale reach to nearly 39% of all U.S. television households.

Price and Structure

the fact that the merger consideration, which consists of cash, Nexstar Class A common stock and a CVR, offers Media General shareholders the opportunity to participate in future earnings and growth of the combined company, while also providing Media General shareholders with a substantial cash payment of $10.55 per share, and the potential for additional consideration in the form of the CVR from the proceeds (if any) of Media General's spectrum through the FCC auction;

the fact that Media General shareholders in the aggregate will own approximately 34% of the shares of the combined company, which Media General's board of directors believes will provide Media General shareholders with meaningful shareholder participation in the combined company and a potential opportunity to realize the financial and strategic synergies of the combined company;

the current and historical market prices for Media General common stock, including the fact that the implied value of the combined cash consideration and stock consideration of $17.14 per share (as of January 27, 2016) represented an approximate premium of 54% over the closing share price of Media General on September 25, 2015 (the last trading day prior to Nexstar's initial public announcement regarding its interest in acquiring Media General);

the fact that Media General's board of directors had carefully evaluated, with the assistance of Media General's management and legal and financial advisors, various potential strategic alternatives available to Media General, including remaining an independent company, continuing to pursue the announced transaction with Meredith, the alternative transaction proposed by Meredith or pursuing other alternative transactions, and the Media General board of directors concluded that the transaction with Nexstar presented a more favorable opportunity to maximize value for Media General shareholders than the potential value that might result from those other alternatives;

the fact that, notwithstanding the publicity surrounding the announced transaction involving Media General and Meredith over more than four months prior to January 27, 2016, and Nexstar's public comments concerning its interest in a transaction with Media General, Media General had not received a business combination or acquisition proposal from any other third party; and the fact that Media General's legal and financial advisors throughout the process interacted with the Media General board of directors directly and regularly, which provided the board with perspectives on the process from outside advisors in addition to those of management.

Other Factors

the current and prospective business climate in the industry in which Media General and Nexstar operate; the fact that Nexstar did extensive due diligence on Media General, including retaining a number of advisors and enlisting the assistance of many of its employees, demonstrating to Media General's board of directors that Nexstar understood Media General, its business, operations, earnings and prospects and was committed to the transaction;

the due diligence investigation on Nexstar conducted by Media General's management and outside advisors;

the opinion of Goldman Sachs to Media General's board of directors that, as of January 27, 2016 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in that opinion, the merger consideration to be paid to holders (other than Nexstar and its affiliates) of shares of Media General common stock, taken in the aggregate, pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders, and the financial analysis related thereto prepared by Goldman Sachs and described below under Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Opinions of Media General's Financial Advisors Opinion of Goldman, Sachs & Co. beginning on page 119 and the full text of which is attached hereto as Annex F;

the opinion, dated January 26, 2016, of RBC Capital Markets to Media General's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of such date, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of Media General voting common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, which opinion was based on and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, factors considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken as more fully described in the section entitled Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Opinions of Media General's Financial Advisors Opinion of RBC Capital Markets, LLC beginning on page 108 and the full text of which is attached hereto as Annex E;

the view of Media General's board of directors that the merger could be consummated in a timely manner, including its view, after consultation with its legal counsel, concerning the likelihood and timing of the required regulatory approvals;

the fact that Nexstar had obtained committed debt financing for the transaction, the limited number and nature of the conditions to the debt financing, and the obligation under the merger agreement of Nexstar to use reasonable best efforts to obtain alternative debt financing if all or any portion of the committed financing became unavailable for any reason;

the favorable recommendation of Media General's senior management;

the fact that Media General's board of directors was unanimous in its approval of the merger agreement and plan of merger and in its determination to recommend the merger agreement and plan of merger for approval and adoption by Media General shareholders;

the fact that the merger agreement and plan of merger will be subject to the approval of Media General shareholders; the fact that two Media General directors, expected to be Dennis J. FitzSimons and John R. Muse, will become directors of Nexstar upon the completion of the merger;

the fact that because the exchange ratio under the merger agreement is fixed (and will not be adjusted for fluctuations in the market price of Nexstar Class A common stock or Media General voting common stock), Media General shareholders have certainty as to the number of Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued to them in the merger; and the fact that the Media General supporting shareholders, representing approximately 8.8% of the aggregate voting power of all shares of Media General voting common stock as of the record date, agreed to enter into a voting and support agreement that included their agreement to vote in favor of the approval of the Media General merger proposal.

Certain Terms of the Merger Agreement, including:

the fact that both parties made a strong commitment to complete the merger as soon as practicable, including agreeing to use their respective reasonable best efforts to cause the conditions to the merger to be satisfied and to take all other actions and to cooperate to do all other things necessary or appropriate to consummate the transaction as soon as practicable;

the fact that Nexstar is required to take all actions necessary to obtain regulatory approvals of the transaction, including agreeing to divestures, unless such actions would result in a regulatory material adverse effect, as further described in Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Efforts to Consummate the Transaction beginning on page 168;

the limited ability of Nexstar's board of directors to change its recommendation of the stock issuance to its shareholders, and the fact that Nexstar will be required to pay Media General a termination fee of $80 million if Media General terminates the merger agreement as a result of (i) an adverse change in Nexstar's board of director's recommendation of the stock issuance to its shareholders or (ii) Nexstar's material breach of its no shop obligations or its obligation to call a meeting of Nexstar shareholders to approve the stock issuance, or if (x) either party terminates the merger agreement as a result of the failure of Nexstar's shareholders to approve the stock issuance, (y) an alternative transaction was publicly announced and not withdrawn prior to the Nexstar shareholders' meeting on the stock issuance proposal and (z) Nexstar enters into or completes an alternative transaction within one year after termination;

the fact that Nexstar will be required to pay Media General a termination fee of $20 million if Media General or Nexstar terminates the merger agreement as a result of the failure of Nexstar shareholders to approve the stock issuance;

the requirement that Nexstar hold a shareholders' meeting to vote on the stock issuance, even though Nexstar's board of directors may have withdrawn or changed its recommendation of the stock issuance;

Media General's ability, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, to furnish information to and to conduct negotiations with any third party that makes an unsolicited bona fide written proposal for a business combination or acquisition of Media General that is reasonably likely to lead to a proposal that is superior to the merger;

the fact that Media General's board of directors, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, has the right to change its recommendation to its shareholders that they vote to approve the Media General merger proposal in response to a proposal to acquire Media General that is superior to the merger or an intervening event with respect to Media General, if Media General's board of directors determines that failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to Media General shareholders;

Media General's board of director's evaluation, with the assistance of its advisors, of the deal protection provisions of the merger agreement and Media General's board of director's conclusion that such provisions were customary and reasonable for transactions of this type and would not preclude or deter a willing and financially capable third party, were one to exist, from making a superior proposal for Media General following the announcement of a transaction with Nexstar;

the outside date under the merger agreement of January 27, 2017 (which may be extended to April 27, 2017 under certain circumstances) allowing for sufficient time to complete the merger; and that Media General may seek specific performance of Nexstar's obligations under the merger agreement. In addition, Media General's board of directors also weighed the foregoing advantages and benefits against a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors, including:

the fact that the exchange ratio with respect to the stock portion of the merger consideration is fixed, which could result in Media General shareholders being adversely affected by a decrease in the trading price of Nexstar Class A common stock;

the fact that Media General shareholders may not receive any payment for the CVR and that the amount and timing of any payment are contingent upon the occurrence of certain events, some of which may be outside the control of Nexstar and Media General;

the fact that entering into the merger agreement required Media General to pay a termination fee of $60 million to Meredith for terminating the Meredith merger agreement and to grant Meredith limited first-look rights on certain properties;

the possibility that Nexstar will be unable to obtain all or a portion of the debt financing contemplated by the debt commitment and the significant leverage to be assumed by Nexstar in connection with the transaction;

the challenges inherent in the combination of the two businesses, including the risk that integration of the two companies may take more time and be more costly than anticipated, and the risk that the cost savings, synergies and other benefits expected to be obtained as a result of the transaction might not be fully or timely realized;

the potential negative effects on Media General's and the combined company's businesses due to the amount of time it could take to complete the merger, the potential for diversion of management focus for an extended period, the potential for employee attrition, the potential inability to hire new employees and the possible adverse effects of the announcement and pendency of the transaction on customers, providers, vendors, regulators, other business relationships, and the communities in which Media General operates, in particular if the merger is not completed;

the fact that substantial costs will be incurred by both Media General and Nexstar in connection with the transaction;

the risk that Media General and Nexstar may not meet their respective financial projections;

the restrictions under the terms of the merger agreement on the conduct of Media General's business prior to the closing of the transaction, which restrictions could delay or prevent Media General from undertaking material strategic opportunities that might arise pending closing of the transaction to the detriment of Media General shareholders, in particular if the merger is not completed;

certain terms of the merger agreement, including:

the limitation on Media General's ability to solicit alternative proposals;

Nexstar's ability, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, to furnish information to and to conduct negotiations with a third party that makes an unsolicited bona fide written proposal for a business combination or acquisition of Nexstar that Nexstar's board of directors determines is reasonably likely to lead to a proposal that is superior to the merger;

the fact that Nexstar does not have to complete the merger if Nexstar or Media General would be required to take actions to obtain regulatory approvals that would have a regulatory material adverse effect on Nexstar, after giving effect to the transaction;

the fact that Media General will be required to pay Nexstar a termination fee of $80 million if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including a termination of the merger agreement by Nexstar as a result of a change of recommendation by Media General's board of directors in response to a proposal to acquire Media General that is superior to the merger;

the risk that the merger may not be completed, or that completion may be significantly delayed, for reasons beyond the control of Media General, including the timing of the pending FCC auction or the failure to satisfy certain conditions to closing, including (i) the failure of Nexstar shareholders to approve the stock issuance proposal or Media General's shareholders to approve the merger proposal and (ii) the failure to obtain the required regulatory approvals;

After considering the various potentially positive and negative factors, including the foregoing, Media General's board of directors concluded that, overall, the potentially positive factors relating to the merger agreement and the merger outweighed the potentially negative factors.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by Media General's board of directors is not exhaustive but is intended to reflect the principal factors considered by Media General's board of directors in its consideration of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In arriving at its opinion, RBC Capital Markets employed several analytical methodologies and no one method of analysis should be regarded as critical to the overall conclusion reached by RBC Capital Markets. Each analytical technique has inherent strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of the available information may further affect the value of particular techniques. The overall conclusion reached by RBC Capital Markets was based on all analyses and factors presented, taken as a whole, and also on application of RBC Capital Markets' experience and judgment. Such conclusion may have involved significant elements of subjective judgment and qualitative analysis. RBC Capital Markets therefore gave no opinion as to the value or merit standing alone of any one or more portions of such analyses or factors.

In rendering its opinion, RBC Capital Markets assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all information that was reviewed by RBC Capital Markets, including all of the financial, legal, tax, accounting, operating and other information provided to or discussed with RBC Capital Markets by or on behalf of Media General or Nexstar (including, without limitation, financial statements and related notes), and upon the assurances of the managements of Media General and Nexstar that they were not aware of any relevant information that was omitted or that remained undisclosed to RBC Capital Markets. RBC Capital Markets assumed that the financial projections and other estimates and data relating to Media General and Nexstar (as adjusted, in the case of Nexstar, by the management of Media General), including as to potential tax attributes, spectrum proceeds and synergies, provided to RBC Capital Markets by Media General and Nexstar, as the case may be, were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments as to the future financial performance of Media General and Nexstar and the other matters covered thereby and that the financial results reflected therein would be realized in the amounts and at the times projected. RBC Capital Markets expressed no opinion as to such financial projections and other estimates and data (or adjustments thereto), including as to potential tax attributes, spectrum proceeds and synergies, or the assumptions upon which they were based. RBC Capital Markets relied upon the assessments of the management of Media General as to the financial and other terms associated with the CVR, including, without limitation, the amount, timing and achievability of spectrum proceeds and assumed that $3.09 per share of spectrum proceeds will be received pursuant to the CVR by holders of Media General voting common stock by December 31, 2016, referred to in this section as the CVR spectrum proceeds distribution, and RBC Capital Markets further relied upon the assessments of the managements of Media General and Nexstar as to, among RBC Capital Markets assumed that there would be no developments with respect to any of the foregoing that would have an adverse effect on Media General, Nexstar, the merger or related transactions (including the contemplated benefits thereof) or that otherwise would be meaningful in any respect to its analyses or opinion.

In rendering its opinion, RBC Capital Markets did not assume any responsibility to perform, and did not perform, an independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent, off-balance sheet or otherwise) of or relating to Media General, Nexstar or any other entity, and RBC Capital Markets was not furnished with any such valuations or appraisals. RBC Capital Markets did not assume any obligation to conduct, and did not conduct, any physical inspection of the property or facilities of Media General, Nexstar or any other entity. RBC Capital Markets assumed that the merger and related transactions would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement and the CVR agreement and in compliance with all applicable laws, documents and other requirements, without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement, and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory or third-party approvals, consents, waivers and releases for the merger and related transactions, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed, including any divestiture or other requirements, that would have an adverse effect on Media General, Nexstar, the merger or related transactions (including the contemplated benefits thereof) or that otherwise would be meaningful in any respect to RBC Capital Markets' analyses or opinion. In addition, RBC Capital Markets assumed that the final executed merger agreement and CVR agreement would not differ, in any respect meaningful to its analyses or opinion, from the draft or form of the merger agreement and CVR agreement, as applicable, reviewed by RBC Capital Markets.

RBC Capital Markets' opinion spoke only as of the date of such opinion, was based on conditions as they existed and information which RBC Capital Markets was supplied as of the date of such opinion, and was without regard to any market, economic, financial, legal or other circumstances or event of any kind or nature which may exist or occur after such date. RBC Capital Markets did not undertake to reaffirm or revise its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date of its opinion and does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. RBC Capital Markets did not express any opinion as to what the value of Nexstar Class A common stock or, if applicable, CVRs actually would be when issued or distributed in connection with or as contemplated by the merger or related transactions or the prices or range of prices at which Nexstar Class A common stock (or any other securities of Nexstar), Media General voting common stock (or any other securities of Media General) or CVRs may trade or otherwise be transferable at any time, whether prior to or following consummation of the merger and related transactions. As Media General's board of directors was aware, the credit, financial and stock markets, and the industries in which Media General and Nexstar operate, have experienced and continue to experience volatility and RBC Capital Markets expressed no opinion or view as to any potential effects of such volatility on Media General, Nexstar (or their respective businesses), the merger or related transactions (including the contemplated benefits thereof).

RBC Capital Markets' opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of such opinion, of the merger consideration (to the extent expressly specified therein), without regard to individual circumstances of specific holders that may distinguish such holders or the securities of Media General held by such holders. RBC Capital Markets' opinion did not in any way address any other terms, conditions, implications or other aspects of the merger or any related transactions or the merger agreement, the CVR agreement or any related documents, including any voting or support agreement, or the financial or other terms associated with the FCC auction, any debt repayment or redemption or other agreement, arrangement or understanding to be entered into in connection with or contemplated by the merger, any related transactions or otherwise. RBC Capital Markets did not evaluate the solvency or fair value of Media General, Nexstar or any other entity under any state, federal or other laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. RBC Capital Markets did not express any opinion as to any legal, regulatory, tax or accounting matters, as to which RBC Capital Markets understood that Media General obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals. Further, in rendering its opinion, RBC Capital Markets did not express any view on, and its opinion did not address, the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation (if any) to any officers, directors or employees of any party, or class of such persons, relative to the merger consideration or otherwise. In connection with RBC Capital Markets' engagement, RBC Capital Markets was not requested to, and it did not, undertake a third-party solicitation process on Media General's behalf with respect to the acquisition of all or a part of Media General.

The issuance of RBC Capital Markets' opinion was approved by RBC Capital Markets' fairness opinion committee. Except as described in this summary, Media General imposed no other instructions or limitations on the investigations made or procedures followed by RBC Capital Markets in rendering its opinion.

In preparing its opinion to Media General's board of directors, RBC Capital Markets performed various financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The summary below of RBC Capital Markets' material financial analyses provided to Media General's board of directors in connection with RBC Capital Markets' opinion is not a comprehensive description of all analyses undertaken or factors considered by RBC Capital Markets in connection with its opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a financial opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description.

In performing its analyses, RBC Capital Markets considered industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Media General and Nexstar. The estimates of the future performance of Media General and Nexstar in or underlying RBC Capital Markets' analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those estimates or those suggested by RBC Capital Markets' analyses. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or acquired or the prices at which any securities have traded or may trade at any time in the future. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the ranges of valuations resulting from, any particular analysis described below are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty and should not be taken as RBC Capital Markets' view of the actual value of Media General or Nexstar.

The merger consideration was determined through negotiations between Media General and Nexstar and was approved by Media General's board of directors. The decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of Media General's board of directors. RBC Capital Markets' opinion and analyses were only one of many factors considered by Media General's board of directors in its evaluation of the merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of Media General's board of directors, management or any other party with respect to the merger or related transactions or the consideration payable in the merger or related transactions.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses provided by RBC Capital Markets to Media General's board of directors in connection with RBC Capital Markets' opinion dated January 26, 2016. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses performed by RBC Capital Markets, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. RBC Capital Markets performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Media General by calculating the estimated present value of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Media General was forecasted to generate during the calendar years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2019 based on the Media General projections. The overall low to high average calendar year 2014 actual and calendar year 2015 estimated EBITDA and average calendar year 2015 and calendar year 2016 estimated EBITDA multiples observed for the selected television broadcasting companies were 7.7x to 11.6x and 7.6x to 9.1x, respectively, with overall low to high average calendar year 2014 actual and calendar year 2015 estimated EBITDA and average calendar year 2015 and calendar year 2016 estimated EBITDA multiples observed for the selected pure-play companies (excluding Media General) of 8.7x to 11.6x (with a mean of 9.7x and a median of 8.8x) and 7.6x to 8.6x (with a mean of 8.1x and a median of 8.0x), respectively, and overall low to high average calendar year 2014 actual and calendar year 2015 estimated EBITDA and average calendar year 2015 and calendar year 2016 estimated EBITDA multiples observed for the selected diversified companies of 7.7x to 8.7x and 7.7x to 8.0x, respectively. RBC Capital Markets noted that the average calendar year 2014 actual and calendar year 2015 estimated EBITDA and average calendar year 2015 and calendar year 2016 estimated EBITDA multiples observed for Media General were 10.1x and 9.1x, respectively, and for Nexstar were 9.0x and 8.4x, respectively, in each case based on publicly available Wall Street research analysts' consensus estimates pro forma for certain recent acquisitions. RBC Capital Markets then applied selected ranges of average calendar year 2014 actual and calendar year 2015 estimated EBITDA and average calendar year 2015 and calendar year 2016 estimated EBITDA multiples derived from the selected television broadcasting companies of 8.7x to 9.0x and 7.6x to 8.6x, respectively, to corresponding data of Nexstar based on the adjusted Nexstar projections.

No company or business used in this analysis is identical to Nexstar. Accordingly, an evaluation of the results of this analysis is not entirely mathematical. Rather, this analysis involved complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or other values of the companies or businesses to which Nexstar was compared.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. RBC Capital Markets performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Nexstar by calculating the estimated present value of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Nexstar was forecasted to generate during the calendar years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2019 based on the adjusted Nexstar projections. For purposes of this analysis, (i) stock-based compensation was treated as a cash expense and (ii) the estimated present value of certain tax attributes, including potential tax savings expected to result from the utilization of net operating loss carryforwards of Nexstar, were taken into account. RBC Capital Markets calculated a terminal value for Nexstar by applying to Nexstar's terminal year estimated unlevered, after-tax free cash flows (based on the average of Nexstar's estimated revenue, EBITDA and capital expenditures for calendar years 2018 and 2019 and assuming, at the direction of Media General's management, normalized long-term retransmission expense) a selected range of perpetuity growth rates of 1.5% to 2.5%. The unlevered, after-tax free cash flows and terminal value were then discounted to present value (as of December 31, 2015) using a selected range of discount rates of 8.0% to 9.0%.

Additional Information Has/Gets. RBC Capital Markets observed certain additional has/gets information, including the illustrative approximate implied per share equity value reference ranges derived for (i) Media General on a standalone basis and (ii) the combined company after taking into account potential synergies and tax attributes, after-tax cash proceeds from certain station divestitures and the debt financing in connection with the merger by applying a selected range of average calendar year 2018 and calendar year 2019 estimated EBITDA multiples of 8.0x to 10.0x to corresponding data of Media General on a standalone basis and the combined company. These implied per share equity value reference ranges were then discounted to present value (as of December 31, 2015) using a selected range of cost of equity of 13.2% to 14.2%. Financial data for Media General was based on the Media General projections and financial data of Nexstar was based on the adjusted Nexstar projections. This indicated approximate implied equity value reference ranges for Media General on a standalone basis, both before and after taking into account the net present value of potential spectrum proceeds expected by the management of Media General to be realized by Media General from the FCC auction, of $16.74 to $22.64 per share and $19.77 to $25.70 per share, respectively, as compared to approximate implied equity value reference ranges for the combined company, both before and after taking into account the net present value of potential spectrum proceeds expected by the management of Media General to be realized by Media General from the FCC auction, of $17.37 to $20.98 per share and $20.32 to $23.96 per share, respectively. The following table presents the results of this analysis:

	Proposed Transaction		Selected Transactions
	Excluding CVR multiple	Including CVR multiple	Range
EV / EBITDA Pre Synergies	9.6 x	10.4 x	9.4 x	11.5 x
EV / EBITDA Post Synergies	8.0 x	8.7 x	5.4 x	8.7 x

Goldman Sachs calculated enterprise value by multiplying the above EV / EBITDA multiple ranges by blended EBITDA as reflected in the Forecasts. Goldman Sachs then subtracted net debt from, and added the net proceeds, after tax and expenses, to Media General related to Media General's participation in the FCC auction, discounted to December 31, 2015 (as provided by and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Media General's management) to, the range of illustrative enterprise values it derived for Media General, in each case, as provided by the management of Media General, to derive a range of illustrative equity values for Media General. Goldman Sachs then divided the range of illustrative equity values it derived by the number of fully diluted outstanding shares of Media General as of January 25, 2016, as provided by the management of Media General, to derive a range of illustrative present values per share ranging from $18.04 to $25.23.

Table of Contents*Present Value of Future Share Price Analysis.Media General Standalone

Goldman Sachs performed an illustrative analysis of the implied present value of the future price per share of Media General common stock, which is designed to provide an indication of the present value of a theoretical future value of a company's equity as a function of such company's estimated future earnings and its assumed price to future earnings per share multiple.

For this analysis, Goldman Sachs first used the Forecasts to calculate the implied value per share of Media General common stock as of December 31, 2016 by applying illustrative price to average future free cash flow per share estimates for the years 2016 and 2017 for Media General on a stand-alone basis, using a 35% marginal tax rate, as per the management of Media General, for each of the years 2016 through 2017 divided by a range of illustrative 2016 and 2017 estimated free cash flow yields of 11.0% to 15.0%. Goldman Sachs then discounted to present value as of January 25, 2016, using a range of illustrative discount rates from 10.2% to 14.2% reflecting estimates of Media General's cost of equity, the sum of (1) these theoretical future values per share of Media General common stock plus (2) the net proceeds, after tax and expenses, to Media General related to Media General's participation in the FCC auction, discounted to January 25, 2016 (as provided by and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Media General's management) divided by fully diluted shares outstanding as provided by Media General's management plus (3) the present value of net operating losses divided by fully diluted shares outstanding as provided by Media General's management. This analysis resulted in a range of implied present values of $16.37 to $21.69 per share of Media General common stock.

In addition, Goldman Sachs used the Forecasts to calculate the implied value per share of Media General common stock as of December 31, 2016 by (1) calculating enterprise value by multiplying the average of estimated EBITDA for the years 2016 through 2017 by a range of multiples of 8.0x to 10.0x, (2) deriving equity value by subtracting estimated net debt as of December 31, 2016 and adding the net proceeds, after taxes and expenses, to Media General related to Media General's participation in the FCC auction, discounted to January 25, 2016 (as provided by and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Media General's management), (3) calculating implied future values per share for each of the fiscal years 2016 to 2017 by dividing implied equity value as of December 31, 2016 by fully diluted shares outstanding as provided by Media General's management and (4) discounting the resulting implied future values per share to present values as of January 25, 2016, using a range of illustrative discount rates from 10.2% to 14.2% reflecting estimates of Media General's cost of equity. This analysis resulted in a range of implied present values of $18.73 to $26.76 per share of Media General common stock.

Nexstar Standalone

Goldman Sachs also performed an illustrative analysis of the implied present value of the future price per share of Nexstar Class A common stock.

For this analysis, Goldman Sachs first used the Forecasts to calculate the implied value per share of Nexstar common stock as of December 31, 2016 by applying illustrative price to average future free cash flow per share estimates for the years 2016 and 2017 for Nexstar on a stand-alone basis, using a 35% marginal tax rate, as per the management of Media General, for each of the years 2016 through 2017 divided by a range of illustrative 2016 and 2017 estimated free cash flow yields of 11.0% to 15.0%. Goldman Sachs then discounted to present value as of January 25, 2016, using a range of illustrative discount rates from 9.2% to 13.2% reflecting estimates of Nexstar's cost of equity, the sum of (1) these theoretical future values per share of Nexstar Class A common stock plus (2) the net proceeds, after tax and expenses, to Nexstar related to Nexstar's participation in the FCC auction, discounted to January 25, 2016 (as provided by and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Media General's management) divided by fully diluted shares outstanding as provided by Media General's management plus (3) the present value of net operating losses divided by fully diluted shares outstanding as provided by Media General's management. This analysis resulted in a range of implied present values of $39.74 to $54.58 per share of Nexstar Class A common stock.

In addition, Goldman Sachs used the Forecasts to calculate the implied value per share of Nexstar common stock as of December 31, 2016 by (1) calculating enterprise value by multiplying the average of estimated EBITDA for the years 2016 through 2017 by a range of multiples of 8.0x to 10.0x, (2) deriving equity value by subtracting estimated net debt as of December 31, 2016 and adding the net proceeds, after taxes and expenses, to Nexstar related to Nexstar's participation in the FCC auction, discounted to January 25, 2016 (as provided by and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Media General's management), (3) calculating implied future values per share for each of the fiscal years 2016 to 2017 by dividing implied equity value as of December 31, 2016 by fully diluted shares outstanding as provided by Media General's management and (4) discounting the resulting implied future values per share to present values as of January 25, 2016, using a range of illustrative discount rates from 9.2% to 13.2% reflecting estimates of Nexstar's cost of equity. This analysis resulted in a range of implied present values of $53.73 to $76.71 per share of Nexstar Class A common stock.

Pro Forma Combined Company

Goldman Sachs also performed an illustrative analysis of the implied present value of the future price per share of the pro forma combined company.

For this analysis, Goldman Sachs first used the Forecasts to calculate the implied value per share of the common stock of the pro forma combined company as of December 31, 2016 by applying illustrative price to average future free cash flow per share estimates for the years 2016 and 2017 for the pro forma combined company, using a 35% marginal tax rate, as per the management of Media General, for each of the years 2016 through 2017 divided by a range of illustrative 2016 and 2017 estimated free cash flow yields of 11.0% to 15.0%. Goldman Sachs then discounted to present value as of January 25, 2016, using a range of illustrative discount rates from 9.7% to 13.7% reflecting estimates of the pro forma combined company's cost of equity, the sum of (1) these theoretical future values per share of the pro forma combined company plus (2) the net proceeds, after tax and expenses, to Nexstar related to Nexstar's participation in the FCC auction, discounted to January 25, 2016 (as provided by Nexstar's management and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Media General's management) divided by fully diluted shares outstanding as provided by Media General's management, including shares to be issued in connection with the transaction, plus (3) the present value of net operating losses divided by fully diluted shares outstanding as provided by Media General's management, including shares to be issued in connection with the transaction. This analysis resulted in a range of implied present values, which values to Media General were adjusted for the exchange ratio, cash component of the consideration and the net proceeds, after tax and expenses, to Media General related to Media General's participation in the FCC auction, discounted to January 25, 2016 (as provided by Nexstar's management and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Media General's management) to reflect the value of the merger consideration, of $20.72 to $23.52 per share of the stock of the pro forma combined company.

In addition, Goldman Sachs used the Forecasts to calculate the implied value per share of the common stock of the pro forma combined company as of December 31, 2016 by (1) calculating enterprise value by multiplying the average of estimated EBITDA for the years 2016 through 2017 by a range of multiples of 8.0x to 10.0x, (2) deriving equity value by subtracting estimated net debt, which net debt includes debt incurred in connection with the transaction, as of December 31, 2016 and adding the net proceeds, after taxes and expenses, to Nexstar and Media General related to Nexstar's and Media General's respective participation in the FCC auction, discounted to January 25, 2016 (as provided by and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Nexstar's management), (3) calculating implied future values per share for each of the fiscal years 2016 to 2017 by dividing implied equity value as of December 31, 2016 by fully diluted shares outstanding as provided by Media General's management, including shares to be issued in connection with the transaction, and (4) discounting the resulting implied future values per share to present values as of January 25, 2016, using a range of illustrative discount rates from 9.7% to 13.7% reflecting estimates of the pro forma combined company's cost of equity. This analysis resulted in a range of implied present values, which values to Media General were adjusted for the exchange ratio, cash component of the consideration and the net proceeds, after tax and expenses, to Nexstar and Media General related to Nexstar's and Media General's respective participation in the FCC auction, discounted to January 25, 2016 (as provided by and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Nexstar's management) to reflect the value of the merger consideration, of $20.89 to $25.58 per share of the stock of the pro forma combined company.

Illustrative Pro Forma Accretion/Dilution Analysis. Goldman Sachs performed illustrative pro forma analyses of the potential financial impact of the transaction on the pro forma combined company and Nexstar using the Forecasts and assuming that the transaction will close on December 31, 2016. For each of the estimated calendar years 2017, 2018 and 2019, Goldman Sachs compared the projected free cash flow of Nexstar, on a stand-alone basis, to the projected earnings per share of the pro forma combined company. Based on such analyses, the Transaction would be accretive to the Nexstar shareholders on a free cash flow basis for each of calendar years 2017, 2018 and 2019.

Illustrative Transaction Headline Value Analysis. Goldman Sachs performed an illustrative analysis of the implied total equity value per share to be paid to each Media General shareholder using the Forecasts, data from Bloomberg and the net proceeds, after tax and expenses, to Media General related to Media General's participation in the FCC auction, discounted to January 25, 2016 (as provided by and approved for Goldman Sachs's use by Media General's management) at assumed enterprise value to EBITDA multiples. Using a range of enterprise value to EBITDA multiples from 8.0x to 10.0x, Goldman Sachs calculated a range of implied total equity values per Media General share of $18.59 to $23.10.

General. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Goldman Sachs opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Goldman Sachs considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, Goldman Sachs made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses. No company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to Media General or Nexstar or the contemplated transaction.

Goldman Sachs prepared these analyses for purposes of Goldman Sachs providing its opinion to Media General's board of directors as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the merger consideration to be paid to holders (other than Nexstar and its affiliates) of shares of Media General common stock, taken in the aggregate, pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of Media General, Nexstar, Goldman Sachs or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecast.

The merger consideration was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Media General and Nexstar and was approved by Media General's board of directors. Goldman Sachs provided advice to Media General during these negotiations. Goldman Sachs did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration to Media General or its board of directors or that any specific amount of consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the transaction.

As described above, Goldman Sachs opinion to the Media General's board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by Media General board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Goldman Sachs in connection with the fairness opinion and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the written opinion of Goldman

Sachs attached as Annex F.

Goldman Sachs and its affiliates are engaged in advisory, underwriting and financing, principal investing, sales and trading, research, investment management and other financial and non-financial activities and services for various persons and entities. Goldman Sachs and its affiliates and employees, and funds or other entities they manage or in which they invest or have other economic interests or with which they co-invest, may at any time purchase, sell, hold or vote long or short positions and investments in securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments of Media General, Nexstar, any of their respective affiliates and third parties, including Standard General L.P., an affiliate of a significant shareholder of Media General (Standard General), and Kainos Capital, LLC, an affiliate of a significant shareholder of Media General (Kainos Capital), or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the transaction. Goldman Sachs acted as financial advisor to Media General in connection with, and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the transaction. During the two-year period ended January 27, 2016, the Investment Banking Division of Goldman Sachs has not provided financial advisory and/or underwriting services to either Media General or Nexstar or either of their respective affiliates for which Goldman Sachs has received compensation. Goldman Sachs may in the future provide financial advisory and/or underwriting services to Media General, Nexstar, Standard General and Kainos Capital and their respective affiliates for which the Investment Banking Division of Goldman Sachs may receive compensation. Affiliates of Goldman Sachs also may have co-invested with Standard General, Kainos Capital and their respective affiliates from time to time and may have invested in limited partnership units of affiliates of Standard General and Kainos Capital from time to time and may do so in the future.

The Media General board of directors selected Goldman Sachs as its financial advisor because it is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the transaction. Pursuant to a letter agreement dated December 18, 2015, Media General engaged Goldman Sachs to act as its financial advisor in connection with the contemplated transaction. Pursuant to the terms of this engagement letter, Media General has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee of $10 million, $250,000 of which becomes payable quarterly upon each of the first four quarterly anniversaries of the engagement letter and the remainder of which is payable upon consummation of the transaction. In addition, Media General may pay Goldman Sachs a discretionary fee of up to $8 million in its sole discretion connection with the consummation of the transaction. In addition, Media General has agreed to reimburse Goldman Sachs for its expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Goldman Sachs and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Nexstar Management's Unaudited Prospective Financial Information

Nexstar does not, as a matter of course, publicly release long-term projections regarding its expectations of future financial performance given, among other things, the uncertainty of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, for internal purposes and in connection with the process leading up to entering into the merger agreement, the management of Nexstar prepared certain financial projections for Nexstar on a stand-alone, pre-transaction basis, which we refer to as the Nexstar Projections.

In addition, Media General's management provided to Nexstar certain financial projections for Media General on a stand-alone, pre-transaction basis, which we refer to as the Media General Projections. The Media General Projections are summarized under Chapter One: The Transaction Media General Management's Unaudited Prospective Financial Information beginning on page 133. The Media General Projections that were provided to Nexstar by Media General's management included projections only for years 2016 and 2017, and Nexstar's management extrapolated projections for Media General for years 2018, 2019 and 2020 based upon the Media General Projections that were provided to Nexstar. As part of its evaluation of the transaction and based on the due diligence it conducted, Nexstar's management adjusted the Media General Projections, which projections, as so adjusted, we refer to as the Adjusted Media General Projections. The Adjusted Media General Projections included certain adjustments to the Media General Projections which were made to account for Nexstar management's views on Media General's revenue growth and cost structure.

Neither the Nexstar Projections nor the Adjusted Media General Projections were prepared with a view toward public disclosure or with a view toward complying with the published guidelines of the SEC, the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants with respect to prospective financial information. However, in the view of Nexstar's management, such projections were prepared on a reasonable basis, reflect the best then-available estimates and judgments, and present, to the best of management's knowledge and belief, the expected course of action and the expected future financial performance of Nexstar and Media General, as applicable, on a stand-alone basis. Because the Nexstar Projections and the Adjusted Media General Projections were prepared on a stand-alone basis without giving effect to the transaction or any divestitures contemplated to be made in connection with the transaction, the Nexstar Projections and the Adjusted Media General Projections do not give effect to the transaction, such divestitures, or any changes to Nexstar's operations or strategy that may be implemented after the closing of the transaction, including potential synergies realized as a result of the transaction or any costs related to the transaction or such divestitures. These projections are not fact and should not be relied upon as necessarily indicative of actual future results, and readers of this joint proxy statement/prospectus are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the prospective financial information.

No independent registered public accounting firm has examined, compiled or performed any procedures with respect to the Nexstar Projections or the Adjusted Media General Projections and, accordingly, no independent registered public accounting firm expresses an opinion or any other form of assurance with respect to such projections or the achievability of the results reflected therein. No independent registered public accounting firm assumes any responsibility for such projections. The reports of independent registered public accounting firms incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus relate only to Nexstar's and Media General's historical financial information, respectively, and no such report extends to the parties' projections or should be read to do so.

Nexstar's management provided the Nexstar Projections and the Adjusted Media General Projections to Nexstar's board of directors in the context of its evaluation of the potential transaction and to BofA Merrill Lynch for its use and reliance in connection with the preparation of its analyses and opinion summarized under Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Opinion of Nexstar's Financial Advisor beginning on page 93. Nexstar's management also provided the Nexstar Projections to Media General in connection with Media General's evaluation of the transaction and to Media General's financial advisors. The Nexstar Projections that were provided to Media General by Nexstar's management included projections only for years 2016 and 2017. A summary of the Nexstar Projections and the Adjusted Media General Projections is included below in order to give shareholders access to certain non-public unaudited projections that were utilized by or provided to other parties, in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Nexstar cautions that these projections are subjective in many respects and that uncertainties are inherent in prospective financial information of any kind. While the financial projections have been prepared in good faith, no assurance can be given regarding future events. Neither Nexstar nor Media General nor any of their respective affiliates, officers, directors, advisors or other representatives has made or makes any representation or can give any assurance to any shareholder or any other person regarding the ultimate performance of Nexstar, Media General or the combined company. Since the unaudited prospective financial information covers multiple years, such information by its nature becomes less predictive with each successive year. In addition, Nexstar does not intend to update or otherwise revise the prospective financial information to reflect circumstances existing or arising since its preparation or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error, except to the extent required by law. Furthermore, Nexstar does not intend to update or revise the prospective financial information to reflect changes in general economic or industry conditions.

The internal financial forecasts of Nexstar, which were used as a basis for preparing the Nexstar Projections, are inherently uncertain and, although considered reasonable by the management of Nexstar as of the date of their preparation, are subject to a wide variety of significant business, economic, and competitive risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the projections. Although the projections were prepared with numerical specificity, such projections reflect numerous and varying assumptions made by the management of Nexstar, including various estimates and assumptions that may not be realized, and are subject to significant variables, uncertainties and contingencies, all of which are difficult or impossible to predict and many of which are beyond the control of Nexstar, Media General and the combined company. The risk that these uncertainties and contingencies could cause the estimates or assumptions not to reflect actual results is further increased given the duration in the future over which these estimates and assumptions apply. The estimates and assumptions in early periods have a compounding effect on the projections shown for later periods. Thus, any failure of an estimate or assumption to be reflective of actual results in an early period would have a greater effect on projected results failing to be reflective of actual events in later periods. Important factors that may affect or cause the information below to materially vary from actual results include, but are not limited to, industry performance, general business, economic, political, market and financial conditions, and other matters such as those referenced in the Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 50 and the Risk Factors beginning on page 40. These projections are forward-looking statements, and in light of the uncertainties inherent in forward-looking information of any kind, Nexstar cautions you against relying on this information. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the assumptions made in preparing the internal financial forecasts upon which the projections set forth below were based will be realized or that the prospective results are necessarily indicative of the future performance of Nexstar, Media General or the combined company or that actual results will not differ materially from those presented in the prospective financial information. Inclusion of the Nexstar Projections or the Adjusted Media General Projections in this joint proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as a representation by any person that the results contained in the Nexstar Projections or the Adjusted Media General Projections will be achieved.

In preparing the Nexstar Projections, Nexstar's management made numerous assumptions about Nexstar's industry, markets and products and its ability to execute on its business plan. In particular, Nexstar's management made assumptions that included, but were not limited to the following items:

The total local, national and political advertising revenue in each of Nexstar's markets;

The share of local, national and political market revenue for each Nexstar station;

The total digital advertising revenue for each of Nexstar's digital subsidiaries;

The amount of retransmission consent fee revenue for each Nexstar station based on the number of subscribers by MVPD expected each year and the retransmission rates per subscriber;

The amount of reverse retransmission fee expense for each Nexstar station based on the number of subscribers per affiliate and Media General's expected retransmission consent fee revenue;

The amount of operating expenses for each Nexstar station, including, but not limited to, programming and production costs, selling and promotion expense, general and administrative expenses, news production expenses and technical expenses;

The estimated financial impact of potential regulatory changes; and in prospective financial information of any kind. While the financial projections have been prepared in good faith, no assurance can be given regarding future events. Neither Media General nor any of its respective affiliates, officers, directors, advisors or other representatives has made or makes any representation or can give any assurance to any shareholder or any other person regarding the ultimate performance of Media General, Nexstar or the combined company. Since the unaudited prospective financial information covers multiple years, such information by its nature becomes less predictive with each successive year. In addition, Media General does not intend to update or otherwise revise the prospective financial information to reflect circumstances existing or arising since its preparation or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error, except to the extent required by law. Furthermore, Media General does not intend to update or revise the prospective financial information to reflect changes in general economic or industry conditions.

The internal financial forecasts of Media General, which were used as a basis for preparing the Media General Projections, are inherently uncertain and, although considered reasonable by the management of Media General as of the date of their preparation, are subject to a wide variety of significant business, economic, and competitive risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the projections. Although the projections were prepared with numerical specificity, such projections reflect numerous and varying assumptions made by the management of Media General, including various estimates and assumptions that may not be realized, and are subject to significant variables, uncertainties and contingencies, all of which are difficult or impossible to predict and many of which are beyond the control of Media General, Nexstar and the combined company. The risk that these uncertainties and contingencies could cause the estimates or assumptions to not reflect actual results is further increased given the duration in the future over which these estimates and assumptions apply. The estimates and assumptions in early periods have a compounding effect on the projections shown for later periods. Thus, any failure of an estimate or assumption to be reflective of actual results in an early period would have a greater effect on projected results failing to be reflective of actual events in later periods. Important factors that may affect or cause the information below to materially vary from actual results include, but are not limited to, industry performance, general business, economic, political, market and financial conditions, and other matters such as those referenced in the Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 50 and the Risk Factors beginning on page 40. These projections are forward-looking statements, and in light of the uncertainties inherent in forward-looking information of any kind, Media General cautions you against relying on this information.

Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the assumptions made in preparing the internal financial forecasts upon which the projections set forth below were based will be realized or that the prospective results are necessarily indicative of the future performance of Media General, Nexstar or the combined company or that actual results will not differ materially from those presented in the prospective financial information. Inclusion of the Media General Projections or the Adjusted Nexstar Projections in this joint proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as a representation by any person that the results contained in the Media General Projections or the Adjusted Nexstar Projections will be achieved.

In preparing the Media General Projections, Media General's management made numerous assumptions about Media General's industry, markets and products and its ability to execute on its business plan. In particular, Media General's management made assumptions that included, but were not limited to, the following items:

The total local, national and political advertising revenue in each of Media General's markets;

The share of local, national and political market revenue for each Media General station;

The total digital advertising revenue for each of Media General's digital subsidiaries;

The amount of retransmission consent fee revenue for each Media General station based on the number of subscribers by MVPD expected each year and the retransmission rates per subscriber;

The amount of reverse retransmission fee expense for each Media General station based on the number of subscribers per affiliate and Media General's expected retransmission consent fee revenue;

Table of Contents

The amount of operating expenses for each Media General station, including, but not limited to, programming and production costs, selling and promotion expense, general and administrative expenses, news production expenses and technical expenses;

The estimated financial impact of potential regulatory changes; and

The amount of corporate expenses and capital expenditures.

Interests of Nexstar's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction

In considering the recommendation of the Nexstar board of directors, Nexstar shareholders should be aware that certain of Nexstar's executive officers and directors may have interests in the transaction that are different from, or in addition to, those of Nexstar shareholders generally. The Nexstar board of directors was aware of these interests during its deliberations on the merits of the transaction and in deciding to recommend that Nexstar shareholders vote for the Nexstar share issuance and Nexstar adjournment proposals.

Subject to the reelection of the Class I Directors, each of the current members of Nexstar board of directors will continue as a director of Nexstar following the closing of the transaction and will hold office from and after the closing of the transaction until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation, retirement or removal.

Additionally, Nexstar expects that all of Nexstar's current executive officers will remain executive officers following the closing of the transaction, and that additional executive talent may be added.

The transaction will not result in a change in control for purposes of any Nexstar stock-based awards or employment-related agreements, and so no payments, accelerated vesting or benefit enhancements will be triggered by the transaction.

Interests of Media General's Directors and Executive Officers in the TransactionArrangements with Nexstar

Media General directors and executive officers may have interests in the form of continued employment with the combined company or, in the case of each of Dennis FitzSimons and John Muse, in the form of service as a director of the combined company. In addition, see the section entitled Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance beginning on page 166 for details regarding indemnification by Nexstar of Media General directors and officers.

December 31, 2015, Media General entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Mr. Woodward, which became effective on August 6, 2015, and into an employment agreement with Mr. Mulvaney, which became effective on November 4, 2015. Pursuant to their employment agreements, in the event a named executive officer is terminated during the employment term by Media General other than for cause or disability, or by the officer for good reason, referred to as a qualifying termination, the officer will be entitled to severance and benefits consisting of:

1.5 times (one time for Mr. Sadusky, two times for Mr. Woodward) the sum of his or her base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to termination plus the target annual incentive opportunity for the year of such termination (and in Mr. Sadusky's case, the annual incentive amount for the prior fiscal year), referred to as the severance payment ;

For all named executive officers other than Mr. Mulvaney, an amount equal to the target annual incentive opportunity for the year of such termination, pro-rated through the date of termination;

Continuation of medical, dental, disability, and life insurance benefits for 12 months (18 months for Mr. Woodward) following the termination date;

Accelerated vesting of any equity or stock-based compensation held by Messrs. Carington, and Woodward and Mrs. McDermott as of the termination date; and

For Messrs. Woodward and Mulvaney only, outplacement services.

In addition, Mr. Woodward's agreement provides that Media General may, upon delivery of notice of termination for any reason other than for cause, elect to extend Mr. Woodward's employment for a period of six months in a non-officer position, during which period, (x) the terms of Mr. Woodward's employment agreement shall continue to apply (other than the provision specifying his officer title) and (y) either Media General or Mr. Woodward may terminate Mr. Woodward's employment prior to the end of the six-month extension period with 30 days' notice. If Media General does not elect to extend Mr. Woodward's employment in accordance with the foregoing, or Mr. Woodward elects to terminate his employment prior to the end of the six-month extension period, he shall be entitled to a lump sum payment equal to the base salary that would have been paid had he remained employed through the end of the extension period.

The agreements for Messrs. Sadusky, Carington, and Mrs. McDermott provide for increased severance payments and benefits in the event that a qualifying termination occurs in connection with a change in control (as such term is defined in the agreements) of Media General. The transaction contemplated by the merger agreement will constitute a change in control under the agreements. The severance payments and benefits for Messrs. Sadusky and Carington and Mrs. McDermott in the event that a qualifying termination occurs in connection with a change in control include:

2 times the severance payment (as described above);

An amount equal to the target annual incentive opportunity for the year of such termination, pro-rated through the date of termination;

Continuation of medical, dental, disability, and life insurance benefits for 24 months following the termination date for Mr. Sadusky (12 months following the termination date for Mr. Carington and Mrs. McDermott); and Accelerated vesting of any equity or stock-based compensation held by Messrs. Carington and Mrs. McDermott as of the termination date.

The employment agreements also provide that following the termination of the named executive officer's employment for any reason during the employment term, he or she will be bound by noncompete and nonsolicitation covenants for a period of 12 months (6 months for Mr. Mulvaney's noncompetition covenant) following such termination.

On January 27, 2016, Media General entered into an amendment with each of Messrs. Woodward, Carington and Mulvaney, which amended their employment agreements to provide the executive would be entitled to an excise tax gross-up in the event that, as a result of the payments that would be made as a result of or in connection with a change of control, the executive would be subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code. For purposes of the calculations in the table below under the heading Potential Change in Control Payments to Media General's Named Executive Officers, an estimate of the excise tax gross-up payments that may be payable in connection with the transaction has been included.

Mulvaney Retention Agreement

Media General entered into a retention agreement with Mr. Mulvaney on February 12, 2016, which provides that subject to Mr. Mulvaney's continued employment with Media General through the closing of the transaction, he will be entitled to payment of a retention bonus in an amount equal to six months of his 2015 base salary, payable in a lump sum within 30 days following the closing of the transaction. In the event Mr. Mulvaney's employment is terminated prior to the closing of the transaction, he will not be entitled to the retention payment, provided, however, that if his employment is terminated by Media General without cause (as defined in the retention agreement) prior to the closing of the transaction, he will remain entitled to payment of the retention payment following the closing of the transaction. For purposes of the calculations in the table below under the heading Potential Change in Control Payments to Media General's Named Executive Officers, Mr. Mulvaney's retention payment has been included.

Annual Incentive Payments

Pursuant to the merger agreement, if the closing of the transaction occurs in 2016, annual cash incentive payments in respect of 2016 shall be paid in amount calculated on the basis that the target performance level was attained and pro-rated to reflect the portion of the 2016 performance period lapsed as of the closing of the transaction. For purposes of the calculation in the table below under the heading Potential Change in Control Payments to Media General's Named Executive Officers, the 2016 annual incentive payments have been pro-rated through October 31, 2016.

Equity Award Treatment

In accordance with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, the table below sets forth the compensation that is based on or otherwise relates to the transaction that will or may become payable to each of Media General's named executive officers in connection with the merger. Please see the previous portions of this section for further information regarding this compensation.

The amounts indicated in the table below are estimates of the amounts that would be payable assuming, solely for the purposes of the table, that the merger is consummated on October 31, 2016, whether or not the merger is completed by that date, and that each of the named executive officers has a qualifying termination on that date. The table also sets forth the value of accelerated equity awards based on an assumed total consideration per share value of $19.05, which includes the expected net present value of the implied value of the CVR of $3.09 assumed by Media General's management. The ultimate values to be received by a named executive officer in connection with the merger may materially differ from the amounts set forth below.

- (1) These cash amounts represent the severance payment the executive would be entitled to receive upon a qualifying termination. Mr. Sadusky is entitled to (i) two times the sum of his base salary ($900,000) and his annual incentive opportunity ($757,000) and (ii) his pro-rated target annual incentive opportunity ($937,500). Mr. Woodward would be entitled to (i) 2 times the sum of his base salary ($510,000) and target annual incentive opportunity ($229,500); (ii) his pro-rated target annual incentive opportunity ($191,250) and (iii) his base salary payable through the end of the six-month extension period of his employment term (in his capacity as a non-officer) ($255,000). Mrs. McDermott would be entitled to (i) two times the sum of her base salary ($575,000) and her target annual incentive award ($287,500) and (ii) her pro-rated target annual incentive award ($239,583). Mr. Carington is entitled to (i) two times the sum of his salary ($475,000) and his target annual incentive opportunity ($213,750) and (ii) his pro-rated target annual incentive opportunity ($178,125). Mr. Mulvaney is entitled to (i) 1.5 times the sum of his base salary ($282,000) and his target annual incentive opportunity ($98,700); (ii) his pro-rated target annual incentive award ($82,250) and (iii) his retention bonus ($134,500). The severance amount described in this Footnote 1 as a multiple of base salary and annual incentive opportunity is a double-trigger payment (for Mr. Woodward, this includes the $255,000 in respect of the six-month extension period of his employment term). The pro-rated target annual incentive award described in this Footnote 1 is a single-trigger arrangement since it is paid upon the closing of the transaction pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.
- (2) Pursuant to the merger agreement, Messrs. Woodward, Carington and Mulvaney would vest in their unvested performance accelerated restricted stock, which we refer to as PARS, and restricted stock units, which we refer to as RSUs, and Mr. Sadusky and Mrs. McDermott would vest in their unvested RSUs. For each named executive officer, the value above represents the sum of the number of PARS or RSUs (as applicable) that would vest upon the closing of the transactions multiplied by $19.05, which includes (i) $10.55 cash consideration per share of Media General Voting Common Stock; (ii) 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar Class A Common Stock utilizing the average of the closing price of Nexstar Class A Common Stock over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the merger on January 28, 2016 and (iii) one CVR utilizing the expected net present value of the implied CVR value. The estimated amounts attributable to each component are as follows: Mr. Sadusky ($3,843,633 attributable to RSUs); Mr. Woodward ($552,542 attributable to PARS, and $427,077 attributable to RSUs); Mrs. McDermott ($1,024,984 attributable to RSUs); Mr. Carington ($158,141 attributable to PARS and $384,340 attributable to RSUs); and Mr. Mulvaney ($129,562 attributable to PARS and $85,396 attributable to RSUs). The amounts in this column are single-trigger payments by reason of the provisions in the merger agreement.

The benefits represents the estimated value of the continuation on the same terms of the medical, dental, disability, and life insurance benefits for the named executives for a period of (i) 24 months following employment for Mr. Sadusky; (ii) 18 months following employment for Mr. Woodward, (iii) 12 months following employment for Messrs. Carington and Mulvaney and Ms. McDermott). The amounts included in this column are single-trigger payments which become payable only in connection with a qualifying termination.

Table of Contents

- (4) For Mr. Woodward, this amount represents his entitlement upon a qualifying termination of payment or reimbursement of a maximum of $25,000 in respect of the costs, fees and expenses of outplacement assistance services. For Mr. Mulvaney, this amount represents an estimate of this entitlement upon a qualifying termination to three months of outplacement services. The amounts included in this column are single-trigger payments which become payable only in connection with a qualifying termination.

Accounting Treatment of the Transaction

The merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with ASC 805. Nexstar's management has evaluated the guidance contained in ASC 805 with respect to the identification of the acquirer in the merger and concluded, based on a consideration of the pertinent facts and circumstances, that Nexstar will acquire Media General for financial accounting purposes. Accordingly, Nexstar's cost to acquire Media General has been allocated to the acquired assets, liabilities and commitments based upon their estimated fair values. The allocation of the purchase price is estimated and is dependent upon estimates of certain valuations that are subject to change. In addition, the final purchase price of Nexstar's acquisition of Media General will not be known until the date of closing of the transaction and could vary materially from the preliminary purchase price. Accordingly, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may be materially different from the preliminary unaudited pro forma adjustments presented.

NASDAQ Listing of Nexstar Class A Common Stock

Nexstar is required under the terms of the merger agreement to list the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued to Media General shareholders in the merger on the NASDAQ. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, approval of this listing is required as a condition to the closing of the transaction.

Delisting and Deregistration of Media General Voting Common Shares

Media General voting common stock is listed and trades on the NYSE under the symbol MEG. Following the closing of the transaction, Media General voting common stock will be delisted from the NYSE and deregistered under the Exchange Act and will cease to be publicly traded.

Resale of Nexstar Class A Common Stock

All shares of Nexstar Class A common stock received by Media General shareholders in connection with the merger will be freely tradable for purposes of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which we refer to as the Securities Act, except for shares of Nexstar Class A common stock received by any person who is deemed an affiliate of Nexstar or Media General at the time of the closing of the transaction. Shares of Nexstar Class A common stock held by an affiliate of Nexstar or Media General may be resold or otherwise transferred without registration in compliance with the volume limitations, manner of sale requirements, notice requirements and other requirements under Rule 144 or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act. This joint proxy statement/prospectus does not cover resales of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock received upon closing of the transaction by any person who is deemed an affiliate of Nexstar or Media General, and no person is authorized to make any use of this document in connection with any resale.

Regulatory Approvals

Antitrust Authorities. Under the HSR Act, and the related rules and regulations that have been issued by the FTC, certain acquisition transactions may not be consummated, nor may the acquiring party begin to direct the operations of the acquired company, until certain information and documentary material has been furnished for review by the FTC and the Antitrust Division and certain waiting period requirements have been observed. These requirements apply to the merger.

Under the HSR Act, the merger may not be completed until each of Nexstar and Media General files a Notification and Report Form under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division, which we refer to collectively as the Antitrust Agencies, and the applicable waiting periods have expired or been earlier terminated by the FTC and the Antitrust Division. Nexstar and Media General filed the Notification and Report Forms on February 11, 2016. On March 14, 2016, each of Nexstar and Media General received a request for additional information (second request) from the Antitrust Division. As a result, the HSR Act waiting period will expire 30 days after both Nexstar and Media General substantially comply with the second request, unless the waiting period is earlier terminated by the Antitrust Division.

At any time before or after the closing of the transaction, the Antitrust Division or the FTC could take action under the antitrust laws, including seeking to enjoin the closing of the transaction, seeking to unwind the merger or seeking the divestiture of substantial assets of Nexstar or Media General (or their respective subsidiaries). To address potential antitrust concerns with the merger and comply with FCC rules, Nexstar and Media General have agreed to swap or otherwise divest a broadcast television station in each of the Overlap Markets. Any divestitures in the Overlap Markets would be subject to approval by the FCC.

State attorneys general may also bring legal action under both state and federal antitrust laws, as applicable. Private parties may also bring legal action under the antitrust laws under certain circumstances.

Federal Communications Commission. Under U.S. federal communications laws, Nexstar and Media General may not complete the transaction unless they have first obtained FCC consent. FCC consent is sought through the filing of transfer of control and assignment applications with the FCC, which are subject to public comment and objections from third parties. The applications for FCC consent to the transaction were filed on February 10 and 11, 2016.

The applications for consent to transfer control of the Media General broadcast licensee subsidiaries to Nexstar involve a change of more than 50% of the voting rights representing ultimate control of Media General and its broadcast subsidiaries and thus will constitute a substantial change in ownership or control of the Media General licensees within the meaning of the FCC's rules. Additionally, the parties applied to assign licenses for two full power and two low power licenses television stations from a subsidiary of Media General to a subsidiary of Nexstar. The FCC provided public notice of the filing of the applications on February 16 and 17, 2016. Various parties filed petitions asking the FCC to deny the applications or adopt conditions upon its grant thereof. Nexstar and Media General do not believe that the petitions are meritorious and will respond to them. Additional parties may still file informal objections or comments on the applications. The filing of petitions to deny or any informal objections or negative comments could delay FCC processing of the applications. The FCC may deny or dismiss a petition to deny, subject to certain processing and appeal rights, whereas the FCC is not obligated to consider claims made in an informal objection, but may elect to do so.

In determining whether to approve the transfer of control or assignment of a television broadcast licensee, the FCC considers a number of factors pertaining to the licensee, including compliance with various rules limiting common ownership of media properties, the character of the licensee and those persons holding significant voting or positional interests in the licensee or in the entities controlling the licensee, the Communications Act's limitations on foreign ownership and control of broadcast licensees, and compliance with FCC rules and regulations. The timing or outcome of the FCC approval process cannot be predicted.

Nexstar and Media General have each agreed to use reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as practicable any necessary consent, approval, waiver and authorization of any governmental entity in connection with the transaction. For a further description, see Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement Efforts to Consummate the Transaction beginning on page 168.

Exchange of Shares

Prior to the closing of the transaction, Nexstar will appoint an exchange agent reasonably acceptable to Media General to process the exchange of shares of Media General common stock for the merger consideration.

Prior to the closing of the transaction, Nexstar will deposit with the exchange agent (i) shares of Nexstar Class A common stock sufficient in order for the exchange agent to distribute the aggregate stock consideration, (ii) an amount of cash sufficient in order for the exchange agent to distribute the aggregate cash consideration and (iii) unless CVRs have been distributed prior to the closing of the transaction CVRs sufficient in order for the exchange agent to distribute the aggregate CVR consideration. In addition, Nexstar shall deposit with the exchange agent any dividends or other distributions payable and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to the merger agreement as set out below.

Promptly after the closing of the transaction, Nexstar will cause the exchange agent to mail a letter of transmittal to Media General shareholders. Such letter will include instructions explaining the procedure for surrendering Media General stock certificates and book-entry shares in exchange for the merger consideration.

Media General shareholders will not receive any fractional shares of Nexstar Class A common stock. Instead, a Media General shareholder who otherwise would have received a fractional share of Nexstar Class A common stock will be entitled to receive, from the exchange agent, a cash payment in lieu of such fractional shares equal to (i) the fraction of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock to which such Media General shareholder would otherwise be entitled, multiplied by (ii) the average daily volume weighted average price of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock on the NASDAQ over the five consecutive trading days immediately prior to the closing of the transaction.

No dividends or other distributions with respect to the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock with a Nexstar record date after the effective time of the merger shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Media General common stock with respect to the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock issuable under the merger. All such dividends and other distributions shall be paid by Nexstar to the exchange agent until the surrender of the relevant stock certificate or book-entry security by the holder of Media General common stock. Following such surrender, the holders shall be paid, without interest (i) the amount of dividends or other distributions with a Nexstar record date after the closing of the transaction paid with respect to such shares of Nexstar Class A common stock and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a Nexstar record date after the closing of the transaction but prior to such surrender and with a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such shares of Nexstar Class A common stock. No distributions with respect to CVRs with a payment date after the closing of the transaction shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Media General common stock, and all such distributions instead shall be paid by Nexstar to the exchange agent until the surrender of such stock certificate or book entry security. Following such surrender the holders shall be paid without interest, the amount of such distributions theretofore paid with respect to such CVRs.

All shares of Media General common stock converted pursuant to the merger, when so converted, shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist. From and after the closing of the transaction, until surrendered as contemplated by the merger, each Media General stock certificate and/or book-entry shall represent only the right to receive upon such surrender (along with a duly executed and properly completed letter of transmittal), the cash consideration, the CVRs (if applicable) and certificates or evidence of shares in book-entry form representing the stock consideration that the holder of such certificate or book-entry is entitled to receive pursuant to the merger.

After the effective time of the merger, there shall be no further transfer on the records of Media General of Media General common stock which has been converted, pursuant to the merger, into the right to receive the merger consideration, and if any Media General certificates and/or book-entries, together with a duly executed and properly completed letter of transmittal, are presented for transfer they shall be cancelled and exchanged, without interest, for the merger consideration.

Nexstar shareholders need not take any action with respect to their shares of Nexstar Class A common stock.

Financing of the Transaction

Nexstar expects to use a combination of one or more of the following: (i) the net proceeds of the debt commitments described below, including the net proceeds of senior unsecured notes and (ii) cash available at closing, to complete the transaction. The receipt of such financing by Nexstar is not a condition to the closing of the transaction.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Nexstar has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain financing for the transaction on the terms described below, and Media General has agreed to provide, and to use its reasonable best efforts to cause its legal, tax, regulatory, accounting and other representatives to provide, all cooperation reasonably requested by Nexstar in connection with the financing described below or any alternative debt financing.

Debt Commitment

On January 27, 2016, in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Nexstar entered into a debt commitment letter with BANA, Credit Suisse and Deutsche Bank for a commitment with respect to the financing required by Nexstar to complete the transaction and the refinancing of certain indebtedness of Nexstar, Media General and certain of their VIEs. On February 5, 2016, the debt commitment letter was amended and restated to join the following financial institutions with BANA, Credit Suisse and Deutsche Bank as commitment parties in connection with the financing for the transaction: SunTrust Bank, Barclays Bank PLC, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association and WF Investment Holdings, LLC and certain of their respective affiliates. On February 11, 2016, the debt commitment letter was further amended and restated to join the following financial institutions as commitment parties: The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd., Capital One, N.A., Citizens Bank, National Association and Fifth Third Bank and certain of their respective affiliates. On February 11, 2016, the debt commitment letter was also amended by increasing the commitment under the senior secured term A loan facilities from $250.0 million to $255.0 million. On February 24, 2016, the debt commitment letter was further amended and restated to increase the commitment under the senior secured term A loan facilities from $255.0 million to $270.0 million and to decrease the commitment under the senior secured term B loan facilities from $2,870.0 million to $2,850.0 million. Commitments of the commitment parties were also adjusted on February 24, 2016. The debt commitment letter, as last amended and restated on February 24, 2016, provides for an aggregate $4,725.0 million of financing in the form of (i) senior secured revolving credit facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $175.0 million, (ii) senior secured term A loan facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $270.0 million, (iii) senior secured term B loan facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $2,850.0 million, (iv) a senior secured short-term term facility in an aggregate principal amount of $250.0 million, which will be reduced by the amount of unrestricted cash and cash equivalents on hand at Nexstar and Media General immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction in excess of certain divestiture proceeds received by Nexstar and (v) senior unsecured bridge facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $1,180.0 million to the extent Nexstar fails to issue senior unsecured notes or other securities with an aggregate principal amount of up to $1,180.0 million on or prior to the consummation of the transaction. Pursuant to the debt commitment letter, BANA agreed to act as administrative agent for each of the credit facilities, and BofA Merrill Lynch, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., SunTrust Robinson Humphry, Inc., Barclays Bank PLC, and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC agreed to act as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunners for these debt facilities on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein. The covenants, defaults, prepayments, guarantees and collateral security for the senior secured facilities are expected to be substantially similar to those under Nexstar's current credit agreement.

except as otherwise set forth in the debt commitment letter.

The debt commitment letter contains conditions to funding of the debt financing customary for commitments of this type, including but not limited to:

consummation of the merger in all material respects pursuant to the merger agreement;

the absence of a Material Adverse Effect on Media General (as defined in the merger agreement);

refinancing of Nexstar's and Media General's credit facilities (including in respect of certain Nexstar and Media General VIEs), repayment of Media General 2021 Notes and the making of a change of control offer with respect to Media General 2022 Notes;

solvency of Nexstar on a consolidated basis after giving effect to the merger and the transactions contemplated by the debt commitment letter; delivery of customary financial information and conclusion of marketing periods for the senior secured credit facilities and senior notes backstopped by the bridge facility; and the accuracy of certain specified representations and warranties in the merger agreement and the credit agreement governing the senior secured credit facilities.

Pursuant to the debt commitment letter, the loans under the bridge facility are structured as increasing rate loans customary for facilities of this type, with a rate based on LIBOR increasing up to a total cap whose level will be determined based on timing of the closing of the transaction, syndication and other factors. The bridge loans will be unsecured, will be guaranteed by each guarantor under the senior secured credit facilities and will rank pari passu with all other senior indebtedness of Nexstar. The covenants under the definitive documentation for the bridge loans will be usual and customary for bridge loan financings and will be incurrence-based covenants based on those contained in the preliminary offering memorandum or prospectus used to market the senior notes (with certain covenants to be more restrictive prior to the initial maturity date). To the extent Nexstar obtains net proceeds from the issuance of senior notes in connection with the consummation of the transaction in an amount not less than $1,180 million, the bridge loans would not be funded. The commitments under the bridge facility will also be reduced dollar for dollar by certain divestiture proceeds received by Nexstar. The commitments under the short-term term facility will be reduced at closing dollar for dollar by an amount equal to the unrestricted cash and cash equivalents on hand at Nexstar and Media General in excess of certain divestiture proceeds received by Nexstar.

The debt commitment letter described above provides for a "drop-dead date" of January 27, 2017, subject to extensions consistent with the extension of the "drop-dead date" under the merger agreement.

Description of Certain Indebtedness of Nexstar and Media General

Existing Nexstar Indebtedness

Following closing of the transaction, it is expected that Nexstar's existing $275.0 million of 6.125% Senior Notes due 2022 (the Nexstar 2022 Notes) and $525 million of 6.875% Senior Notes due 2020 (the Nexstar 2020 Notes) will remain outstanding.

2022 Notes

The Nexstar 2022 Notes will mature on February 15, 2022. Interest on the Nexstar 2022 Notes is payable semiannually in arrears on February 15 and August 15 of each year. Nexstar has the option to redeem all or a portion of the Nexstar 2022 Notes at any time prior to February 15, 2018 at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date plus applicable premium as of the date of redemptions. At any time on or after February 15, 2018, Nexstar may redeem the Nexstar 2022 Notes, in whole or in part, at the redemption prices set forth in the indenture governing the notes. At any time before February 15, 2018, Nexstar may also redeem up to 40% of the aggregate principal amount at a redemption price of 106.125%, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption, with the net cash proceeds from equity offerings.

Upon the occurrence of a change in control (as defined in the indenture), each holder of the Nexstar 2022 Notes may require Nexstar to repurchase all or a portion of the Nexstar 2022 Notes in cash at a price equal to 101.0% of the aggregate principal amount to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, thereon to the date of repurchase.

The indenture governing the Nexstar 2022 Notes contains covenants that limit, among other things, Nexstar's ability to (1) incur additional debt, (2) pay dividends or make other distributions or repurchases or redeem its capital stock, (3) make certain investments, (4) create liens, (5) merge or consolidate with another person or transfer or sell assets, (6) enter into restrictions affecting the ability of Nexstar's restricted subsidiaries to make distributions, loans or advances to it or other restricted subsidiaries; prepay, redeem or repurchase certain indebtedness and (7) engage in transactions with affiliates.

The indenture governing the Nexstar 2022 Notes provides for customary events of default (subject in certain cases to customary grace and cure periods), which include nonpayment, breach of covenants in the Indenture, payment defaults or acceleration of other indebtedness, a failure to pay certain judgments and certain events of bankruptcy and insolvency. Generally, if an event of default occurs, the Trustee or holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding Nexstar 2022 Notes may declare the principal of and accrued but unpaid interest, including additional interest, on all the Nexstar 2022 Notes to be due and payable.

The Nexstar 2020 Notes will mature on November 15, 2020. Interest on the Nexstar 2020 Notes is payable semiannually in arrears on May 15 and November 15 of each year. The Nexstar 2020 Notes are senior unsecured obligations of Nexstar and are guaranteed by Mission and certain of Nexstar's and Mission's future 100% owned subsidiaries, subject to certain customary release provisions.

Nexstar has the option to redeem all or a portion of the Nexstar 2020 Notes at any time at a price specified in the indenture governing the Nexstar 2020 Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date plus applicable premium as of the date of redemption.

Upon the occurrence of a change of control (as defined in the indenture), each holder of the Nexstar 2020 Notes may require Nexstar to repurchase all or a portion of the Nexstar 2020 Notes in cash at a price equal to 101.0% of the aggregate principal amount to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, thereon to the date of repurchase.

The indenture governing the Nexstar 2020 Notes contains covenants that limit, among other things, Nexstar's ability to (1) incur additional debt, (2) make certain restricted payments, (3) consummate specified asset sales, (4) enter into transactions with affiliates, (5) create liens, (6) pay dividends or make other distributions, (7) repurchase or redemption of capital, (8) merge or consolidate with another person and (9) enter new lines of business.

The indenture governing the Nexstar 2020 Notes provides for customary events of default (subject in certain cases to customary grace and cure periods), which include nonpayment, breach of covenants in the indenture, payment defaults or acceleration of other indebtedness, a failure to pay certain judgments, certain events of bankruptcy and insolvency and any guarantee of the Nexstar 2020 Notes that ceases to be in full force and effect with certain exceptions specified in the indenture. Generally, if an event of default occurs, the Trustee or holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding notes may declare the principal of and accrued but unpaid interest, including additional interest, on all the notes to be due and payable.

Table of ContentsExisting Media General Credit Agreement

Media General is a party to a credit agreement, originally dated as of July 31, 2013 with Royal Bank of Canada, as the administrative agent, and the other agents and lenders party thereto. The credit agreement was subsequently amended in 2014 and 2015 to make certain changes to the terms thereof (relating to, among other things, the acquisition of LIN in December 2014) as reflected below. As amended and currently in effect, Media General's Senior Secured Credit Facility, which we refer to as the Senior Secured Credit Facility, includes (1) a $150.0 million revolving credit facility that matures on October 31, 2019, (2) an $885 million term loan that matures on July 31, 2020, (3) a $75 million incremental term loan that matures on July 31, 2020 and (4) an $825 million incremental term loan that matures on July 31, 2020. Media General also (i) guarantees a $32 million term loan borrowed by Shield Media, a variable interest entity, and (ii) has pledged substantially all of its assets as collateral for the Shield Media loans, on a pari passu basis with the Senior Secured Credit Facility. Both sets of Senior Notes are also guaranteed by the Company and its subsidiaries on a full and unconditional basis. Upon closing of the transaction, the Senior Secured Credit Facility will be repaid in full and terminated and the Shield Media loans will be refinanced.

LIN Television 6.375% Senior Notes due 2021

In connection with the transaction, it is expected that LIN Television's 6.375% Senior Notes due 2021, which we refer to as the Media General 2021 Notes, will be redeemed in full in accordance with the terms of the indenture governing such notes and the indenture will be satisfied and discharged. Prior to January 15, 2017, the Media General 2021 Notes may be redeemed by LIN Television at par plus the applicable make-whole premium.

On November 5, 2014, a wholly owned subsidiary of old Media General completed the issuance of $400 million in aggregate principal amount of 5.875% Senior Unsecured Notes due in 2022, which we refer to as the Media General 2022 Notes. The Media General 2022 Notes were issued under an indenture dated as of November 5, 2014, which we refer to as the Media General 2022 Notes Indenture. Pursuant to a supplemental indenture dated December 19, 2014, LIN Television assumed all of the obligations under the Media General 2022 Notes and the Media General 2022 Notes Indenture, and Media General, as the direct parent of LIN Television, and certain of the wholly owned subsidiaries of LIN Television, agreed to become party to the Media General 2022 Notes Indenture and to provide holders of 2022 Notes with full and unconditional guarantees to the Media General 2022 Notes, on a senior basis.

The Media General 2022 Notes are redeemable beginning on November 15, 2017, at an initial redemption price of 104.406% of par, declining to 102.938%, 101.469% and 100.000%, beginning on November 15, 2018, 2019 and 2020, respectively. Prior to that date, the Media General 2022 Notes may be redeemed by LIN Television at par plus the applicable make-whole premium.

The Media General 2022 Notes Indenture contains covenants with respect to LIN Television and its restricted subsidiaries that restrict, among other things, and subject to exceptions, the incurrence of additional indebtedness; the payment of dividends or distributions on, and redemption of, capital stock; a number of other restricted payments, including certain investments; creation of specified liens; fundamental changes, including consolidations, mergers and transfers of all or substantially all of LIN Television's assets; and specified transactions with affiliates.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to Media General shareholders that are U.S. holders (as defined below). This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, Treasury regulations, judicial authorities, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service, which we refer to as the IRS, and other applicable authorities, all as currently in effect and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect). Any such change or interpretation could affect the continuing validity of this discussion. This discussion is limited to U.S. holders that hold their shares of Media General common stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This discussion does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular shareholder or to shareholders that are subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws, such as:

shareholders that are not U.S. holders;

financial institutions;

pass-through entities or investors in pass-through entities;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

regulated investment companies or real estate investment trusts;

brokers or dealers in securities or currencies;

certain expatriates or persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar; traders in securities that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting; shareholders subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code; shareholders that entered into a voting and support agreement in connection with the merger; persons that own more than 5% of the outstanding Media General common stock; shareholders that received Media General common shares through the exercise of an employee stock option, through a tax qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation; and persons that hold Media General common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction.

In addition, this discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010.

If a partnership or other entity or arrangement taxed as a partnership holds Media General common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner, the activities of the partnership and certain determinations made at the partner level. Partnerships and partners in a partnership should consult their tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the merger to them.

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of Media General common stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;

an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source; or a trust, the substantial decisions of which are controlled by one or more U.S. persons and which is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court, or a trust that validly has elected under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The following summary is for general informational purposes only and is not a substitute for careful tax planning and advice. Holders of Media General common stock should consult their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the merger in light of their particular circumstances, including U.S. federal estate, gift and other non-income tax laws and tax consequences under state, local or non-U.S. tax laws.

Potential Pre-Merger Distribution of CVRs

As described in Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the Merger Agreement FCC Auction and CVR Arrangement, Media General may in certain circumstances cause the CVRs to be distributed prior to the date of the consummation of the merger. If the CVRs are distributed prior to the date of the consummation of the merger, each U.S. holder should generally be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as receiving a distribution from Media General equal to the fair market value of the CVRs received (which fair market value, as discussed below in Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally, may be difficult to value). That distribution should generally be treated as a dividend to the extent of Media General's current and accumulated earnings and profits (as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes), with any excess treated first as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of a U.S. holder's basis in its shares of Media General common stock, and second as capital gain. If a U.S. holder has held its Media General common stock for more than one year, any capital gain recognized by the U.S. holder should qualify as long-term capital gain.

The immediately preceding paragraph assumes that any distribution of CVRs prior to the date of the consummation of the merger should generally be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a transaction that is separate and distinct from the merger. If, however, any such distribution of CVRs were integrated with the merger for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the treatment of receipt of the CVRs by U.S. holders generally would be as described below under Treatment of Consideration Received Upon Closing of the Transaction. Holders of Media General common stock are urged to consult with their tax advisors regarding the tax treatment of any distribution of CVRs prior to the date of the consummation of the merger.

The remainder of this discussion assumes that the CVRs will not be distributed prior to the date of the consummation of the merger.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the merger is intended to be treated as a sale by Media General shareholders of Media General common stock. The receipt by a U.S. holder of cash, Nexstar Class A common stock and CVRs in exchange for shares of Media General common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The amount of gain or loss a U.S. holder recognizes, and the timing (and potentially the character of a portion) of such gain or loss, will depend in part on the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the CVRs, which is uncertain.

The receipt of the merger consideration, including CVRs, could be treated as either a closed transaction or an open transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is the general position of the IRS that only in rare and extraordinary cases is the value of property so uncertain that open transaction treatment is available. However, there is no authority directly addressing whether contingent payment rights with characteristics similar to the rights under the CVR should be treated as an open transaction or a closed transaction, and such question is inherently factual in nature. Accordingly, holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding this issue. The following discussion describes the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the receipt of the merger consideration, including the CVRs, in the event such receipt is treated as a closed transaction and, alternatively, in the event such receipt is treated as an open transaction.

The CVRs also could be treated as debt instruments for U.S. federal income tax purposes. However, as such treatment is unlikely, the discussion below does not address the tax consequences of such a characterization.

Treatment of Consideration Received Upon Closing of the Transaction

Treatment as Closed Transaction. If the value of the CVRs can be reasonably ascertained at the time of the consummation of the merger, the transaction should generally be treated as closed for U.S. federal income tax purposes, in which case a U.S. holder should generally recognize capital gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon consummation of the merger equal to the difference between (x) the sum of (i) the cash received, (ii) the fair market value of Nexstar Class A common stock received, and (iii) the fair market value of the CVRs received, each determined on the date of the consummation of the merger and (y) such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the Media General common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger.

A U.S. holder's initial tax basis in the Nexstar Class A common stock received in the merger will equal the fair market value of such stock on the date of the consummation of the merger. The holding period of such Nexstar Class A common stock will begin on the day following the date of the consummation of the merger.

If the transaction is closed for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder's initial tax basis in the CVRs will equal the fair market value of the CVRs on the date of the consummation of the merger. The holding period of the CVRs will begin on the day following the date of the consummation of the merger.

The installment method of reporting any gain attributable to the receipt of a CVR will not be available because Media General common stock is traded on an established securities market.

Treatment as Open Transaction. The receipt of the CVRs would generally be treated as an open transaction if the value of the CVRs cannot be reasonably ascertained at the time of the consummation of the merger. If the receipt of the merger consideration is treated as an open transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder should generally recognize capital gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon consummation of the merger if and then only to the extent the amount of cash and the fair market value of Nexstar Class A common stock received exceeds such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the Media General common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger.

Subject to the rules under Section 483 of the Code discussed below, if the transaction is open for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the CVRs would not be taken into account in determining the holder's taxable gain upon receipt of the merger consideration and a U.S. holder would take no tax basis in the CVRs, but would recognize capital gain as payments with respect to the CVRs are made or deemed made in accordance with the U.S. holder's regular method of accounting, but only to the extent the sum of such payments (and all previous payments under the CVRs), together with the amount received upon consummation of the merger discussed above, exceeds such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the Media General common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger.

Subject to the rules under Section 483 of the Code discussed below, if the transaction is open for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder who does not receive cumulative payments pursuant to the merger (including payments under the CVRs, if any) with a fair market value at least equal to such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the Media General common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger, will recognize a capital loss in the year that the U.S. holder's right to receive payments under the CVRs terminates.

Under both closed and open transaction treatment, gain or loss recognized in the transaction must be determined separately for each identifiable block of Media General common stock surrendered in the merger (i.e., shares of Media General common stock acquired at the same cost in a single transaction). Any such gain or loss will be long-term if the U.S. holder held such Media General common stock for more than one year as of the date of the consummation of the merger. For U.S. holders that are individuals, estates or trusts, long-term capital gain generally is taxed at preferential rates. The deductibility of both long-term and short-term capital loss is subject to certain limitations.

Table of ContentsFuture Payments under the CVRs

Treatment as Closed Transaction. There is no authority directly addressing the treatment of payments similar to those under the CVRs in a closed transaction. You should therefore consult your tax advisor as to the taxation of such payments. Under characterization as a closed transaction, a payment with respect to a CVR would likely be treated as a non-taxable return of a U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the CVR to the extent thereof. A payment in excess of such amount may be treated as (i) a payment with respect to a sale of a capital asset, (ii) income taxed at ordinary rates, or (iii) a dividend. Additionally, it is possible that, were a payment to be treated as being with respect to the sale of a capital asset, a portion of such payment would constitute imputed interest under Section 483 of the Code (as described immediately below under "Treatment as Open Transaction").

Treatment as Open Transaction. If the transaction is treated as an open transaction, a payment in the future to a U.S. holder of a CVR should be treated as a payment under a contract for the sale or exchange of Media General common stock to which Section 483 of the Code applies. Under Section 483, a portion of a payment made pursuant to a CVR more than one year after the date of the exchange of Media General common stock for the merger consideration will be treated as interest, which will be ordinary income to the U.S. holder of the CVR. The interest amount will equal the excess of the amount received over its present value as of the consummation of the merger, calculated using the applicable federal rate as the discount rate and using such U.S. holder's regular method of accounting (such amount being taken into account when paid, in the case of a cash method holder, and, when fixed, in the case of an accrual method holder). The portion of the payment pursuant to the CVR that is not treated as interest under Section 483 of the Code should be treated as received in connection with the sale of a capital asset, as discussed above.

Due to the legal and factual uncertainty regarding the valuation and tax treatment of the CVRs, you are urged to consult your tax advisors concerning the tax consequences to you resulting from the receipt of CVRs in the merger.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Payments to a holder of Media General common stock pursuant to the merger or pursuant to the CVRs will be subject to information reporting and may, under certain circumstances, be subject to backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%). To avoid backup withholding, U.S. holders that do not otherwise establish an exemption should complete and return IRS Form W-9, certifying that such U.S. holder is a U.S. person, the taxpayer identification number provided is correct and such U.S. holder is not subject to backup withholding. Certain holders (including, with respect to certain types of payments, corporations) generally are not subject to backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. U.S. holders may use amounts withheld as a credit against their U.S. federal income tax liability or may claim a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing a claim for refund with the IRS.

The preceding summary is for general informational purposes only and is not a substitute for careful tax planning and advice. Holders of Media General common stock should consult their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the merger in light of their particular circumstances, including U.S. federal estate, gift and other non-income tax laws and tax consequences under state, local or non-U.S. tax laws.

Table of ContentsTHE AGREEMENTS

The following summary describes certain material provisions of the merger agreement, the form of CVR agreement and the voting agreement entered into in connection with the transaction, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to those agreements. Copies of the merger agreement, the plan of merger, the voting agreement and the CVR agreement are attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annexes A, C, G and B, respectively, and are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The voting agreement is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement to which this joint proxy statement/prospectus relates and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This summary may not contain all of the information about the agreements that may be important to you. We encourage you to carefully read each of the agreements in its entirety for a more complete understanding of the transaction.

Description of the Merger Agreement

This section of the joint proxy statement/prospectus describes certain material terms of the merger agreement. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement, which is incorporated by reference and attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the entire merger agreement.

The merger agreement and the discussion under the heading Description of the Merger Agreement have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. They are not intended to provide any other factual information about Nexstar or Media General or about Neptune Merger Sub, Inc., which we refer to as the merger subsidiary. That information can be found elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the other public filings made by Nexstar and Media General with the SEC, which are available without charge at www.sec.gov. See Chapter Three: Additional Information Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference beginning on page 226 and Chapter Three: Additional Information Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 228.

On January 27, 2016, Nexstar entered into the merger agreement with Media General and the merger subsidiary. The merger agreement provides, among other things, for the merger of the merger subsidiary with and into Media General with Media General surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Nexstar and the issuance to Media General shareholders of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock and cash as described below in Consideration in the Merger. The merger agreement also contemplates additional consideration to Media General shareholders in the form of a non-transferable contingent value right as described below in Consideration in the Merger.

We sometimes refer to Media General following the closing of the transaction as the surviving corporation, and together with Nexstar, as the combined company.

Closing of the Transaction

The closing of the transaction will take place at 9:00 a.m. local time, in New York City, on the third business day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement (other than those conditions that are to be satisfied or waived at the closing, but subject to such satisfaction or waiver), unless another time or date is agreed to by Nexstar and Media General. However, if the marketing period for the debt financing for the transaction, which we refer to as the marketing period, has not ended by such date, then the closing of the transaction will instead take place on the earlier of the first business day after the expiration of the marketing period and the business day during the marketing period selected by Nexstar and notified in writing to Media General on at least three business days notice.

Table of ContentsDirectors and Executive Officers of Nexstar

Pursuant to the merger agreement, prior to the effective time of the merger, the board of directors of Nexstar is required to fix the size of Nexstar's board of directors at nine members, and two members of the Media General board (currently expected to be Dennis FitzSimons and John Muse) shall become members of the Nexstar board of directors. For a further description of the governance of the combined company following the closing of the transaction, see Chapter One: The Transaction Description of the Transaction Officers and Directors of the Combined Company After the Transaction beginning on page 137, Chapter One: The Transaction Description of Nexstar Class A Common Stock beginning on page 191 and Chapter One: The Transaction Comparison of Shareholder Rights beginning on page 195.

Consideration in the Merger

In the merger, each share of Media General common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will automatically be converted into the right to receive (i) $10.55 in cash, without interest, (ii) 0.1249 shares of Nexstar Class A common stock and (iii) one CVR (unless distributed prior to the closing of the transaction). The cash consideration and the stock consideration are fixed amounts and do not increase or decrease based upon the proceeds (if any) from the disposition of either Nexstar's or Media General's spectrum in the FCC auction. Under the merger agreement, holders of Media General common stock, stock options and other stock-based awards have the right to receive one CVR for each share of Media General common stock, stock option or other stock-based award held by such person. Each CVR will entitle its holder to receive a pro rata share of the Media General Auction Proceeds, subject to reduction pursuant to the formula described in Chapter One: The Transaction The Agreements Description of the CVR Agreement beginning on page 174. This formula is designed to take into account the fact that former Media General shareholders will receive Nexstar Class A common stock as part of the merger consideration, and as shareholders of Nexstar will obtain economic benefits from the net proceeds (if any) from the disposition of Nexstar's spectrum in the FCC auction. As a result, the aggregate cash amount payable under the CVRs may be less than the full amount of the Media General Auction Proceeds.

The form of CVR agreement is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Nexstar and Media General encourage you to read the entire form of CVR agreement carefully because it is the principal document governing the CVRs.

Media General shareholders are entitled to appraisal rights under the VSCA in connection with the merger only to the extent described under Chapter One: The Transaction Appraisal Rights beginning on page 179.

Treatment of Stock Options and Other Stock-Based Awards

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each unvested stock option of Media General outstanding immediately prior to such time will become fully vested, and as of the effective time of the merger, each Media General stock option will be assumed by Nexstar and become an option to purchase, on the same terms and conditions other than vesting (including applicable exercise and expiration provisions) as applied to such stock option immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, a number of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock, determined by multiplying the number of shares of Media General common stock that is subject to each Media General stock option by the Marigold Equity Award Exchange Ratio, at an exercise price per share of Nexstar Class A common stock equal to the exercise price of the underlying Media General stock option immediately prior to the effective time, divided by the Marigold Equity Award Exchange Ratio. For purposes of the merger agreement, the Marigold Equity Award Exchange Ratio means the sum of (i) the exchange ratio and (ii) $10.55, divided by the average of the daily volume weighted average price of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock on the NASDAQ over the ten consecutive trading-day period ending on the second trading day immediately prior to the closing of the transaction.

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each share of Media General restricted stock and each other award measured by the value of a number of shares of Media General common stock (including restricted stock units, phantom units, deferred stock units, stock equivalents and dividend equivalents) outstanding immediately prior to such time, other than Media General stock options (each such award, other than Media General stock options, a stock-based award), will become fully vested. As of the effective time of the merger, each (x) stock-based award that is not considered deferred compensation that is subject to Section 409A of the Code will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive at the effective time of the merger, with respect to each share of Media General common stock underlying the stock-based award, the merger consideration and (y) each stock-based award that is considered deferred compensation that is subject to Section 409A of the Code will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive, pursuant to the timing provided for payment under the terms of the applicable agreement, arrangement or plan related to such stock-based award, with respect to each share of Media General common stock underlying the stock-based award, the merger consideration.

Certain Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties made by Nexstar and Media General to each other. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement were made as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract among Nexstar, Media General, and the merger subsidiary and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by Nexstar and Media General in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. Additionally, subject to certain exceptions, the representations and warranties made by Nexstar and Media General in the merger agreement are qualified by the information disclosed by Nexstar or Media General, respectively, with the SEC prior to the date of the merger agreement, excluding any risk factor disclosures, disclosure of risks in any forward-looking statements disclaimer and any other statements that are similarly predictive or forward-looking in nature. Moreover, certain representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date because they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality (including, in many cases, material adverse effect) different from those generally applicable to shareholders and in some cases may be qualified by disclosures made by one party to the other in disclosure letters delivered by such party to the other, which are not necessarily reflected in the merger agreement or were used for the purpose of allocating risk between Nexstar and Media General rather than establishing matters as facts. Finally, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties in the merger agreement may have changed since the date of the merger agreement, which may or may not be fully reflected in Nexstar's and Media General's public disclosures. Nexstar and Media General will provide additional disclosure in their public reports to the extent that they are aware of the existence of any material facts that are required to be disclosed under federal securities laws and that might otherwise contradict the terms and information contained in the merger agreement, and will update such disclosure as required by federal securities laws. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement do not survive the effective time of the merger. For the foregoing reasons, you should not rely on the representations and warranties in the merger agreement as statements of factual information. Some of the more significant representations and warranties that Nexstar and Media General each made to the other relate to:

valid existence, good standing and corporate authority to conduct business, including with respect to its subsidiaries; capital stock, stock options and other equity interests;

corporate authority to enter into the merger agreement and other agreements contemplated by the transaction, and to consummate such transaction; approval of the merger agreement and the transaction by its board of directors;

In addition, (i) Media General has made representations to Nexstar relating to a valid termination of the merger agreement between Media General and Meredith and (ii) Nexstar has made representations to Media General regarding Nexstar's financial ability, its debt financing and regarding post-closing solvency of the combined company.

For purposes of the merger agreement, a material adverse effect with respect to a party and its subsidiaries is defined to mean a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of the party and its subsidiaries taken as a whole. However, for purposes of determining whether there has been or there is reasonably likely to be a material adverse effect with respect to a party and its subsidiaries, the results of the following events or changes are not taken into account:

the failure to meet any internal or external projections, forecasts or estimates of earnings, revenues or other metrics for any period or change in the market price or trading volume of the party's shares, except that any event or change causing such failure may be taken into account;

any changes that generally affect the industries or markets in which the party and its subsidiaries operate (except to the extent that the party is disproportionately affected as compared with the other party, but only to the extent of such disproportionality); changes generally in economic or financial markets, including changes in interest or exchange rates, legal, regulatory or political conditions, or in applicable laws or GAAP (except to the extent that the changes due to war or acts of terrorism;

other than with respect to certain representations, warranties and conditions contained in the merger agreement, the announcement or pendency of the merger agreement or the transaction or the identity of the other party or any of its affiliates or actions taken by the other party and the impact thereof on such party's relationships, contractual or otherwise, with agents, customers, suppliers, vendors, licensees, licensors, lenders, partners, employees or regulators, including the FCC;

Restrictions on Media General's Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals

On January 27, 2016, Media General was required to immediately cease all then existing discussions with any other person relating to alternative acquisition proposals or acquisition inquiries. In addition, Media General has agreed that it will not and will cause its subsidiaries not to and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and its subsidiaries' representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate the making, submission or announcement of any acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry with respect to Media General;

furnish any non-public information regarding it or any of its subsidiaries to any person in connection with or in response to an acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry with respect to Media General;

engage in discussions or negotiations with any person relating to any acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry with respect to Media General (other than discussions in the ordinary course of business that are unrelated to an acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry);

approve, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry with respect to Media General or withdraw or propose to withdraw its approval and recommendation of the merger agreement and the transaction; or enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger, acquisition, purchase or joint venture agreement or other similar agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement, as discussed below) for any alternative transaction with respect to Media General.

Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, if Media General receives a bona fide unsolicited written acquisition proposal prior to receiving the approval of the transaction by its shareholders, Media General may (i) provide information to such person following such person's execution of a confidentiality agreement no less restrictive than the confidentiality agreement executed by Nexstar and (ii) enter into negotiations with such person regarding such person's acquisition proposal, provided that:

such acquisition proposal did not result from a breach of Media General's non-solicitation obligations in the merger agreement;

Media General's board of directors determines in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior offer for Media General and, after consulting with outside counsel, that failing to take such actions would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the board's fiduciary duties under applicable law;

Media General must give Nexstar notice prior to taking any such actions and, within 24 hours, provide Nexstar with any non-public information provided to such persons making an acquisition proposal not previously provided to Nexstar; and Media General may not directly or indirectly reimburse or pay the expenses of, or provide compensation to, any such person who makes an acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry.

Media General's board of directors may not (i) modify or withdraw, or propose publicly to modify or withdraw, its recommendation of the merger agreement and the transaction in a manner adverse to Nexstar, (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend an alternative acquisition proposal for Media General, (iii) take any action to make the provisions of an anti-takeover statute or regulation inapplicable to any transaction contemplated by an alternative acquisition proposal for Media General or (iv) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, or cause Media General or its subsidiaries to enter into any agreement in respect of an acquisition proposal for Media General (other than a confidentiality agreement in compliance with the merger agreement). However, the Media General board of directors may change its recommendation as described in Change of Recommendation by Media General's Board of Directors on page 162 below.

Media General must promptly, within 36 hours, advise Nexstar of any acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry made with respect to Media General, including the identity of the person making such proposal or inquiry and the terms thereof, prior to the earlier of the effective time of the merger and the termination of the merger agreement. In addition, Media General must keep Nexstar informed on a current basis regarding the material developments in status and terms related to an acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry, including whether such proposal or acquisition inquiry has been withdrawn or rejected and any material changes to the terms thereof.

An acquisition inquiry means an inquiry, indication of interest or request for non-public information from a third-party that would reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal.

An acquisition proposal means any offer or proposal of a third-party contemplating or otherwise relating to any transaction or possible transaction or series of related transactions with a person or group (as defined in the Exchange Act) concerning any:

merger, consolidation, business combination, share exchange, joint venture or similar transaction involving Nexstar or Media General, as applicable, or any of their subsidiaries, pursuant to which such person or group would own 20% or more of the consolidated assets, revenues or net income of Nexstar or Media General, as applicable, and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole;

sale, lease, license or other disposition of assets of Nexstar or Media General, as applicable (including equity interests of any of its subsidiaries) or any subsidiary of Nexstar or Media General, as applicable, representing 20% or more of the consolidated assets, revenues or net income of Nexstar or Media General, as applicable, and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; issuance or sale or other disposition of equity interests representing 20% or more of the issued and outstanding equity securities of Nexstar or Media General, as applicable; transaction or series of transactions in which any person or group would acquire beneficial ownership or the right to acquire beneficial ownership of equity interests representing 20% or more of the issued and outstanding equity securities of Nexstar or Media General, as applicable; action to make the provisions of any fair price, moratorium, control share acquisition, business combination or other similar anti-takeover statute or regulation inapplicable to any transaction; or any combination of the foregoing.

A superior offer for Nexstar or Media General means a bona fide written acquisition proposal (except that references in the definition of acquisition proposal to 20% will be replaced by 100%) with respect to Nexstar or Media General that is determined by its board of directors, in its good faith judgment (or, in the case of Media General only, good faith business judgment), after consulting with a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor and outside legal counsel, and after taking into account all the terms of the acquisition proposal (including, without limitation, the legal, financial and regulatory aspects of such proposal, the availability of any financing, the identity of the person making such proposal, the anticipated time of closing of the proposed transaction and the conditions for closing of such proposal), (i) to be more favorable, from a financial point of view, to Nexstar shareholders or Media General shareholders than the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement (taking into account any revisions proposed by Nexstar or Media General to the merger agreement and other transaction documents) and (ii) is reasonably expected to be consummated.

Change of Recommendation by Media General's Board of Directors

Media General's board of directors may change its recommendation in connection with a superior offer, prior to the approval of the transaction by Media General shareholders if:

Media General receives a bona fide unsolicited acquisition proposal that did not result from a violation of the restrictions described in Restrictions on Media General's Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals above;

Media General's board of directors determines in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside legal counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer for Media General;

Media General provides four business days prior notice to Nexstar that it intends to take such action and the reasons for such action;

to the extent requested by Nexstar during the applicable notice period, Media General negotiates in good faith with Nexstar with respect to any revisions to the merger agreement so that such acquisition proposal ceases to constitute a superior offer; and

Media General's board of directors continues to believe, following any such negotiations with respect to revisions, in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer and, after consulting with outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

In addition, Media General's board of directors may change its recommendation other than in connection with a superior offer prior to the approval of the transaction by Media General shareholders in response to an intervening event (i.e., a material event or development that was neither known to the Media General board of directors or to Media General's chief executive officer or chief financial officer nor reasonably foreseeable as of January 27, 2016; provided that actions taken by either party in accordance with the merger agreement (and consequences thereof) shall not constitute such an intervening event), if:

Media General's board of directors determines in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel, that failing to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law;

Media General provides four business days prior notice to Nexstar that it intends to take such action and the reasons for such action;

to the extent requested by Nexstar during the applicable notice period, Media General negotiates in good faith with Nexstar with respect to any revisions to the merger agreement so that such intervening event would no longer necessitate such a change in recommendation; and Media General's board of directors continues to believe, following any such negotiations with respect to revisions, in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel, that failing to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Media General board of director's fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Unless the merger agreement is terminated, Media General's obligation to hold a meeting of its shareholders will not be affected by the announcement of any acquisition inquiry or acquisition proposal for Media General, and Media

General will not submit any acquisition proposal (other than the transaction) to the vote of its shareholders. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the Media General special meeting, Media General will notify its shareholders before the Media General special meeting if the board of directors of Media General has changed its recommendation with respect to the Media General merger proposal and/or Media General compensation proposal. Despite any such change of recommendation, Media General shareholders will be asked to vote on such proposals at the Media General special meeting.

Termination by Media General in Connection with a Superior Offer

Media General may terminate the merger agreement to enter into an agreement for a superior offer if, prior to the approval of the transaction by Media General shareholders:

Media General's board of directors determines in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer for Media General;

Media General provides four business days prior notice to Nexstar that it intends to take such action and the reasons for such action;

to the extent requested by Nexstar during the applicable notice period, Media General negotiates in good faith with Nexstar with respect to any revisions to the merger agreement so that such acquisition proposal ceases to constitute a superior offer;

Media General's board of directors continues to believe, following any such negotiations with respect to revisions, in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer and, after consulting with outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the board's fiduciary duties under applicable law; and Media General pays Nexstar a termination fee of $80 million substantially concurrently with such termination.

Restrictions on Nexstar's Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals

On January 27, 2016, Nexstar was required to immediately cease all then existing discussions with any other person relating to alternative acquisition proposals or acquisition inquiries. In addition, Nexstar has agreed that it will not and will cause its subsidiaries not to and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and its subsidiaries' representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate the making, submission or announcement of any acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry with respect to Nexstar;

furnish any non-public information regarding it or any of its subsidiaries to any person in connection with or in response to an acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry with respect to Nexstar;

engage in discussions or negotiations with any person relating to any acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry with respect to Nexstar (other than discussions in the ordinary course of business that are unrelated to an acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry);

approve, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry with respect to Nexstar or withdraw or propose to withdraw its approval and recommendation of the merger agreement and the transaction; or enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger, acquisition, purchase or joint venture agreement or other similar agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement as discussed below) for any alternative transaction with respect to Nexstar.

Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, if Nexstar receives a bona fide unsolicited written acquisition proposal prior to receiving the approval of the transaction by its shareholders, Nexstar may (i) provide information to such person following such person's execution of a confidentiality agreement no less restrictive than the confidentiality agreement executed by Media General and (ii) enter into negotiations with such person regarding such person's acquisition proposal, provided that:

such acquisition proposal did not result from a breach of Nexstar's non-solicitation obligations in the merger agreement;

Nexstar's board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior offer for Nexstar and, after consulting with its outside counsel, that failing to take such actions would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law;

Nexstar must give Media General notice prior to taking any such actions and, within 24 hours, provide Media General with any non-public information provided to such persons making an acquisition proposal not previously provided to Media General; and Nexstar may not directly or indirectly reimburse or pay the expenses of, or provide compensation to, any such person who makes an acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry.

Nexstar's board of directors may not (i) modify or withdraw, or propose publicly to modify or withdraw, its recommendation of the merger agreement and the transaction in a manner adverse to Media General, (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, an alternative acquisition proposal for Nexstar, (iii) take any action to make the provisions of an anti-takeover statute or regulation inapplicable to any transaction contemplated by an alternative acquisition proposal for Nexstar or (iv) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, or cause Nexstar or its subsidiaries to enter into any agreement in respect of an acquisition proposal for Nexstar (other than a confidentiality agreement in compliance with the merger agreement). However, the Nexstar board of directors may change its recommendation as described in Change of Recommendation by Nexstar's Board of Directors below.

Nexstar must promptly, within 36 hours, advise Media General of any acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry made with respect to Nexstar, including the identity of the person making such proposal or inquiry and the terms thereof, prior to the earlier of the effective time of the merger and the termination of the merger agreement. In addition, Nexstar must keep Media General informed on a current basis regarding the material developments in status and terms related to an acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry, including whether such proposal or acquisition inquiry has been withdrawn or rejected and any material changes to the terms thereof.

Change of Recommendation by Nexstar's Board of Directors

Nexstar's board of directors may change its recommendation in connection with a superior offer, prior to the approval of the transaction by Nexstar shareholders if:

Nexstar receives a bona fide unsolicited acquisition proposal that did not result from a violation of the restrictions described in Restrictions on Nexstar's Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals on page 164 above;

Nexstar's board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consulting with its outside legal counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer for Nexstar;

Nexstar provides four business days prior notice to Media General that it intends to take such action and the reasons for such action;

to the extent requested by Media General during the applicable notice period, Nexstar negotiates in good faith with Media General with respect to any revisions to the merger agreement so that such acquisition proposal ceases to constitute a superior offer; and

Nexstar's board of directors continues to believe, following any such negotiations with respect to revisions, in its good faith judgment, after consulting with its outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer and, after consulting with its outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

In addition, Nexstar's board of directors may change its recommendation other than in connection with a superior offer prior to the approval of the transaction by Nexstar shareholders in response to an intervening event

(i.e., a development that was neither known to the Nexstar board of directors or to Nexstar's chief executive officer or chief financial officer nor reasonably foreseeable as of January 27, 2016; provided that actions taken by either party in accordance with the merger agreement (and consequences thereof), changes in the market price or the trading volume of the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock or investor or public reaction to the announcement and pendency of the merger agreement shall not constitute such an intervening event):

Nexstar's board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel, that failing to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law;

to the extent requested by Media General during the applicable notice period, Nexstar negotiates in good faith with Media General with respect to any revisions to the merger agreement so that such intervening event would no longer necessitate such a change in recommendation; and Nexstar's board of directors continues to believe, following any such negotiations with respect to revisions, in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel, that failing to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Nexstar board of director's fiduciary duties under applicable law. Unless the merger agreement is terminated, Nexstar's obligation to hold a meeting of its shareholders will not be affected by the announcement of any acquisition inquiry or acquisition proposal for Nexstar, and Nexstar will not submit any acquisition proposal (other than the transaction) to the vote of its shareholders. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the Nexstar annual meeting, Nexstar will notify its shareholders before the Nexstar annual meeting if the board of directors of Nexstar has changed its recommendation with respect to the Nexstar share issuance proposal. Despite any such change of recommendation, Nexstar shareholders will be asked to vote on such proposals at the Nexstar annual meeting.

Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance

Nexstar will cause the surviving corporation or any applicable subsidiary thereof to indemnify and hold harmless all past and present directors and officers of Media General or such subsidiary following the closing of the transaction to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law in connection with any actual or threatened claim, suit, or other action and any losses, claims, damages, costs, judgments, fines, penalties and other amounts paid in settlement in connection with any such claim, suit, or other action, whether instituted by Nexstar or Media General, a government entity or any other person, for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to such closing (including in connection with the approval of the merger agreement and the closing of the transaction), and advance to such persons their legal costs and other expenses, subject to an undertaking by any such person to reimburse such expenses in the event that it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified.

Nexstar and Media General agreed that all rights to indemnification from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger existing prior thereto in favor of the current or former directors and officers of Media General or any of its subsidiaries will survive the transaction. For six years following the closing of the transaction, the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation will contain indemnification provisions no less favorable to the directors and officers than those existing prior to the closing of the transaction.

Media General may purchase a six-year period tail insurance policy of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing provisions no less favorable to the directors and officers of Media General or its subsidiaries as Media General's and its subsidiaries' existing insurance policy or policies, provided that the premium for any such tail policy will not exceed 300% of the aggregate annual amounts currently paid by Media

General and its subsidiaries for such insurance. If Media General does not purchase a tail policy prior to the closing of the transaction, Nexstar or the surviving corporation will purchase a tail policy, provided that the premium for any such tail policy will not exceed 300% of the aggregate annual amounts currently paid by Media General and its subsidiaries for such insurance.

Employee Benefits

For a period of one year following the closing of the transaction, Nexstar will provide the employees of Media General and its subsidiaries that become employees of Nexstar and its subsidiaries as of the effective time of the merger (i) benefits and compensation that are substantially similar in the aggregate to those provided as of the date of the signing of the merger agreement and (ii) severance benefits in accordance with the terms of the Nexstar severance policy, or if greater, the Media General severance policy in effect as of the date of the signing of the merger agreement. In addition, Nexstar has agreed, to the extent a Media General employee becomes eligible to participate in a Nexstar benefit plan or a new employee benefit plan that is adopted or implemented by Nexstar or its subsidiaries at or following the closing of the transaction, to recognize each employee's service with Media General and its subsidiaries (and their predecessors) for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefit accruals to the same extent such service was recognized under comparable Media General plans prior to closing of the transaction; except that such service will not be recognized (1) if it results in duplicate benefits for the same period of service, (2) with respect to newly adopted benefit plans for which prior service is not taken into account, (3) with respect to frozen benefit plans and (4) for benefit accrual purposes with respect to benefit plans that are defined benefit plans or plans which provide post-retirement health or welfare benefits. Nexstar and its subsidiaries have agreed to honor the accrued and vested obligations of Media General and its subsidiaries under such benefit plans.

To the extent that any employee of Media General becomes eligible to participate in a benefit plan of Nexstar or a new benefit plan that provides medical, dental or other health care insurance, Nexstar will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause each plan to waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent that such conditions are covered under the plans of Media General, honor deductibles, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by such employees during the portion of the calendar year prior to participation, and waive any waiting period limitations, in each case to the extent that any such employee of Media General had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous medical, dental or health care insurance plan of Media General.

If the closing of the transaction occurs in 2016, cash incentive bonuses for 2016 will be paid to the employees of Media General and its subsidiaries at or prior to the occurrence of the closing assuming attainment of target performance and pro-rated for the portion of the 2016 performance period that has lapsed as of the date of the closing. If the closing of the transaction occurs in 2017 (i) but prior to date on which the cash incentive bonus payments for 2016 would normally be paid, cash incentive bonus payments for 2016 will be paid to employees of Media General and its subsidiaries at the closing of the transaction calculated based on attainment of target performance and (ii) cash incentive bonus payments with respect to 2017 will be paid to employees of Media General and its subsidiaries at or prior to the closing of the transaction assuming attainment of target performance and pro-rated for the portion of the 2017 performance period that has lapsed as of the date of the closing of the transaction.

Other Covenants and AgreementsShareholder Meetings

As promptly as practicable following the effectiveness of the registration statement to which this joint proxy statement/prospectus relates, Nexstar will hold a duly called meeting of its Class A shareholders to consider and vote on the Nexstar share issuance proposal, provided that the record date for such meeting will be made in consultation with Media General, will be no later than 10 days after the date on which such registration statement is declared effective (or such later time as may be required by applicable law) and such meeting will be held within 40 days of such record date. Unless the merger agreement is terminated, Nexstar's obligation to hold a meeting of its shareholders will not be affected by the announcement of any acquisition inquiry or acquisition proposal for Nexstar, and Nexstar will not submit any acquisition proposal (other than the transaction) to the vote of its shareholders. Nexstar will not, without the prior written consent of Media General, adjourn or postpone its shareholder meeting (except, after consultation with Media General, in accordance with applicable law).

Nexstar and Media General will use their reasonable best efforts to schedule their respective shareholder meetings to occur on the same date.

Efforts to Consummate the Transaction

Nexstar and Media General each agreed to use reasonable best efforts, in connection with the transaction, to:

obtain any required consents, approvals, waivers and authorizations of any governmental entity or other third-party; make all required filings and submissions with any governmental entity or other third-party; cooperate with the other party in determining which filings are required to be made prior to the closing of the transaction with, and which consents and approvals are required to be obtained prior to the closing of the transaction from, governmental entities or other third parties in connection with the merger agreement and the transaction and timely making all necessary filings and timely seeking all consents and approvals; and cause the conditions to the transaction to be satisfied and all actions necessary or appropriate to consummate the transaction to be taken.

Nexstar and Media General will jointly coordinate interactions with governmental entities and third parties in connection with consents or approvals required from such entities or third parties including in connection with the HSR Act, the Communications Act and the FCC rules.

Nexstar and Media General are also required to (i) take all actions necessary to effect certain regulatory divestitures, (ii) vigorously contest any actions, suits or orders that may enjoin the transaction or impose any terms or conditions on the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and (iii) resolve any objections any governmental entities may assert with respect to the transactions.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligations of Nexstar and Media General described above will not be construed to require Nexstar or Media General or any of their respective subsidiaries to take, or agree to take, any regulatory action, unless (i) such action will be conditioned upon the consummation of the merger and the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement and (ii) all such regulatory actions (excluding certain regulatory divestitures), individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of Nexstar and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the merger (and not taking into account any effects of the agreed upon regulatory divestitures). Senior executives of Nexstar shall consult in good faith with senior executives of Media General with respect to any regulatory action that is not an agreed regulatory divestiture, and neither party will be permitted to take any regulatory actions that would reasonably be expected to materially delay or impede receipt of FCC or other regulatory approval or the consummation of the regulatory actions or mergers.

Financing

Nexstar has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the transaction financing at the closing of the transaction (taking into account certain flex provisions and the marketing period) and not to, without the prior written consent of Media General (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), amend or waive any provision of the debt commitment letter that would reasonably be expected to delay, prevent or make less likely the funding of the transaction financing in any material respects (other than to favorably modify pricing terms or add additional lenders, arrangers, bookrunners and agents or to implement or exercise any market flex provisions contained in the fee letter executed in connection with the debt commitment letter) or extend the marketing period under the debt commitment letter.

Prior to the closing, Media General has agreed that it will and will cause its subsidiaries to, and will use its commercially reasonable best efforts to cause its and its subsidiaries representatives to, provide to Nexstar such cooperation in connection with the transaction financing, including with respect to the redemption of the Media General 2021 Notes and the change of control offer with respect to the Media General 2022 Notes.

Under the merger agreement, Media General is not obligated to incur any fees or liabilities with respect to the financing prior to the closing. Nexstar has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless Media General, its subsidiaries, and their respective representatives from and against all out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, fines, claims, losses, penalties, damages, interest, awards, liabilities or obligations directly or indirectly suffered or incurred by any of them in connection with cooperation related to the financing and to reimburse Media General for all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees) incurred by Media General in connection with its cooperation related to the financing.

Transaction Litigation

Nexstar and Media General must each promptly notify the other of any actions, suits, claims or proceedings commenced against it or its officers or directors in connection with the merger agreement, the transaction, the merger agreement between Media General and Meredith or any of the transactions contemplated thereby. Nexstar and Media General will give each other the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of such matters and shall not settle any such matters without the consent of Nexstar.

Stock Exchange Delisting

Nexstar and Media General agree to cooperate with each other in taking, or causing to be taken, all actions necessary to delist the Media General common stock from the NYSE and terminate its registration under the Exchange Act, provided that such delisting and termination will not be effective until the effective time of the merger.

Advice of Changes

Nexstar must promptly advise Media General of any change or event that (i) could have a material adverse effect on Nexstar or (ii) it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause a material breach of any of Nexstar's representations and warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement. Media General must promptly advise Nexstar of any change or event that (i) could have a material adverse effect on Media General or (ii) it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause a material breach of any of Media General's representations and warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement. A failure by either party to advise the other of such change or event does not affect the representations and warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement and does not independently constitute a failure of any condition to closing of the transaction under the merger agreement.

Section 16 Matters

Nexstar and Media General must take all commercially reasonable steps as may be necessary to cause the transaction to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act.

FCC Auction and CVR Arrangement

Nexstar and Media General and their respective subsidiaries shall be permitted to participate in the FCC auction and enter into channel sharing arrangements (and permit their sharing companies to participate in the FCC auction and enter into channel sharing arrangements), if at all, only to the extent permitted by schedules negotiated prior to the commencement of the FCC's current auction quiet period. To the extent required by applicable FCC regulation or otherwise, Nexstar has agreed to be bound by the actions of Media General and its subsidiaries in the FCC auction with respect to FCC licenses and Media General stations participating in the FCC auction, if any.

In the event that the FCC auction completion date occurs prior to the closing of the transaction, Nexstar and Media General shall, as promptly as practicable after the said date jointly and in good faith calculate the estimated sharing percentage, if any, and then Media General may announce such estimated sharing percentage, if any, the components thereof and estimate of the total net company proceeds, divided by the sum of the number of shares of Media General common stock then outstanding plus the number of shares of Media General voting common stock subject to Media General stock options then outstanding plus the number of shares of Media General common stock underlying the Media General stock-based awards then outstanding. Media General shall be permitted to (i) at any time after the FCC auction completion date, execute and deliver the CVR agreement, and distribute the CVRs to the holders of Media General common stock, stock options and other stock-based awards and to make the payments contemplated by the CVR agreement, if any to the rights agent for distribution to the holders of the CVRs and (ii) amend the Media General credit facility solely to the extent necessary to allow Media General to take the said actions. In the event that Media General does not distribute CVRs prior to closing of the transaction as set out above, Nexstar will enter into a contingent value rights agreement substantially in the form attached to the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B with a financial institution selected by Media General that is reasonably satisfactory to Nexstar which CVR agreement will set forth the terms of the CVR to be included as part of the merger consideration.

Conditions to the Transaction

The merger agreement contains customary closing conditions, including the following conditions that apply to the obligations of both Nexstar and Media General to consummate the transaction:

expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act;

the grant by the FCC of its consent to the transfer of control of the broadcast licensee subsidiaries of Media General to Nexstar, and the assignment of licenses for two full power and two low power television stations

from a subsidiary of Media General to a subsidiary of Nexstar in connection with the transaction;

the requisite approvals of Nexstar shareholders and Media General shareholders shall have been obtained; absence of any order or injunction in effect issued by a U.S. federal or state court of competent jurisdiction preventing the consummation of the transaction;

the SEC shall have declared the registration statement to which this joint proxy statement/prospectus relates effective and no stop order suspending effectiveness shall have been issued;

the shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued in connection with the transaction shall have been approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to an official notice of issuance;

the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party (with exceptions for certain inaccuracies that are not reasonably expected to result in the former holders of voting and non-voting common stock of Media General, Media General stock options and Media General stock-based awards owning additional equity in Nexstar that in the aggregate, is valued based upon the merger consideration at more than $5 million, or that would not reflect a change in the number of fully diluted shares of Nexstar Class A common stock, before giving effect to the merger that in the aggregate, is valued at more than $5 million or would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the party making such representations and warranties) and receipt of an officer's certificate to that effect;

the performance in all material respects by each party of all obligations required to be performed by it under the merger agreement and receipt of an officer's certificate to that effect;

no event or change that would be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the other party shall have occurred since January 27, 2016 and the receipt of an officer's certificate to that effect;

third-party consents under certain material contracts shall have been obtained; and Nexstar having executed and delivered to Media General the CVR agreement as set out in the merger agreement.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the consummation of the transaction:

by mutual consent of Nexstar and Media General in a written instrument;

by either Nexstar or Media General:

if any U.S. federal or state court of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final and nonappealable order permanently prohibiting or making the transaction unlawful, provided that the terminating party must have complied with certain of its obligations under the merger agreement with respect to such order;

if the Media General special meeting or the Nexstar annual meeting (including any adjournments and postponements thereof) is held and completed and the shareholder approvals required with respect to the transaction were not obtained;

if the closing of the transaction has not occurred on or before January 27, 2017 (however, if the only conditions not satisfied are the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act and the receipt of all necessary consents from the FCC, then the outside date will be automatically extended to April 27, 2017), subject to an automatic five business day extension if the marketing period has not ended by the last business day before the outside date, unless the failure to close by such date is due to the failure of the terminating party to perform its covenants and agreements contained in the merger agreement; or

by Nexstar:

if the closing conditions relating to the accuracy of Media General's representations and warranties or fulfillment of Media General's covenants cannot be satisfied due to a breach by

Media General of its representations and warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach is not cured by the outside date or within 30 days of notice of such breach, or which by its nature or timing cannot be cured prior to the outside date; or at any time prior to the Media General special meeting, if (i) Media General has breached its obligations or failed to perform in any material respect its obligations with respect to the Media General special meeting or its no solicitation obligations, (ii) Media General's board of directors fails to include its recommendation in the joint proxy statement/prospectus or changes its recommendation or (iii) Media General's board of directors fails to reaffirm its recommendation within 10 business days after Nexstar's request to do so following an acquisition proposal (or an intention to make an acquisition proposal) with respect to Media General becoming public;

by Media General:

if the closing conditions relating to the accuracy of Nexstar's representations and warranties or fulfillment of Nexstar's or Neptune's covenants cannot be satisfied due to a breach by Nexstar of its representations and warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach is not cured by the earlier of the outside date or within 30 days of notice of such breach, or which by its nature or timing cannot be cured prior to the outside date;

at any time prior to the Nexstar annual meeting, if (i) Nexstar has breached or failed to perform in any material respect its obligations with respect to the Nexstar annual meeting or its no solicitation obligations, (ii) Nexstar's board of directors fails to include its recommendation in the joint proxy statement/prospectus or changes its recommendation or (iii) Nexstar's board of directors fails to reaffirm its recommendation within 10 business days after Media General's request to do so following an acquisition proposal (or an intention to make an acquisition proposal) with respect to Nexstar becoming public; or at any time prior to approval of the transaction by Media General shareholders, in order to enter into a definitive agreement to accept a superior offer as further described in Termination by Media General in Connection with a Superior Offer beginning on page 163, so long as Media General pays the termination fee described below in Termination Fee .

Termination Fee

Nexstar must pay to Media General a termination fee of $80 million if:

Media General terminates the merger agreement due to (i) a breach by Nexstar of its obligations with respect to the Nexstar annual meeting or its no solicitation obligations, (ii) a failure by Nexstar's board of directors to include its recommendation in the joint proxy statement/prospectus or if it changes its recommendation or (iii) a failure of Nexstar's board of directors to reaffirm its recommendation within 10 business days after Media General's request to do so following an acquisition proposal (or an intention to make an acquisition proposal) with respect to Nexstar becoming public;

Nexstar or Media General terminates the merger agreement because the transaction has not been consummated by the outside date and (i) prior to such termination a bona fide acquisition proposal with respect to Nexstar shall have been publicly made and such acquisition proposal has not been withdrawn and (ii) on or prior to the first anniversary of such termination Nexstar completes an acquisition transaction or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition transaction that is subsequently consummated;

Nexstar or Media General terminates the merger agreement because Nexstar shareholders do not approve the transaction and (i) prior to the Nexstar annual meeting an acquisition proposal with respect to Nexstar shall have been publicly made and such acquisition proposal has not been withdrawn prior to such Nexstar annual meeting and (ii) on or prior to the first anniversary of such termination Nexstar completes an acquisition transaction or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition transaction that is subsequently consummated (except that the termination fee of $80 million will be reduced by the amount of the termination fee of $20 million described below); or Media General terminates the merger agreement because (x) the closing conditions relating to the accuracy of Nexstar's representations and warranties or fulfillment of Nexstar's or the merger subsidiary's covenants cannot be satisfied due to a breach by Nexstar of its representations and warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach is not cured by the earlier of the outside date or within 30 days of notice of such breach, or which by its nature or timing cannot be cured prior to the outside date and (y)(i) prior to such termination a bona fide acquisition proposal with respect to Nexstar shall have been publicly made and not withdrawn and (ii) on or prior to the first anniversary of such termination Nexstar completes an acquisition transaction or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition transaction that is subsequently consummated.

Nexstar must pay to Media General a termination fee of $20 million if:

Nexstar or Media General terminates the merger agreement because Nexstar shareholders do not approve the transaction.

If paid, the $20 million termination fee would be credited against any $80 million termination fee that Nexstar subsequently is required to pay Media General.

In no case will Nexstar be required to pay to Media General a termination fee in excess of $80 million.

Media General must pay Nexstar a termination fee of $80 million if:

Nexstar terminates the merger agreement due to (i) a breach by Media General of its obligations with respect to the Media General special meeting or its no solicitation obligations, (ii) a failure by Media General's board of directors to include its recommendation in the joint proxy statement/prospectus or if it changes its recommendation or (iii) a failure of Media General's board of directors to reaffirm its recommendation within 10 business days after Nexstar's request to do so following an acquisition proposal (or an intention to make an acquisition proposal) with respect to Media General becoming public;

Media General terminates the merger agreement to enter into an agreement with respect to a superior offer, as described in "Termination by Media General in Connection with a Superior Offer" beginning on page 163;

Nexstar or Media General terminates the merger agreement because the transaction has not been consummated by the outside date and (i) prior to such termination a bona fide acquisition proposal with respect to Media General shall have been publicly made and such acquisition proposal has not been withdrawn and (ii) on or prior to the first anniversary of such termination Media General completes an acquisition transaction or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition transaction that is subsequently consummated;

Nexstar terminates the merger agreement because Media General shareholders do not approve the transaction and (i) prior to the Media General special meeting an acquisition proposal with respect to Media General shall have been publicly made and such acquisition proposal has not been withdrawn prior to the Media General special meeting and (ii) on or prior to the first anniversary of such termination Media General completes an acquisition transaction or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition transaction that is subsequently consummated (except that the termination fee of $80 million will be reduced by the amount of the termination fee of $20 million described below); or

Nexstar terminates the merger agreement because (x) the closing conditions relating to the accuracy of Media General's representations and warranties or fulfillment of Media General's covenants cannot be satisfied due to a breach by Media General of its representations and warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach is not cured by the earlier of the outside date or within 30 days of notice of such breach, or which by its nature or timing cannot be cured prior to the outside date and (y)(i) prior to such termination a bona fide acquisition proposal with respect to Media General shall have been publicly made and not withdrawn and (ii) on or prior to the first anniversary of such termination Media General completes an acquisition transaction or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition transaction that is subsequently consummated.

Media General must pay Nexstar a termination fee of $20 million in the aggregate if Nexstar or Media General terminates the merger agreement because Media General shareholders do not approve the transaction.

If paid, the $20 million termination fee would be credited against any $80 million termination fee that Media General subsequently is required to pay Nexstar.

In no case will Media General be required to pay to Nexstar a termination fee in excess of $80 million.

Expenses

Other than as described above in Termination Fee, whether or not the transaction is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the consummation of the transaction will be borne by the party incurring such expenses, except that (i) Nexstar and Media General will each be responsible for 50% of the filing fees related to filings with the FCC and under the HSR Act and (ii) Nexstar will reimburse Media General for all reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by Media General and its subsidiaries (and its and their respective representatives) in connection with cooperation in connection with the transaction financing and implementation of the CVRs.

Amendment

Subject to applicable law and except for the director and officer indemnification and insurance provisions, the merger agreement may be amended at any time by written agreement of Nexstar and Media General, whether before or after approval by Nexstar shareholders or Media General shareholders. However, certain customary provisions, including those regarding governing law, jurisdiction, third-party beneficiaries and non-recourse may not be amended in a manner that is adverse to any debt financing source without the prior written consent of such debt financing source.

Extension of Time and Waiver

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, the parties may:

extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations of the other party;

waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the merger agreement; and waive compliance with any of the agreements of the other party or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

An extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant or agreement in the merger agreement shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

Description of the CVR Agreement

This section of the joint proxy statement/prospectus describes certain material terms of the form of CVR agreement to be entered into in connection with the merger agreement. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the form of such CVR agreement, which is incorporated by reference and filed as an exhibit to the registration statement to which this joint proxy statement/prospectus relates. We urge you to read the entire form of CVR agreement.

Under the merger agreement, holders of Media General common stock, stock options and other stock-based awards have the right to receive one CVR for each share of Media General common stock, stock option or stock-based award held by such person. Each CVR will entitle its holder to receive a pro rata share of the Media General Auction Proceeds, subject to reduction pursuant to the formula described below. There can be no assurance that any payment will be made under the CVRs, or the amount or timing of any such payment. Any amounts to be received in connection with the CVRs, and the timing of any payments of any such amounts, are contingent upon the occurrence of certain events which may or may not occur, and which may be outside the control of Nexstar and Media General. There may be no cash consideration ultimately paid in respect of the CVRs. The CVRs will be non-transferable and, accordingly, will not be listed on any securities exchange. Under certain circumstances, including the completion of the FCC auction prior to the closing of the transaction, the CVRs may be distributed prior to the closing of the transaction. Also, the tax consequences arising from the receipt and ownership of the CVRs are uncertain. See Chapter One: The Transaction Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 149.

Under the CVR agreement, the net proceeds distributable to CVR holders will be calculated based on estimates within 30 business days following the completion of the FCC auction using the formula set forth below, and will be reduced by the costs and expenses of Nexstar's certified public accounting firm incurred in connection with its review of the CVR calculations and the fees and expenses of the rights agent.

Total Company Proceeds means (i) the aggregate cash proceeds received or receivable by Media General (or its sharing companies) or, after the merger, Nexstar, for the disposition of Media General's spectrum in accordance with the merger agreement in the FCC auction, less (ii) the aggregate transaction expenses allocable to the disposition of such spectrum, less (iii) the amount of broadcast-based cash flow lost because of such dispositions where the applicable television station ceases to broadcast (calculated as an average over the two year period prior to the completion of the FCC auction) times 10.5, less the aggregate amount of all taxes to be incurred as a result of such dispositions (using an assumed tax rate of 40%).

Total Parent Proceeds means (i) the aggregate cash proceeds received or receivable by Nexstar (or its sharing companies) for the disposition of Nexstar's spectrum in accordance with the merger agreement in the FCC auction, less (ii) the aggregate transaction expenses allocable to the disposition of such spectrum, less (iii) the amount of broadcast-based cash flow lost because of such dispositions where the applicable television station ceases to broadcast (calculated as an average over the two year period prior to the completion of the FCC auction) times 10.5, less the aggregate amount of all taxes to be incurred as a result of such dispositions (using an assumed tax rate of 40%).

33.6% is used in the formula above because it is the approximate percentage of the combined company's common stock that Media General shareholders will hold after the closing of the transaction.

Each CVR holder will be entitled to its pro rata share of the net proceeds distributable to CVR holders (if any).

Distributions (if any) will be made to CVR holders only when cash proceeds from the sale of Media General's spectrum are received. Distributions will be based on then-current estimates of the net proceeds distributable to CVR holders pursuant to a distribution notice that is required to be delivered to the rights agent within 15 business days of the end of any month during which proceeds are received by Media General (or Nexstar, as applicable) as a result of the FCC auction. The payment date is five business days following delivery of any distribution notice. If cash proceeds are received by Media General prior to the time that the CVRs are distributed, the CVR issuer will, within 15 business days after the later of the issuance date and the delivery of the initial calculation of the net proceeds distributable to CVR holders, provide a distribution notice to the rights agent.

Because distributions (if any) will be made to CVR holders based on estimates of transaction expenses, tax adjustments and all other components of Total Company Proceeds, an amount equal to five percent (5%) of all distributions to CVR holders (other than the final distribution) will be held back to cover any adjustments to the estimated total distribution amount once actual amounts are determined. The final calculation of the net proceeds distributable to CVR holders will be made after all proceeds from the FCC auction are received and all expenses and adjustments are determined (or, if earlier, five years following the completion of the FCC auction). Accordingly, depending on whether net proceeds distributable to CVR holders are greater or less than the amounts previously distributed to CVR holders under the terms of the CVR agreement, the holdback amount will be paid out to CVR holders or retained by Nexstar, respectively.

The CVRs may be distributed before or after the closing of the transaction. If the completion of the FCC auction occurs prior to the closing of the transaction, Media General has the right to execute the CVR agreement and cause the distribution of the CVRs to the holders of Media General common stock, Media General stock options and Media General stock-based awards. In the event that Media General has not distributed CVRs prior to the closing of the transaction, Nexstar is required to enter into the CVR agreement (substantially in the form attached to the merger agreement). Further, if Media General distributes the CVRs prior to the closing of the transaction, at the closing, Nexstar is required to enter into the CVR agreement (or a joinder thereto) as a substitute obligor.

The CVRs expire on the earliest to occur of (w) the date that is 90 days following either the final distribution (or retention of the holdback amount, as applicable) under the CVR agreement, (x) the date that is the third anniversary of the effective time of the merger, if the FCC has not commenced the FCC auction by such date, (y) the date that the FCC issues a final order that it will not purchase spectrum usage rights of any broadcaster in an auction and (z) January 12, 2021, if the FCC has not released a public notice announcing the results of the FCC auction by such date.

The CVRs may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged or encumbered in any manner, other than transfers by will or intestacy, by inter vivos or testamentary trust where the CVRs are to be passed to the beneficiaries upon the death of the trustee, pursuant to a court order, by operation of law, in connection with the dissolution, liquidation or termination of a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or other entity, or from a nominee to a beneficial owner as allowable by The Depository Trust Company.

The obligation to distribute any proceeds under the CVRs shall be conditioned on no court or other governmental entity of competent jurisdiction having enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that is in effect and restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits or imposes any penalty upon the payment of the distributable proceeds and the payment being otherwise lawful. The CVRs do not have any voting or dividend rights, and interest shall not accrue on any amounts payable on the CVRs to any holder. The CVRs do not represent any equity or ownership interest in Nexstar or any affiliate, in any constituent company to the merger, or in any other person.

This section of the joint proxy statement/prospectus describes certain material terms of the Media General voting agreement entered into by certain Media General shareholders. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such voting agreement, which is incorporated by reference and which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C. We urge you to read the entire Media General voting agreement.

On January 27, 2016, in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Nexstar, Media General, the merger subsidiary and the Media General supporting shareholders entered into the Media General voting agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Media General voting agreement, the Media General supporting shareholders holding approximately 8.8% of the issued and outstanding shares of Media General common stock agreed to vote or execute consents in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and against (i) any acquisition proposal with respect to Media General or its subsidiaries or any other merger, consolidation, combination, sale of substantial assets, reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation, winding up or any other business combination other than the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement, (ii) any action or proposal to amend the Media General organizational documents, (iii) any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or other obligation of Media General contained in the merger agreement or of such Media General supporting shareholders contained in the Media General voting agreement and (iv) any action, proposal, transaction or agreement involving Media General or its subsidiaries that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to prevent, impede, frustrate, interfere with, delay, postpone or adversely affect the merger or the transaction.

In addition, the Media General supporting shareholders agreed not to transfer any Media General common stock held by them prior to the earlier of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement. This transfer restriction does not apply to (i) transfers with the prior written consent of Nexstar, (ii) transfers by shareholders either (x) in open market or other transactions or (y) to the limited or general partners of such shareholder in full or partial liquidation of such shareholder in accordance with the governing documents of such shareholder, so long as the aggregate number of shares transferred under (x) and (y) does not exceed 3,500,000; (iii) transfers to one or more investment funds that are affiliates of such shareholder; provided that (x) such investment fund executes a customary joinder in a form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Nexstar and (y) the transferring Shareholder shall be responsible for such transferee's performance of its obligations; (iv) any transfer provided that (x) the transferee shall concurrently execute a customary joinder in a form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Nexstar, (y) the shareholder that beneficially owns the transferred shares prior to the transfer shall be responsible for such transferee's performance of its obligations and (z) any such transfer will not result in the conversion of such shares of voting common stock of Media General into shares of non-voting common stock; or (v) an identified 9,404 shares of voting common stock of Media General subject to deferred stock units and 73,570 shares of voting common stock of Media General subject to options held by John R. Muse.

Except as permitted under the merger agreement, the Media General supporting shareholders also agreed to (and to cause their respective representatives to) cease all discussions with any person relating to any acquisition proposal or acquisition inquiry in respect of Media General and agreed not to (and to cause their respective representatives not to) prior to the earlier of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement, directly or indirectly: (i) solicit any acquisition inquiries or acquisition proposals for Media General, (ii) furnish any non-public information regarding Media General or any of its subsidiaries to any person who has made an acquisition inquiry or acquisition proposal for Media General, (iii) engage in discussions or negotiations with any person who has made any acquisition inquiry or acquisition proposal for Media General (other than discussions in the ordinary course of business that are unrelated to an acquisition inquiry or acquisition proposal), (iv) approve, endorse or recommend any acquisition inquiry or acquisition proposal for Media General or withdraw or propose to withdraw its approval and recommendation in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby or (v) enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger, acquisition, purchase or joint venture.

The Media General voting agreement automatically terminates upon the earlier of the effective time of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Nexstar

Nexstar shareholders will not have appraisal rights under the DGCL with respect to the merger.

Media General

Media General shareholders may have appraisal rights in the merger. Under the VSCA, shareholders are generally entitled to dissent from and obtain payment of the fair value of their shares when a merger or consolidation of business entities occurs. However, the VSCA provides an exception to this general rule the Wall Street exception whereby appraisal rights are not available with respect to any class or series of stock that is either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders. Thus, under the general rule, in the event Media General voting common stock is converted in accordance with Media General's articles of incorporation into Media General non-voting common stock prior to the Media General special meeting, holders of such Media General non-voting common stock will be entitled to exercise appraisal rights in connection with the merger because such shares of non-voting common stock are not listed on a national securities exchange and are thus not subject to the Wall Street exception.

The Media General voting common stock, however, is listed on a national securities exchange and would typically not be entitled to appraisal rights under the VSCA because of the Wall Street exception. However, under the VSCA, the Wall Street exception does not apply where under the terms of the transaction, holders are required to accept anything in return for their shares other than shares of publicly traded stock of the acquirer and/or cash. In the event the CVRs are not distributed prior to the closing of the transaction, shareholders of Media General voting common stock will not be subject to the Wall Street exception and will be entitled to exercise appraisal rights in connection with the merger because they will be required to accept as a part of the merger consideration something other than shares of publicly traded stock of the acquirer and/or cash the CVRs. In such event, holders of Media General voting common stock who comply with the procedures described below will be entitled to appraisal rights under Article 15 of Section 13.1 of the VSCA, the full text of which is attached hereto as Annex H. In the event that the CVRs are distributed prior to the closing of the transaction, no appraisal rights will be available to the holders of Media General voting common stock because the Wall Street exception will apply. Holders of Media General voting common stock who attempt to exercise appraisal rights under the procedures described herein and the VSCA should be aware that such appraisal rights will not be available to them if the CVRs are distributed prior to closing of the transaction, because the Wall Street exception to appraisal rights shall have been deemed to apply by reason of such pre-closing distribution of the CVRs.

Where appropriate, Media General shareholders are urged to consult with their legal counsel to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a notice of intent to demand payment (as described below). No further notice of the events giving rise to appraisal rights or deadlines for related actions will be provided by Media General to shareholders prior to the Media General special meeting.

The following discussion is only a summary, does not purport to be a complete statement of the law pertaining to appraisal rights under the VSCA and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Article 15, Section 13.1 of the VSCA. Shareholders are urged to consult Article 15 of the VSCA, which is reprinted in its entirety as Annex H to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

To the extent appraisal rights are available to Media General shareholders, eligible Media General shareholders who follow the procedures set forth in Article 15 of the VSCA will be entitled to receive payment of the fair value of their shares of Media General voting common stock and their shares of Media General non-voting common stock, which we refer to as Media General common stock. Any Media General shareholder who wishes to exercise appraisal rights should review the following discussion and Annex H carefully because failure to comply in a timely and proper manner with the procedures specified may result in the loss of appraisal rights under the VSCA.

An eligible holder of Media General common stock who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must deliver to Media General, prior to or at the Media General special meeting (but in any event before the vote is taken), a written notice of intent to demand payment for such shareholder's shares if the merger becomes effective. An eligible Media General shareholder delivering a notice of intent must not vote such shareholder's shares in favor of the merger proposal or such shareholder will lose his, her or its appraisal rights. Voting against, abstaining from voting or failing to vote in favor of the Media General merger proposal will not constitute a written notice of such shareholder's intent to exercise appraisal rights. All notices of intent should be sent or delivered to Media General's Secretary, Andrew C. Carington, at Media General's principal executive offices located at 333 E. Franklin Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219, or they may be hand delivered to him at the Media General special meeting (before the voting begins).

If the merger agreement is approved and the merger becomes effective, within 10 days after the effective date of the merger, Nexstar will deliver an appraisal notice in writing to all eligible Media General shareholders who correctly and timely delivered a notice of intent (as described above) and also did not vote for approval of the merger agreement (an eligible shareholder). The appraisal notice will:

state where the eligible Media General shareholder's payment demands should be sent and where and when stock certificates should be deposited;

set a date by which Nexstar must receive the payment demand (which date may not be fewer than 40 days nor more than 60 days after the date the appraisal notice is sent);

provide an estimate of the fair value of the shares of Media General common stock that are the subject of the appraisal right demand;

set the date by which a notice to withdraw the appraisal right demand must be received (a date within 20 days of the date indicated in the second bullet point above); and include such other information as required by the VSCA.

An eligible Media General shareholder to whom an appraisal notice is sent must demand payment within the time specified in the appraisal notice, deposit such shareholder's stock certificates in accordance with the terms of the appraisal notice and make certain certifications required by the VSCA. If an eligible Media General shareholder fails to take such actions, the shareholder loses his, her or its appraisal rights.

Within 30 days of the due date for receipt of any payment demands, if an eligible Media General shareholder has complied with the provisions of Article 15 of the VSCA, Nexstar must pay in cash each eligible shareholder Nexstar's estimate of the fair value of the shareholder's shares of Media General common stock, plus accrued interest. With any payment, Nexstar must provide its most recent annual and quarterly financial statements, an explanation of how it calculated the fair value of the shares of Media General common stock and interest, a description of the procedure an eligible shareholder may follow if he, she or it is not satisfied with the payment, and notice to the shareholder that failure to pursue such procedure shall be deemed an acceptance of the payment.

An eligible Media General shareholder who is not satisfied with the amount paid or offered by Nexstar must notify Nexstar in writing of such shareholder's own estimate of the fair value of his, her or its shares of Media General common stock and the amount of interest due (less any amount that may have been already received by the Media General shareholder from Nexstar) and demand that Nexstar pay this estimated amount. This notice must be given in writing within 30 days of the date that Nexstar made or offered to make payment for the Media General shareholder's shares of Media General common stock.

If an eligible Media General shareholder's demand for payment remains unsettled, Nexstar is obligated to commence a proceeding in a Virginia circuit court to determine the fair value of the shares of Media General common stock and accrued interest within 60 days of the receipt of the Media General shareholder's payment.

demand. If Nexstar fails to commence such proceeding in accordance with the VSCA, it must pay the Media General shareholder the amount demanded by him, her or it.

Eligible Media General shareholders considering seeking appraisal should be aware that the fair value of their shares of Media General common stock as determined under Article 15 of the VSCA could be more than, the same as or less than the merger consideration that would be paid to them pursuant to the merger agreement. Shareholders considering appraisal should also be aware that an investment banking opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration payable in a sale transaction, such as the merger, is not an opinion as to, and does not otherwise address, fair value as defined in Article 15 of the VSCA and determined in accordance with Virginia law. The costs and expenses of any appraisal proceeding will be determined by the court and assessed against Nexstar unless the court determines that the shareholder seeking appraisal did not act in good faith in demanding payment of the fair value of their shares of Media General common stock in which case such costs and expenses may be assessed against the shareholder. Eligible Media General shareholders will only be entitled to receive payment in accordance with Article 15 of the VSCA and will not be entitled to vote their shares of Media General common stock or exercise any other rights as a holder of Media General common stock. After the date by which a notice to withdraw the appraisal right demand must be received, an eligible Media General shareholder demanding appraisal may withdraw his, her or its demand only with the consent of Nexstar. If any shareholder who demands appraisal of such shareholder's shares under Article 15 of the VSCA fails to perfect, or effectively withdraws or loses, the right to appraisal, as provided in the VSCA, such shareholder's shares of Media General common stock will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in accordance with the merger agreement.

In view of the complexity of Article 15 of the VSCA, Media General shareholders who may wish to pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal counsel. Additionally, Media General shareholders who demand appraisal of their shares of common stock should consult their tax advisors regarding any tax consequences to them of the transaction and the exercise of appraisal rights.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information for the year ended December 31, 2015 has been derived from (1) the audited historical consolidated financial statements of Nexstar as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015 and (2) the audited historical consolidated financial statements of Media General as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2015 have been prepared as though the merger occurred as of January 1, 2015, and the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet information at December 31, 2015 has been prepared as if the merger occurred as of December 31, 2015.

The pro forma adjustments give effect to events that are (1) directly attributable to the merger, (2) factually supportable and (3) with respect to the statements of operations, expected to have a continuing impact on the combined company's results. In order to comply with FCC rules, Nexstar and Media General will be required prior to the closing of the transaction to agree to divest certain stations that they currently own. An estimated result of these divestitures has been reflected in the pro forma adjustments, based on preliminary identification of stations and estimates by third parties retained to market these properties. Neither Nexstar nor Media General management expects any spectrum sales from the FCC auction, which may or may not occur, to materially decrease results of operations following the merger. Additionally, the issuance of debt required to fund the transaction, as well as to refinance certain existing debt of Nexstar and Media General, has been reflected in the pro forma adjustments. The pro forma adjustments are based on available information and assumptions that the Nexstar and Media General management teams believe are reasonable. Such adjustments are estimates and are subject to change.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are provided for informational purposes only and do not purport to represent what the actual combined results of operations or the combined financial position of the combined company would have been had the merger occurred on the dates assumed, nor are they necessarily indicative of future combined results of operations or combined financial position. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements do not reflect any cost savings or other synergies that management of Nexstar and Media General believe could have been achieved had the merger been completed on the dates assumed.

The actual amounts recorded as of the closing of the transaction may differ materially from the information presented in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements as a result of several factors, including the following:

completion of full valuation procedures on Media General's net assets, which could result in materially different fair values of acquired assets and liabilities; changes in Media General's net assets between the pro forma balance sheet as of December 31, 2015 and the closing of the transaction, which could impact the estimated fair values as of the effective date of the merger; changes in the price of Nexstar Class A common stock, which would have an impact on the purchase price;

the results of the FCC auction, which could impact the value of the combined company at the effective date of the merger, and will determine the amount of the CVR;

the proceeds from the divestitures required to complete the transaction;

the ultimate interest rate achieved on financing the new company, and other changes in net assets that may have occurred prior to the closing of the transaction, which could cause material differences in the information presented.

Table of ContentsNOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL DATA*Note 1 Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data and explanatory notes give effect to the merger, including an estimated impact of divestiture of certain Nexstar and Media General stations in order to comply with the FCC ownership rules in certain Overlap Markets and for combined national audience reach purposes, and the borrowings to fund the net cash requirements and refinance certain existing debt of Nexstar and Media General. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2015 has been prepared as though the merger, the divestitures and the debt transactions occurred as of January 1, 2015, and the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of December 31, 2015 has been prepared as if the merger, the divestitures and the debt transactions occurred as of December 31, 2015.

The merger will be accounted for as a business combination whereby Nexstar will acquire Media General for financial accounting purposes. Accordingly, the estimated purchase price has been allocated to the acquired assets, liabilities and commitments based upon their estimated fair values. The excess purchase price over the amounts assigned to tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed is recognized as goodwill. The preparation of unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements requires Nexstar and Media General management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in such financial statements and the notes thereto. Estimates were applied to determine the applicable interest rate on borrowings, the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, the purchase price, the CVR, the transaction costs that will be incurred, the proceeds of the divestitures, the estimated useful lives of fixed assets and intangible assets, and the income tax effects of the pro forma adjustments. The estimated allocation of the purchase price is preliminary and is dependent upon certain valuations that have not progressed to a stage where there is sufficient information to make a final allocation. In addition, the final purchase price of Nexstar's acquisition of Media General will not be known until the date of closing of the transaction and could vary materially from the purchase price used for purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data. Accordingly, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may be materially different from the unaudited pro forma adjustments presented.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are based on the historical financial statements of Nexstar and Media General, after giving effect to the pro forma transactions, as well as the assumptions and adjustments described in the accompanying notes. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are presented for illustrative purposes only and are not indicative of either future results of operations or results that might have been achieved if the pro forma transactions were consummated as of the dates presented herein. This information should be read in conjunction with the accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements and the historical financial statements and accompanying notes of Nexstar and Media General.

Upon closing of the transaction, Nexstar will review Media General's accounting policies. As a result of that review, Nexstar may identify differences between the accounting policies of the two companies that, when conformed, could have a material impact on the combined financial statements. At this time, Nexstar is not aware of any differences that would have a material impact on the combined financial statements, and therefore the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements assume there are no differences in accounting policies.

Note 2 Purchase Price Allocation

Cash consideration	$ 1,370,785
Nexstar stock to be issued	774,101
Stock option replacement awards	13,913
Total Purchase Price	$ 2,158,799

The number of Media General shares used to estimate the purchase price is calculated using the current outstanding shares of Media General, plus the amount of shares expected to vest from outstanding stock awards that vest on the closing of the transaction. The amount of shares could change if outstanding stock options are exercised or any awards are forfeited prior to the closing of the transaction. The value of the Nexstar stock to be issued as part of the purchase price used for purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data is based on the closing price of Nexstar's stock on March 14, 2016 of $47.70. A change in the market value of Nexstar's stock of $1 per share would result in a change in the purchase price value of $16.2 million. The value of stock option replacement awards is based on calculations using Black-Scholes analysis based on current market conditions and Nexstar stock price. Changes in the estimates of the lives of the replacement option awards, the volatility and market value of Nexstar's stock, the risk free rates, and the number of options outstanding could materially impact the value of the replacement awards to be issued.

The availability and amount of any payment under the CVRs is contingent upon the results of the FCC auction, which will be influenced by a number of variables outside the control of Nexstar and Media General, including the amount of spectrum that the FCC attempts to purchase, the bidding activity of other broadcast television licensees, and the demand for the repurposed spectrum. As a result, there is no reliable way to estimate the potential amount of any payment under the CVRs, and there can be no assurance that any payment will be made under the CVRs. Thus, no amounts are projected in the pro forma adjustments for amounts to be received from the FCC auction or paid under the CVRs. As disclosed by Media General in its Form 10-K, the value of each CVR was estimated to be worth anywhere from $0 to $4 per share of Media General stock, which computes to an aggregate dollar range from $0 to approximately $500 million. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information presented herein presents the pro forma results as if the CVRs were valued at $0. If the CVRs were valued at $500 million, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet would be impacted by an increase to the fair value of FCC licenses acquired in the merger and an increase in a current liability to Media General shareholders of $500 million. On March 12, 2015, Media General publicly disclosed an illustrative $500 million net value for the aggregate Media General proceeds from the FCC auction, which was based on (i) Media General's estimate of the maximum amount of gross after-tax proceeds from the FCC auction, which equates to $4.29 per share, or approximately $550 million in the aggregate after taxes less (ii) an estimate of transaction expenses and other deductions taken into account in the CVR formula. Neither Nexstar nor Media General is able to estimate the likelihood of any particular outcome in the FCC auction, and it is possible that the CVR may be valued at $0. Contractually, the calculation of the CVRs is the same regardless of the timing of the conclusion of the FCC auction in relation to the closing of the merger.

The following table summarizes, as of December 31, 2015, the provisional allocation of the purchase prices to the estimated fair values of the assets to be acquired and liabilities to be assumed in the merger (in thousands):

Accounts receivable	298,474
Prepaid expenses and other current assets	15,083
Property and equipment	574,000
Goodwill	1,839,383
FCC licenses	1,189,000
Other intangible assets	1,548,100
Other noncurrent assets	38,355
Accounts payable, accrued expenses and other current liabilities	(163,306)
Termination fee due to Meredith	(60,000)
Debt	(2,244,150)

Edgar Filing: MEDIA GENERAL INC - Form DEFM14A

Deferred tax liabilities	(660,865)
Noncontrolling interests	(24,447)
Net assets acquired	$ 2,158,799

The amount allocated to definite-lived intangible assets primarily represents the estimated fair values of network affiliation agreements, customer relationships and developed technology, which will be amortized over a weighted-average estimated useful life of 13 years. Property and equipment, excluding land of $103 million, will be depreciated over a weighted-average useful life of 10 years.

The purchase price allocations presented above are based upon management's estimates of the fair values utilizing data from recent valuations performed on certain Media General acquired stations, experience from previous Nexstar and Media General acquisitions of the relative fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, and valuation techniques including income, cost and market approaches. The value of the debt assumed represents the outstanding principal balance of the debt, which approximates the fair value, due to the repayment upon acquisition. Upon the completion of the valuation analysis and final purchase price allocation, the fair values assigned to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed in the merger may have a material impact on the combined company's depreciation and amortization expense and future results of operations. A change in the recognized fair value of definite-lived intangible assets of $1.0 million would result in an approximate change in annual amortization expense of $0.1 million.

Goodwill with an estimated fair value of $1.8 billion is attributable to future synergies and cost reductions resulting from increased purchasing leverage of key expenses, the ability to leverage shared costs across a larger organization, and operational knowledge from experienced management. Management expects that approximately 20% of acquired goodwill, FCC licenses, other intangible assets and property and equipment will be deductible for tax purposes.

Note 3 Pro Forma Adjustments

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations does not include any costs that may result from acquisition and integration activities, nor does it adjust for expected future incremental operating income as a result of synergies and cost savings that are expected to be realized.

If LIBOR were to increase or decrease by 1/8 basis points, the interest expense would increase or decrease by $0.9 million.

(s) Represents the tax impact at blended statutory rates of the pro forma adjustments.

(t) Represents the elimination of amounts recorded in the historical financial statements of the stations to be divested.

(u) Represents the number of Nexstar shares expected to be issued to Media General stockholders related to the merger. DESCRIPTION OF NEXSTAR CLASS A COMMON STOCK

The following description of material terms of the capital stock of Nexstar is a summary of certain terms, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the forms of the amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation and amended and restated Bylaws of Nexstar, which are exhibits to the registration statement to which the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus relates, and to the applicable provisions of the DGCL. To find out where copies of these documents can be obtained, see Chapter Three: Additional Information Where You Can Find More Information on page 228.

Authorized Shares of Capital Stock of Nexstar

20 million shares of Class B common stock, par value $0.01 per share;

200,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share.

As of the close of business on the Nexstar record date, there were 30,677,804 shares of Nexstar Class A common stock outstanding and no shares of Nexstar Class B common stock, Class C common stock or Preferred Stock were outstanding. Upon the closing of the transaction, each share of Media General common stock will automatically be converted into 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock. Upon the closing of the transaction, Nexstar expects to issue approximately 16,256,352 shares of Nexstar Class A common stock to Media General shareholders in connection with the merger. We expect that, immediately following the closing of the transaction, there will be a total of 46,934,156 shares of Nexstar Class A common stock outstanding.

Common Stock

The holders of Nexstar Class A common stock and Class B common stock possess all rights pertaining to the capital stock of Nexstar, subject to the preferences, qualifications, limitations, voting rights and restrictions with respect to any series of preferred stock of Nexstar that may be issued with any preference or priority over the common stock. No shares of Nexstar Class B common stock are currently outstanding.

Shareholder Voting

Except as may be provided for in any amendment to the amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation of Nexstar establishing a series of preferred stock and until such time as any shares of Nexstar Class B common stock are issued, the holders of Nexstar Class A common stock will have the sole power to vote for the election of directors and for all other purposes. If shares of Nexstar Class B common stock are issued in the future, the holders of Nexstar Class A common stock and Nexstar Class B common stock will generally have identical rights, except that holders of Nexstar

Class A common stock are entitled to one vote per share while holders of Nexstar Class B common stock will be entitled to 10 votes per share on all matters to be voted on by shareholders. Holders of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock and Nexstar Class B common stock are not entitled to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. Generally, all matters to be voted on by shareholders must be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by all shares of Nexstar Class A common stock and Nexstar Class B common stock present in person or represented by proxy, voting together as a single class, subject to any voting rights granted to holders of any preferred stock. Except as otherwise provided by law, and subject to any voting rights granted to holders of any outstanding preferred stock, amendments to Nexstar's amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation generally must be approved by at least a majority of the combined voting power of all holders of Nexstar Class A common stock and Nexstar Class B common stock voting together as a single class. However, amendments that would alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the Nexstar Class A common stock or the Nexstar Class B common stock so as to affect them adversely also must be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the shares affected by the amendment, voting as a separate class, and amendments to certain provisions of Nexstar's amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation must be approved by two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast with respect to such amendments.

The holders of Nexstar Class C common stock have no voting rights but otherwise generally have the same rights as the holders of Nexstar Class A common stock and Nexstar Class B common stock.

Dividends and Other Distributions

Upon Nexstar's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, after payment in full of the amounts required to be paid to holders of preferred stock, if any, all holders of Nexstar Class A common stock, regardless of class, are entitled to share ratably in any assets available for distribution to holders of shares of common stock. No shares of either class of common stock are subject to redemption and upon completion of the reorganization, all the outstanding shares of Nexstar Class A common stock, Nexstar Class B common stock and Nexstar Class C common stock will be legally issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

Holders of Nexstar Class A common stock, Nexstar Class B common stock and Nexstar Class C common stock will share in an equal amount per share in any dividend declared by the board of directors, subject to any preferential rights of any outstanding preferred stock. Dividends consisting of shares of Nexstar Class A common stock, Nexstar Class B common stock and Nexstar Class C common stock may be paid only as follows: (1) shares of Nexstar Class A common stock may be paid only to holders of Nexstar Class A common stock, shares of Nexstar Class B common stock may be paid only to holders of Nexstar Class B common stock and shares of Nexstar Class C common stock may be paid only to holders of Nexstar Class C common stock; and (2) shares shall be paid proportionally with respect to each outstanding share of Nexstar Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Nexstar Class C common stock.

Takeover Defense

Certain provisions of the amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation and amended and restated Bylaws of Nexstar and of the DGCL have anti-takeover effects and could delay, discourage, defer or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a shareholder might consider to be in the shareholder's best interests, including attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by shareholders, and may make removal of the incumbent management and directors more difficult.

Authorized Shares. The authorized but unissued shares of Nexstar Class A common stock and preferred stock will be available for future issuance without shareholder approval. These additional shares may be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital, corporate acquisitions and employee benefit plans. The existence of authorized but unissued shares of common stock and preferred stock could render more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of Nexstar by means of a proxy contest, tender offer, merger or otherwise.

The board of directors of Nexstar will have the sole authority to determine the terms of any one or more series of preferred stock, including voting rights, dividend rates, conversion and redemption rights, and liquidation preferences. As a result of the ability to fix voting rights for a series of preferred stock, the board of directors will have the power to the extent consistent with its legal duties to issue a series of preferred stock to persons friendly to management in order to attempt to block a tender offer, merger or other transaction by which a third-party seeks control of Nexstar,

Special Meetings of Shareholders. Under the amended and restated Bylaws of Nexstar and subject to the rights of any series of preferred stock that may be issued by Nexstar, special meetings of shareholders may be called solely by the board of directors of Nexstar or by the chairman of the board of directors.

Action by Written Consent. Under the amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation and amended and restated Bylaws of Nexstar, Nexstar shareholders may not take action by written consent.

Advance Notice of Nominations and Proposed Business for Shareholder Meetings. Under the amended and restated Bylaws of Nexstar, only the board of directors or a shareholder of record entitled to vote at a meeting for the election of directors may nominate candidates for election to the board of directors of Nexstar at an annual meeting of shareholders or present business for consideration by the shareholders at an annual meeting.

The amended and restated Bylaws of Nexstar requires that a shareholder who desires to nominate a candidate for election to the board of directors at an annual meeting or present business at an annual meeting to provide notice to the Secretary of Nexstar in advance of the meeting. The notice must be in proper form and set forth various information related to the shareholder giving the notice and the applicable nomination or proposal. Notice of such shareholder nomination or proposal must be received by Nexstar not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days, or delayed by more than 90 days, from such anniversary date, notice by the shareholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and the 10th day following the day on which the public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by Nexstar.

Classified Board of Directors. Nexstar's board of directors is divided into three classes, with directors serving staggered three-year terms. The classification of Nexstar's board of directors has the effect of making it more difficult for shareholders to change the composition of Nexstar's board of directors. At least two annual meetings of shareholders, instead of one, will generally be required to effect a change in a majority of Nexstar's board of directors. This may have the effect of discouraging a third-party from initiating a proxy contest, making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of Nexstar. In addition, because the classification of Nexstar's board of directors may discourage accumulations of large blocks of Nexstar Class A common stock by purchasers whose objective is to take control of Nexstar and remove a majority of Nexstar's board of directors, the classification of Nexstar's board of directors could tend to reduce the likelihood of fluctuations in the market price of Nexstar Class A common stock that might result from accumulations of large blocks of Nexstar Class A common stock for such a purpose. Accordingly, Nexstar shareholders could be deprived of certain opportunities to sell their Class A common stock at a higher market price than might otherwise be the case.

Delaware Business Combination Statute. Nexstar is subject to Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, an anti-takeover law. In general, Section 203 prohibits a publicly-held Delaware corporation from engaging in a business combination with an interested shareholder for a period of three years following the date the person became an interested shareholder, unless (with some exceptions) the business combination or the transaction in which the person became an interested shareholder is approved in a prescribed manner. Generally, a business combination includes a merger, asset or stock sale, or other transaction resulting in a financial benefit to the interested shareholder. Generally, an interested shareholder is a person who, together with affiliates and associates, owns (or within three years prior to the determination of interested shareholder status, did own) 15% or more of a corporation's voting stock. As permitted by Section 203, Nexstar has elected not to be governed by Section 203 with respect to ABRY Broadcast Partners II, L.P., ABRY Broadcast Partners III, L.P. (collectively, ABRY) and any entity controlled by ABRY, and therefore, unless Nexstar's amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation is amended, neither ABRY nor any such entity shall be deemed to be an interested shareholder. The existence of this provision could have an anti-takeover effect with respect to transactions not approved in advance by the board of directors, including discouraging attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for Nexstar Class A common stock.

Other Matters

Number of Directors. The amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation and the amended and restated Bylaws of Nexstar provide that the size of the Nexstar board of directors will be determined by time to time by resolution adopted by a majority of the board of directors of Nexstar and that the directors shall be divided into three classes. Prior to the merger, Nexstar will take all actions necessary such that, effective as of immediately following the effective time of the merger, the size of its board of directors will be nine members and two current members of the Media General board of directors will be appointed to serve as directors of Nexstar (currently expected to be Dennis FitzSimons and John Muse).

Limitation on Director's Liability. The amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation of Nexstar provides that, to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, Nexstar will indemnify and advance expenses of any director or officer who is made or threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of Nexstar. In addition, no director or officer of the combined company will be liable to the combined company or its shareholders for monetary damages with respect to any transaction, occurrence or course of conduct.

Transfer Agent. The transfer agent for Nexstar is the American Stock Transfer & Trust Co., Corporate Trust Department, 6201 Fifteenth Ave., Brooklyn, New York 11219.

Conversion of Shares

Media General

The voting common stock of Media General is convertible into non-voting common stock, on a share-for-share basis, at the option of the holder, unless following such conversion no shares of voting common stock would remain outstanding. Media General non-voting common stock will be or is convertible into voting common stock, on a share-for-share basis at the option of the holder.

However, if any conversion of shares of non-voting common stock into shares of voting common stock or if any conversion of shares of voting common stock into shares of non-voting common stock would require approval from the FCC, such approval must be received prior to the conversion. In addition, if such conversion would result in any holder of voting common shares (including the converting holder) acquiring or being deemed to hold an interest subject to FCC media ownership and qualifications reporting requirements (including without limitation an attributable interest in Media General, within the meaning of the federal communications laws) the conversion will not be effective until Media General has received information sufficient to determine whether to exercise its rights to restrict ownership.

If a requested conversion would cause any holder of voting common stock (other than the converting holder) to acquire or be deemed to hold an attributable interest in Media General, Media General has the discretion to convert the shares of voting common stock held by such other holder to shares of non-voting common stock to the extent reasonably necessary to ensure that such other holder's interest in Media General will remain non-attributable (unless such other holder can show, to the reasonable satisfaction of Media General, that it can hold an attributable interest in Media General).

Nexstar

Holders of Nexstar Class A Common Stock do not have similar conversion rights.

Nexstar

Under the amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation of Nexstar, Nexstar may restrict the transfer or other disposition of ownership of any shares of capital stock in Nexstar if the board of directors concludes that such transfer would, among other things, result in a violation of any legal requirement applicable to Nexstar, the loss or impairment of any permit held or required by Nexstar, the initiation of a proceeding against Nexstar by any governmental body.

Media General

Under the Articles of Incorporation of Media General, Media General may restrict the ownership, conversion or proposed ownership of shares of Media General voting common stock, non-voting common stock and preferred stock by any person if such ownership, conversion or proposed ownership:

would be in violation of or inconsistent with any of the laws administered or enforced by the FCC, including the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules, regulations, orders and policies of the FCC, which we refer to as federal communications laws ;

would (or could reasonably be expected to) materially limit or impair any existing or proposed business activity of Media General or any of its subsidiaries under the federal communications laws;

would materially limit or impair under the federal communications laws the acquisition of an attributable interest in a full-power television station or a full-power radio station by Media General or any of its subsidiaries for which it has entered into a definitive agreement with a third-party;

would (or could reasonably be expected to) cause Media General or any of its subsidiaries to be subject to any rule, regulation, order or policy under the federal communications laws having or which could reasonably be expected to have a material effect on the combined company or any of its subsidiaries; or would require prior approval from the FCC and such approval has not been obtained.

Directors shall be divided into three classes. Prior to the merger, Nexstar will take all actions necessary such that, effective as of immediately following the effective time of the merger, the size of its board of directors will be nine members and two current members of the Media General board of directors will be appointed to serve as directors of Nexstar (currently expected to be Dennis FitzSimons and John Muse).

The amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation of Nexstar provides that Nexstar shareholders may remove a director only for cause and by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the then outstanding shares of capital stock entitled generally to vote on the election of directors of Nexstar. Cause means (a) a final conviction of a felony by a court of competent jurisdiction; (b) the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at any regular or special meeting of the board called for that purpose, or a finding by a court of competent jurisdiction, that a director has been guilty of willful misconduct in the performance of his or her duties in a matter of substantial importance to Nexstar; or (c) a determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that such director is mentally incompetent, which mental incompetency directly affects such director's ability to performance his or her obligations as a director of Nexstar. However, in the event that the board of directors of Nexstar makes a determination that removal is in the best interests of Nexstar, the foregoing definition of cause will not apply and cause will be determined by the board of directors.

Media General

The Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of Media General provide that at a meeting called expressly for the purpose of removing a director, any director may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the shareholders holding a majority of the shares of the class of stock which elected such director. A replacement director may be elected at the same meeting.

Except as otherwise provided by law, and subject to any voting rights granted to holders of any outstanding preferred stock, amendments to Nexstar's amended and restated Certificate of Incorporation generally must be approved by at least a majority of the combined voting power of all holders of Nexstar Class A common stock and Nexstar Class B common stock voting together as a single class. Nexstar Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee of Nexstar's board of directors, which we refer to as the Nexstar Compensation Committee, makes all decisions about the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and also has the authority to review and approve the compensation for Nexstar's other executive officers. The primary objectives of the Nexstar Compensation Committee in determining total compensation (both salary and incentives) of Nexstar's executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, are (i) to enable Nexstar to attract and retain highly qualified executives by providing total compensation opportunities with a combination of elements which are at or above competitive opportunities, (ii) to tie executive compensation to Nexstar's general performance and specific attainment of long-term strategic goals, and (iii) to provide a long-term incentive for future performance that aligns shareholder interests and executive rewards.

The purpose of the Nexstar Compensation Committee is to establish compensation policies for directors and executive officers of Nexstar, approve employment agreements with executive officers of Nexstar, administer Nexstar's stock option plans and approve grants under the plans and make recommendations regarding any other incentive compensation or equity-based plans. The Nexstar Compensation Committee met two times during the year ended December 31, 2015. The Nexstar Compensation Committee operates under a written charter adopted by Nexstar's board of directors in January 2004, as amended in July 2013. A copy of such charter is available through Nexstar's website at <http://www.nexstar.tv> in the Company section. The information contained on or accessible through Nexstar's website does not constitute a part of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. All three members of the Nexstar Compensation Committee are independent as that term is defined in the NASDAQ rules. For more information regarding the Nexstar Compensation Committee, please refer to Chapter Two: Other Annual Meeting Matters Nexstar Compensation Committee Report beginning on page 213.

Nexstar Audit Committee

The purpose of the Nexstar Audit Committee is to oversee the quality and integrity of Nexstar's accounting, internal auditing and financial reporting practices, to perform such other duties as may be required by Nexstar's board of directors, and to oversee Nexstar's relationship with its independent registered public accounting firm.

Table of Contents

The Nexstar Audit Committee met four times during the year ended December 31, 2015. The members of the Nexstar Audit Committee are independent as that term is defined in the NASDAQ rules. Nexstar's board of directors has determined that Ms. McNabb, who served as Chair of the Nexstar Audit Committee in 2015, is an audit committee financial expert in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations of the SEC. The Nexstar Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by Nexstar's board of directors in January 2004. A copy of such charter is available through Nexstar's website at <http://www.nexstar.tv> in the Company section. For more information regarding the Nexstar Audit Committee, please refer to Chapter Two: Other Annual Meeting Matters Nexstar Audit Committee Report beginning on page 223.

Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The purpose of the Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of Nexstar's board of directors, which we refer to as the Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, is to identify individuals qualified to serve on Nexstar's board of directors, recommend persons to be nominated by Nexstar's board of directors for election as directors at Nexstar's annual meeting of shareholders, recommend nominees for any committee of Nexstar's board of directors, develop and recommend to Nexstar's board of directors a set of corporate governance principles applicable to Nexstar and to oversee the evaluation of Nexstar's board of directors and its committees. The Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee operates under a written charter adopted by Nexstar's board of directors in January 2004, as amended in July 2013. Both members of the Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are independent as that term is defined in the NASDAQ rules. A copy of such charter is available through Nexstar's website at <http://www.nexstar.tv> in the Company section. The Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee did not meet during the year ended December 31, 2015, and its functions were performed through consents or by Nexstar's full board of directors. The Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider nominees for Nexstar's board of directors. See Chapter Three: Additional Information Nexstar Annual Meeting Shareholder Proposals beginning on page 225 for additional information.

Additional Information Concerning Nexstar's Board of Directors

During the year ended December 31, 2015, Nexstar's full board of directors met 12 times and no incumbent director attended less than 75% of the meetings of Nexstar's board of directors and committees of Nexstar's board of directors on which they serve.

Because fewer than ten non-management Nexstar shareholders attended Nexstar's 2015 annual meeting in person, Nexstar's board of directors has not adopted a formal policy with regard to director attendance at the annual meeting of shareholders. Mr. Sook attended the 2015 annual meeting.

Nexstar's board of directors has not adopted a nominating policy to be used for identifying and evaluating nominees for director, including director candidates recommended by Nexstar shareholders, and has not established any specific minimum qualifications that director nominees must possess. Instead, the Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee determines the qualifications and skills required to fill a vacancy to complement the existing qualifications and skills, as a vacancy arises in Nexstar's board of directors. However, if it is determined that a nominating policy would be beneficial to Nexstar, Nexstar's board of directors may in the future adopt a nominating policy.

There is no formal policy governing how diversity is considered in the makeup of the Nexstar board of directors and the selection of its members. The Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee defines board diversity broadly to mean that the Nexstar board of directors is comprised of individuals with a variety of perspectives, industry experience, personal and professional backgrounds, skills and qualifications. When nominating a board member, the Nexstar Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee examines the diversity of the overall board and strives to maintain an appropriate level of diversity with the addition of each new nominee.

Nexstar is not a controlled company in accordance with the rules and regulations of the NASDAQ Stock Market. Thus, Nexstar is required to maintain a majority of independent directors on Nexstar's board of directors and to have the compensation of Nexstar's executive officers and the nomination of directors be determined by independent directors.

Nexstar Board of Directors Leadership Structure

Nexstar's board of directors has the responsibility for selecting the appropriate leadership structure for Nexstar. In making leadership structure determinations, Nexstar's board of directors considers many factors, including the specific needs of the business and the best interests of the Nexstar shareholders. Our current leadership structure is comprised of a combined Chairman of the Nexstar board of directors and Chief Executive Officer and Nexstar board committees comprised of independent directors. Although Nexstar's board of directors does not currently have a formal policy, Nexstar's board of directors believes that Mr. Sook's service in this combined role is in the best interest of both Nexstar and Nexstar shareholders. Mr. Sook has a vast knowledge of television broadcasting and is seen as a leader in this industry. He understands the issues facing Nexstar and serving in this dual role he is able to effectively focus Nexstar's board of directors attention on these matters. In his combined capacity, he can speak clearly with one voice in addressing Nexstar's various stakeholders such as customers, suppliers, employees and the investing public.

Nexstar's board of directors has, so far, not found a need to designate one of the independent directors as a lead independent director because each independent director is fully and effectively involved in the activities and issues relevant to Nexstar's board of directors and its committees. The independent directors have time and again demonstrated the ability to exercise their fiduciary responsibilities in deliberating issues before Nexstar's board of directors and making independent decisions. Under the NASDAQ independence rules, Nexstar's independent directors are Messrs. Armstrong, Grossman, Pompadur, Miller and McMillen and Ms. McNabb.

Risk Oversight

Nexstar's board of directors plays a vital role in managing the risks facing Nexstar. Through the Nexstar Audit Committee, Nexstar's board of directors manages potential accounting risk through oversight of disclosure controls and controls surrounding financial reporting. Senior financial executives report to the Nexstar Audit Committee at each committee meeting on significant financial and accounting matters. In addition, the Nexstar Audit Committee, in conjunction with senior management, manages Nexstar's data risks (including privacy and storage risks). Through the Nexstar Compensation Committee, Nexstar's board of directors helps manage potential risks associated with Nexstar's compensation programs by ensuring that they are not structured in a way that encourages executives to take unacceptable risks. Nexstar's board of directors is involved in managing operational risk through the evaluation of potential station acquisitions and significant agreements at meetings of the Nexstar board of directors and in between meetings, as needed. Nexstar's board of directors confers with Nexstar's general counsel and outside legal counsel, when necessary, in overseeing legal and regulatory risks.

Code of Ethics

Nexstar's board of directors adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to Nexstar's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, the other Nexstar executive officers and directors, and persons performing similar functions. The purpose of the Code of Ethics is to promote honest and ethical conduct, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships, to promote full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in periodic reports required to be filed by Nexstar and to promote compliance with all applicable rules and regulations that apply to Nexstar and its officers and directors. The Code of Ethics was filed as an exhibit to Nexstar's Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2003 on Form 10-K, filed with the SEC on March 31, 2004. Nexstar's board of directors periodically reviews the Code of Ethics for any necessary changes. Nexstar's board of directors last performed such a review in 2012 and made no changes to the Code of Ethics.

Shareholder Say on Pay Considerations

In 2015, Nexstar provided its shareholders with an advisory vote on executive compensation (Say on Pay vote) with respect to 2014 compensation. Our executive compensation program was approved by 98% of the votes cast. These results demonstrate strong shareholder support for Nexstar's executive compensation program.

Nexstar evaluates its executive compensation program at least annually, and this year, it has taken into account the outcome of the 2015 Say on Pay vote when considering the 2015 compensation program. Nexstar's board of directors and the Nexstar Compensation Committee will continue to consider the results of the biennial Say on Pay votes in their future compensation policies and decisions. Nexstar's next Say on Pay vote will be with respect to its compensation for the year ending December 31, 2016.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

Nexstar's executive compensation program has been developed to incorporate a compensation philosophy consistent with the following primary objectives:

Attract and retain talented and highly qualified executives in the competitive television broadcasting industry by providing a total compensation package that includes a combination of elements which are at or above competitive opportunities;

Tie executive compensation, both annual and long-term elements, to Nexstar's overall performance and specific attainment of long-term strategic goals;

Provide executives with long-term incentive for future performance that aligns with shareholder interests and maximizes shareholder value over the long-term; and Set executive compensation at responsible levels to promote fairness and equity among all employees within Nexstar's organization.

Overview and Role of Nexstar Compensation Committee

The Nexstar Compensation Committee establishes compensation policies for the directors and executive officers of Nexstar, including the Nexstar Named Executive Officers. The Nexstar Compensation Committee approves the employment agreements with the executive officers of Nexstar, administers Nexstar's equity incentive plans, approves grants under such plans and makes recommendations regarding other incentive compensation provided to the Nexstar Named Executive Officers and other executive officers.

Role of the Compensation Consultant

The Nexstar Compensation Committee has the sole authority to retain and obtain advice of advisors and consultants as necessary and evaluates their independence prior to selection or retention. The Nexstar Compensation Committee also sets the compensation and oversees the work of advisors and consultants.

In 2013, the Nexstar Compensation Committee retained Longnecker & Associates, which we refer to as Longnecker, to advise on executive and board compensation matters. During 2013, Longnecker attended the Nexstar Compensation Committee meetings and was instructed to:

Conduct a peer review analysis to determine the reasonableness and applicability of peer companies for compensation comparison purposes;

Conduct a market competitive compensation analysis including base salary, annual incentives and long-term incentives for non- Chief Executive Officer Nexstar Named Executive Officers; and Analyze the market competitiveness of total direct compensation packages (annual retainer, board meeting fees, committee meeting fees and equity awards) provided to Nexstar's non-executive directors.

The Nexstar Compensation Committee continues to utilize the in-depth review and analysis provided by Longnecker in its decisions on executive and board compensation matters.

In 2014, the Nexstar Compensation Committee retained Hay Group, a management consulting firm, to advise on matters related to the Executive Employment Agreement with Perry A. Sook, Nexstar's President and Chief Executive Officer, and to assist with the development of Nexstar's 2015 Long Term Equity Incentive Plan, which was approved by Nexstar shareholders in the Nexstar's 2015 Annual Meeting of shareholders.

Defining the Market Benchmarking

In 2013, the Nexstar Compensation Committee, working with Longnecker, performed a benchmark review of the aggregate level of Nexstar's executive compensation, as well as the mix of elements within Nexstar's executive compensation program. As a result of the recent increases in Nexstar's capitalization and its growing digital media business, the Nexstar Compensation Committee instructed Longnecker to conduct a benchmarking review to analyze the proxy information of 16 diverse media companies that either have a broadcast, communication, entertainment or media component, which we refer to as the peer group, as disclosed in their most recent proxy information filing with the SEC. The peer group is comprised of the companies in the table below:

Belo Corp ⁽¹⁾	Meredith Corp
DreamWorks Animation	New York Times Co
Hemisphere Media Group	Pandora Media
LIN TV ⁽²⁾	Regal Entertainment Group
Live Nation Entertainment	Scholastic Corp
Loral Space and Communications	Sinclair Broadcast Group
MDC Partners	Starz

(1) During 2013, Belo was acquired by Gannett Co., Inc.

(2) During 2014, LIN TV was acquired by Media General, Inc.

In 2015, the Nexstar Compensation Committee continued to utilize Longnecker's report in assessing the competitiveness and reasonableness of Nexstar's executive compensation.

Benchmarking review provides a foundation for ensuring that Nexstar's executive compensation levels remain competitive in relation to the peer group and is generally refreshed prior to the hiring or replacement of an executive officer or when an existing officer's employment contract is renewed. One of the primary objectives of Nexstar's executive compensation program is to provide compensation near the median market pay level based on Nexstar's benchmarking review of peer group companies, when warranted by Company results and individual contribution. Nexstar believes that such benchmarking is useful because Nexstar recognizes that its compensation practices must be competitive in the media industry. By targeting Nexstar Named Executive Officer compensation to the compensation practices of the peer group, Nexstar enhances its ability to attract and retain talented and highly qualified executives, which is fundamental to Nexstar's growth and delivery of value to Nexstar shareholders. In addition, peer group information is one of the many factors Nexstar considers in assessing the reasonableness of compensation of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers.

Compensation Risk Considerations

The Nexstar Compensation Committee has assessed the level of risk associated with Nexstar's executive incentive programs to ensure that the design of these programs does not encourage executives to subject Nexstar to unacceptable levels of business risk. It is the Nexstar Compensation Committee's opinion that the current incentives offered to executives are balanced in such a way so as not to create a conflict between executive and shareholder interests. Annual cash bonuses are based primarily on current year net revenues and Adjusted EBITDA, which are short-term measures. These short-term incentives are balanced out by the long-term incentives offered to executives in the form of stock options and RSUs. The options and RSUs generally vest over a four to five year period and encourage executives not to take risks that would jeopardize the future growth and profitability of Nexstar.

Determination of Compensation

The Nexstar Compensation Committee reviewed compensation levels for the Nexstar Named Executive Officers for 2013 through 2015 and considered various factors, including the executive's job performance, the compensation level of competitive jobs and the financial performance of Nexstar. For the executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer, the Nexstar Compensation Committee considers the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer. The Nexstar Compensation Committee approves the primary components of compensation for each Named Executive Officer, including any annual cash bonus and grant of stock options or RSUs.

Key Metrics Used for Performance Measures

Nexstar utilizes net revenue and Adjusted EBITDA as quantitative measures to assess performance. Net revenue represents revenue recognized, net of allowances and credits, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as income from operations, plus depreciation, amortization of intangible assets and broadcast rights (excluding barter) and loss (gain) on asset disposal, net, minus broadcast rights payments. Both of these measures are reported by Nexstar in its quarterly earnings releases. For additional information on the performance on these and other measures, see discussion in Elements of Compensation Annual Cash Bonuses below.

Elements of Compensation

The principal elements of Nexstar's executive compensation consist of the following:

Base Salary;

Annual Cash Bonuses;

Stock Options;

Other Stock-Based Compensation;

Perquisites and Other Compensation;

Health Benefits; and Severance Benefits and Change in Control Provisions.

Base Salary

The annual base salary of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers is established by individual employment agreements. The purpose of the base salary is to provide each Nexstar Named Executive Officer with a set amount of cash compensation that is not variable in nature and that is generally competitive with market practices. The base salary is established based on the scope of the executive's responsibilities, taking into account competitive market compensation paid by peer group companies for similar positions. Generally, Nexstar targets the executives' base salaries near the median market pay level of its benchmarking review of peer group companies. Under each employment agreement, base salaries are increased on an annual basis. Annual salary increases for the Nexstar Named Executive Officers are generally consistent, on a percentage basis, with those received by non-executive employees. See Chapter Two: Other Annual Meeting Matters Nexstar Compensation Discussion and Analysis Employment Agreements beginning on page 219 for a discussion of the employment agreements of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers.

Annual Cash Bonuses

Under the terms of their employment agreements, each Nexstar Named Executive Officer is eligible to earn a targeted annual cash bonus up to an amount equal to a specified percentage of such executive's salary. The overall performance of Nexstar determines what percentage, if any, of the target bonus will be paid out, with net revenues and Adjusted EBITDA as the primary performance measures. If Nexstar attains the annually budgeted amounts for net revenue and Adjusted EBITDA, then it is likely that 100% of the targeted bonus will be paid. However, the Chief Executive Officer, with the approval of the Nexstar Compensation Committee, may increase the annual bonus paid to the other Nexstar Named Executive Officers, and the Nexstar Compensation Committee may increase the annual bonus paid to Nexstar's Chief Executive Officer. Likewise, if Nexstar does not achieve its performance benchmarks, then an amount less than the full bonus may be paid. However, Nexstar does not utilize defined formulas to determine what percentage of the target bonuses will be paid to its executive officers, including the Nexstar Named Executive Officers. Ultimately, the payment of cash bonuses is made on a discretionary basis and is determined based on an evaluation of each executive's individual contribution to the overall performance of Nexstar.

Historically, when determining the amount of bonus and incentive compensation to be paid to the Nexstar Named Executive Officers, the Nexstar Compensation Committee reviews and considers the following information:

Evaluations of each of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers, as well as feedback from Nexstar's full board of directors, regarding the performance of each Nexstar Named Executive Officer;

The Chief Executive Officer's review and evaluation of each of the other Nexstar Named Executive Officers, addressing individual performance and the results of operations of the business areas and departments for which such executive had responsibility, which the Nexstar Compensation Committee discusses with the Chief Executive Officer;

The financial performance of Nexstar, including its stock price, comparable revenue, Adjusted EBITDA and Free Cash Flow growth; and Total proposed compensation, as well as each element of proposed compensation, taking into account the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer.

For the year ended December 31, 2015, performance bonuses were paid to all of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers at amounts representing the full target percentage for the Nexstar Named Executive Officer, plus additional amounts for the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and two Co-Chief Operating Officers. The Nexstar Compensation Committee selected these bonus amounts for 2015 due to the performance of Nexstar, as well as the individual performance of the executives.

Nexstar's performance in the year ended December 31, 2015 substantially met the expectations set by Nexstar's board of directors. Net revenue for 2015 of $896 million substantially met Nexstar's budget of $921 million and, excluding political revenue, was a $317 million increase over the year ended December 31, 2014. Nexstar realized an increase in retransmission fee revenues of 92% over 2014 due to successful negotiation of expiring contracts and an incremental revenue from Nexstar's newly acquired stations. In addition, Nexstar realized an increase in digital media revenue of 93% over the year ended December 31, 2014 primarily due to acquisitions of new stations and digital entities in the

Operationally, Nexstar achieved significant milestones while maintaining discipline in cost management and simultaneously developing new local marketing solutions for its customers. Our budgeted Adjusted EBITDA for the year ended December 31, 2015 of $306 million, compared with actual Adjusted EBITDA of $305 million, was substantially met as Nexstar continued to invest for long-term growth.

In the year ended December 31, 2015, Nexstar successfully completed its acquisitions of or entry into programming, sales and other services agreements to 14 full power television stations and two digital media businesses, which expanded Nexstar's penetration across two existing states and into two additional states.

During the year ended December 31, 2015, Nexstar continued to focus on growing free cash flow and remained disciplined in managing costs. As a result, full year free cash flow for the year ended December 31, rose 30% to $208 million.

The above factors were considered in determining the levels of performance bonuses paid to each of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers, along with each executive's individual performance and contribution to achievement of the goals of Nexstar. Each Nexstar Named Executive Officer contributed significantly to Nexstar's 2015 initiatives, including its acquisitions and integration of acquired or newly serviced stations, its organic growth, and its free cash flow growth. Due to the level of incremental effort arising from these initiatives and their favorable impact to Nexstar in the year ended December 31, 2015 and for future operations, the Nexstar Compensation Committee determined that bonuses above the established targets were warranted.

Stock-Based Compensation

Nexstar believes that grants of stock-based awards are the most appropriate form of long-term compensation since they provide incentives to promote the long-term success of Nexstar in line with shareholder interests. Nexstar's equity incentive plans are intended to motivate and reward the executive officers and to retain their continued services while providing long-term incentive opportunities including the participation in the long-term appreciation of its common stock value.

The Nexstar Compensation Committee grants stock-based awards to the four non-Chief Executive Officer Nexstar Named Executive Officers based on the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer, who evaluates their performance in meeting the goals established at the beginning of each year. The Nexstar Compensation Committee grants stock-based awards to the Chief Executive Officer primarily based on the overall performance of Nexstar. As with cash bonuses, there is no defined formula for how many stock-based awards will be granted to a Nexstar Named Executive Officer.

Nexstar currently maintains two equity compensation plans—the 2012 Long-Term Equity Incentive Plan and the 2015 Long-Term Equity Incentive Plan, both of which provide for the granting of stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and performance awards. Awards made under Nexstar's equity plans have consisted almost exclusively of non-qualified stock options and RSUs. Stock option awards and RSUs vest ratably over four to five years, dependent on continued employment. The exercise price of stock options may not be less than the market price of Nexstar Class A common stock on the date of grant. Stock option awards must be exercised within ten years of the date of grant of the option, subject to earlier expiration upon termination of the individual's employment. The number of awards that may be granted to any one individual in a calendar year is limited to 1,000,000 shares.

Nexstar typically grants stock options and stock awards in connection with the renewal of employment agreements. Each of the non-Chief Executive Officer Nexstar Named Executive Officers received stock awards in the year ended December 31, 2014. In the year ended December 31, 2015, Nexstar's Chief Executive Officer's contract was renewed and at the recommendation of the Nexstar Compensation Committee based on its discussions with and advice from the Nexstar board of directors and the Hay Group, he was granted 200,000 stock options and 200,000 RSUs.

Perquisites and Other Compensation

All other compensation for the Nexstar Named Executive Officers includes automobile allowances paid by Nexstar, the value of the personal use of an automobile, the group life insurance premiums paid by Nexstar and 401(k) matching contributions made by Nexstar.

Health Benefits

All full-time employees, including the Nexstar Named Executive Officers, may participate in Nexstar's health benefit program, including medical, dental and vision care coverage, disability insurance and life insurance.

Table of Contents*Severance Benefits and Change in Control Provisions*

All of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers have entered into employment agreements with Nexstar. These employment agreements, among other things, provide for severance compensation to be paid to the executives if they are terminated upon a change of control of Nexstar, or for reasons other than cause, or if they resign for good reason, as defined in the agreements. See Potential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control below.

Table of ContentsPotential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control

Each of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers has entered into an employment agreement with Nexstar. Included in each employment agreement are provisions regarding termination of employment, including a change in control of Nexstar. The circumstances that would result in the payment of severance compensation and other benefits under the employment agreements are identical for each of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers. See Chapter Two: Other Annual Meeting Matters Executive Officers of Nexstar Employment Agreements for more information.

As defined in the employment agreements, there are three different circumstances that would result in the payment of severance compensation, each as defined in the employment agreements, as follows: (1) change in control of Nexstar; (2) termination by Nexstar for reasons other than cause; and (3) resignation by the Nexstar Named Executive Officer with good reason.

In the event of termination for any of the above reasons, as defined in the employment agreements, each Nexstar Named Executive Officer is eligible to receive his base salary for a period of one year (except for Mr. Sook who would receive two years base salary plus two years target bonus).

The following table sets forth potential payments to the Nexstar Named Executive Officers under their employment agreements, for various circumstances involving the termination of employment of the Nexstar Named Executive Officers or change in control of Nexstar, assuming a December 31, 2015 termination date.

Nexstar Audit Committee Report

The financial statements of Nexstar are prepared by management, which is responsible for their objectivity and integrity and their preparation in accordance with GAAP. The Nexstar Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements and management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls of Nexstar for the year ended December 31, 2015.

The Nexstar Audit Committee has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers, the independent registered public accounting firm who audited Nexstar's December 31, 2015 financial statements, the matters required to be discussed in Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (which we refer to as the PCAOB), Auditing Standard No. 16, Communication with Audit Committees. Additionally, the Nexstar Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from PricewaterhouseCoopers required by applicable requirements of the PCAOB regarding communications with the Nexstar Audit Committee concerning independence and has discussed with them their independence from Nexstar and its management. Finally, the Nexstar Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services to Nexstar by PricewaterhouseCoopers is compatible with their independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Nexstar Audit Committee recommended to Nexstar's board of directors that the audited financial statements and management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls be included in Nexstar's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 for filing with the SEC.

Respectfully submitted,

Lisbeth McNabb, Chair

I. Martin Pompadur

Geoff Armstrong

Nexstar's Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm Fees and Other Matters

In addition to having retained PricewaterhouseCoopers to audit the financial statements of Nexstar for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 and review the financial statements included in Nexstar's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q during such years, Nexstar retained PricewaterhouseCoopers to provide advice on tax compliance matters. The aggregate fees, including expenses, billed for professional services incurred by Nexstar and rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers in the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 for these various services were:

Type of Fees	2015	2014
Audit Fees ⁽¹⁾	$ 1,879,500	$ 1,833,000
Audit Related Fees ⁽²⁾	53,600
Tax Fees ⁽³⁾	475,700	289,839
All Other Fees ⁽⁴⁾		1,800
Total	$ 2,408,800	$ 2,124,639

(1) Audit Fees are fees billed for professional services for the audit of Nexstar's consolidated financial statements included in its Annual Reports on Form 10-K and review of Nexstar's financial statements included in its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, or for services that are normally provided by the auditors in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements, including registration statements.

(2) Audit Related Fees are fees billed for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of Nexstar's financial statements.

(3) Tax Fees are fees billed for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.

(4) All Other Fees are fees billed for any professional services not included in the first three categories.

The Nexstar Audit Committee has established policies and procedures for the approval and pre-approval of audit services and permitted non-audit services. The Nexstar Audit Committee pre-approves all services relating to PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Certain Relationships and Related Person Transactions

Nexstar's board of directors has not adopted a written policy or procedure for the review, approval and ratification of related party transactions, as the Nexstar Audit Committee Charter already requires the Nexstar Audit Committee to review all relationships and transactions in which Nexstar and its employees, directors and officers or their immediate family members are participants to determine whether such persons have a direct or indirect material interest. Based on all the relevant facts and circumstances, the Nexstar Audit Committee will decide whether the related-party transaction is appropriate and will approve only those transactions that are in the best interests of Nexstar.

All employees sign a conflict of interest statement annually, and Nexstar requires its directors and executive officers to complete annually a directors' and officers' questionnaire which requires disclosure of any related-party transactions. As required under SEC rules, transactions that are determined to be directly or indirectly material to Nexstar or a related person are disclosed in its periodic filings as appropriate.

Under the NASDAQ independence rules, Nexstar's independent directors are Messrs. Armstrong, Grossman, Pompadur, Miller and McMillen and Ms. McNabb. All of the committees of Nexstar's board of directors are comprised solely of independent directors.

Nexstar Annual Meeting Shareholder Proposals

Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act contains eligibility requirements that must be satisfied for a shareholder to submit a proposal for inclusion in a company's proxy statement. Proposals of shareholders intended to be presented at the 2017 Annual Meeting pursuant to Rule 14a-8 must have been received by Nexstar no later than the close of business on January 9, 2017 in order to be included in the proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting. Proposals should be addressed to Elizabeth Ryder, Secretary, Nexstar Broadcasting Group, Inc., 545 E. John Carpenter Freeway, Suite 700, Irving, TX 75062.

In addition, Nexstar's amended and restated Bylaws require that Nexstar is given advance notice of other business that shareholders wish to present for action at an Annual Meeting of Shareholders, including shareholder nominations for the election to Nexstar's board of directors. notice in writing delivered or mailed by first class United States mail, postage prepaid, to Nexstar's executive offices, and received not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the Annual Meeting. In the event that less than 70 days' notice or prior public announcement of the date of the meeting is given or made to shareholders, notice by the shareholder must be received not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the date on which such notice of the date of the Annual Meeting was mailed or such public announcement was made. Media General Annual Meeting Shareholder Proposals

The Bylaws of Media General provide that the annual meeting of shareholders shall be held on a date fixed by the board of directors. Media General's 2016 annual meeting is currently expected to be held promptly after the Media General special meeting. Previously, Media General has stated that it expected to hold the 2016 annual meeting on April 21, 2016.

Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act contains eligibility requirements that must be satisfied for a shareholder to submit a proposal for inclusion in a company's proxy statement for the 2016 annual meeting. In order to be eligible to have their proposals included in Media General's proxy statement for the 2016 annual meeting, in addition to other applicable requirements established by the SEC, Media General's shareholders had to ensure that their proposals were received by the Secretary of Media General no later than November 14, 2015.

The Bylaws of Media General also establish advance notice procedures for eligible shareholders to make nominations for directors and to propose business to be transacted at an annual meeting. Under Media General's Bylaws, a shareholder who wished to submit director nominations or other proposals for consideration at the 2016 annual meeting was required to ensure that the same be received by the Secretary of Media General between December 26, 2015, and January 25, 2016. Media General's Bylaws also require that certain specific information accompany a shareholder's notice of nomination or proposal for business.

If Media General holds its 2016 annual meeting after June 22, 2016, the submission period described above for director nominations or other proposals for consideration at such meeting will be between 120 and 90 days before the date of 2016 annual meeting, and Media General shareholders must ensure that director nominations or other proposals for consideration at such meeting be received by the Secretary of Media General during such period. However, if the announcement of the 2016 annual meeting date is made less than 100 days before the meeting date, the deadline for submission of director nominations or other proposals would be the 10th day after the announcement.

In addition, unless a Pre-Closing CVR Distribution has occurred, at the Effective Time, each holder of a Marigold Stock Option outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be entitled to receive one (1) Contingent Value Right for each share of Marigold Voting Common Stock subject to such Marigold Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Merger Consideration. Prior to the Effective Time, Montage shall deposit or cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of Marigold Certificates and Marigold Book-Entry Securities, (i) shares of Montage Class A Common Stock sufficient in order for the Exchange Agent to distribute the aggregate Stock Consideration, (ii) an amount of cash sufficient in order for the Exchange Agent to distribute the aggregate Cash Consideration and (iii) unless a Pre-Closing CVR Distribution has occurred, Contingent Value Rights sufficient in order for the Exchange Agent to distribute the aggregate CVR Consideration. In addition, Montage shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, as necessary from time to time after the Effective Time, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 2.6(g) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 2.6(e). The shares of Montage Class A Common Stock and cash deposited with the Exchange Agent for the benefit of the holders of Marigold Common Stock are collectively referred to herein as the Marigold Exchange Fund. In connection with the foregoing, Montage shall enter into an Exchange Agent Agreement with the Exchange Agent, in a form reasonably acceptable to Marigold, setting forth the procedures to be used in accomplishing the deliveries and other actions contemplated by this Section 2.6.

(b) Promptly after the Closing Date, Montage shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of Marigold Common Stock a letter of transmittal in a form prepared by Montage and reasonably acceptable to Marigold (a Marigold Letter of Transmittal) (which shall specify that the delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Marigold Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) or transfer of the Marigold Book-Entry Securities to the Exchange Agent and which shall otherwise be in customary form and shall include customary provisions with respect to delivery of an agent's message regarding the book-entry transfer of Marigold Book-Entry Securities) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Marigold Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) or Marigold Book-Entry Securities in exchange for the Marigold Merger Consideration.

(c) Each holder of shares Marigold Common Stock that have been converted into the right to receive the Marigold Merger Consideration shall be entitled to receive, upon (i) surrender to the Exchange Agent of a Marigold Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof), together with a properly completed Marigold Letter of Transmittal, or (ii) receipt of an agent's message by the Exchange Agent (or such other evidence, if any, of transfer as the Exchange Agent may reasonably request) in the case of book-entry transfer of Marigold Book-Entry Securities, the Marigold Merger Consideration in respect of the Marigold Common Stock represented by a Marigold Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) or Marigold Book-Entry Security. The shares of Montage Class A Common Stock constituting part of the Marigold Merger Consideration shall be in uncertificated book-entry form, unless a physical certificate is requested by a holder of Marigold Common Stock or is otherwise required under applicable Law. The Contingent Value Rights constituting part of the Marigold Merger Consideration (if applicable) shall be in uncertificated book-entry form. The Exchange Agent shall accept such Marigold Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) or Marigold Book-Entry Securities upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. If any Marigold Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name the applicable Marigold Common Stock surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition to such exchange that (i) either such Marigold Certificate shall be properly endorsed or such Marigold Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) shall otherwise be in proper form for the transfer or such Marigold Book-Entry Security shall be properly transferred, and (ii) the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to Montage any transfer Taxes or other Taxes required by reason of the payment of such consideration to a Person other than that of the registered holder of the Marigold Certificate (or Marigold Common Stock specified in an affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) and/or Marigold Book-Entry Security so surrendered, or such Person shall establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not applicable.

(d) All shares of Marigold Common Stock converted pursuant to Section 2.2, when so converted, shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist. From and after the Effective Time, until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.6, each Marigold Certificate and/or Marigold Book-Entry Security shall be deemed to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender, in each case together with a duly executed and properly completed Marigold Letter of Transmittal, cash, Contingent Value

Rights (if applicable) and certificates or evidence of shares in book-entry form representing the Marigold Merger Consideration that the holder of such Marigold Certificate and/or Marigold Book-Entry Security is entitled to receive pursuant to Section 2.2(a), and any additional cash payment that such holder is entitled to receive pursuant to Section 2.6(e) and Section 2.6(g). No interest will be paid or will accrue on any such consideration. The issuance or payment of the Marigold Merger Consideration and the payment of any cash payment required to be made pursuant to Section 2.6(e) in respect of Marigold Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be deemed issued and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Marigold Common Stock (other than the right to receive dividends or other distributions, if any, in accordance with Section 2.6(g)).

(e) No certificates or book-entry securities representing less than one share of Montage Class A Common Stock shall be issued in the Merger as a result of the conversion provided for in Section 2.2(a), but in lieu thereof each Marigold Shareholder otherwise entitled to a fractional share of Montage Class A Common Stock (after aggregating the total number of shares of Montage Class A Common Stock that such Marigold Shareholder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.2(a)) shall be entitled to receive from Montage, in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.6(e), a cash payment in lieu of such fractional shares equal to (i) the fraction of a share of Montage Class A Common Stock to which such Marigold Shareholder would otherwise be entitled, multiplied by (ii) the average daily volume weighted average price of a share of Montage Class A Common Stock on the NASDAQ over the five (5) consecutive trading days immediately prior to the Closing Date. The parties acknowledge that payment of the cash consideration in lieu of issuing fractional shares was not separately bargained-for consideration but merely represents a mechanical rounding off for purposes of avoiding the expense and inconvenience to Montage that would otherwise be caused by the issuance of fractional shares.

(f) After the Effective Time, there shall be no further transfer on the records of Marigold of Marigold Common Stock which has been converted, pursuant to this Agreement, into the right to receive the consideration set forth herein, and if any Marigold Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) and/or Marigold Book-Entry Securities, together with a duly executed and properly completed Marigold Letter of Transmittal, are presented to the Exchange Agent, Montage or the Surviving Corporation for transfer they shall be cancelled and exchanged, without interest, for the Marigold Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.2(a) (together with any cash in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 2.6(e)).

(g) No dividends or other distributions with respect to the shares of Montage Class A Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Marigold Common Stock with respect to the shares of Montage Class A Common Stock issuable hereunder, and all such dividends and other distributions shall be paid by Montage to the Exchange Agent and shall be included in the Marigold Exchange Fund, in each case until the surrender of such Marigold Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) or Marigold Book-Entry Security in accordance with this Agreement. Subject to applicable Laws, following surrender of any such Marigold Certificate or Marigold Book-Entry Security (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) there shall be paid to the holder thereof, without interest, (i) the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such shares of Montage Class A Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and with a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such shares of Montage Class A Common Stock. No distributions with respect to Contingent Value Rights issuable as CVR Consideration hereunder with a payment date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Marigold Common Stock, and all such distributions instead shall be paid by Montage to the Exchange Agent and shall be included in the Marigold Exchange Fund, in each case, until the surrender of such Marigold Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) or Marigold Book-Entry Security in accordance with this Agreement. Subject to applicable Laws, following surrender of any such Marigold Certificate or Marigold Book-Entry Security (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) there shall be paid to the holder thereof, without interest, the amount of such distributions theretofore paid with respect to such Contingent Value Rights issuable as CVR Consideration to which such holder is entitled pursuant to this Agreement and the CVR Agreement.

(h) None of Montage, Merger Sub, or Marigold shall be liable to any Person in respect of any shares of Montage Class A Common Stock or Contingent Value Rights (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) for any amount required to be delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws.

(i) If any Marigold Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon such Person's (i) making of an affidavit of that fact claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed, (ii) delivery for the benefit of Montage of a bond of indemnity in an amount and upon terms reasonably satisfactory to the Exchange Agent, and (iii) execution and delivery of a Marigold Letter of Transmittal, Montage will pay, in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, the amount and type of consideration to be paid in respect of each share of Marigold Common Stock represented by such certificate in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(j) Any portion of the Marigold Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the holders of Marigold Common Stock twelve (12) months after the Closing Date shall be returned to Montage, upon demand, and any such holder who has not exchanged Marigold Common Stock for the Marigold Merger Consideration in accordance with this Section 2.6 prior to that time shall thereafter look only to Montage for payment of the Marigold Merger Consideration, and any dividends and distributions with respect thereto pursuant to Section 2.6(g) and any cash in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 2.6(e), in respect of such shares without any interest thereon.

Section 2.7 Withholding Rights. Each of Montage and the Surviving Corporation and any of their respective Subsidiaries (and any agent acting on behalf of any of them, including the Exchange Agent) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable under this Agreement such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld with respect to the making of such payment under any provision of federal, state, local or non-U.S. Tax Law. Any such withheld amounts (i) shall be remitted by Montage, the Surviving Corporation or any Subsidiary of any of them (or any agent acting on behalf of any of them, including the Exchange Agent), as the case may be, to the appropriate Governmental Entity and (ii) provided that such amounts are remitted to the appropriate Governmental Entity, shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

Section 2.8 Adjustments. Section 4.23 Opinion of Financial Advisor. The Montage Board has received the opinion of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (the Montage Financial Advisor), financial advisor to Montage, dated January 26, 2016, to the effect that subject to the assumptions and limitations set forth in such opinion, the Marigold Merger Consideration provided for in the Merger pursuant to this Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to Montage. Montage will, following the execution of this Agreement, make available to Marigold, solely for informational purposes, a signed copy of such opinion.

Section 4.24 Montage Ownership of Marigold Capital Stock. As of the date hereof, neither Montage nor any Montage Subsidiary nor any affiliate or associate of Montage beneficially owns (as such terms are defined in Articles 14 and 14.1 of the VSCA) any shares of capital stock of Marigold or any rights to purchase or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock or any other equity securities of Marigold, or any securities exercisable, convertible or exchangeable for, or the value of which is determined in reference to, any such securities. During the three (3) year period prior to the date of this Agreement, neither Montage nor any Montage Subsidiary nor any affiliate or associate of Montage beneficially owned (as such terms are defined in Articles 14 and 14.1 of the VSCA) 10% or more of the outstanding shares of any class of Marigold Common Stock.

Section 4.25 Montage Sharing Companies. Marigold acknowledges that Montage neither controls, nor necessarily has knowledge concerning the operations of, the Montage Sharing Companies. qualifiers set forth therein, Montage has nevertheless agreed to make the representations and warranties respecting the Montage Sharing Companies on the condition that Marigold acknowledge the limited amount of information available to Montage respecting the Montage Sharing Companies.

Section 4.26 Financial Ability.

(a) Assuming the satisfaction of the conditions precedent to Montage's obligations hereunder and the completion of the Marketing Period, Montage has no reason to believe that it will not be able to satisfy any term or condition of the Transaction Financing (defined below) that is required to be satisfied by Montage as a condition to such Transaction Financing, or that the Transaction Financing will not be made available to Montage on the Closing Date. Assuming the Transaction Financing is funded in accordance with the Commitment Letter and the accuracy of the representation set forth in Section 3.2 in all material respects, the aggregate net proceeds contemplated by the Commitment Letter, together with the cash of Montage and its Subsidiaries, will be an amount sufficient for the satisfaction of Montage's cash payment obligations under this Agreement on the Closing Date (including payment of the Cash Consideration, all indebtedness of Marigold and the Marigold Sharing Companies and Montage and the Montage Sharing Companies expected to be required or contemplated to be repaid as a condition of the Transaction Financing (the Retired Debt) and any fees and expenses of, or payable by, each of Marigold and Montage in connection with the Merger or the Transaction Financing).

(b) Montage has delivered to Marigold a true, complete and correct copy of an executed commitment letter and fee letter (with only the fee amount, the Securities Demand, economic flex and certain other economic terms redacted in a customary matter) (collectively, the Commitment Letter) from the financial institutions identified therein (together with their respective Affiliates and their respective officers, employees, directors, equityholders, partners, controlling parties, advisors, agents and representatives and their successors and assigns, the Financing Sources), pursuant to which, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, the Financing Sources have committed to lend the amounts set forth therein on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein (the Transaction Financing).

(c) Other than as expressly set forth in the Commitment Letter, there are no other agreements, side letters, arrangements or understandings (except for customary fee credit letters and engagement letters, in each case associated with the Transaction Financing, each of which does not (i) impair the enforceability of the Commitment Letter, (ii) reduce the aggregate amount of the Transaction Financing or (iii) impose new or additional (or adversely expands, modifies or amends any of the existing) conditions precedent to the Transaction Financing relating to the financing of the cash amounts needed to be paid in connection with the Merger (including all fees and expenses required to be paid in connection with the Transaction Financing). There are no conditions precedent or other contingencies related to the funding of the full amount of the Transaction Financing, except as set forth in the Commitment Letter in the form so delivered to Marigold as of the date hereof.

(d) As of the date hereof, the Commitment Letter in the form so delivered to Marigold is in full force and effect and represents the legally valid and binding obligation of Montage and the Montage Subsidiaries, as applicable, and, to the Knowledge of Montage, each of the other parties thereto, enforceable in accordance with its terms (except as such enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights, and by general equitable principles). As of the date hereof, the Commitment Letter has not been withdrawn, rescinded or terminated or otherwise amended, restated, modified or waived in any respect. Montage and the Montage Subsidiaries are not in breach of any of the terms or conditions set forth in the Commitment Letter. All fees required to be paid under the Commitment Letter have been paid in full or, if not yet due, will be duly paid in full when due.

(e) Montage acknowledges and agrees that the obtaining of financing is not a condition to Closing. For the avoidance of doubt, if any financing contemplated to be obtained by Montage in connection with the Merger has not been obtained prior to Closing, Montage and Merger Sub shall continue to be obligated, subject to the fulfillment or waiver of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 and Section 7.2, to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement at the Closing in accordance with this Agreement.

Section 4.27 Solvency. Assuming (a) satisfaction of the conditions to Montage's obligation to consummate the Merger, and after giving effect to the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Transaction Financing, (b) any repayment or refinancing of debt in connection with the Merger, (c) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Marigold set forth in Article III hereof and Marigold's compliance with this Agreement, (d) payments of all amounts required to be paid by Montage and Merger Sub and the Surviving Corporation in connection with the consummation of the Merger, the Transaction Financing and the other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, (e) payment of all related fees and expenses, and (f) that any estimates, projections or forecasts prepared by or on behalf of Marigold that have been provided to Montage have been prepared in good faith based upon assumptions that were reasonable when made, each of Montage, Marigold and their Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) will be Solvent immediately after the Effective Time. For the purposes of this Agreement, the term Solvent when used with respect to any Person and its Subsidiaries, means that, as of any date of determination (x) the sum of the assets, at a fair valuation, of such Person and its Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) will exceed their debts, (y) such Person and its Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) has not incurred and does not intend to incur, and does not believe that it will incur, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as such debts mature, and (z) such Person and its Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) will have, sufficient capital and liquidity with which to conduct its business. For purposes of this Section 4.27, debt means any liability on a claim, and claim means any (i) right to payment, whether or not such a right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured or unsecured, and (ii) any right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured or unsecured.

Section 4.28 No Other Representations and Warranties. Each of Marigold and Montage shall use reasonable best efforts to make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) All information and materials provided pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the provisions of that certain confidentiality agreement, dated as of October 19, 2015, by and between Montage and Marigold (the Confidentiality Agreement).

(c) No investigation by either of the parties or their respective Representatives shall affect the representations and warranties of the other set forth in this Agreement.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, after the date such communications are prohibited by the FCC, neither Montage nor Marigold shall be required to provide or communicate to the other or permit the other to have access to any information that would communicate, directly or indirectly, its bids or bidding strategies in the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction in violation of the anti-collusion provisions of the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction Rules, as they may be interpreted from time to time by the FCC.

(e) Marigold and Montage acknowledge that (1) the FCC has announced its intention to conduct the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction no earlier than March 29, 2016; (2) the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction will require television station participants to file applications reflecting their intention to participate (the Auction Applications); (3) following the date that such Auction Applications are required to be filed, certain direct and indirect communications between Marigold and Montage regarding the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction, including whether either Marigold or Montage intends to participate in the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction, as well as their bids or bidding strategies, will be prohibited by 47 C.F.R. § 1.2205(b) (the Prohibited Communications); and (4) such Prohibited Communications will remain prohibited until the FCC publicly announces the results of the FCC Broadcast Incentive Auction (the period between the date Auction Applications are required to be filed and the FCC's public announcement of the Auction results hereinafter referred to as the Anti-Collusion Rule Period). During the Anti-Collusion Rule Period, neither Marigold nor Montage shall make any statement, either oral or written, or take any action that is prohibited under 47 C.F.R. § 1.2205(b). Section 6.5 Employee Matters.

(a) For a period of one (1) year following the Closing Date, Montage shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, provide the employees of Marigold and the Marigold Subsidiaries who are employed by Montage and its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time and who remain employed by Montage or any of its Subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries) thereafter (the Continuing Employees) with (i) benefits and compensation that are substantially similar in the aggregate to those provided to such individuals as of the date hereof and (ii) severance benefits in accordance with the terms of the Montage severance policy (Montage Severance Policy) or, if greater, the Marigold severance policy in effect as of the date hereof, applied in a manner consistent with the manner in which Montage or Marigold, as applicable, has applied such policy under similar circumstances, and not amend such program in any way with respect to the Continuing Employees except as required by applicable Law or to increase benefits payable to the Continuing Employees under the program; provided, that nothing herein shall limit Montage's or its Subsidiaries' ability to terminate any Continuing Employee at any time after the Closing.

(b) Montage shall cause, to the extent applicable, (i) each Montage Benefit Plan in which Marigold Continuing Employees become eligible to participate and (ii) each employee benefit plan adopted or implemented by Montage or its Subsidiaries at or following the Closing (each, a New Benefit Plan and, together with the Montage Benefit Plans and the Marigold Benefit Plans following the Closing, the Merger Benefit Plans) in which Continuing Employees become eligible to participate, to take into account for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefit accruals (solely, in the case of benefit accruals, with respect to Merger Benefit Plans that are not defined benefit plans or provide post-retirement health or welfare benefits, except as required by applicable Law or under any Merger Benefit Plan that replaces a comparable Montage Benefit Plan or Marigold Benefit Plan, as applicable), the service of such Continuing Employees with Marigold and Marigold Subsidiaries (and any predecessor entities), as applicable, to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose, by Marigold and the Marigold Subsidiaries; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits with respect to the same period of service or with respect to New Benefit Plans for which prior service is not taken into account or with respect to plans for which participation and/or service is frozen.

(c) At and following the Effective Time, Montage shall, and shall cause the applicable Subsidiary to, as applicable, honor the accrued and vested obligations of Marigold and their respective Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time under the provisions of the Marigold Benefit Plans, Marigold Employment Agreements, and New Benefit Plans, as applicable; provided that this provision shall not prevent Montage or any of its Subsidiaries from terminating any such plans or agreements to the extent permitted by the respective terms of such plans or agreements, provided that Montage honors all accrued and vested obligations under such plans and agreements upon such termination.

(d) If Marigold Continuing Employees become eligible to participate in a Montage Benefit Plan or a New Benefit Plan, in each case that provides medical, dental or other health care insurance, Montage shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause each such plan to (i) waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the medical, health, or dental plans of Marigold, (ii) honor under such plans any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by such employees and their beneficiaries during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation, and (iii) waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employee on or after the Effective Time for the year in which the Effective Time or participation in such medical, dental or other health care insurance plan of Marigold occurs, in each case to the extent such employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous medical, dental or other health care insurance plan of Marigold, prior to the Effective Time for the year in which the Effective Time or participation in such medical, dental or health care insurance plan occurs.

(e) Without limiting the generality of Section 9.9, this Section 6.5 shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party to this Agreement, and nothing in this Section 6.5, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any other Person, including any current or former director, officer or employee of Marigold or any of its Subsidiaries or of Montage or any of its Subsidiaries, any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Section 6.5. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent Montage, Merger Sub, or the Surviving Corporation from amending, suspending or terminating any Marigold Benefit Plans or Montage Benefit Plans or Marigold Employment Agreements or Montage Employment Agreements to the extent permitted by the respective terms of such plans or agreements. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall constitute or be deemed to be an amendment to any Marigold Benefit Plan or Montage Benefits Plan or Marigold Employment Agreement or Montage Employment Agreement or any other compensation or benefit plan, program or arrangement of Marigold or any of its Subsidiaries or Montage or any of its Subsidiaries.

(f) If the Closing occurs in 2016, cash incentive bonuses in respect of 2016 shall be paid to employees of Marigold and its Subsidiaries at or prior to the Closing in amounts calculated on the basis that the target performance level was attained and pro-rated to reflect the portion of the 2016 performance period lapsed as of the Closing Date. If the

Closing occurs in 2017 (i) but prior to the date on which cash incentive bonus payments in respect of 2016 would normally be paid, cash incentive bonus payments in respect of 2016 shall be paid to employees of Marigold and its Subsidiaries at the Closing in amounts calculated on the basis that the target performance level was attained and (ii) cash incentive bonus payments in respect of 2017 shall be paid to employees of Marigold and its Subsidiaries at or prior to the Closing in amounts calculated on the basis that the target performance level was attained and pro-rated to reflect the portion of the 2017 performance period lapsed as of the Closing Date. In all cases covered by this Section 6.5\(f\), Marigold shall accrue such bonuses on its financial statements for each relevant period and shall make customary adjustments in the amount of such accruals in accordance with GAAP.

Section 6.6 Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) Without limiting any additional rights that any director or officer may have under any indemnification agreement or under the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Marigold, from and after the Effective Time, Montage shall cause the Surviving Corporation or any applicable Subsidiary (collectively, the D&O Indemnifying Parties) thereto to: (i) indemnify and hold harmless each person who is at the date hereof, was previously, or during the period from the date hereof through the date of the Effective Time serving as a director or officer of Marigold or such Subsidiary (collectively, the D&O Indemnified Parties) to the fullest extent the Surviving Corporation or any such Subsidiary is so authorized or permitted by applicable Law, as now or hereafter in effect, in connection with any D&O Claim and any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, Claim Expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of any thereof) relating to or resulting from such D&O Claim; and (ii) promptly pay on behalf of or, within ten (10) Business Days after any request for advancement, advance to each of the D&O Indemnified Parties, in each case to the fullest extent the Surviving Corporation or the applicable Subsidiary is so authorized or permitted by applicable Law, as now or hereafter in effect, any Claim Expenses incurred in defending, serving as a witness with respect to or otherwise participating with respect to any D&O Claim in advance of the final disposition of such D&O Claim, including payment on behalf of or advancement to the D&O Indemnified Party of any Claim Expenses incurred by such D&O Indemnified Party in connection with enforcing any rights with respect to such indemnification and/or advancement, in each case without the requirement of any bond or other security, but subject to the Surviving Corporation's receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of such D&O Indemnified Party to repay such Claim Expenses if it is ultimately determined under applicable Law that such D&O Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified. Without limiting any additional rights that any director or officer may have under any indemnification agreement set forth in Section 6.6 of the Marigold Disclosure Letter or under the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Marigold, the D&O Indemnified Parties as a group may retain only one law firm to represent them with respect to each such D&O Claim unless there is, under applicable standards of professional conduct, a conflict between the positions of any two or more D&O Indemnified Parties. To the extent authorized or permitted by applicable Law, the indemnification and advancement obligations of the Surviving Corporation pursuant to this Section 6.6(a) shall extend to acts or omissions occurring at or before the Effective Time and any D&O Claim relating thereto (including with respect to any acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement, the Merger and the consummation of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the consideration and approval thereof and the process undertaken in connection therewith and any D&O Claim relating thereto), and all rights to indemnification and advancement conferred hereunder shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of Marigold or any of the Marigold Subsidiaries after the date hereof and shall inure to the benefit of such Person's heirs, successors, executors, and personal and legal Representatives. As used in this Section 6.6(a): (x) the term D&O Claim means any threatened, asserted, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding or inquiry or investigation, whether instituted by any party hereto, any Governmental Entity or any other Person, that any D&O Indemnified Party in good faith believes might lead to the institution of any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other, including any arbitration or other alternative dispute resolution mechanism, arising out of or pertaining to matters that relate to (A) such D&O Indemnified Party's duties or service as a director or officer of Marigold or the applicable Subsidiary thereto or (B) to the extent such person is or was serving at the request or for the benefit of Marigold or any of the Marigold Subsidiaries, any other entity or any benefit plan maintained by any of the foregoing at or prior to the Effective Time; and (y) the term Claim Expenses means reasonable attorneys' fees and all other reasonable out-of-pocket costs, expenses and obligations (including experts' fees, travel expenses, court costs, retainers, transcript fees, duplicating, printing and binding costs, as well as telecommunications, postage and courier charges) paid or incurred in connection with investigating, defending, being a witness in or participating in (including on appeal), or preparing to investigate, defend, be a witness in or participate in, any D&O Claim for which indemnification is authorized pursuant to this Section 6.6(a), including any action relating to a claim for indemnification or advancement brought by a D&O Indemnified Party. No D&O Indemnifying Party shall settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment in any actual or threatened D&O Claim in respect of which indemnification has been sought by such D&O Indemnified Party hereunder unless such settlement, compromise or judgment includes an unconditional release of such D&O Indemnified Party from all liability arising out of such D&O Claim, or such D&O Indemnified Party otherwise consents thereto.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, Montage and Marigold agree that all rights to indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time now existing in favor of the current or former directors or officers of Marigold or any of the Marigold Subsidiaries as provided in the Marigold Organizational Documents as in effect on the Closing Date and indemnification agreements of Marigold and the Marigold Subsidiaries shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms. For a period of six (6) years from the Effective Time, the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification and limitations on liability of directors and officers than are set forth in the Marigold Organizational Documents as in effect on the Closing Date, which provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six (6) years from the Effective Time in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to the Effective Time, were directors or officers of Marigold or any of the Marigold Subsidiaries, unless such modification shall be required by applicable Law and then only to the minimum extent required by applicable Law. At Marigold's option and expense, prior to the Effective Time, Marigold may purchase (and pay in full the aggregate premium for) a six-year prepaid tail insurance policy (which policy by its express terms shall survive the Merger) of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are no less favorable to the directors, officers, agents or fiduciaries of Marigold or any of the Marigold Subsidiaries as Marigold's and the Marigold Subsidiaries' existing directors' and officers' insurance policy or policies, covering without limitation the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, with a claims period of six (6) years from the Effective Time for D&O Claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that the premium for such tail policy shall not exceed three hundred percent (300%) of the aggregate annual amounts currently paid by Marigold and the Marigold Subsidiaries for such insurance (such amount being the Marigold Maximum Premium). If Marigold shall obtain such tail policy prior to the Effective Time, Montage or the Surviving Corporation shall cause such policy to be maintained in full force and effect, for its full term, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to honor all its obligations thereunder. If Marigold fails to obtain such tail policy prior to the Effective Time, Montage or the Surviving Corporation shall obtain such a tail policy, provided, however, that the premium for such tail policy shall not exceed the Marigold Maximum Premium; provided, further, that if such tail policy cannot be obtained or can be obtained only by paying aggregate annual premiums in excess of the Marigold Maximum Premium, Montage or the Surviving Corporation shall only be required to obtain as much coverage as can be obtained by paying an annual premium equal to the Marigold Maximum Premium.

(c) If any of Montage or the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges with or into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving company, partnership or other entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) liquidates, dissolves or winds-up, or transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Montage or the Surviving Corporation, as applicable, assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.6.

(d) Montage and the Surviving Corporation shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay all reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, that may be incurred by any D&O Indemnified Party in enforcing the indemnity and other obligations provided in this Section 6.6; provided, however, that such D&O Indemnified Party provides an undertaking to repay such expenses if it is determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that such Person is not legally entitled to indemnification under Law.

(e) The provisions of this Section 6.6 are intended to be for the express benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each D&O Indemnified Party (who are intended to be third party beneficiaries of this Section 6.6), his or her heirs and his or her personal Representatives, shall be binding on all successors and assigns of Montage and the Surviving Corporation and shall not be amended after the Effective Time in a manner that is adverse to any D&O Indemnified Party (including their successors, assigns and heirs) without the prior written consent of such D&O Indemnified Party (including the successors, assigns and heirs) affected thereby. The exculpation and indemnification provided for by this Section 6.6 shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other rights to which a D&O Indemnified Party is entitled, whether pursuant to applicable Law, contract or otherwise.

Section 6.7 Advice of Changes. Each of Montage, on the one hand, and Marigold, on the other hand, shall promptly advise the other of any change or event (i) having or reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on Marigold, in the case of Marigold, or a Material Adverse Effect on Montage, in the case of Montage, or (ii) that it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties (or remedies with respect thereto) or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement; provided, further, that a failure to comply with this Section 6.7 shall not constitute the failure of any condition set forth in Article VII to be satisfied unless the underlying Material Adverse Effect or material breach would independently result in the failure of a condition set forth in Article VII to be satisfied.

Section 6.8 Reserved.

Section 6.9 Approval Actions. Immediately after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Montage shall execute and deliver to Merger Sub (with a copy to Marigold) an irrevocable written consent approving and adopting this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger.

Section 6.10 No Solicitation by Marigold.

(a) From the date hereof until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, (i) Marigold shall not, and shall cause the Marigold Subsidiaries not to, and (ii) Marigold shall and shall cause the Marigold Subsidiaries to use its and their respective reasonable best efforts (including by notifying them of the existence and terms of this Section 6.10(a)) to cause the Representatives of Marigold and of the Marigold Subsidiaries not to, directly or indirectly:

(i) solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate the making, submission or announcement of any Acquisition Proposal with respect to Marigold or Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Marigold;

(ii) furnish any non-public information regarding Marigold or any of the Marigold Subsidiaries to any Person who has made or in response to an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Marigold or an Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Marigold;

(iii) engage in discussions or negotiations with any Person who has made any Acquisition Proposal with respect to Marigold or Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Marigold (other than discussions in the ordinary course of business that are unrelated to an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, which shall be permitted);

(iv) approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal with respect to Marigold or Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Marigold or, subject to Section 6.10(c), withdraw or propose to withdraw its approval and recommendation in favor of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger; or

(v) enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger, acquisition, purchase or joint venture agreement or other similar agreement (other than a Marigold Confidentiality Agreement, subject to Section 6.10(b)) for any Acquisition Transaction with respect to Marigold.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 6.10(a), if after the date hereof but prior to the Marigold Approval Time, the Marigold Board receives a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal made after the date hereof but prior to the Marigold Approval Time and which has not resulted from a violation of this Section 6.10, Marigold and its Representatives may contact such Person to clarify the terms and conditions thereof and if the Marigold Board determines in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third party financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a Marigold Superior Offer, and, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take the actions described in clauses (A) and (B) below would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Marigold Board's fiduciary duties to Marigold Shareholders under applicable Law, then Marigold may, at any time prior to the Marigold Approval Time (A) furnish information with respect to Marigold and the Marigold Subsidiaries to the Person or Persons (and its or their Representatives and potential financing sources) making such Acquisition Proposal, but only after such Person or Persons enter into a Marigold Confidentiality Agreement and (B) participate in discussions or negotiations with such Person or Persons (and its or their Representatives and potential financing sources) regarding any such Acquisition Proposal made by such Person or Persons; provided, that Marigold shall give written notice to Montage after any such determination by the Marigold Board and before taking any of the actions described in the foregoing clauses (A) and (B). Marigold shall promptly (and in any event, within twenty-four (24) hours) provide Montage with all non-public information regarding Marigold and the Marigold Subsidiaries that is provided by Marigold to a Person or Persons (or its or their Representatives or potential financing sources) making such Acquisition Proposal that shall not have been previously provided to Montage or its Representatives. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.10, in no event may Marigold or any of the Marigold Subsidiaries or any of its Representatives directly or indirectly reimburse or pay, or agree to reimburse or pay, the fees, costs or expenses of, or provide or agree to provide compensation to, any Person or Persons (or any of its or their Representatives or potential financing sources) who makes an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Marigold.

(c) Except as expressly permitted by this Section 6.10(c), the Marigold Board shall not (i) (A) fail to make or withdraw or qualify, amend or modify in any manner adverse to Montage, or propose publicly to withdraw, or to qualify, amend or modify, in any manner adverse to Montage, the Marigold Board Recommendation or (B) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal (any action described in this clause (i) being referred to as a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change) (it being understood that the following shall not constitute a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change prohibited hereunder: (1) any stop, look and listen disclosure in compliance with Rule 14d-9(f) of the Exchange Act, and (2) any communication by Marigold that expressly continues to recommend the transactions contemplated hereby), (ii) take any action to make the provisions of any fair price, moratorium, control share acquisition, business combination or other similar anti-takeover statute regulation inapplicable to any transaction contemplated by an Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, or cause or authorize Marigold or any of the Marigold Subsidiaries to enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger, acquisition, purchase or joint venture agreement or Contract or other instrument in respect of or relating to an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Marigold (other than a Marigold Confidentiality Agreement). Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time before the Marigold Approval Time, the Marigold Board may effect a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change (other than in connection with an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Marigold) in response to a Marigold Intervening Event, if and only if: (A) if the Marigold Board determines in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel, that the failure to effect a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Marigold Board's fiduciary duties to the Marigold Shareholders under applicable Law; (B) Marigold has provided Montage four (4) Business Days prior written notice specifying the Marigold Intervening Event in reasonable detail and advising Montage that it intends to take such action and specifying, in reasonable detail, the reasons for such action, it being understood that the delivery of such notice shall not itself constitute a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change; and (C) (1) during such four (4) Business Days notice period, to the extent requested in writing by Montage, Marigold and its Representatives shall negotiate in good faith with Montage and Montage's

Representatives with respect to any revisions to the terms of this Agreement so that such Marigold Intervening Event would no longer necessitate a Marigold Adverse Recommendation

Change, and (2) if after taking into consideration any revisions to the terms of this Agreement proposed in writing by Montage by 5 p.m. Eastern Time on the last day of such notice period, the Marigold Board continues to believe in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel, that the failure to make a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change in response to such Marigold Intervening Event would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Marigold Board's fiduciary duties to the Marigold Shareholders under applicable Law. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Section 6.10(c) shall also apply to any material change to the facts and circumstances relating to such Marigold Intervening Event and require a new notice, except that the references to four (4) Business Days shall be deemed to be three (3) Business Days. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6.10(c) or elsewhere in this Agreement, if the Marigold Board receives after the date hereof but before the Marigold Approval Time a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal with respect to Marigold (which did not result from a violation of this Section 6.10) that the Marigold Board determines in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third party financial advisor, constitutes a Marigold Superior Offer, (i) Marigold may (but in no event from and after the Marigold Approval Time) terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(h) to enter into a definitive agreement to accept such Marigold Superior Offer (and take an action described in clause (ii) of the first sentence of this Section 6.10(c) contemporaneously therewith), if Marigold pays the Marigold Termination Fee required to be paid by it pursuant to Section 8.3 in connection with such termination, or (ii) the Marigold Board may make a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change in connection with such Marigold Superior Offer, but in each case described in this sentence only (1) after the fourth (4th) Business Day (such four (4) Business Day period, the Marigold Notice Period) following Marigold's delivery to Montage of written notice (a Notice of Marigold Superior Offer), advising Montage that the Marigold Board is prepared to accept such Marigold Superior Offer and enter into a definitive agreement with respect hereto (which notice shall include the form of definitive agreement Marigold and the Person that made such offer are prepared to enter into in connection with the termination of this Agreement, any other information and material required to be delivered under Section 6.10(b) or this Section 6.10(c), as applicable, that has not yet been provided to Montage, and the identity of the Person or Persons making such Acquisition Proposal) and terminate this Agreement or make a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change in connection with such Marigold Superior Offer (it being understood that any such Notice of Marigold Superior Offer regarding a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change shall not itself constitute a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change for purposes of this Agreement) and during such Marigold Notice Period, to the extent requested in writing by Montage, Marigold and its Representatives shall negotiate in good faith with Montage and Montage's Representatives with respect to any revisions to the terms of this Agreement proposed by Montage so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Marigold Superior Offer, and (2) if after taking into consideration any revisions to the terms of this Agreement proposed in writing by Montage by 5 p.m. Eastern Time on the last day of such Marigold Notice Period, the Marigold Board continues to believe in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third party financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal continues to constitute a Marigold Superior Offer, and that, after consultation with outside counsel, the failure to (i) terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(h) or (ii) make a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change in connection with such Marigold Superior Offer would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Marigold Board's fiduciary duties to the Marigold Shareholders under applicable Law. Any (i) amendment to the financial or other material terms of such Marigold Superior Offer or (ii) amendment to an Acquisition Proposal that the Marigold Board had determined no longer constitutes a Marigold Superior Offer, shall constitute a new Acquisition Proposal and shall require Marigold to deliver to Montage a new Notice of Marigold Superior Offer and a new Marigold Notice Period (which shall be three (3), instead of four (4), Business Days in length) shall commence thereafter. Except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 6.10(c), Marigold shall have no right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(h).

(d) Nothing in this Section 6.10 shall prohibit the Marigold Board from (i) taking and disclosing to Marigold's shareholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a), Rule 14d-9 or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A promulgated under the Exchange Act or (ii) making any disclosure to its shareholders required pursuant to applicable Law if the duties or applicable Law; provided that (x) a disclosure pursuant to clause (i) of this Section 6.10(d) shall be a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change unless the Marigold Board reaffirms the Marigold Board Recommendation in such disclosure, and (y) clause (ii) of this Section 6.10(d) shall not permit the Marigold Board to make a Marigold Adverse Recommendation Change or to take any other actions contemplated by this Section 6.10, except, in each case, to the extent expressly permitted by, and subject to the terms and conditions of, this Section 6.10.

(e) Marigold shall promptly, within thirty-six (36) hours, advise Montage orally and in writing of any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry (including the identity of the Person making or submitting such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry and the terms thereof and all material modifications thereto) that is made or submitted by any Person during the period beginning on the date hereof until the Effective Time or, if earlier, the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms. If Marigold receives an Acquisition Proposal or an Acquisition Inquiry, it shall (i) promptly notify Montage (within no more than thirty-six (36) hours after any director, officer or financial advisor of Marigold is notified or becomes aware of the receipt of such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry) of the communication or receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, indicating, in connection with such notice, the identity of the person making such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry and the material terms and conditions thereof, and (ii) keep Montage reasonably informed on a current basis of any material developments in the status and terms of any such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry (including whether such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry has been withdrawn or rejected and any material change to the terms thereof).

(f) Marigold shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any discussions existing as of the date of this Agreement with any Person that relate to any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry in respect of Marigold proposed on or prior to the date hereof. Marigold acknowledges and agrees that any actions taken by or at the direction of a Representative of Marigold or any of the Marigold Subsidiaries that, if taken by Marigold, would constitute a breach or violation of this Section 6.10 will be deemed to constitute a breach and violation of this Section 6.10 by Marigold.

Section 6.11 No Solicitation by Montage.

(a) From the date hereof until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, (i) Montage shall not, and shall cause the Montage Subsidiaries not to, and (ii) Montage shall and shall cause the Montage Subsidiaries to use its and their respective reasonable best efforts (including by notifying them of the existence and terms of this Section 6.11(a)) to cause the Representatives of Montage and of the Montage Subsidiaries not to, directly or indirectly:

(i) solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate the making, submission or announcement of any Acquisition Proposal with respect to Montage or Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Montage;

(ii) furnish any non-public information regarding Montage or any of the Montage Subsidiaries to any Person who has made or in response to an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Montage or an Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Montage;

(iii) engage in discussions or negotiations with any Person who has made any Acquisition Proposal with respect to Montage or an Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Montage (other than discussions in the ordinary course of business that are unrelated to an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, which shall be permitted);

(iv) approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal with respect to Montage or Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Montage or, subject to Section 6.11(c), withdraw or propose to withdraw its approval and recommendation in favor of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger; or

(v) enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger, acquisition, purchase or joint venture agreement or other similar agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement on the terms described below, subject to Section 6.11(b)) for any Acquisition Transaction with respect to Montage.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 6.11(a), if after the date hereof but prior to the Montage Approval Time, the Montage Board receives a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal made after the date hereof but prior to the Montage Approval Time and which has not resulted from a violation of this Section 6.11, Montage and its Representatives may contact such Person to clarify the terms and conditions thereof and if the Montage Board determines in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third party financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a Montage Superior Offer, and, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take the actions described in clauses (A) and (B) below would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Montage Board's fiduciary duties to Montage Shareholders under applicable Law, then Montage may, at any time prior to the Montage Approval Time (A) furnish information with respect to Montage and the Montage Subsidiaries to the Person or Persons (and its or their Representatives and potential financing sources) making such Acquisition Proposal, but only after such Person or Persons enter into a customary confidentiality agreement with Montage (which confidentiality agreement must be no less restrictive with respect to the confidential treatment of information by such Person than the Confidentiality Agreement) (a Montage Confidentiality Agreement) and (B) participate in discussions or negotiations with such Person or Persons (and its or their Representatives and potential financing sources) regarding any such Acquisition Proposal made by such Person or Persons; provided, that Montage shall give written notice to Marigold after any such determination by the Montage Board and before taking any of the actions described in the foregoing clauses (A) and (B). Montage shall promptly (and in any event, within twenty-four (24) hours) provide Marigold with all non-public information regarding Montage and the Montage Subsidiaries that is provided by Montage to a Person or Persons (or its or their Representatives or potential financing sources) making such Acquisition Proposal that shall not have been previously provided to Marigold or its Representatives. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.11, in no event may Montage or any of the Montage Subsidiaries or any of its Representatives directly or indirectly reimburse or pay, or agree to reimburse or pay, the fees, costs or expenses of, or provide or agree to provide compensation to, any Person or Persons (or any of its or their Representatives or potential financing sources) who makes an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry with respect to Montage.

(c) Except as expressly permitted by this Section 6.11(c), the Montage Board shall not (i) (A) fail to make or withdraw or qualify, amend or modify in any manner adverse to Marigold, or propose publicly to withdraw, or to qualify, amend or modify, in any manner adverse to Marigold, the Montage Board Recommendation or (B) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal (any action described in this clause (i) being referred to as a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change) (it being understood that the following shall not constitute a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change prohibited hereunder: (1) any stop, look and listen disclosure in compliance with Rule 14d-9(f) of the Exchange Act, and (2) any communication by Montage that expressly continues to recommend the transactions contemplated hereby), (ii) take any action to make the provisions of any fair price, moratorium, control share acquisition, business combination or other similar anti-takeover statute or regulation inapplicable to any transaction contemplated by an Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, or cause or authorize Montage or any of the Montage Subsidiaries to enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger, acquisition, purchase or joint venture agreement or Contract or other instrument in respect of or relating to an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Montage (other than a Montage Confidentiality Agreement). Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time before the Montage Approval Time, the Montage Board may effect a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change (other than in connection with an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Montage) in response to a Montage Intervening Event, if and only if: (A) if the Montage Board determines in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel, that the failure to effect a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Montage Board's fiduciary duties to the Montage Shareholders under applicable Law; (B) Montage has provided Marigold four (4) Business Days prior written notice specifying the Montage Intervening Event in reasonable detail and advising Marigold that it intends to take such action and specifying, in reasonable detail, the reasons for such action, it being understood that the delivery of such notice shall not itself constitute a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change; and (C) (1) during such four (4) Business Days notice period, to the extent requested in writing by Marigold, Montage and its Representatives shall negotiate in good faith with Marigold and Marigold's Representatives with respect to any revisions to the terms of this Agreement so that such Montage Intervening Event would no longer necessitate a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change, and (2) if after taking into consideration any revisions to the terms of this Agreement proposed in writing by Marigold by 5 p.m. Eastern Time on the last day of such notice period, the Montage Board continues to believe in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel, that the failure to make a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change in response to such Montage Intervening Event would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Montage Board's fiduciary duties to the Montage Shareholders under applicable Law. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Section 6.11(c) shall also apply to any material change to the facts and circumstances relating to such Montage Intervening Event and require a new notice, except that the references to four (4) Business Days shall be deemed to be three (3) Business Days. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6.11(c), if the Montage Board receives after the date hereof but before the Montage Approval Time a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal with respect to Montage (which did not result from a violation of this Section 6.11) that the Montage Board determines in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third party financial advisor, constitutes a Montage Superior Offer, the Montage Board may make a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change in connection with such Montage Superior Offer, but in each case described in this sentence only (1) after the fourth (4th) Business Day (such four (4) Business Day period, the Notice Period) following Montage's delivery to Marigold of written notice (a Notice of Montage Superior Offer) advising Marigold that the Montage Board is prepared to make a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change in connection with such Montage Superior Offer (it being understood that any such Notice of Montage Superior Offer regarding a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change shall not itself constitute a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change for purposes of this Agreement) and during such Notice Period, to the extent requested in writing by Marigold, Montage and its Representatives shall negotiate in good faith with Marigold and Marigold's Representatives with respect to any revisions to the terms of this Agreement proposed by Marigold so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Montage Superior Offer, and (2) if after taking into consideration any revisions to the terms of this Agreement proposed in writing by Marigold by 5 p.m. Eastern Time on the last day of such Notice Period, the Montage Board continues to believe in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third party financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal continues to constitute a Montage Superior Offer, and that, after consultation with outside counsel, the failure to make a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change in connection with such Montage Superior Offer would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Montage Board's fiduciary duties to the Montage Shareholders under applicable Law. Any (i) amendment to the financial or other material terms of such Montage Superior Offer or (ii) amendment to an Acquisition Proposal that the Montage Board had determined no longer constitutes a Montage Superior Offer, shall constitute a new Acquisition Proposal and shall require Montage to deliver to Marigold a new Notice of Montage Superior Offer and a new Montage Notice Period (which shall be three (3), instead of four (4), Business Days in length) shall commence thereafter.

(d) Nothing in this Section 6.11 shall prohibit the Montage Board from (i) taking and disclosing to Montage's shareholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a), Rule 14d-9 or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A promulgated under the Exchange Act or (ii) making any disclosure to its shareholders required pursuant to applicable Law if the Montage Board determines, in its good faith judgment, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties or applicable Law; provided that (x) a disclosure pursuant to clause (i) of this Section 6.11(d) shall be a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change unless the Montage Board reaffirms the Montage Board Recommendation in such disclosure, and (y) clause (ii) of this Section 6.11(d) shall not permit the Montage Board to make a Montage Adverse Recommendation Change or to take any other actions contemplated by this Section 6.11, except, in each case, to the extent expressly permitted by, and subject to the terms and conditions of, this Section 6.11.

(e) Montage shall promptly, within thirty-six (36) hours, advise Marigold orally and in writing of any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry (including the identity of the Person making or submitting such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry and the terms thereof and all material modifications thereto) that is made or submitted by any Person during the period beginning on the date hereof until the Effective Time or, if earlier, the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms. If Montage receives an Acquisition

Proposal or an Acquisition Inquiry, it shall (i) promptly notify Marigold (within no more than thirty-six (36) hours after any director, officer or financial advisor of Montage is notified or becomes aware of the receipt of such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry) of the communication or receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, indicating, in connection with such notice, the identity of the person making such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry and the material terms and conditions thereof, and (ii) keep Marigold reasonably informed on a current basis of any material developments in the status and terms of any such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry (including whether such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry has been withdrawn or rejected and any material change to the terms thereof).

(f) Montage shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any discussions existing as of the date of this Agreement with any Person that relate to any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry in respect of Montage proposed on or prior to the date hereof. Montage acknowledges and agrees that any actions taken by or at the direction of a Representative of Montage or any of the Montage Subsidiaries that, if taken by Montage, would constitute a breach or violation of this Section 6.11 will be deemed to constitute a breach and violation of this Section 6.11 by Montage.

(i) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of Montage and Merger Sub shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the Transaction Financing on the terms and conditions (including the flex provisions and taking into account the Marketing Period) described in the Commitment Letter at Closing (taking into account the Marketing Period), and shall not, without the prior written consent of Marigold (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), permit any amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any provision under, the Commitment Letter, in a manner that would reasonably be expected to (x) delay or prevent or make less likely the funding of the Transaction Financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter (or satisfaction of the conditions precedent to the Transaction Financing) on the Closing Date in any material respect or (y) extend or permit the extension of the marketing period under the Commitment Letter (provided that, without the consent of Marigold, Montage may amend the Commitment Letter (x) to favorably modify pricing terms or add additional lenders, arrangers, bookrunners and agents or (y) to implement or exercise any of the market flex provisions (including pricing terms) contained in the fee letter executed in connection with the Commitment Letter). Montage shall promptly deliver to Marigold copies of any such amendment, modification or replacement. For purposes of this Section 6.12, references to Transaction Financing shall include the Transaction Financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter as permitted to be amended, modified or replaced by this Section 6.12(a) and references to Commitment Letter shall include such documents as permitted to be amended, modified or replaced by this Section 6.12(a).

(ii) Each of Montage and Merger Sub shall use its reasonable best efforts (A) to maintain in effect the Commitment Letter, (B) to enter into definitive agreements with respect to the Commitment Letter consistent in all material respects with the terms and conditions (including the flex provisions and taking into account the Marketing Period) contained in the Commitment Letter (or on terms no less favorable (taken as a whole) to Montage or Merger Sub than the terms and conditions (including flex provisions) in the Commitment Letter), and (C) to satisfy (or obtain the waiver of) on a timely basis all conditions precedent to funding in the Commitment Letter and such definitive agreements thereto (taking into account the Marketing Period and other than any condition where the failure to be so satisfied is a direct result of Marigold's failure to furnish information described in Section 6.12(b)) that are within Montage's control and to consummate the Transaction Financing at the Closing. Montage shall keep Marigold reasonably informed on a current basis and in reasonable detail of the status of its efforts to arrange the Transaction Financing and provide to Marigold copies of the material definitive agreements for the Transaction Financing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Montage shall give Marigold prompt notice (x) of any material breach or default by any party to any of the Commitment Letter or definitive agreements related to the Transaction Financing of which Montage becomes aware, (y) of the receipt of (A) any written notice or (B) other written communication, in each case from any Financing Source with respect to any actual or potential material breach, default, termination or repudiation by any party to any of the Commitment Letter or definitive agreements related to the Transaction Financing of any provisions of the Commitment Letter or definitive agreements related to the Transaction Financing, and (z) if at any time for any reason Montage believes in good faith that it will not be able to obtain all or any portion of the Transaction Financing on the terms and conditions, in the manner or from the sources contemplated by any of the Commitment Letter or definitive agreements related to the Transaction Financing. As soon as reasonably practicable after any notice by Montage to Marigold of the type described in the immediately preceding sentence, but in any event within two (2) Business Days of the date Marigold delivers to Montage a written request, Montage shall use reasonable best efforts to provide any information reasonably requested by Marigold relating to any circumstance referred to in clause (x), (y) or (z) of the immediately preceding sentence; provided, that they need not provide any information believed to be privileged or that is requested for purposes of litigation. If all or any portion of the Transaction Financing becomes unavailable for any reason, and such portion is reasonably required to pay the aggregate Cash Consideration, repay the Retired Debt and pay all fees, expenses and other amounts contemplated to be paid by Montage or Merger Sub pursuant to this Agreement, Montage and Merger Sub shall use their reasonable best efforts to arrange and obtain in replacement thereof alternative debt Transaction Financing from alternative sources in an amount sufficient, when taken together with available cash of Montage and any then-available Transaction Financing pursuant to the Commitment Letter, to consummate the Merger with terms and conditions not materially less favorable (taken as a whole) to Montage and Merger Sub than the terms and conditions (taken as a whole) set forth in the Commitment Letter (it being understood for the avoidance of doubt that the foregoing shall not be construed to relieve Montage of its obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated in this Agreement if all conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 and 7.2 shall have been satisfied or waived or shall then be capable of being satisfied) (Available Transaction Financing), as promptly as reasonably practicable following the occurrence of such event. Montage shall deliver to Marigold true and complete copies of all commitment letters and fee letters (subject to redactions similar to the redactions made to the fee letter delivered on the date hereof) pursuant to which any such alternative source shall have committed to provide any portion of the Transaction Financing. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 6.12 or elsewhere in this Agreement to the contrary, in no event shall the reasonable best efforts of Montage or Merger Sub be deemed or construed to require any such Person to, and no such Person shall be required to, pay any debt financing fees in the aggregate in excess of those contemplated by the Commitment Letter, or agree to conditionality or economic terms of the debt financing that are (other than as specified in the preceding sentence) materially less favorable than those contemplated by the Commitment Letter (including any flex provision therein).

(b) With respect to the Transaction Financing, prior to Closing, Marigold shall, and shall cause the Marigold Subsidiaries to, and use reasonable best efforts to cause its and the Marigold Subsidiaries' respective Representatives to provide to Montage such cooperation in connection with the Transaction Financing as may be reasonably requested by Montage, including:

(C) Marigold shall waive any of the conditions to any Debt Tender Offer as may be reasonably requested by Montage (other than the conditions that any Debt Tender Offer is conditioned on the Effective Time occurring), so long as such waivers would not cause any Debt Tender Offer to violate the Exchange Act, the TIA, or any other applicable Law, and shall not, without the prior written consent of Montage, waive any condition to any Debt Tender Offer or make any change, amendment or modification to the terms and conditions of any Debt Tender Offer (including any extension thereof) other than as agreed between Marigold and Montage.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, following the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent, Parent shall not deliver a True-up Notice or Deficit Notice until its certified public accounting firm has performed the review set forth in the Review Letter of the amounts set forth in the proposed True-up Notice or Deficit Notice (and underlying calculations) (it being understood that to the extent such firm shall have identified any material inaccuracies in any of such amounts or calculations, Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cure such inaccuracies).

(e) In connection with the delivery of a Calculation Notice, Distribution Notice, True-up Notice or Deficit Notice to the Rights Agent, the Issuer shall post such notice on its website. In addition, the Rights Agent shall be responsible for distributing each such notice to the Holders.

(f) Each Distribution Notice or True-up Notice will establish a payment date (the CVR Payment Date), which CVR Payment Date shall be (x) in the case of a Distribution Notice, within five (5) Business Days after the delivery of the Distribution Notice and (y) in the case of the True-up Notice, within ten (10) Business Days after the delivery of the True-up Notice.

(g) No later than one (1) Business Day prior to each CVR Payment Date, the Issuer shall cause an amount of cash equal to the Payment Amount or True-Up Amount, as the case may be, to be deposited with the Rights Agent. On the applicable CVR Payment Date, the Rights Agent shall pay, and the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Rights Agent to pay, the applicable amount to each of the Holders by wire transfer or check mailed to the address of each Holder as reflected in the CVR Register as of the close of business on the last Business Day prior to such CVR Payment Date. The amount paid in respect of each Contingent Value Right shall be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the Payment Amount or the True-Up Amount, as applicable, set forth in the applicable Distribution Notice or True-up Notice by (y) the number of Contingent Value Rights outstanding as reflected on the CVR Register as of the date of delivery of the relevant Distribution Notice or True-up Notice, rounded to the nearest whole cent (the CVR Payment Amount).

(h) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere herein, (i) in the event that the notice delivered pursuant to Section 3.5(d) is a Deficit Notice, Parent shall be entitled to retain the Holdback Amount, and the Holders shall not be entitled to the distribution of any further amounts hereunder and (ii) in the event that the notice delivered pursuant to Section 3.5(d) is a True-Up Notice that contains a Retained Amount, Parent shall be entitled to retain the Retained Amount, and the Holders shall not be entitled to the distribution of such amount hereunder.

(i) The Issuer's obligation to pay amounts to the Rights Agent hereunder, and the Rights Agent's obligation to distribute the applicable amount to the Holders, shall be conditioned on no court or other Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction having enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Order that is in effect and restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits or imposes any penalty upon the payment of Distributable Company Proceeds and the payment being otherwise lawful.

(j) Any funds comprising the cash deposited with the Rights Agent under Section 3.5(g) that remain undistributed to the Holders of Contingent Value Rights one year after the applicable CVR Payment Date shall be delivered to the Issuer by the Rights Agent, upon demand, and any Holders of Contingent Value Rights who have not theretofore received payment in exchange for such Contingent Value Rights shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment of their claim therefor. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, any portion of the consideration provided by the Issuer to the Rights Agent that remains unclaimed one year after termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 7.8 (or such earlier date immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to, or become property of, any Governmental Entity) shall, to the extent permitted by law, become the property of the Issuer free and clear of any claims or interest of any person previously entitled thereto, subject to any escheatment laws.

(k) The Rights Agent shall deduct and withhold, or cause to be deducted or withheld, from each CVR Payment Amount otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement, the amounts, if any, that are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of such payment under the Code; provided that in determining the required amount to be withheld, the Rights Agent will give effect to any properly presented form (e.g., Form W-8 or W-9 as applicable) eliminating or reducing the amount required to be withheld. To the extent that amounts are so withheld or paid over to or deposited with the relevant Governmental Entity, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Holder in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

(l) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere herein (including the calculation of any Distributable Company Proceeds), the Holders shall not be entitled to any distributions hereunder unless and until Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries have received cash proceeds from the FCC or other applicable governmental entity (including such cash proceeds paid to any of the Company Sharing Companies and received by Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries from any of the Company Sharing Companies as option amendment fees or otherwise) for the Disposition of Company Spectrum in respect of which the FCC has accepted an Auction Bid in the Spectrum Auction. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere herein, in no event shall the Holders be entitled to aggregate distributions hereunder in excess of the amount of the Distribution Amount.

Section 3.6 No Voting, Dividends or Interest; No Equity or Ownership Interest in Parent.

(a) The Contingent Value Rights shall not have any voting or dividend rights, and interest shall not accrue on any amounts payable on the Contingent Value Rights to any Holder.

(b) The Contingent Value Rights shall not represent any equity, stock or other ownership interest in Parent, any constituent company to the Merger, any Affiliate of Parent or any other Person.

Section 3.7 Ability to Abandon the CVR.

The Holder of a Contingent Value Right may at any time, at such Holder's option, abandon all of such Holder's remaining rights in a Contingent Value Right by transferring such Contingent Value Right to the Issuer without consideration therefor, in which case the Issuer shall continue to own such Contingent Value Right. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to prohibit the Issuer or any of its Affiliates from offering to acquire Contingent Value Rights for consideration in its sole discretion and thereafter owning any Contingent Value Rights so acquired.

ARTICLE IV

THE RIGHTS AGENT

Section 4.1 Certain Duties and Responsibilities.

The Rights Agent shall not have any liability for any actions taken or not taken in connection with this Agreement, except to the extent of its willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence. No provision of this Agreement shall require the Rights Agent to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers.

Section 4.2 Certain Rights of Rights Agent.

The Rights Agent undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Agreement, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Agreement against the Rights Agent. In addition:

(a) the Rights Agent may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) the Rights Agent may consult with, and obtain advice from, legal counsel in the event of any question as to any of the provisions hereof or the duties hereunder, and it shall incur no liability and shall be deemed to be acting in accordance with the opinion and instructions of such counsel. The reasonable costs of such counsel's services shall be paid to the Rights Agent in accordance with Section 4.2(g) below. The Rights Agent may perform any and all of its duties through its agents, representatives, attorneys, custodians and/or nominees;

(c) if the Rights Agent becomes involved in litigation on account of this Agreement, it shall have the right to retain counsel and shall be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses related thereto as provided in this Section 4.2(c) and Section 4.2(g) hereof; provided, however, that the Rights Agent shall not be entitled to any such reimbursement, and shall repay the Issuer for any such costs and expenses for which the Rights Agent shall have received such reimbursement, to the extent such litigation ultimately determines that the Rights Agent acted with willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence. In the event that conflicting demands are made upon the Rights Agent for any situation addressed or not addressed in this Agreement, the Rights Agent may withhold performance of the terms of this Agreement until such time as said conflicting demands shall have been withdrawn or the rights of the respective parties shall have been settled by court adjudication, arbitration, joint order or otherwise;

(d) the permissive rights of the Rights Agent to do things enumerated in this Agreement shall not be construed as a duty;

(e) the Rights Agent shall not be required to give any note or surety in respect of the execution of such powers or otherwise in respect of the premises;

(f) The Issuer agrees to indemnify the Rights Agent for, and hold the Rights Agent harmless against, any loss, liability, claim, demand, suit or expense arising out of or in connection with the Rights Agent's duties under this Agreement, including the costs and expenses of defending the Rights Agent against any claims, charges, demand, suit or loss, unless such loss shall have been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be a result of the Rights Agent's willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence (in which case, the Rights Agent shall repay the Issuer for any such losses for which the Rights Agent shall have received reimbursement); provided, however, that, except in the case of the Rights Agent's willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence, the Rights Agent's aggregate liability with respect to, arising from, or arising in connection with this Agreement, or from all services provided or omitted to be provided under this Agreement, whether in contract, in tort, or otherwise, is limited to, and shall not exceed, the amounts paid hereunder by Parent to the Rights Agent as fees and charges, but not including reimbursable expenses; and

(g) In addition to the indemnification provided under Section 4.2(f), the Issuer agrees (i) to pay the fees of the Rights Agent in connection with the Rights Agent's performance of its obligations hereunder, as agreed upon in writing by the Rights Agent and the Issuer on or prior to the date of this Agreement, and (ii) to reimburse the Rights Agent promptly upon demand for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses, including all Taxes (other than income, receipt, franchise or similar Taxes) and governmental charges, incurred by the Rights Agent in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 4.3 Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) The Rights Agent may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer specifying a date when such resignation shall take effect, which notice shall be sent at least ninety (90) days prior to the date so specified.

(b) The Issuer shall have the right to remove the Rights Agent at any time by a resolution of the specifying a date when such removal shall take effect; provided that if the Issuer is not Parent, the Rights Agent may not be so removed without the prior written consent of Parent.

(c) If the Rights Agent shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a qualified successor Rights Agent; provided that if the Issuer is not Parent, the successor Rights Agent may not be so appointed without the prior written consent of Parent. The successor Rights Agent so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment in accordance with this Section 4.3(c), become the successor Rights Agent.

(d) If a successor Rights Agent has not been appointed and has not accepted such appointment by the end of the ninety (90) day period specified in Section 4.3(a), the Rights Agent may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Rights Agent, and the costs, expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees which are incurred in connection with such a proceeding shall be paid in accordance with Section 4.2(g) hereof. Any such successor to the Rights Agent shall agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and shall, upon receipt of the all relevant books and records relating thereto, become the Rights Agent hereunder. Upon delivery of all of the relevant books and records, pursuant to the terms of this Section 4.3(d) to a successor Rights Agent, the Rights Agent shall thereafter (but not before) be discharged from any further obligations hereunder. The Rights Agent is hereby authorized, in any and all events, to comply with and obey any and all final judgments, orders and decrees of any court of competent jurisdiction which may be filed, entered or issued, and all final arbitration awards and, if it shall so comply or obey, it shall not be liable to any other person by reason of such compliance or obedience.

Section 4.4 Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Rights Agent appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and to the retiring Rights Agent an instrument accepting such appointment and a counterpart of this Agreement, and thereupon such successor Rights Agent, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Rights Agent; but, on request of the Issuer or the successor Rights Agent, such retiring Rights Agent shall execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Rights Agent all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Rights Agent.

agreement of Marigold contained in the Merger Agreement or of such Shareholder contained in this Agreement; and

(iv) any action, proposal, transaction or agreement involving Marigold or any of its Subsidiaries that is intended or would reasonably be expected to prevent, impede, frustrate, interfere with, delay, postpone or adversely affect the consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

(b) With respect to any meeting of the shareholders of Marigold held during the Voting Period, each Shareholder shall, or shall cause the holder of record of its Subject Shares on any applicable record date to, appear at such meeting or otherwise cause its Subject Shares to be counted as present thereat for purposes of establishing a quorum. Any vote required to be cast or consent required to be executed pursuant to this Section 2.1 shall be cast or executed in accordance with the applicable procedures relating thereto so as to ensure that it is duly counted for purposes of recording the results of that vote or consent.

(c) Except as explicitly set forth in this Section 2.1, nothing in this Agreement shall limit the right of a Shareholder to vote (or cause to be voted), including by proxy or written consent, if applicable, in favor of, or against or to abstain with respect to, any matters presented to the shareholders of Marigold.

Section 2.2 Grant of Irrevocable Proxy. Each Shareholder hereby irrevocably appoints Montage and any of its respective designees, and each of them individually, as such Shareholder's proxy, with full power of substitution and resubstitution, to vote or execute consents during the Voting Period, with respect to such Shareholder's Subject Shares as of the applicable record date, in each case solely to the extent and in the manner specified in Section 2.1 (the Proxy Matters). This proxy is given to secure the performance of the duties of such Shareholder under this Agreement. Such Shareholder shall not directly or indirectly grant any Person any proxy (revocable or irrevocable), power of attorney or other authorization with respect to any of its Subject Shares that is inconsistent with Section 2.1 or this Section 2.2. It is expressly agreed that the proxy granted herein shall survive beyond the eleventh month after the date hereof to the extent the Voting Period is still in effect.

Section 2.3 Nature of Irrevocable Proxy. The proxy granted pursuant to Section 2.2 by each Shareholder shall be irrevocable during the Voting Period, shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable proxy and shall revoke any and all prior proxies granted by such Shareholder with regard to such Shareholder's Subject Shares in respect of the Proxy Matters, and such Shareholder acknowledges that the proxy constitutes an inducement for Montage to enter into the Merger Agreement. The proxy granted by each Shareholder is a durable proxy and shall survive the bankruptcy, dissolution, death or incapacity of such Shareholder. The proxy granted hereunder shall terminate only upon the expiration of the Voting Period.

Section 2.4 Certain Shares. The 9,404 shares of Marigold Voting Common Stock referenced on Schedule A attached hereto as subject to deferred stock units and the 73,570 shares of Marigold Voting Common Stock referenced on Schedule A attached hereto as subject to options held by John R. A Shareholder shall promptly notify Marigold and Montage orally and in writing of any such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry received by the Shareholder in its capacity as a shareholder of Marigold (including the identity of the Person making or submitting such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry and the terms thereof and all modifications thereto).

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, solely to the extent that Marigold is permitted to engage in any Restricted Activities pursuant to Section 6.10 of the Merger Agreement, each Shareholder and its Representatives may participate in such Restricted Activities, provided that (i) such Shareholder has not breached this Section 3.2 and (ii) such action by such Shareholder and its Representatives would be permitted to be taken by Marigold pursuant to Section 6.10 of the Merger Agreement.

Section 3.3 No Conversion of Marigold Voting Common Stock. ARTICLE IV

GENERAL COVENANTS

Section 4.1 General Covenants. Each Shareholder agrees that such Shareholder shall not:

(a) enter into any agreement, commitment, letter of intent, agreement in principle or understanding with any Person or take any other action that violates or conflicts with, or would reasonably be expected to violate or conflict with, such Shareholder's covenants and obligations under this Agreement; or

Section 4.2 Cooperation. Each Shareholder shall reasonably cooperate with Montage and Marigold in connection with Montage's and Marigold's efforts to make any necessary filings and submissions with, and obtain any necessary consents, approvals, waivers and authorizations of, and actions or nonactions by, any Governmental Entity or any third party necessary to be made in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and shall provide to Montage and/or Marigold reasonably promptly any information regarding such Shareholder and its Affiliates as shall be reasonably requested by Montage or Marigold in connection with such efforts. ARTICLE V

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE SHAREHOLDERS

Section 5.1 Authorization. Such Shareholder has all necessary legal capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by such Shareholder and, assuming it has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by the other parties hereto, constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Shareholder, enforceable against such Shareholder in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that enforceability may be limited by (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or other similar laws now or hereafter in effect relating to creditors' rights generally, and (ii) general principles of equity.

Section 5.2 Ownership of Subject Shares. As of the date hereof, such Shareholder does not own, beneficially or of record, any shares of Marigold Voting Common Stock or any other securities of Marigold other than such Shareholder's Owned Shares listed opposite such Shareholder's name or otherwise disclosed on Schedule A attached hereto. As of the date hereof, except as set forth on Schedule A attached hereto, such Shareholder is the sole record and/or a beneficial owner of all of such Shareholder's Owned Shares, free and clear of all Liens, including any restriction on the right to vote or otherwise transfer such Owned Shares, except as provided under this Agreement or under the Existing Support Agreement (defined hereafter), including, without limitation, pledges contemplated by the terms of this Agreement, or pursuant to any applicable restrictions on transfer under the Securities Act and, as to the shares of Marigold Voting Common Stock that are subject to forfeiture or to awards under Marigold's benefit plans, except as provided in the applicable benefit plans and award agreements.

Section 5.3 Power to Vote Shares. Such Shareholder has the voting power, the power to issue instructions with respect to the matters set forth in this Agreement, and the power to agree to all of the matters set forth in this Agreement, in each case with respect to all of such Shareholder's Subject Shares, with no limitations, qualifications, or restrictions on such rights, subject only to applicable securities laws and the terms of this Agreement and, as to the shares of Marigold Voting Common Stock that are subject to forfeiture or to awards under Marigold's benefit plans, except as provided in the applicable benefit plans and award agreements. Any proxies granted by such Shareholder in respect of any or all of its Owned Shares prior to and including the date hereof (except as set forth herein) in respect of the Proxy Matters have been revoked.

Section 5.4 No Conflicts. Except as set forth in the Merger Agreement (including, without limitation, filings as may be required under applicable securities laws) and except for any filing required under Section 13 or Section 16 under the Exchange Act, and except for all necessary filings and submissions required to be made by a Shareholder with any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (x) no filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any Governmental Entity or any other Person (other than such approvals of such Shareholder's Affiliates as have been obtained on or prior to the date hereof) is necessary for the execution of this Agreement by such Shareholder and the performance by such Shareholder of its obligations hereunder, and (y) none of the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Shareholder, or the consummation by such Shareholder of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or compliance by such Shareholder with any of the provisions of this Agreement shall (i) conflict with or result in any breach of the organizational documents, if applicable, of such Shareholder, (ii) result in, give rise to or constitute a violation or breach of or a default (or any event which with notice or lapse of time or both would become a violation, breach or default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of a Lien on any of such Shareholder's Subject Shares pursuant to, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, lease, license, permit, agreement, commitment, arrangement, understanding, or other obligation of any kind to which such Shareholder is a party or by which such Shareholder or any of its Subject Shares are bound, or (iii) violate any applicable law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, or decree applicable to such Shareholder, except for in each case under clauses (i) and (ii) as would not impair such Shareholder's ability to perform in any material respect its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 5.5 Transaction Fee. Except as otherwise disclosed by such Shareholder to Montage in writing prior to the date of this Agreement, such Shareholder and its Affiliates have not employed any investment banker, broker or finder in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement who might be entitled to any fee or any commission in connection with or upon consummation of the Merger or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 5.6 Acknowledgement. Such Shareholder understands and acknowledges that Montage is entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon such Shareholder's execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF MONTAGE

Montage hereby represents and warrants to the Shareholders as follows:

Section 6.1 Authorization. Montage has all necessary legal capacity, corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by Montage and, assuming it has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the other parties hereto, constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Montage, enforceable against Montage in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, except to the extent that enforceability may be limited by (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or other similar laws now or hereafter in effect relating to creditors' rights generally, and (ii) general principles of equity.

Section 6.2 No Conflicts. Except as set forth in the Merger Agreement (including, without limitation, filings as may be required under applicable securities laws), (x) no filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any Governmental Entity or any other Person is necessary for the execution of this Agreement by Montage and the performance by Montage of its obligations hereunder, and (y) none of the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Montage, or the consummation by Montage of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or compliance by Montage with any of the provisions of this Agreement shall (i) conflict with or result in any breach of the organizational documents of Montage, (ii) conflict with, result in any violation of, require any consent under or constitute a default (whether with notice or lapse of time or both) under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, contract, lease, license, permit, agreement, commitment, arrangement, understanding, mortgage, bond, indenture, or other obligation of any kind to which Montage is a party or by which Montage or any of its properties is bound; or (iii) violate any judgment, order, injunction, decree or award of any court, administrative agency or other Governmental Entity that is binding on Montage or any of its properties, except for in each case under clauses (i) through (iii) as would not impair the ability of such party to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.1 This Agreement and all obligations of the parties hereunder shall automatically terminate upon the expiration of the Voting Period. Upon the termination of this Agreement, none of the parties hereto shall have any rights or obligations hereunder and this Agreement shall become null and void and have no effect; provided, however, that Section 4.2 (last sentence only and solely with respect to any filing fees or other costs covered by Section 4.2 that have been incurred as of the date of termination of this Agreement), Section 8.2 and Sections 8.6 through 8.13 shall survive termination of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, termination of this Agreement shall not relieve any party from any liability, or prevent any party from seeking any remedies (at law or in equity) against any other party, for that party's breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or obligations under this Agreement prior to such termination.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.1 No Agreement as Director or Officer. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Shareholders have entered into this Agreement in their capacity as shareholders of Marigold, and nothing in this Agreement shall limit, restrict or otherwise affect John R. Muse in his capacity as a director of Marigold from acting in such capacity or voting in his sole discretion on any matter, including in exercising rights under the Merger Agreement.

Section 8.2 Publication. Each Shareholder hereby consents to and authorizes Marigold and/or Montage to publish and disclose in any and all applicable filings with the SEC, the FCC or any other Governmental Entity, and any other announcements, disclosures or filings required by applicable Law such Shareholder's identity and ownership of shares of Marigold Voting Common Stock and the nature of such Shareholder's commitments, arrangements and understandings pursuant to this Agreement and/or the Merger Agreement; provided that Marigold and Montage shall give each Shareholder and its legal counsel a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such publications or disclosures prior to being made public (with Marigold and Montage agreeing in good faith to consider any such comments received).

Section 8.3 Amendments, Waivers, etc. This Agreement may be amended by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of Marigold and each of the Shareholders that would be bound by such amendment. Any agreement on the part of any party hereto to any waiver of compliance with any representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party. The waiver by any party of a breach of any provision hereunder shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent breach of the same or any other provision hereunder.

Section 8.4 Enforcement of Agreement: Specific Performance. The Shareholders acknowledge and agree that Montage would be irreparably damaged if any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms or are otherwise breached and that any non-performance, breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by any Shareholder could not be adequately compensated by monetary damages alone and that Montage would not have any adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, Montage shall be entitled (in addition to any other remedy that may be available to it whether in law or equity, including monetary damages) to seek and obtain (a) enforcement of any provision of this Agreement by a decree or order of specific performance and (b) a temporary, preliminary and/or permanent injunction to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of any provisions of this Agreement without posting any bond or undertaking. The Shareholders further agree that they shall not object to the granting of injunctive or other equitable relief on the basis that there exists adequate remedy at law. Each Shareholder hereby expressly further waives (i) any defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate or that an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity and (ii) any requirement under any Law to post security as a prerequisite to obtaining equity relief. Each Shareholder agrees that Montage's initial choice of remedy will be to seek specific performance of this Agreement in accordance with its terms. If a court of competent jurisdiction denies such relief, Montage may seek alternative remedies, including damages in the same or another proceeding.

Section 8.5 Notices. All notices and other communications in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given (i) on the date of delivery if delivered personally or if sent via facsimile (with Section 8.6 Headings; Titles. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Articles, Sections or Schedules, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of or Schedule to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words include, includes or including are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words without limitation. This Agreement shall not be interpreted or construed to require any person to take any action, or fail to take any action, if to do so would violate any applicable Law.

Section 8.7 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of this invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. Upon determination that any term or other provision is invalid or incapable of being enforced, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement as to affect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the extent possible.

Section 8.8 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (together with the Merger Agreement, to the extent referred to in this Agreement, and any documents delivered by the parties in connection herewith), constitutes the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties, with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. Section 4.1 and Section 4.2 of that certain Voting and Support Agreement (the Existing Support Agreement) dated March 20, 2014, by and among LIN Media LLC, Marigold, and the Shareholders are hereby terminated in their entirety. Marigold consents to the Shareholders entering into and performing this Agreement and agrees that this Agreement shall not constitute a breach of Section 4.3 of the Existing Support Agreement. The Existing Support Agreement shall terminate in its entirety at the Effective Time.

Section 8.9 Assignment; Binding Effect; No Third Party Beneficiaries; Further Action. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties; provided that Montage may assign its rights, interests or obligations hereunder to one or more of its Subsidiaries. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of Montage and its respective successors and assigns and shall be binding upon the Shareholders and the Shareholders' successors, assigns, heirs, executors and administrators. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to confer on any Person (other than, in the case of Montage or its respective successors and assigns and, in the case of the Shareholders, the Shareholders' successors, assigns, heirs, executors and administrators) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement. Each of the Shareholders, Montage and Marigold shall take any further action and execute any other instruments as may be reasonably requested by the other parties to this Agreement to effectuate the intent of this Agreement.

Section 8.10 Mutual Drafting. Each party has participated in the drafting of this Agreement, which each party acknowledges is the result of extensive negotiations between the parties. This Agreement shall not be deemed to have been prepared or drafted by any one party or another or any party's attorneys.

Section 8.11 Governing Law and Consent to Jurisdiction. This Agreement and all claims or causes of action (whether in contract, tort or otherwise) that may be based upon, arise out of or relate to this Agreement or the negotiation, execution or performance of this Agreement (including any claim or cause of action based upon, arising out of or related to any representation or warranty made in or in connection with this Agreement or as an inducement to enter into this Agreement) shall be governed and construed in accordance with the internal Laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to any applicable conflicts of law principles that would result in the application of the Laws of any other jurisdiction. The parties hereto agree that any suit, action or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be brought exclusively in the Chancery Court of the State of Delaware and any state appellate court therefrom or, if such court lacks subject matter jurisdiction, the United States District Court sitting in New Castle County in the State of Delaware, and each of the parties hereby irrevocably consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such suit, action or proceeding and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in any such court or that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Process in any such suit, action or proceeding may be served on any party anywhere in the world, whether within or without the jurisdiction of any such court. Without limiting the foregoing, each party agrees that service of process on such party as provided in Section 8.5 shall be deemed effective service of process on such party. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING (WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 8.12 Counterparts; Facsimiles. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that each party need not sign the same counterpart.

Section 8.13 Liability. The rights and obligations of each of the Shareholders under this Agreement shall be several and not joint. All references to actions to be taken by the Shareholders, or representations and warranties to be made, under this Agreement refer to actions to be taken or representations and warranties to be made by Shareholders acting severally and not jointly. Except for any liability for claims, losses, damages, liabilities or other obligations arising out of a Shareholder's failure to perform its obligations hereunder, Montage agrees that no Shareholder (in its capacity as a Shareholder of Marigold) will be liable for claims, losses, damages, liabilities or other obligations resulting from or relating to the Merger Agreement, including any breach by Marigold of the Merger Agreement, and that Marigold shall not be liable for claims, losses, damages, liabilities or other obligations resulting from or related to any Shareholder's failure to perform its obligations hereunder.

Section 8.14 No Ownership Interest. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to vest in any other person any direct or indirect ownership or incident of ownership of or with respect to any Subject Shares. All rights, ownership and economic benefits of and relating to the Subject Shares shall remain vested in and belong to the holder thereof, and no other person shall have any authority to exercise any power or authority to direct any Shareholder in the voting of any of the Subject Shares except as provided in this Agreement.

Section 8.15 No Effect on Marigold Voting Common Stock. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or in Marigold's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, Marigold agrees that neither the execution and delivery by the Shareholders of this Agreement nor the performance by the Shareholders of any of the obligations hereunder will have any adverse effect on the Shareholders' ownership of Marigold Voting Common Stock. Without limiting the foregoing, in no event shall the execution and delivery by the Shareholders of this Agreement or the performance by the Shareholders of any of their obligations hereunder be deemed to constitute a Transfer of any Subject Shares or result in the conversion of any Subject Shares held by the Shareholders into shares of Marigold Non-Voting Common Stock.

Members of the Board of Directors:

We understand that Nexstar Broadcasting Group, Inc. (Media General), pursuant to which, among other things, Merger Sub will merge with and into Media General (the Transaction) and each outstanding share of the common stock, no par value, of Media General (Media General Common Stock) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $10.55 in cash, without interest (the Cash Consideration), (ii) 0.1249 of a share of the Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Nexstar (Nexstar Common Stock) (such number of shares, the Stock Consideration), and (iii) unless a Pre-Closing CVR Distribution (as defined in the Agreement) has occurred, one contractual contingent value right (the CVR Consideration and, together with the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration, the Consideration), to be issued by Nexstar pursuant to the CVR Agreement (as defined in the Agreement). The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Agreement and the CVR Agreement.
