Edgar Filing: CURATIVE HEALTH SERVICES INC - Form 8-K

On November 15, 2005, Curative Health Services, Inc. ("Curative") announced that on November 9, 2005 it received notification from The Nasdaq Stock Market indicating that for the last 30 consecutive business days, the bid price of Curative's common stock has closed below the minimum $1.00 per share requirement for continued inclusion under Marketplace Rule 4450(b)(4) (the "Bid Price Rule"). The Nasdaq notice indicated that in accordance with Marketplace Rule 4450(e)(2), Curative will be provided 180 calendar days, or until May 8, 2006, to regain compliance by having its shares close above $1.00 for a minimum of 10 consecutive trading days. If Curative has not regained compliance with the Bid Price Rule by May 8, 2006, Nasdaq will issue a letter notifying Curative that its common stock will be delisted. At that time, Curative may appeal the determination to delist its common stock to a Listings Qualifications Panel. Alternatively, Curative may apply to have its common stock transferred to The Nasdaq Capital (SmallCap) Market if it otherwise satisfies the applicable initial listing requirements for such market. If such application is approved, Curative will be afforded the remainder of this market's second 180 calendar day compliance period in order to regain compliance while on The Nasdaq Capital Market.

On November 15, 2005, Curative also announced that on November 10, 2005 it received a letter from The Nasdaq Stock Market indicating that for the 30 consecutive trading days preceding the date of this letter, Curative's common stock has not maintained the minimum aggregate market value of publicly held shares ("MVPHS") of $15 million required for continued inclusion under Marketplace Rule 4450(b)(3). The letter further notified Curative that, in accordance with Marketplace Rule 4450(e)(1), Curative will be provided 90 calendar days, or until February 8, 2006, to regain compliance with the MVPHS requirement. Compliance will be achieved if the MVPHS is $15 million or more for 10 consecutive trading days prior to February 8, 2006. The letter further stated that if Curative does not regain compliance with the Marketplace Rules by February 8, 2006, Nasdaq will provide notice that Curative's common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq Stock Market. In the event of such notification, Curative may appeal the determination to delist its common stock to a Listings Qualifications Panel. Alternatively, Curative may apply to have its common stock transferred to the Nasdaq Capital Market and, if Curative submits a transfer application and pays the applicable listing fees by February 8, 2006, the initiation of delisting proceedings would be stayed pending Nasdaq staff review of the application.

Curative has determined that no specific action is warranted at this time in response to Either of these letters from Nasdaq.
