Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 5, 2006, APAC Customer Services, Inc. (the "Company") entered into Amendment No. 6 (the "Amendment") to the Amended and Restated Loan and Security Agreement (the "Loan Agreement") by and between LaSalle Bank National Association, as Agent ("LaSalle") and the Company, dated as of October 31, 2005.

Pursuant to the Loan Agreement, as amended by the Amendment, LaSalle agreed to increase the maximum revolving loan limit from $30 million to $35 million on December 5, 2006 and ultimately to $37.5 million on April 1, 2007. The increased borrowing availability is provided through the addition of three special accommodations (the "Special Accommodations") totalling $12.5 million.

Under the terms of the Loan Agreement, as amended by the Amendment, the maximum revolving loan limit consists of two components and the Company may borrow: (i) up to $30 million, decreasing to $25 million on January 1, 2007, based on the amount of eligible accounts receivable from its clients (the "Receivables Line"); and (ii) an additional $5 million, increasing to $10 million on January 1, 2007 and further increasing to $12.5 million on April 1, 2007 under the Special Accommodations. The Special Accommodations and the maximum revolving loan limit will begin to reduce monthly on July 31, 2007 by an amount specified in the Loan Agreement, as amended by the Amendment; provided that the maximum revolving loan limit will never be less than $27.5 million. Since the Special Accommodations are not dependant on the amount of the Company's eligible accounts receivable from clients, based on management's current expectations, the Amendment increases the Company's borrowing capacity under the Loan Agreement by $5 million as of December 5, 2006, $10 million as of January 1, 2007 and $12.5 million as of April 1, 2007.

Interest on the borrowings under the Loan Agreement, as amended by the Amendment, will continue to bear interest at a floating rate based on the London Interbank Rate or an alternate base rate defined in the Loan Agreement, as amended by the Amendment. Borrowings under the Special Accommodations will bear a higher rate of interest than borrowings under the Receivables Line.

Pursuant to the terms of the Amendment, LaSalle also agreed to adjust certain financial covenants by: (i) amending the definitions of Capital Expenditures; EBITDA and Fixed Charges; (ii) eliminating the tangible net worth covenant; (iii) adding an EBITDA covenant and a leverage covenant; and (iv) amending certain other covenants, including the maximum restructuring cash disbursements covenant, and fixed charge coverage covenant.

For more details regarding the terms of the Amendment refer to the Amendment which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is hereby incorporated by reference into this filing in its entirety.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On December 11, 2006, the Company issued a press release regarding the execution of the Amendment. A copy of the Press Release is attached hereto at 99.1 and is hereby incorporated by reference in this filing in its entirety.

After giving effect to the Amendment, the Company expects that its cash balances, cash flow from operations and available borrowings under the Loan Agreement will be sufficient to meet projected operating needs, repay debt obligations as they become due and fund the expansion of its operations in Manila, The Philippines. The Company continues to explore the optimal capital structure that will position it for growth in the longer term. There can be no assurance that the Company will take any action to further adjust its capital structure or the timing or terms and conditions of any such transaction.
