Texas Pacific Land Trust Files Investor Presentation to Provide Shareholders with Further Information about the Trust's Business and Strong Performance

Presentation Now Available at www.TrustTPL.com

Texas Pacific Land Trust (NYSE: TPL) (the "Trust") today filed an investor presentation with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") to continue to provide investors with additional information about the evolution of the Trust's business model. All shareholders are encouraged to review the presentation on our proxy site www.TrustTPL.com.

The presentation provides information on the Trust's valuable assets and thoughtful investment strategy as well as the significant value creation opportunities across its businesses, including in its fast-growing Texas Pacific Water Resources business. This winning strategy allowed the Trust to deliver outstanding shareholder returns of 475% in the five years preceding the start of the dissidents' campaign, including approximately $250 million returned to shareholders through dividends and share repurchases during that period.

"In 2017, we transformed our strategy to take advantage of additional opportunities by creating the water services business, a strategic decision that has already yielded significant results for shareholders," said Trustee David E. Barry. "During recent months, we have been developing an investor presentation to reflect this more active management strategy and give shareholders greater insight into our new business model and the opportunities we see ahead. We are proud of our track record of delivering value, and we appreciate our shareholders' support and continued interest in the Trust's operations and performance. We will continue to evaluate ways to further enhance transparency and change to our corporate governance. To that end, we will utilize the exceptional governance expertise of General Don Cook if he is elected as TPL's next Trustee."

At www.TrustTPL.com, shareholders can also find information on how to vote their shares in support of General Donald "Don" G. Cook's election as Trustee either online or by mail by signing and returning the BLUE proxy card in advance of the voting deadline at the Special Meeting of Shareholders, scheduled for May 22, 2019. Shareholders are strongly urged to discard any white proxy card distributed by the dissident group opposed to General Cook.

Shareholders with any questions should contact the Trust's proxy solicitors, MacKenzie Partners by either phone at (800) 322-2885 (toll free in the U.S.) or (212) 929-5500 (outside the U.S.) or by email at proxy@mackenziepartners.com.
