VOTE YOUR SHARES NOW!

On June 30, 2007, BCE entered into a definitive agreement for BCE to be acquired by a Canadian controlled corporation organized by Ontario Teachers Pension Plan Board and affiliates of Providence Equity Partners Inc. and Madison Dearborn Partners, LLC (the Arrangement). Under the terms of the transaction, all of the outstanding common shares of BCE would be acquired at a price of C$42.75 in cash for each common share held. If you are a preferred shareholder, the cash consideration, based on the class and series of preferred shares, is outlined on the reverse page.

Prior to entering into the definitive agreement, BCE's Board of Directors conducted a review of all strategic alternatives reasonably available to BCE (including remaining a publicly traded company and pursuing its current business plan, recapitalizing BCE through various leveraging and share repurchase transactions, and breaking up BCE and spinning off some of its parts). In the context of this review, the Board also conducted a public and competitive auction process involving multiple bidders.

Following this process, BCE's Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Arrangement is fair to the shareholders of BCE and in the best interests of BCE, based on the following (among other factors and considerations, as set out in the information circular dated August 7, 2007):

The purchase price for common shares represents an approximate 40% premium over the average closing price of BCE common shares for the three month period ending March 28, 2007 (the last trading day before public speculation about a possible transaction involving BCE)

The purchase price for preferred shares is equal to or greater than the redemption value per series of preferred shares

The Board's conclusion that the value offered to common shareholders under the Arrangement is more favourable to common shareholders than the potential value that might have resulted from other strategic alternatives

BCE's Board of Directors unanimously recommends that shareholders of BCE vote FOR the special resolution approving the Arrangement, which requires approval by at least two-thirds of all the votes cast at BCE's September 21, 2007 special meeting.

BCE urges you to vote FOR the Arrangement today. Your vote is important regardless of the number of shares of BCE you own. We encourage you to take the time now to vote using the enclosed form of proxy so that your shares can be voted at the meeting in accordance with your instructions. Your vote must be received by our transfer agent no later than 4:45 p.m. (Montréal time) on September 20, 2007.

Details of the Arrangement are more fully described in the information circular dated August 7, 2007, that has been distributed to shareholders and is available on our website at www.bce.ca. In considering how to vote, you are urged to read carefully the information contained in the information circular, including the recommendation of the BCE Board of Directors and the risk factors described therein. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions (including shareholder approval), BCE expects the Arrangement to become effective in the first quarter of 2008.
