VOTING INSTRUCTIONS

A proxy is a legal designation of another person to vote stock you own. That other person is called a proxy. If you designate someone as your proxy in a written or electronic document, that document is also called a proxy, a proxy card or a form of proxy. A proxy card for you to use in voting at the Special Meeting accompanies this Proxy Statement. You may also vote by telephone or through the Internet as follows:

by telephone: call toll free 1-800-652-VOTE (8683) and follow the instructions provided by the recorded message; or through the Internet: visit www.envisionreports.com/CMLS and follow the steps outlined on the secure website.

If you vote through the Internet, you may incur costs such as data and Internet access charges for which you will be responsible. The telephone and Internet voting facilities for stockholders of record will close on January 26, 2017 at 1:00 a.m., Central Time. The telephone and Internet voting procedures are designed to authenticate stockholders by use of a control number and to allow you to confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded.

All properly executed proxies that are received prior to, or at, the Special Meeting and not revoked (and all shares properly voted by telephone or through the Internet) will be voted in the manner specified. If you execute and return a proxy card, and do not specify otherwise, the shares represented by your proxy will be voted FOR each of Proposal 1, Proposal 2 and Proposal 3.

If your shares are held in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee, you should follow the instructions for voting on the form provided by your bank, broker or other nominee. You may submit voting instructions by telephone or through the Internet or, if you received your proxy materials by mail, you may complete and mail a proxy card to your bank, broker or other nominee. If you provide specific voting instructions by telephone, through the Internet or by mail, your bank, broker or other nominee will vote your shares as you have directed.

If you receive more than one proxy card or voting instruction form, it means your shares are registered differently or are held in more than one account at the transfer agent and/or with banks, brokers or other nominees.

We strongly encourage you to submit your proxy and exercise your right to vote as a stockholder. Please vote all of your shares.

CHANGING A PRIOR VOTE OR REVOKING A PROXY

If you have given a proxy or voted by telephone or through the Internet pursuant to this proxy solicitation, you may nonetheless revoke your proxy or vote by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person. In addition, you may revoke any proxy you give before the Special Meeting by voting by telephone or through the Internet at a later date (in which case only the last vote will be counted) prior to 1:00 a.m., Central Time on January 26, 2017, by delivering a written statement revoking the proxy or vote or by delivering a duly executed proxy bearing a later date to Richard S. Denning, Corporate Secretary, at our principal executive offices, 3280 Peachtree Road, N.W., Suite 2300, Atlanta, Georgia 30305, so that it is received prior to the Special Meeting, or by voting at the Special Meeting itself prior to the closing of the polls. If you have executed and delivered a proxy to us or voted by telephone or through the Internet, your attendance at the Special Meeting will not, by itself, constitute a revocation of your proxy or prior vote.

If your shares are held in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee, you should follow the instructions for changing or revoking your vote on the proxy card provided by your bank, broker or other nominee.

Table of Contents

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Votes Required

Each outstanding share of Class A common stock is entitled to one vote on each of Proposal 1, Proposal 2 and Proposal 3. Each outstanding share of Class C common stock is entitled to ten votes on each of Proposal 1, Proposal 2 and Proposal 3.

Approval of Proposal 1 will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes present at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote.

Approval of Proposal 2 will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting.

Approval of Proposal 3 will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes present at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote.

Discretionary Voting of Shares Held in Street Name

If your shares of Class A common stock or Class C common stock are held in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee, you will receive instructions from the registered holder describing how to direct the registered holder to vote your shares.

We believe that your bank, broker or other nominee may be able to vote your street name shares on Proposal 3 the adjournment of the Special Meeting, in their discretion if you do not give them voting instructions, although they will not be required to do so. Your bank, broker or other nominee does not have discretionary authority to vote on Proposal 1 the Equity Issuance or Proposal 2 the approval and adoption of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation. See Quorum Required; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes and Their Effects below.

Quorum Required; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes and Their Effects

Quorum Required. The presence in person or by proxy of holders of a majority of the voting power represented by the outstanding shares of Class A common stock and Class C common stock, voting together as a single class, is required to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Special Meeting.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as present for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker non-vote occurs when a registered holder (such as a bank, broker or other nominee) holding shares in street name for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the registered holder does not have discretionary voting power for that particular proposal and has not received voting instructions from the beneficial holder. As noted above, we believe that a bank, broker or other nominee may be entitled to vote your shares without your instructions on Proposal 3, although such registered holder will not be required to vote such shares, and will not have discretionary authority to vote your shares without your instructions, on Proposal 1 or Proposal 2.

For Proposal 1 and Proposal 3, broker non-votes, if any, will not be counted in determining the number of votes cast and will have no effect on the approval of the proposal, but abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against Proposal 1 and Proposal 3.

For Proposal 2, abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will have the same effect as a vote against Proposal 2.

PROPOSAL 1: APPROVAL OF THE EQUITY ISSUANCE IN CONNECTION WITH THE EXCHANGE OFFER FOR THE OUTSTANDING NOTES

The Company is seeking stockholder approval under the applicable provisions of NASDAQ Rule 5635 for the issuance of additional shares of Class A common stock (or warrants to purchase such shares of Class A common stock if deemed necessary to comply with the requirements of the FCC Rules) in connection with the Exchange Offer. As described below under Description of the Exchange Offer, assuming all $610.0 million in Outstanding Notes are validly tendered and accepted in the Exchange Offer, we will issue up to approximately 33.3% of our outstanding Class A common stock (or warrants to purchase such shares of Class A common stock if deemed necessary to comply with the requirements of the FCC Rules) immediately following, and after giving effect to, the Exchange Offer, which based on the shares outstanding on the Record Date, would equal up to 14,647,930 shares of Class A common stock.

Reason for Request for Stockholder Approval

Our Class A common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Capital Market, and we are subject to the NASDAQ Stock Market Rules. We are seeking approval for the issuance of additional shares of Class A common stock in the Exchange Offer under all the applicable provisions of NASDAQ Rule 5635, which applies to the issuance of securities in certain circumstances.

NASDAQ Rule 5635(d) requires stockholder approval of an issuance of common stock equal to 20% or more of the common stock outstanding before the issuance if the issuance is for less than the greater of book or market value of the stock. Because the consideration provided to holders of Outstanding Notes in the Exchange Offer consists of revolving loans or participation interests (each as defined herein) and, in each case, shares of Class A common stock, and we have not undertaken a separate analysis of the respective values of the Outstanding Notes, the revolving loans, the participation interests and the shares of Class A common stock that will be issued in the Exchange Offer, we are seeking stockholder approval to ensure that the Company will be in compliance with NASDAQ Rule 5635(d).

In addition, under NASDAQ Rule 5635(b), companies are required to obtain stockholder approval prior to the issuance of securities when the issuance or potential issuance would result in a change of control as defined by NASDAQ. NASDAQ generally characterizes a transaction whereby an investor or group of investors acquires, or obtains the right to acquire, 20% or more of the voting power of an issuer on a post-transaction basis as a change of control for purposes of Rule 5635(b). Although no individual holder, nor any group (as defined in Section 13 of the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act)) of holders, of Outstanding Notes is expected to own in excess of 20% of the voting power of the Company's common stock following the Exchange Offer, we are seeking stockholder approval to ensure that the Company will be in compliance with NASDAQ Rule 5635(b).

Description of the Exchange Offer

On December 12, 2016, we commenced the Exchange Offer for the Outstanding Notes. The terms and conditions of the Exchange Offer are set forth in the Offering Memorandum, dated as of December 12, 2016 (as amended and supplemented from time to time, the Offering Memorandum), and the related offer materials (as amended and supplemented from time to time), which are summarized in a press release dated December 12, 2016 that we filed as an exhibit to a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on December 13, 2016.

As of December 12, 2016, there was $610.0 million in aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Notes. Assuming all $610.0 million in Outstanding Notes are validly tendered and accepted in the Exchange Offer, we will issue, pursuant to the Exchange Offer, up to approximately 33.3% of our outstanding Class A common stock (or warrants to purchase such shares of Class A common stock if deemed necessary to comply with the requirements of the FCC Rules) immediately following, and after giving effect to, the Exchange Offer, which, based on the shares outstanding on the Record Date, would equal up to 14,647,930 shares of Class A common stock.

The Exchange Offer is being made, and the revolving loans, participation interests and shares of Class A common stock are being offered and issued, only to holders of Outstanding Notes that (a) are both (i) qualified institutional buyers as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act, which are also institutional accredited investors as defined in the Securities Act and (ii) qualified purchasers as defined in Section 2(a)(51) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (b) are not benefit plan investors as defined in Section 3(42) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (collectively, eligible holders), in a private placement in reliance upon an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The Exchange Offer is not being made to stockholders in their capacity as stockholders.

The offering, which includes revolving loans, participation interests, trust certificates and shares of Class A common stock (or warrants, if applicable), Class D common stock and Class E common stock, will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities law. The trust certificates and the shares of Class A common stock (or warrants, if applicable), Class D common stock and Class E common stock will be subject to restrictions on transfer and may not be offered or sold except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The information contained in this Proxy Statement shall not constitute an offer to sell or exchange, or a solicitation of an offer to sell or exchange, any securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation, sale or exchange would be unlawful. The Exchange Offer will be made solely pursuant to the Offering Memorandum and the related offer materials, which will set forth the complete terms and conditions of the Exchange Offer.

Purpose of the Exchange Offer

We are making the Exchange Offer in order to refinance the Outstanding Notes and thereby reduce, and extend the maturity of, our outstanding indebtedness, which we believe will promote our long-term financial viability. We will not retain any cash proceeds from borrowings incurred in connection with the Exchange Offer. The Outstanding Notes tendered and refinanced in connection with the Exchange Offer will be retired and cancelled and will not be reissued. The Exchange Offer is conditioned on, among other things, the Company obtaining stockholder approval for the issuance of the Class A common stock to be issued in the Exchange Offer, which is the subject of this Proposal 1.

Support Agreement

On December 6, 2016, holders of approximately $349.7 million aggregate principal amount, or 57.3%, of the Outstanding Notes (the Supporting Holders) entered into a refinancing support agreement (the Support Agreement) with the Company, Holdings and certain subsidiaries of Holdings, pursuant to which the Supporting Holders agreed to tender their Outstanding Notes in the Exchange Offer. The Support Agreement is the result of arms length negotiations with the Supporting Holders. To our knowledge, none of the Supporting Holders is affiliated with any director or officer of the Company or with each other. The obligation of the Supporting Holders to tender their Outstanding Notes in the Exchange Offer is subject to the conditions set forth in the Support Agreement.

The Support Agreement also contemplates that upon consummation of the Exchange Offer, the Company will issue two new classes of common stock of the Company, Class D common stock and Class E common stock, to certain Supporting Holders. Except as provided by law, shares of Class D common stock and Class E common stock issued to such Supporting Holders will not have any voting rights, however holders of Class D common stock will be entitled to vote separately, without the holders of any other class of stock, with respect to the election of an additional director, and similarly holders of Class E common stock will be entitled to vote separately, without the holders of any other class of stock, with respect to the election of an additional director. For further information regarding our Class D common stock and our Class E common stock, see Proposal 2: Approval and Adoption of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation Purpose of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation.

Summary of Exchange Consideration

In accordance with the Support Agreement, the consideration to be offered to holders in the Exchange Offer for each $1,000 of Outstanding Notes properly tendered and not withdrawn on or prior to the Exchange Offer is early tender date (the Early Tender Date) will consist of (i) at the holder's option, (a) $500 of revolving loans due 2020 (the revolving loans) or (b) $500 of participation interests in the revolving loans (the participation interests) and (ii) 24.013 shares of Class A common stock (and/or warrants). For each $1,000 of Outstanding Notes tendered after the Early Tender Date and on or before the Exchange Offer's expiration date (the Expiration Date), holders will receive $450 of participation interests and 24.013 shares of Class A common stock (and/or warrants).

In respect of the accrued and unpaid interest due on the Outstanding Notes, each eligible holder that properly tenders its Outstanding Notes on or prior to the Early Tender Date, and does not properly withdraw its tender on or prior to the Exchange Offer's withdrawal deadline, will receive 100% of the accrued and unpaid interest due on such Outstanding Notes in cash on the settlement date of the Exchange Offer (the Settlement Date). Eligible holders that properly tender their Outstanding Notes after the Early Tender Date and on or before the Expiration Date that are accepted by us for exchange, will receive 50% of the accrued and unpaid interest due on such Outstanding Notes in cash on the Settlement Date.

The Revolver Amendments and the Revolving Loans

The revolving loans will be issued under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of December 23, 2013, among Holdings, as borrower, the Company, as parent, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent (the Administrative Agent), and the other parties from time to time party thereto (the existing credit agreement). In connection with the Exchange Offer, Holdings will borrow up to $305.0 million in aggregate principal amount of revolving loans to be issued under our existing credit agreement. The revolving loans will be general obligations of Holdings, secured by first priority liens, ratably with the first priority liens securing other obligations under the existing credit agreement, on substantially all of the assets of Holdings (other than certain excluded assets) and will be guaranteed on a senior secured basis by the Company and the subsidiaries of Holdings that guarantee the other debt under the existing credit agreement.

In connection with the Exchange Offer, Holdings will enter into two amendments to the existing credit agreement to (i) provide for the incurrence of the revolving loans pursuant to an Incremental Revolving Facility (as defined in the existing credit agreement) in an aggregate amount sufficient to consummate the Exchange Offer and (ii) include certain modifications to the terms of our existing revolver, including to (a) extend the Revolving Credit Termination Date (as defined in our existing credit agreement) to November 23, 2020, (b) modify the financial covenant in section 8.1 of the existing credit agreement to permit the borrowing of the revolving loans in connection with the Exchange Offer and require compliance with the Consolidated First Lien Net Leverage Ratio (as defined in our existing credit agreement) at the levels currently set forth in our existing credit agreement for any future borrowings under the existing revolver, (c) upon completion of the Exchange Offer, eliminate the financial maintenance covenant under our existing revolver, (d) increase the Applicable Margin (as defined in our existing credit agreement) with respect to the revolving loans to 13.25%, subject to a 1.0% floor, for Eurodollar Rate loans (as defined in our existing credit agreement), and 12.25%, subject to a 2.0% floor, for ABR loans (as defined in our existing credit agreement) and (e) increase the undrawn commitment fee to 5.0%.

Also in connection with the Exchange Offer, the new revolving lender (as defined herein) and those eligible holders receiving revolving loans in the Exchange Offer will seek assignment of the revolving commitments currently held by the lenders under our existing revolver, which will become effective upon the consent of the Administrative Agent, which may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. To the extent any revolving commitments remain unassigned to either the new revolving lender or to the exchanging revolving lenders at the Settlement Date, the aggregate principal amount of such unassigned revolving commitments will be, when borrowed to refinance the Outstanding Notes, distributed on the Settlement Date in cash on a pro rata basis to eligible holders participating in the Exchange Offer in lieu of a like amount of revolving loans or participation interests, as applicable, such eligible holder would otherwise be entitled to receive in the Exchange Offer.

Table of Contents

The Trust Certificates and the Trust

At the Settlement Date, the participation interests will automatically be deposited into an entity that the Company will establish to effect the refinancing, Cumulus Pass Through Trust, a Delaware statutory trust (the "Trust"), in exchange for an equal aggregate principal amount of new trust certificates due 2020 (the "trust certificates"), representing fractional undivided interests in the property of the Trust (the "Trust Property"). The Trust Property will consist of:

participation interests in the revolving loans, with an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of outstanding trust certificates;

funds resulting from payments made in respect of interest and fees on the revolving loans and repayments of revolving loans with a corresponding reduction in commitments, in each case which are deposited into the Trust from time to time for distribution to holders of trust certificates ("Certificateholders");

funds resulting from repayments of principal on the revolving loans without a corresponding reduction in commitments that are deposited on behalf of the Trust with an institution, as a lender under the existing credit agreement (the "new revolving lender"), from time to time and held by the new revolving lender to fund any future revolving borrowings or for distribution to the Trust for distribution to Certificateholders once the commitments relating to such repayment amounts have been terminated; and certain other assets and contractual rights and remedies as described in more detail in the Offering Memorandum.

Impact on Stockholders of Approval or Disapproval of this Proposal

If this proposal is not approved, the stockholder approval condition to the consummation of the Exchange Offer will not be satisfied and we may be unable to consummate the Exchange Offer. If we do not consummate the Exchange Offer, we will be unable to exchange and cancel the Outstanding Notes tendered in the Exchange Offer. Consequently, we will be unable to reduce and extend the maturity of our outstanding indebtedness, or reduce our annual interest expense as contemplated by the Exchange Offer.

If we are not able to consummate the Exchange Offer, we will consider all viable refinancing alternatives available to us at such time. However, a viable refinancing alternative arrangement may not be available or, if available, may not be on terms as favorable to our creditors and equity holders as the terms of the Exchange Offer. Such alternatives may be expensive and may have an uncertain timeline. We may be required to seek protection from our creditors through a bankruptcy filing. If so, the expenses of any such filing would reduce the assets available for payment or distribution to our creditors and, if applicable, stockholders.

If this proposal is approved, there may be other significant effects on the stockholders, including the following:

Stockholders will face significant dilution as a result of the issuance of additional shares of Class A common stock in the Exchange Offer.

If this proposal is approved and assuming the Exchange Offer is consummated and the maximum amount of $610.0 million of Outstanding Notes are validly tendered and accepted by us in the Exchange Offer, we will issue up to approximately 33.3% of our outstanding Class A common stock (or warrants to purchase such shares of Class A common stock if deemed necessary to comply with the requirements of the FCC Rules) immediately following, and after giving effect to, the Exchange Offer, which based on the shares outstanding on the Record Date, would equal up to 14,647,930 shares of Class A common stock. As a result, the Company's existing stockholders will incur substantial dilution to their voting interests and will own a smaller percentage of the Company's outstanding Class A common stock. The dilutive effects of the Exchange Offer (i) will reduce your relative voting power as a holder of our Class A common stock or Class C common stock, as the case may be, (ii) will reduce your relative share of the aggregate amount of any dividends or distributions with respect to our Class A common stock or Class C common stock, as the case may be, and (iii) may have an adverse impact on the market price of the Company's Class A common stock. The dilutive effect of the issuance of additional shares could also have an anti-takeover effect. The dilution of the voting power of a person seeking control of the Company could deter or render more difficult a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or an extraordinary corporate transaction opposed by the Company.

Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of the Company in the Outstanding Notes

To the knowledge of the Company, no person who is or has been an executive officer or director of the Company since January 1, 2015 through the date of this proxy statement has any beneficial interest in the Outstanding Notes and the Company will not be issuing any shares of Class A common stock covered by this proposal to such persons. To the knowledge of the Company, none of our officers or directors otherwise have an interest in Proposal 1 that differs from that of any of our other stockholders.

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the matter at the Special Meeting is required for approval of Proposal 1. Abstentions will have the effect of a vote against the Equity Issuance. Broker non-votes, if any, will have no effect on the approval of the proposal.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE EQUITY ISSUANCE.

PROPOSAL 2: APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF THE FOURTH A&R CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

In connection with the Exchange Offer and the terms of the Support Agreement, the Company is seeking stockholder approval to amend and restate its Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to authorize the issuance of up to 100 shares of each of two new classes of common stock, Class D common stock and Class E common stock.

On December 15, 2016, the Board adopted resolutions (1) approving and declaring advisable an amendment and restatement of the Third A&R Certificate of Incorporation to authorize the issuance of up to 100 shares of each of two new classes of common stock, Class D common stock and Class E common stock, (2) directing that the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation be submitted to the holders of our Class A common stock and Class C common stock for their approval and adoption and (3) recommending that the holders of our Class A common stock and Class C common stock approve and adopt the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation.

The description of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation in this Proxy Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the full text of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation, the form of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex A and for convenience is marked to show the changes from the Third A&R Certificate of Incorporation, with deleted text shown in strikethrough and added or moved text shown as underlined. Even if specific amendments to the Third A&R Certificate of Incorporation are not fully described below, the approval of Proposal 2 shall constitute the requisite approval of the adoption of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation, in the form attached to this proxy statement as Annex A, as required by Delaware law. Accordingly, you should read the full text of Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation.

Upon stockholder approval and adoption of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation, the Board may determine the exact timing of the filing of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation based on its evaluation as to when the filing would be the most advantageous to the Company and its stockholders. The Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation will be effected by filing the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

Upon the effectiveness of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation, the Company will be authorized to issue up to 100 shares of each of Class D common stock and Class E common stock.

The Board reserves the right to elect to abandon the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation notwithstanding stockholder approval of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation, if the Board determines in its sole discretion that the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation is no longer in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. If the Board abandons the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation prior to filing it with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, no shares of Class D common stock or Class E common stock will be authorized for issuance.

Purpose of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation

In connection with the Exchange Offer and pursuant to the terms of the Support Agreement, the Company has agreed that for the period that (i) Angelo, Gordon & Co., any affiliate thereof and any investment fund managed or controlled by Angelo, Gordon & Co., or any affiliate thereof (collectively, Angelo Gordon), one of the Supporting Holders, holds at least 5.5% of the common equity of the Company, Angelo Gordon shall have the right to appoint one director to the Board (the Class D Director) and (ii) Q Investments, LP (Q Investments), Waddell & Reed Investment Management Company and Ivy Investment Management Company, any affiliate of the foregoing and any investment fund managed or controlled by any of the foregoing, or any affiliate thereof (collectively, Q/Waddell), each Supporting Holders, collectively hold at least 5.0% of the common equity of the Company, Q/Waddell shall have the right to appoint one director to the Board (the Class E Director).

Table of Contents

In order to provide Angelo Gordon and Q/Waddell with the governance rights specified in the Support Agreement, the Company has agreed on the Settlement Date to enter into an investor stock purchase agreement with Angelo Gordon, Q Investments and Waddell, pursuant to which the Company will issue 100 shares of Class D common stock to Angelo Gordon and 100 shares of Class E common stock, in the aggregate, to Q Investments and Waddell. Holders of Class D common stock will be entitled to vote separately, without the holders of Class A common stock, Class C common stock or Class E common stock, with respect to the election of the Class D Director. Holders of Class E common stock will be entitled to vote separately, without the holders of Class A common stock, Class C common stock or Class D common stock, with respect to the election of the Class E Director.

At such time as Angelo Gordon ceases to hold at least 5.5% of the common equity of the Company, the shares of Class D common stock held by Angelo Gordon shall immediately and automatically convert into an equal number of shares of Class A common stock. At such time as Q/Waddell collectively owns less than 5.0% of the common equity of the Company, the shares of Class E common stock held by Q/Waddell shall immediately and automatically convert into an equal number of shares of Class A common stock.

The shares of Class D common stock and Class E common stock issued to the Supporting Holders will not have any voting rights, other than with respect to the election of the Class D Director or Class E Director, as applicable, or as provided by law. The holders of Class D common stock and Class E common stock will share equally on a per share basis with the holders of Class A common stock and Class C common stock (and warrants for Class A common stock) with respect to dividends or other distributions that may be declared by the Board from time to time or in the liquidation or winding up of the Company. For further information on the voting, economic and other rights associated with the Class D common stock and the Class E common stock, and information regarding the conversion and transfer of the Class D common stock and the Class E common stock, see the form of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation, attached as Annex A to this Proxy Statement.

Impact on Stockholders of Approval or Disapproval of this Proposal

If this proposal is not approved, the stockholder approval condition to the consummation of the Exchange Offer will not be satisfied and we may be unable to consummate the Exchange Offer. If we do not consummate the Exchange Offer, we will be unable to exchange and cancel the Outstanding Notes tendered in the Exchange Offer. Consequently, we will be unable to reduce and extend the maturity of our outstanding indebtedness, or reduce our annual interest expense as contemplated by the Exchange Offer.

If we are not able to consummate the Exchange Offer, we will consider all viable refinancing alternatives available to us at such time. However, a viable refinancing alternative arrangement may not be available or, if available, may not be on terms as favorable to our creditors and equity holders as the terms of the Exchange Offer. Such alternatives may be expensive and may have an uncertain timeline. We may be required to seek protection from our creditors through a bankruptcy filing. If so, the expenses of any such filing would reduce the assets available for payment or distribution to our creditors and, if applicable, stockholders.

In addition, as discussed above, if this proposal is approved and the Exchange Offer is consummated, two new directors will be added to the Board. See Purpose of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation.

Interests of Certain Persons in Proposal 2

No shares of Class D common stock or Class E common stock will be issued to any of our officers or directors and none of our officers or directors otherwise have an interest in Proposal 2 that differs from that of any of our other stockholders.

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote on the matter at the Special Meeting is required for approval of Proposal 2. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the adoption of the Fourth A&R Certificate of Incorporation.

Each holder of Class B Common Stock is entitled to convert at any time or times all or any part of such holder's shares of Class B Common Stock into an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock; provided, however, that to the extent that such conversion would result in the holder holding more than 4.99% of the Class A Common Stock following such conversion, the holder shall first deliver to the Company an ownership certification in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company for the purpose of enabling the Company (a) to determine that such holder does not have an attributable interest in another entity that would cause the Company to violate applicable FCC ~~rules and regulations~~ Regulations and (b) to obtain any necessary approvals from the FCC or the United States Department of Justice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Company shall not be required to convert (including upon transfer as set forth in Section 5 ~~(e)~~(i) of this Article V) any share of Class B Common Stock if the Company reasonably and in good faith determines that such conversion would result in a violation of the Communications Act, the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, or the rules and regulations promulgated under either such Act.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Company shall not be required to convert (including upon transfer as set forth in Section 5(e)(iii) of this Article V) any share of Class D Common Stock if the Company reasonably and in good faith determines that such conversion would result in a violation of the Communications Act, the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, or the rules and regulations promulgated under either such Act; provided, further, that in the event a holder of Class D Common Stock is precluded from converting any shares of its Class D Common Stock into Class A Common Stock in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section following an AG Decrease Event, the voting rights conferred upon those unconverted shares of Class D Common Stock pursuant to Section 1(b) shall be null and void, including with respect to the appointment and election of the Class D Director.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Company shall not be required to convert (including upon transfer as set forth in Section 5(e)(iv) of this Article V) any share of Class E Common Stock if the Company reasonably and in good faith determines that such conversion would result in a violation of the Communications Act, the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, or the rules and regulations promulgated under either such Act; provided, further, that in the event a holder of Class E Common Stock is precluded from converting any shares of its Class E Common Stock into Class A Common Stock in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section following a O/Waddell Decrease Event, the voting rights conferred upon those unconverted shares of Class E Common Stock pursuant to Section 1(c) shall be null and void, including with respect to the appointment and election of the Class E Director.

Such holder shall exchange the certificates (if certificated) representing such converted shares of Class B Common Stock for certificates representing Class A Common Stock.

(ii) Subject to Section 6 of this Article V, a record or beneficial owner of shares of Class C Common Stock may transfer such shares (whether by sale, assignment, gift, bequest, appointment or otherwise) to any transferee; provided, however, that if the transferee is not an Affiliate or a Related Party of a Principal, then, concurrently with any such transfer, each such transferred share of Class C Common Stock shall automatically be converted into one (1) share of Class A Common Stock. The holder of such converted shares shall have no further rights as a holder of Class C Common Stock with respect to such converted shares but shall be deemed to have become the holder of the number of shares of Class A Common Stock into which such shares of Class C Common Stock have converted pursuant to this Section 5(ee)(ii). Such holder shall exchange the certificates (if certificated) representing such converted Class C Common Stock for certificates representing Class A Common Stock.

Elections of Directors need not be by written ballot except and to the extent provided in the by-laws of the Company.

ARTICLE X

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS

To the full extent permitted by the DGCL or any other applicable law currently or hereafter in effect, no Director of the Company will be personally liable to the Company or its stockholders for or with respect to any acts or omissions in the performance of his or her duties as a Director of the Company. Any repeal or modification of this Article X will not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director of the Company existing prior to such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE XI

INDEMNIFICATION

(a) Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a Proceeding) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director or an officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (an Indemnitee), whether the basis of such Proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the fullest extent permitted or required by the DGCL, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the Company to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this Article XI with respect to Proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Company shall indemnify any such Indemnitee in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such Indemnitee only if such Proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company.

(b) Right to Advancement of Expenses. The right to indemnification conferred in paragraph (a) of this Article XI shall include the right to be paid by the Company the expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred in defending any such Proceeding in advance of its final disposition (an Advancement of Expenses); provided, however, that, if the DGCL so requires, an Advancement of Expenses incurred by an Indemnitee in such person's capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such Indemnitee, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) shall be made only upon delivery to the Company of an undertaking (an Undertaking), by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (a Final Adjudication) that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this paragraph (b) or otherwise. The rights to indemnification and to the Advancement of Expenses conferred in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Article XI shall be contract rights and such rights shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators.

(c) Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Article XI is not paid in full by the Company within 60 calendar days after a written claim has been received by the Company, except in the case of a claim for an Advancement of Expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 calendar days, the Indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Company to recover an Advancement of Expenses pursuant to the terms of an Undertaking, the Indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the Indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the Indemnitee to enforce a right to an Advancement of Expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit brought by the Company to recover an Advancement of Expenses pursuant to the terms of an Undertaking, the Company shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a Final Adjudication that, the Indemnitee has not met any applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the DGCL. Neither the failure of the Company (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the Indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the Indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the DGCL, nor an actual determination by the Company (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or stockholders) that the Indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the Indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the Indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the Indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an Advancement of Expenses hereunder, or brought by the Company to recover an Advancement of Expenses pursuant to the terms of an Undertaking, the burden of proving that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such Advancement of Expenses, under this Article XI or otherwise shall be on the Company.

(d) Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the Advancement of Expenses conferred in this Article XI shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the Company's certificate of incorporation, by-laws, any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

(e) Insurance. The Company may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the DGCL.

(f) Indemnification of Employees and Agents of the Company. The Company may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the Advancement of Expenses to any employee or agent of the Company to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article XI with respect to the indemnification and Advancement of Expenses of directors and officers of the Company.

ARTICLE XII

The number of directors shall be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the then authorized number of directors of the Company, whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships, but in no event shall the number of directors be fewer than seven (7) or greater than ~~eleven~~ nine (9) (provided that for such period as any of the Class D Common Stock and Class E Common Stock has the right to elect or appoint a director, such number of directors shall be fixed at eight (8) or nine (9), as the case may be, in order to permit such election or appointment to the extent holders of either such class are so entitled otherwise, the number of directors shall be seven (7)). No director need be a stockholder.
