Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On March 1, 2005, Jones Soda Co. (the "Company") became aware through a broker that the Company was listed as in default with the Ontario Securities Commission. The stated reason for the default was due to the Company's failure to file its interim management's discussion and analysis (MD&A) for the quarter ended September 30, 2004, pursuant to the requirements of the Ontario Securities Act and the OSC policies. Although the Company had properly filed its quarterly report on Form 10 QSB for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 with the Ontario Securities Commission (which includes the MD&A as part of the report), the Company had inadvertently failed to separately file the MD&A. The Company did not receive written notice from the Ontario Securities Commission of the default.

Upon becoming aware of the default, on March 2, 2005, the Company promptly filed the MD&A with the Ontario Securities Commission via SEDAR. Subsequently, on March 2, 2005, the Company received verbal confirmation from the Ontario Securities Commission that the filing had been received and that the Company was no longer considered in default. Trading in the Company's common stock on the TSX-VE was not halted or suspended during the default.
