IMPLEMENTATION OF THE BCE PLAN OF ARRANGEMENT

LETTER OF INSTRUCTION

Dear Shareholder,

We are pleased to announce the implementation of the plan of arrangement described in detail in the management proxy circular of BCE Inc. (BCE) dated April 12, 2006 (Circular), as approved by BCE common shareholders at this year's annual and special shareholder meeting held on June 7, 2006 (the BCE Plan of Arrangement).

BCE will announce the anticipated effective date (the Effective Date) of the BCE Plan of Arrangement by press release at a future time.

This letter contains instructions for shareholders who will own BCE common shares (common shares) as at 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date, outlining the necessary steps required for them to receive, as provided for under the BCE Plan of Arrangement:

- (1) certificates evidencing units (Units) in Bell Aliant Regional Communications Income Fund (the Fund),
- (2) certificates evidencing consolidated common shares in BCE (Consolidated Common Shares), and
- (3) where applicable, cash proceeds in lieu of entitlements to (i) Units, and (ii) fractional consolidated common shares.

We remind you that complete details regarding the BCE Plan of Arrangement are contained in the Circular. The implementation of the BCE Plan of Arrangement remains subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the closing conditions with respect to the creation of the Fund.

Entitlement under the BCE Plan of Arrangement

Subject to the terms of the BCE Plan of Arrangement, for each common share held as of 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date, shareholders will be entitled to:

- (i) 0.0725 Units; and
- (ii) 0.915 Consolidated Common Shares.

DISTRIBUTION OF UNITS

A. Shareholders Who are Not U.S. Shareholders

- 1) Shareholders who are not U.S. Shareholders (as defined below) and hold more than 150 common shares as of 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date will automatically receive 0.0725 Units for each common share held. Such shareholders can expect to receive a certificate representing their Units by first class mail (postage prepaid) shortly following the Effective Date. Fractions of Units however will not appear on Unit certificates. Instead, such fractions of Units will be aggregated and sold, and shareholders entitled thereto will receive the net cash proceeds from such sale, after commission expenses, in Canadian dollars, on a pro rata basis.
 - 2) Shareholders who are not U.S. Shareholders who hold 150 or less common shares (a Small Interest) as of 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date will not receive Units. The Units to which such shareholders would otherwise have been entitled under the BCE Plan of Arrangement will be aggregated and sold. Such shareholders will automatically receive the net cash proceeds from such sale, after commission expenses, in Canadian dollars, on a pro rata basis.

Table of Contents

Please note that:

Proceeds from the sale of Small Interests and fractional Units, as applicable, will be distributed as soon as practicable after the trade(s) settles.

Units will be credited to beneficial shareholders through their accounts with their financial intermediary. As a result, shareholders who hold their common shares through a financial intermediary (i.e. a bank, trust company, broker, nominee, etc.) will not receive individual Unit certificates shortly after the Effective Date, but at such time, their accounts will be adjusted to reflect their ownership in Units.

B. U.S. Shareholders Qualified Purchaser Certification

- 1) Shareholders who will be, at 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date, U.S. persons (as defined under U.S. securities laws) (U.S. Shareholders) and who hold more than 150 common shares at such time, are entitled to receive Units, provided (i) that they validly execute the Qualified Purchaser Certification enclosed with this letter (please note that only U.S. Shareholders will receive a Qualified Purchaser Certification form), and (ii) that such duly executed Qualified Purchaser Certification is received by Computershare Trust Company of Canada (Computershare) at the address indicated on that form no later than 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date.

*Shareholders in this group who satisfy (i) and (ii) of the above paragraph will receive 0.0725 Units for each common share held as at 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date. Fractions of Units however will not appear on Unit certificates. Instead, such fractions of Units will be aggregated and sold, and shareholders entitled thereto will receive the net cash proceeds from such sale, after commission expenses, in Canadian dollars, on a pro rata basis.*

*Shareholders in this group who do not satisfy (i) and (ii) of the first paragraph of this Section B will not be entitled to receive Units. Rather, the Units to which such shareholders would otherwise have been entitled will be aggregated and sold, and such U.S. Shareholders will automatically receive the net cash proceeds, after commission expenses, in Canadian funds, on a pro rata basis.*

- 2) U.S. Shareholders who hold Small Interests as at 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date will not receive Units. Rather, the Units to which such U.S. Shareholders would otherwise have been entitled will be aggregated and sold, and such U.S. Shareholders will automatically receive the net cash proceeds, after commission expenses, in Canadian funds, on a pro rata basis.
- 3) If U.S. Shareholders have any questions regarding the completion of the Qualified Purchaser Certification form, please contact BCE's information agent, Georgeson Shareholder, at 1-866-520-3874.

Please note that:

Proceeds from the sale of Small Interests and fractional Units, as applicable, will be distributed as soon as practicable after the trade(s) settles.

U.S. Shareholders who hold their common shares through a financial intermediary (i.e. a bank, trust company, broker, nominee, etc.) should contact that intermediary for instructions on how they are to attest the information contained in the Qualified Purchaser Certification form. Units will be credited to beneficial shareholders through their accounts with their financial intermediary. As a result, shareholders who hold their common shares through such an intermediary will not receive individual Unit certificates shortly after the Effective Date, but at such time, their accounts will be adjusted to reflect their ownership in Units.

Where the Qualified Purchaser Certification is executed by an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, attorney-in-fact, agent, corporation, partnership or association, or is executed by any other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such person must so indicate when signing the Qualified Purchaser Certification and provide evidence of the signatory's authority to act. BCE and Computershare, may at their entire discretion require additional evidence of such authority to act or additional information.

Table of ContentsDISTRIBUTION OF CONSOLIDATED COMMON SHARESC. All BCE Common Shareholders

- 1) Registered Shareholders must validly execute the letter of transmittal (Letter of Transmittal) included with this letter to receive a certificate evidencing their Consolidated Common Shares. Such shareholders must return the executed Letter of Transmittal to Computershare at the address indicated thereon, together with the original certificate(s) enumerated in the Letter of Transmittal.

Shareholders can expect to receive a new share certificate representing their Consolidated Common Shares as soon as practicable following receipt by Computershare of a validly executed Letter of Transmittal that is accompanied by the relevant original share certificate(s) representing their common shares and any other material requested by BCE or Computershare, provided that such timeframe shall start at 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date in the event such documents are received prior thereto. Fractions of Consolidated Common Shares however will not appear on Consolidated Common Shares certificates. Instead, such fractions of Consolidated Common Shares will be aggregated and sold, and shareholders entitled thereto will receive the net cash proceeds from such sale, after commission expenses, in Canadian dollars, on a pro rata basis. Such proceeds will only be paid to registered shareholders upon surrender of their share certificate(s), duly transmitted to Computershare with the Letter of Transmittal.

- 2) LOST ORIGINAL CERTIFICATES: In the materials being transmitted with this letter, shareholders are receiving a list that identifies each certificate number that corresponds to their BCE common shareholdings prior to the date of mailing. If shareholders hold 10 certificates or less, this list of holdings will appear directly on the Letter of Transmittal enclosed in their materials. If shareholders hold more than 10 certificates, the list of holdings will appear on a separate certificate listing form (Certificate Listing Form) enclosed with this letter. If shareholders cannot locate some or all of the certificates mentioned on the Letter of Transmittal or Certificate Listing Form, as applicable, they must mark the appropriate LOST box corresponding to the number of the lost certificate with an X .

All shareholders who have lost original certificates (whether they are marking lost certificates on the Letter of Transmittal or on the Certificate Listing form) must duly complete and sign Box A Affidavit of Lost or Destroyed Certificates - BCE Inc. on the reverse side of the Letter of Transmittal and must pay a bond premium of CAD $0.35 per common share represented by the lost share certificate(s) (minimum of CAD $20.00). The stated rate is available until July 10, 2007. All shareholders who have lost original certificates must consequently enclose a certified cheque, bank draft, or money order, payable to Computershare Trust Company of Canada with all other materials that are required to be returned to Computershare under this letter. If shareholders have lost certificate(s) representing five or less of the common shares they hold as at 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date, note that NO premium is required as such premium to replace such certificate(s) has been waived by BCE. If any amount of lost original certificates represents a value of common shares as at 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date of more than CAD $250,000.00, then affected shareholder(s) should contact Computershare for additional information. If shareholders' lost certificate(s) is (are) part of an estate or trust, please contact Computershare for additional information.

- 3) If shareholders receiving Consolidated Common Shares want the Consolidated Common Share certificate(s) to be issued over to another holder, then (i) the current share certificate(s) representing the relevant common shares that they wish to transfer, or (ii) a separate irrevocable share transfer power of attorney, must be endorsed by the registered holder of such share certificate(s). The registered holder's duly authorized representative may also endorse such documents, as long as proof of authority to act is provided. Shareholders may obtain a share transfer power of attorney form on the Internet at www.computershare.com or by calling Computershare at the number mentioned in the last paragraph of this letter. The signature(s) endorsing the current share certificate(s) or share transfer power of attorney, as applicable, must be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution (please refer to the following paragraph for further information).

The validly endorsed current share certificate(s) and/or a separate irrevocable share transfer power of attorney, including the guarantee by the Eligible Institution, and proof of authority to act, where applicable, must be returned to Computershare. The registered shareholder or its duly authorized representative endorsing the current share certificate(s) in this manner must accompany these materials with a covering letter to Computershare that it signs, stating that the current share certificate(s) is/are being deposited with Computershare on the terms and conditions outlined in the Letter of Transmittal and BCE Plan of Arrangement, for the purposes of obtaining Consolidated Common Shares which such registered shareholder or its duly authorized representative instructs Computershare to transfer to the other holder. The covering letter must also contain the mailing address of such other holder over to whom the Consolidated Common Shares are to be issued. Cheque(s) issued in lieu of fractions of Consolidated Common Shares will be made payable directly to such other holders receiving the Consolidated Common Share certificate(s).

Shareholders endorsing their current share certificate(s) have the following list of options available in respect of signature guarantees from Eligible Institutions:

Canada and the U.S.A.: Obtain a Medallion Signature Guarantee from a member of an acceptable Medallion Signature Guarantee Program [Transfer Agent Medallion Program (STAMP), Stock Exchanges Medallion Program (SEMP), or New York Stock Exchange, Inc. Medallion Signature Program (MSP)]. Many commercial banks, savings banks, credit unions, and all broker dealers participate in a Medallion Signature Guarantee Program. The guarantor must affix a stamp bearing the words Medallion Guaranteed .

Canada: Obtain a Signature Guarantee from a Canadian Schedule I chartered bank. The guarantor must affix a stamp bearing the words Signature Guaranteed , as well as a signature, its full name in print, and its alpha numeric signing number. Signature Guarantees are not accepted from Treasury Branches, Credit Unions or Caisse Populaire, unless they are members of a Medallion Signature Guarantee Program.

Outside North America: Shareholders located outside North America will have to present the certificate(s) and/or document(s) necessitating the signature guarantee to a local financial institution that has a corresponding Canadian or American affiliate that is a member of an acceptable Medallion Signature Guarantee Program. The local financial institution will arrange for a signature to be over-guaranteed by such affiliate.

Please note that:

Proceeds from the sale of fractional Consolidated Common Shares will be distributed as soon as practicable after the trade(s) settles.

Consolidated Common Shares of beneficial shareholders will be attributed to such shareholders through their respective accounts, by their financial intermediary. As a result, shareholders who hold their common shares in BCE through a financial intermediary (i.e. a bank, trust company, broker, nominee, etc.) will not need to send a Letter of Transmittal and original share certificate(s) to Computershare.

Until Computershare is in receipt of a validly executed Letter of Transmittal, the relevant original share certificate(s), and any other supporting documents as required by this letter, and subsequently issues the corresponding Consolidated Common Shares, shareholders will not be able to sell or otherwise transfer their common shares.

Where a Letter of Transmittal, share certificate, or share transfer power of attorney is executed by an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, attorney-in-fact, agent, corporation, partnership or association, or is executed by any other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such person must so indicate when signing the Letter of Transmittal, share certificate, or share transfer power of attorney and provide evidence of the signatory's authority to act. BCE and Computershare, may at their entire discretion, acting individually, require additional evidence of such authority to act or additional information.

- 2) Unit certificates, Consolidated Common Share certificates, and cheques for cash payments in lieu of Units and/or Consolidated Common Shares, as applicable, will be sent to the address of the registered shareholder currently in the books of BCE. If shareholders have changed address, they should complete the enclosed Change of Address Notification form and return same to Computershare with the Letter of Transmittal, original share certificate(s), Qualified Purchaser Certification, where required, and any other applicable supporting documentation required, at the address indicated on such materials. Registered shareholders also have the option of picking up their Consolidated Common Share certificates at an office of Computershare, instead of having these sent to them at the address specified in the Letter of Transmittal or on their Change of Address Notification form, as applicable, provided that such shareholders have elected to do so in the Letter of Transmittal.
- 3) A security return envelope is enclosed in the envelope of materials being transmitted to shareholders for their convenience. It is recommended that all documents required by this letter to be sent by shareholders to Computershare are sent by registered mail. Computershare will not consider the requisite documents received until they are physically received by Computershare.
- 4) If the addressee is no longer the registered holder of the BCE common shares represented by the certificates listed on the Letter of Transmittal or on the Certificate Listing Form, as applicable, such addressee must complete the Letter of Transmittal or Certificate Listing Form, as applicable, only in respect of those certificates that represent the common shares of which they are the registered holder as at 5:01 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Effective Date. Such shareholder must return the mentioned materials on the address indicated on such forms, as applicable, along with a covering letter to Computershare, identifying the corresponding certificate numbers in respect of which it is no longer the registered holder.
- 5) A Letter of Transmittal, Certificate Listing Form, affidavit, or any premium payment amount that is not complete or does not comply with the requirements for valid execution stated in this letter and in those documents themselves, or that is not provided along with appropriate original share certificate(s) and requisite supporting documentation, will be returned to the addressee with an explanation. Once the relevant shareholder(s) has/(have) made the necessary corrections, such shareholder(s) may re-submit all the appropriate documentation that is required to effect the exchange of their common share certificate(s) for Consolidated Common Share certificates.
- 6) Neither BCE, Computershare, nor their respective agents is under any obligation to notify a shareholder of any deficiency in the execution of a Letter of Transmittal or Qualified Purchaser Certification. Neither BCE, Computershare, nor their respective agents will accept any liability for failure to notify a shareholder of a deficiency in the execution of a Letter of Transmittal or Qualified Purchaser Certification. Any question concerning validity and timely receipt of a Letter of Transmittal or Qualified Purchaser Certification will be determined by BCE in its sole discretion.
- 7) If the implementation of the BCE Plan of Arrangement does not occur as a result of the closing conditions with respect to the creation of the Fund not having being satisfied or waived, or otherwise, Computershare will return to shareholders the original share certificate(s) it received from them by first class mail (postage prepaid) as soon as practicable.

Sincerely,
