VRG Begins Ticket Sales to Paris and Rome

São Paulo, August 28, 2007 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4), the parent company of Brazil's low-cost airlines GOL Transportes Aéreos S.A. (GTA), which operates the GOL brand) and VRG Linhas Aéreas S.A. (VRG), which operates the VARIG brand), today began selling tickets for VRG's newest route, São Paulo - Paris - Rome.

VRG has already launched two daily flights to Germany and is actively expanding its operations to Europe, says Lincoln Amano, commercial director at VRG. France and Italy are important destinations for VRG, not only because of increasing customer demand, but also because of strong commercial ties between South America and both countries. The Company currently flies to Frankfurt, Germany; Bogotá, Colombia; Buenos Aires, Argentina; and Caracas, Venezuela.

Daily flights will depart from Guarulhos International Airport at 11:59 pm (local time), landing in the French capital at 4:20 pm (local time) before continuing to the Italian city at 5:30 pm (local time), arriving at 7:15 pm (local time). Returning to Brazil, flights take off from Rome's Fiumicino (Leonardo da Vinci) Airport at 8:50 pm (local time), landing at Paris - Charles de Gaulle Airport at 10:45 pm (local time), departing for São Paulo at 11:50 p.m. (local time) and arriving at 6:50 am (local time).

France

According to World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) and Brazilian Tourism Ministry statistics, France is the fourth most popular destination for Brazilians traveling abroad, with approximately 350,000 Brazilian tourists visiting the country in 2006. Additionally, nearly 275,000 French travelers arrived in Brazil over the same period, ranking France sixth among the top 10 countries providing tourists to Brazil, according to Embratur (Brazilian Tourism Board).

Strong commercial exchange between Brazil and France is another key reason for launching VRG's new route. In 2006, the French imported nearly US$ 2.6 billion in goods and services from Brazil, an increase of 6.4 percent over the previous year. Brazil imported approximately US$ 2.8 billion in goods and services from France, up nearly 5 percent compared to 2005.

Italy

Brazil is home to one of the largest Italian populations outside of Italy, another important factor contributing to the demand for tourism and commercial exchange between the two countries. According to UNWTO and Brazilian Tourism Ministry data, Italy is the seventh most popular destination for Brazilians traveling abroad, with approximately 224,000 Brazilian tourists visiting the country in 2006. Additionally, nearly 300,000 Italian travelers passed through Brazil's Customs over the same period, ranking Italy fourth among the top 10 countries providing tourists to Brazil, according to Embratur.

In 2006, imports from Brazil totaled almost US$ 3.8 billion, an increase of 19 percent over the previous year, making Italy the ninth largest importer of Brazil's goods and services. Brazil's imports of Italian goods and services totaled US$ 2.6 billion, up approximately 13 percent from 2005.
