Amended and Restated Employment Agreement

On October 26, 2016, RealPage, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Stephen T. Winn (the “Amended Employment Agreement”), the Company’s Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. The Amended Employment Agreement is effective as of the date of the agreement, and replaces and supersedes Mr. Winn’s prior employment agreement in its entirety. The Company believes the changes to Mr. Winn’s employment agreement reflect current market and peer group practices with respect to executive agreements for Chairman and CEO-level executives. Other than the amendments described below, the Amended Employment Agreement is unchanged from Mr. Winn’s prior employment agreement.

In the Amended Employment Agreement, the definition of the circumstances under which Mr. Winn can resign for “Good Reason” means the following events, in each case occurring without Mr. Winn’s written consent: (i) a material reduction in base salary or incentive compensation opportunity; (ii) a material reduction in Mr. Winn’s responsibilities or authority; (iii) a material breach by the Company of a material provision of the Amended Employment Agreement; and (iv) a material change in the geographic location at which Mr. Winn provides services. The Good Reason definition in the Amended Employment Agreement no longer provides that any resignation by Mr. Winn after a change in control will be considered a termination by Mr. Winn for Good Reason.

The Amended Employment Agreement also modifies the definition of “Cause” related to a termination of Mr. Winn’s employment. The Amended Employment Agreement does not change the various circumstances that constitute Cause, but modifies the cure period provisions and provides that a termination for Cause requires a finding by the Company’s Board of Directors that an event or events constituting Cause occurred. As amended, Cause means the occurrence of any of the following events which (with respect to (iv) through (vii) below) are not cured within 30 days after receipt of written notice of such alleged cause from the Company: (i) conviction for any acts of fraud or breach of trust or any felony criminal acts; (ii) knowingly making a materially false written statement to the Company’s auditors or legal counsel; (iii) willful and material falsification of any corporate document or form; (iv) any material breach of any Company published policy received and acknowledged in writing; (v) any material breach of a material provision of the Amended Employment Agreement; (vi) making a material misrepresentation of fact or omission to disclose material facts in relation to transactions occurring in the business and financial matters of the Company; or (vii) repeated and material failure substantially to perform duties.

The foregoing description of the Amended Employment Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and incorporated herein by reference.
