Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 5, 2006, SCM Microsystems, Inc. (SCM) entered into an agreement with the Kudelski Group (Kudelski) to sell its Digital TV solutions business to Kudelski for a total expected consideration of $11 million in cash. The consideration includes $9 million payable at the closing of the transaction and an additional $2 million payable upon completion of agreed milestones for certain product development currently in process by SCM. No assurance can be made that this contingent payment will be made. The transaction is subject to certain closing conditions and is expected to close in the next 30 to 45 days.

Under the terms of the agreement, SCM will sell substantially all of the assets that relate to its Digital TV solutions business, including its office building in La Ciotat, France, certain inventory, contracts, trademarks and intellectual property. In addition, approximately 40 SCM employees in France, Germany and Singapore are expected to join Kudelski. The products that Kudelski is acquiring include SCM's DVB and OpenCable compliant conditional access modules, used to securely decrypt digital television broadcasts, as well as controller chips used in set-top boxes that interface with the decryption modules.
