Ignyta, Inc. - Employee Questions and Answers

General Information

We appreciate and understand our employees' desire for on-going communication and information in connection with the Company's pending acquisition by Roche Holdings, Inc. (Roche). Thank you for your patience and understanding throughout this process. We have received a number of questions from employees about the transaction and how it will impact them. While we are not able to answer every question at this time, we will attempt to answer as many and as frequently as we can, and we are committed to transparency and communication during this process. For now it is very important that we all remain focused on running our business for the potential benefit of patients with cancer. Set forth below are answers to a few of the most frequently asked questions we have received from employees.

Employee Questions

1. What was announced on December 21, 2017 regarding Ignyta and Roche?

Roche and Ignyta announced they have entered into a definitive merger agreement for Roche to fully acquire Ignyta at a price of $27.00 per share in an all-cash transaction, a significant premium over the previous trading price of Ignyta's common stock.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Roche will commence a tender offer (the Tender Offer) no later than January 16, 2018, to acquire all outstanding shares of Ignyta common stock, and Ignyta will file a recommendation statement containing the unanimous recommendation of the Ignyta board that Ignyta's stockholders tender their shares to Roche.

2. When is the transaction expected to close?

The transaction is expected to close in the first half of 2018.

3. Why does this agreement make sense strategically?

Ignyta's focus remains on patients and our long-term vision continues to be to eradicate residual disease—the source of recurrence and relapse—in precisely defined patient populations. I personally can think of no more exciting way for Ignyta to be able to achieve our long-term goal of eradicating residual disease than by combining with Roche/Genentech: We can now accelerate the realization of that vision, since there is no denying that Roche/Genentech is a global leader in oncology and personalized healthcare, with a long and successful track record.

They were pioneers in this space with the biologics Rituxan and Avastin, and now the more recent targeted small molecules, such as Zelboraf and Alecensa, along with their major presence in the IO space with the anti-PD-L1 antibody, Tecentriq. So this merger clearly aligns with what has been Ignyta's development focus since its inception and will advance our joint efforts to help bring innovative treatments to patients with cancer.

4. What does this agreement mean for Ignyta?

This is exciting news for Ignyta, as we prepare to submit 2 NDAs and a PMA in 2018 in order to potentially launch entrectinib in 2 different indications in 2019, and also prepare for RXDX-106 to potentially enter the clinic in early 2018. Combining with Roche, a global leader in oncology and personalized healthcare, allows us to leverage a global, world class organization and infrastructure to ensure strong execution of our development, regulatory and commercialization priorities for entrectinib and our pipeline.

5. How will the transaction with Roche affect the employees of Ignyta?

Ignyta and Roche/Genentech will continue to operate as separate, independent entities prior to the closing of the transaction, and Ignyta will continue its normal business activities. You will continue reporting to your current manager and, except as indicated below, your compensation and job responsibilities will remain unchanged prior to the closing of the transaction.

As with any combination involving two companies, there is the possibility of overlaps in existing job functions that may result in some changes in duties and workforce reductions. We will communicate new information when it becomes available, and will provide answers to questions as soon as possible once decisions are made.

6. Is there a severance plan for Ignyta employees?

Yes. Ignyta has adopted a severance plan for employees who do not participate in the executive severance plan. A copy of the new severance plan will be provided to Ignyta employees.

In general, the severance plan provides for the following in exchange for signing a general release of claims if a covered employee is involuntarily terminated within 12 months following a change in control, such as the transaction with Roche:

A cash severance payment ranging from 3 months to 6 months of the individual's base salary, based on the position at Ignyta.

COBRA benefits for a period of time ranging from 4 to 6 months, based on the individual's position at Ignyta.

Outplacement services, based on the individual's position at Ignyta.

7. Will I receive my 2017 bonus and a salary increase?

The performance review process will still take place and Ignyta employees will receive their 2017 corporate bonuses on or before January 31, 2018, and will also receive a salary increase effective January 1, 2018.

8. Will I receive my 2017 annual equity award?

Ignyta employees were granted their 2017 annual equity awards on December 22, 2017. These awards were granted in the form of restricted stock units ( RSUs ). These RSUs will vest over four years in four equal installments on each anniversary of the date of grant and will vest in full upon a change in control of Ignyta. We are currently preparing the individual award agreements and they will be distributed as soon as practicable.

9. I have unvested RSUs. What happens to my RSUs now?

Assuming you remain employed with Ignyta until the closing of the transaction, then at the closing of the transaction, your outstanding, unvested RSU awards, including the RSU awards granted to you as your 2017 annual equity award on December 22, 2017, will by virtue of the transaction and without any action on your part, be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a cash payment through Ignyta payroll equal to $27.00 for each RSU subject to the award, less any applicable taxes or other withholdings required by law. After cancellation, your RSU awards will cease to exist.

Every situation is unique, and you should consult with your personal tax advisor to confirm the tax treatment specific to your personal situation.

10. I have vested and unvested stock options. What happens to my stock options now?

Assuming you remain employed with Ignyta until the closing of the transaction, then at the closing of the transaction, any of your stock options that are outstanding, whether vested or unvested, will by virtue of the transaction and without any action on your part, be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a cash payment through Ignyta payroll equal to the excess of $27.00 over the per share exercise price of such option times the number of shares subject to such option, less any applicable taxes or other withholdings required by law. After cancellation, your options will cease to exist.

Every situation is unique, and you should consult with your personal tax advisor to confirm the tax treatment specific to your personal situation.

11. What happens if I voluntarily resign prior to the closing of the transaction?

If you voluntarily terminate your employment at any time prior to the closing of the transaction, you will not be entitled to any severance pay or benefits and your unvested equity awards will terminate.

12. What happens if I exercise my currently vested stock options before the transaction closes?

You may exercise your vested stock options in accordance with our normal procedures for exercising options, which require pre-clearance. If you are planning to sell your shares, including doing a same-day sale, you may do so only in an open trading window and as long as you are not in possession of material non-public information and follow our pre-clearance procedures for selling. However, our trading window is currently closed. [Although we typically open the trading window for employees three business days after the public release of earnings data for the fourth quarter of 2017, given current circumstances we may not open the trading window, or we may be required to close the trading window early and without advance notice.]

Every situation is unique, and you should consult with your personal tax advisor to confirm the tax treatment specific to your personal situation.

13. What happens to the Ignyta shares that I own?

The Tender Offer has not yet commenced. At the time the Tender Offer is commenced, you will be provided with an opportunity to tender the shares in exchange for $27.00 per share, without interest. You may also sell your shares during an open trading window (see Question 10). Please see below under Additional Information and Where to Find It for important information with respect to the Tender Offer.

14. Is there anything I need to do now in preparation for the close of the transaction related to my options or RSUs or any shares I own? Do I need to register them anywhere?

Details concerning proceeds and receiving your transaction consideration will be provided in the tender offer documents to be filed by Roche and the Company's public filings regarding the transaction, which will be filed in January.

15. What happens to my benefits?

Ignyta employees will continue on Ignyta benefits until at least the time of the deal closing. Any further information will be forthcoming as part of the transition plan.

16. Will there still be a 401(k) match made for 2017?

Yes, as soon as the calculations are finalized, Ignyta will provide the funds for the employer match. Employer matching contributions are 100% vested immediately.
