Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 6, 2016, Thunderball Bidco Limited (the Purchaser), a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Amplify Snack Brands, Inc. (the Company) and SkinnyPop Popcorn LLC, a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the Purchaser Guarantor) entered into a Share Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with Crisps Holdings Limited, a company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the Institutional Seller) and individual selling equityholders (the Management Sellers) pursuant to which Purchaser will purchase all of the outstanding equity interests of Crisps Topco Limited (Crisps), a company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales, which owns the Tyrrells international portfolio of premium snack brands (the Transaction).

In connection with the entry into the Purchase Agreement, the Purchaser also entered into a Warranty Deed with individual warrantors (the Warrantors) relating to the Transaction (the Warranty Deed), pursuant to which the Warrantors have agreed to provide certain representations and warranties to the Purchaser. The Warranty Deed contemplates that the Company will obtain representation and warranty insurance at the closing of the Transaction in order to mitigate a portion of its exposure with respect to representations and warranties made by the Warrantors.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, and subject to the terms and conditions contained therein, at the closing of the Transaction, Purchaser will acquire all of the outstanding equity interests of Crisps at an enterprise value of £300 million, comprising of approximately £278 million of cash and approximately 2.1 million shares of the Company's common stock. The cash consideration payable is subject to certain potential adjustments between signing and closing as described in the Purchase Agreement. The share consideration payable is fixed based upon the closing price of the Company's common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on August 5, 2016 and a pound sterling (£) to U.S. Dollar ($) exchange rate of 1.3042. There is no fixed exchange rate for the cash consideration payable. The Company has entered into foreign currency hedging arrangements for the majority of the cash consideration component.

The closing of the Transaction is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions, including the expiration or termination of any waiting periods applicable to the Transaction, including applicable antitrust and competition laws. The closing of the Transaction is not subject to a financing condition.

The parties to the Purchase Agreement and the Warranty Deed have made customary representations, warranties and covenants including a covenant by the Management Sellers to operate Crisps and its subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices until the closing of the Transaction.

The Purchase Agreement provides that the Purchaser Guarantor guarantees the obligations of the Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement, including the payment when due of all amounts payable by the Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement.

The Purchase Agreement provides that if appropriate approval under applicable antitrust and competition laws is not obtained by November 7, 2016, or if the parties agree that such approval is incapable of satisfaction on or before such date, the Purchase Agreement shall automatically terminate. In addition, either party has the right to terminate the Purchase Agreement upon notice to the other party if the other party fails to comply with its respective closing condition obligations under the Purchase Agreement.

The Purchase Agreement contemplates that at the closing of the Transaction, the Institutional Seller and each of the Management Sellers will enter into a contractual lock-up agreement with the Company, pursuant to which the Institutional Seller and each of the Management Sellers will agree not to make any sale or other transfer of any shares of the Company's common stock for a period of six months following closing of the Transaction, subject to certain customary exceptions. The Purchase Agreement also contemplates that at the closing of the Transaction, the Company and the requisite existing parties thereto will amend the Company's existing Registration Rights Agreement dated as of August 10, 2015, in order to add the Institutional Seller and certain of the Management Sellers as parties thereto.

Edgar Filing: Amplify Snack Brands, INC - Form 8-K

In connection with the execution of the Purchase Agreement, on August 6, 2016, the Company entered into a commitment letter with Jefferies Finance LLC, Credit Suisse AG, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC and Goldman Sachs Bank USA (together with their designated affiliates, the Commitment Parties), pursuant to which the Commitment Parties have committed to provide a term loan facility (the Term Loan Facility) in an aggregate amount of $600 million and a revolving loan facility in an aggregate amount of $50 million (the Revolving Loan Facility and, together with the Term Loan Facility, the Debt Facilities). The commitments of the Commitment Parties to provide the Debt Facilities are subject to customary conditions, including the consummation of the Transaction, the execution and delivery of definitive documentation, the accuracy of certain specified representations and other customary closing conditions.

Subject to and in connection with the Transaction, and subject to the approval of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Company intends to grant to certain of the employees of Crisps and its subsidiaries, restricted stock unit awards covering approximately 1.2 million shares of the Company's common stock upon the closing of the Transaction, with such restricted stock unit awards being subject to vesting based on service conditions. The restricted stock unit awards will be issued under and in accordance with the Company's 2015 Stock Option and Incentive Plan.

Subject to and in connection with the Transaction, the Company intends to appoint David Milner, the current Chief Executive Officer of Crisps, as the Company's International President, Executive Vice President, effective as of the closing of the Transaction. It is currently anticipated that the Company will enter into an employment agreement with Mr. Milner at the closing of the Transaction reflecting his employment relationship. The Company currently anticipates that Mr. Milner will become an executive officer of the Company, and to the extent required, the Company will report the information required by Item 5.02(c) of Form 8-K upon the closing of the Transaction and upon Mr. Milner's appointment as an executive officer of the Company.

The descriptions of the Purchase Agreement and the Warranty Deed contained in this Item 1.01 are qualified in their entirety by the Purchase Agreement and the Warranty Deed filed as Exhibits 2.1 and 2.2 hereto. The foregoing summaries and this Current Report on Form 8-K are not intended to modify or supplement any factual disclosures about the Company in its public reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement and the Warranty Deed were made solely for purposes of the Purchase Agreement and the Warranty Deed, and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties to the Purchase Agreement and the Warranty Deed in connection with negotiating their terms. In particular, in reviewing the representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement and the Warranty Deed, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement and the Warranty Deed and have been negotiated with the principal purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than to establish matters as facts. The Purchase Agreement, the Warranty Deed, and the respective representations and warranties contained therein, and the foregoing descriptions of the Purchase Agreement and the Warranty Deed should not be relied upon as a disclosure of factual information relating to the Company or Crisps. The representations and warranties may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to investors and reports and documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and in some cases may be qualified by disclosures made by one party to the other which are not necessarily reflected in the Purchase Agreement or the Warranty Deed, among other limitations.
