Through the Separation Agreement and consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Wolff will provide the Company with a general release of claims, and will receive (i) a lump sum severance payment of $3,182,700, which is two times the sum of Mr. Wolff's annual salary and target bonus; (ii) a lump sum payment of $114,759, representing Mr. Wolff's accrued and unused PTO, capped at 1.5 times his annual accrual rate; (iii) payment by the Company of COBRA costs for Mr. Wolff and his covered dependents so long as he elects and remains eligible for COBRA, but for no more than two years; and (iv) vesting of all options, shares of restricted stock ("RSAs") and restricted stock units ("RSUs") in which he would have vested had he remained actively employed by the Company through the second anniversary of his resignation, excluding any unvested performance-based RSAs or performance-based RSUs. The Separation Agreement will also provide: (a) an extension of the exercise period for Mr. Wolff's vested stock options until December 15, 2015; (b) the Company's commitment to defend, indemnify and reimburse Mr. Wolff for costs, taxes or other payments for which the Company is already obligated under his Employment Agreement; and (c) for payment of a performance bonus for Mr. Wolff's contributions to the Company's achievement of its 2014 objectives, determined in a manner consistent with the determination of performance bonuses awarded to the Company's highest performing 2014 executives, pro-rated for the period during which he was employed in 2014.
