PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Four directors are to be elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting to serve as directors until the 2009 Annual Meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified. The nominees for director are Stephen Catanzaro, Glen F. Ceiley, Jay Conzen and William L. Means. All of the nominees are current directors standing for re-election and all were previously elected by the shareholders.

As of the date of the Information Statement, the Board has no reason to believe that any of the nominees named will be unable or unwilling to serve if elected. There are no family relationships among any of these nominees or among any of these nominees and any executive officer, nor is there any arrangement or understanding between any nominee and any other person pursuant to which the nominee was selected.

Certain information regarding each nominee follows. Each nominee has consented to being named in the Information Statement and to serve if elected.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the following nominees.

Stephen Catanzaro, 55, is the Controller of Allied Business Schools, Inc. (home study course schools), a position he has held since April 2004. Before that, Mr. Catanzaro was the Chief Financial Officer of V&M Restoration, Inc., a restoration company, from September 2002 to February 2004, and the Chief Financial Officer of Bisco, an international distributor of electronic components, from September 1995 to March 2002. Bisco is an affiliate of the Company. Mr. Catanzaro has served as a director of the Company since he was first elected by the Company's shareholders at the 1999 Annual Meeting.

Glen F. Ceiley, 62, is the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board, positions he has held since 1999. Mr. Ceiley also serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Bisco, a position he has held since 1973. In addition, Mr. Ceiley is a former director of Data I/O Corporation, a publicly-held company engaged in the manufacturing of electronic equipment. Mr. Ceiley has served as director of the Company since he was appointed to the Company's Board in February 1998 and thereafter elected by the shareholders at the 1998 Annual Meeting.

Jay Conzen, 61, is the President of Old Fashioned Kitchen, Inc. (a national food distributor), a position he has held since April 2003. Mr. Conzen has served as a director of the Company since he was appointed to the Company's Board in February 1998 and thereafter elected by the shareholders at the 1998 Annual Meeting.

William L. Means, 64, is the Vice President of Information Technology of Bisco, a position he has held since 2001. Before that, Mr. Means was Vice President of Corporate Development of Bisco from 1997 to 2001. Mr. Means has served as director of the Company since he was first elected by the Company's shareholders at the 1999 Annual Meeting.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Board of Directors

The business of the Company is under the general management of its board of directors as provided by the Florida Business Corporation Act.

Board Independence.

The Board has determined that two of its four directors, which members are also the nominees for director, are independent, as defined by the NASDAQ Stock Market's Marketplace Rules. In addition to such rules, the Board considered transactions and relationships between each director (and his immediate family) and the Company to determine whether any such relationships or transactions were inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent. As a result, the Board determined that Messrs. Ceiley and Means are not independent, as Messrs. Ceiley and Means are employees of Bisco and members of Bisco's steering committee. Bisco's steering committee handles the day to day operations of the Company, and Messrs. Ceiley and Means are intimately involved with decision-making that directly affects the financial statements of the Company. Bisco is an affiliate of the Company.

Board Meetings

The Board held four meetings during fiscal year 2007. Each member of the Board attended all meetings except Mr. Catanzaro, who attended three meetings. Two directors attended the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The Company does not have a policy with regard to directors' attendance at annual meetings of shareholders.

Standing Committees

In accordance with the Bylaws of the Company, which empower the Board to appoint such committees as it deems necessary and appropriate, the Board has appointed an Audit Committee and an Executive Compensation Committee.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee's basic functions are to assist the Board in discharging its fiduciary responsibilities to the shareholders and the investment community in the preservation of the integrity of the financial information published by the Company, to maintain free and open means of communication between the Company's directors, independent auditors and financial management, and to ensure the independence of the independent auditors. The Board has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee which is attached as Appendix A to the Company's 2007 Information Statement, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on July 7, 2007. The Audit Committee charter is not available on the Company's website. Currently, the members of the Audit Committee are Directors Catanzaro, Conzen (Chairman) and Means. Directors Catanzaro and Conzen are "independent" as defined by the NASDAQ Stock Market's Marketplace Rules. Director Means is not "independent," as he is employed by Bisco, and is a member of Bisco's steering committee which handles the day to day operations of the Company. Also, Mr. Means is intimately involved with decision-making that directly affects the financial statements of the Company. The Audit Committee held four meetings during the fiscal year ending January 2, 2008. All members of the Audit Committee attended the meetings.

Audit Committee Financial Expert: The Company does not currently have an audit committee financial expert. The Company believes that the members of the Board have demonstrated that they are capable of understanding generally accepted accounting principles and financial statements, analyzing and evaluating the Company's financial statements, and understanding internal controls and procedures for financial reporting. In addition, the Company believes that retaining a director who would qualify as an audit committee financial expert would be costly and burdensome and is not warranted under the circumstances.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures: The Audit Committee is required to pre-approve all auditing services and permissible non-audit services, including related fees and terms, to be performed for the Company by its independent auditor, subject to the de minimus exceptions for non-audit services described under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), which are approved by the Audit Committee prior to the completion of the audit. In fiscal year 2007, the Audit Committee pre-approved all services performed for the Company by the auditor.

Executive Compensation Committee

The Executive Compensation Committee administers the Company's stock option plans and is responsible for granting stock options to officers and managerial employees of the Company. It is also responsible for establishing the salary and annual bonuses paid to executive officers of the Company. The Executive Compensation Committee has not adopted a formal charter. The current members of the Executive Compensation Committee are Directors Ceiley and Means. The Executive Compensation Committee held one meeting during fiscal year 2007. All members of the Committee attended this meeting. The Company does not utilize any compensation consultant, or otherwise delegate its authority, in determining the amount or form of executive compensation. Director Ceiley is the sole executive officer of the Company and plays a significant role in determining and recommending the amount and form of compensation. Please refer to the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" section of this Information Statement regarding the functions and operations of the Executive Compensation Committee.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The members of the Executive Compensation Committee are Directors Ceiley and Means. During fiscal year 2007, Mr. Ceiley served as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board, but Mr. Ceiley did not receive any compensation for his services as such. Mr. Ceiley has not participated in any related party transactions required to be disclosed under Item 404 of Regulation S-K. Mr. Means is not currently nor has he ever been an employee or officer of the Company, and has not participated in any related party transactions (described in Item 404 of Regulation S-K). During fiscal year 2007, Messrs. Ceiley and Means were executive officers of Bisco and Mr. Ceiley was the sole director of Bisco.

Nomination of Directors

The Board does not have a Nominating Committee. Given the size of the Company and its resources, the Board believes that this is appropriate. Each director participates in the consideration of director nominees. The Board believes that having such a committee would not enhance the nomination process. The Company has not adopted a charter relating to the director nomination process, nor does it have a formal policy regarding the consideration of any director candidates recommended by shareholders or specific minimum qualifications for director nominees. The Board believes this is appropriate since any such recommendations may be informally submitted to and considered by the Company's directors. The Board periodically reviews the performance of each Board member and concludes whether or not the member should continue in their current capacity. Recommendations by shareholders of director nominees should be directed to the Company's Corporate Secretary at 1500 N. Lakeview Avenue, Anaheim, California 92807, and should include the name and address of the candidate; a brief biographical description, including the candidate's occupation for at least five years; a statement of the qualifications of the candidate; and the candidate's signed consent to be named in the Information Statement or Proxy Statement and to serve as director, if elected. Directors should possess qualities such as understanding the business and operations of the Company and corporate governance principles.

Communications to Board of Directors

The Board has established a process for shareholders to communicate with members of the Board. If you would like to contact the Board, you can do so by forwarding your concern, question or complaint to the Company's Corporate Secretary at 1500 N. Lakeview Avenue, Anaheim, California 92807.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Glen F. Ceiley currently serves as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Stephen Catanzaro, Jay Conzen and William L. Means also currently serve as directors of the Company.

Our officers, directors and the nominees for director have neither been convicted in any criminal proceeding during the past five years nor parties to any judicial or administrative proceeding during the past five years that resulted in a judgment, decree or final order enjoining them from future violations of, or prohibiting activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or a finding of any violation of federal or state securities law or commodities law. Similarly, no bankruptcy petitions have been filed by or against any business or property of any of our directors or officers, nor has any bankruptcy petition been filed against a partnership or business association in which these persons were general partners or executive officers.

None of directors, nominees for director, executive officers, affiliates of the Company, or any owner of record or beneficial owner of more than 5% of the Company's voting securities, or any of their associates, is a party adverse to the Company or has a material interest adverse to the Company.

There are no family relationships between any of our directors, nominees for directors or executive officers.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

There have been no transactions with any director or nominee for director, executive officer, or family member thereof during fiscal year 2007. In June 2008, the Company agreed to assign its right to purchase one property to Glen Ceiley, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Mr. Ceiley has the right to purchase the property for $3.13 million and, upon exercising its right, will become the new landlord of the property with the Company being the tenant.

EXECUTIVE AND DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The Executive Compensation Committee (the "Committee"), currently consisting of Directors Ceiley and Means, uses the following objectives as guidelines for its executive compensation decisions:

- to provide a compensation package that will attract, motivate and retain qualified executives;
- to ensure a compensation mix that focuses executive behavior on the fulfillment of annual and long-term business objectives; and
- to create a sense of ownership in the Company that causes executive decisions to be aligned with the best interests of the Company's shareholders.

The Committee determined that there would be no executive compensation in 2007 for the Company's executive officer.

General Compensation Policies

In general, base salary levels are set at the minimum levels believed by the Company's executive officers to be sufficient to attract and retain qualified executives when considered with the other components of the Company's compensation structure.

The Committee adjusts salary levels for executive officers based on achievement of specific annual performance goals, including personal, departmental and overall Company goals depending upon each officer's specific job responsibilities. The Committee also uses its subjective judgment, based upon such criteria as the executive's knowledge of and importance to the Company's business, willingness and ability to accomplish the tasks for which he or she was responsible, professional growth and potential, the Company's operating earnings and an evaluation of individual performance, in making salary decisions. Compensation paid to executive officers in prior years is also taken into account. No particular weighting is applied to these factors.

The Committee may determine that the Company's financial performance and individual achievements merit the payment of annual bonuses. The Company instituted a bonus program for management of the Company beginning in 2003, based on a percentage of the earnings from operations of the Company.

The Committee determines stock option grants to the executive officers. The Committee determines annual stock option grants to other employees based on recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer. Stock options are intended to encourage key employees to remain employed by the Company by providing them with a long term interest in the Company's overall performance as reflected by the market price of the Company's Common Stock. No stock option grants were made in fiscal year 2007.

The Committee will consider any federal income tax limitations on the deductibility of executive compensation in reaching compensation decisions and will seek shareholder approval where such approval will eliminate any limitations on deductibility.

Summary Compensation

The following table sets forth compensation information for the named executive officers in fiscal years 2007 and 2006.

Name and Principal Position	Year	Salary ($)	All Other Compensation ($)	Total ($)
Edward B. Alexander	2007	$ 0	$ 0	$ 0
President ¹	2006	80,000	0	80,000
Glen F. Ceiley	2007	0	12,000 ²	12,000
Chief Executive Officer	2006	0	12,000 ²	12,000

1 Mr. Alexander served as the Company's President until April 2006.

2 Reflects fees paid to Mr. Ceiley in his capacity as a director of the Company. The fees earned in 2007 are also reflected in the section below entitled "Director Compensation."

Due to the current nature of the Company's operations and related results from the last two years, the Executive Compensation Committee and Mr. Ceiley have agreed that the position of Chief Executive Officer is not justified in receiving any salary or benefits from the Company. This structure is reviewed periodically by the Executive Compensation Committee and will be reviewed again, should the Company's operations or results change.

Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End

None of the Company's named executive officers received or were granted option awards to purchase the Company's Common Stock in fiscal year 2007. Further, there were no outstanding equity awards held by the Company's named executive officers at the end of fiscal year 2007.

Retirement Benefits

The Company does not offer a retirement plan for executive officers or employees, but during fiscal year 2006, the Company provided for participation in its 401(k) for all employees, including executive officers. The Company's 401(k) Plan was terminated at the end of fiscal year 2006.

Director Compensation

In order to attract and retain highly qualified directors through an investment interest in the Company's future success, the Company enacted, in 1985, a non-qualified Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors (the "Directors' Plan"), which was used to compensate directors until January 2002. Due to the expiration of the Directors' Plan in 2002, the Company paid $10,000 cash to each director in 2007 as compensation for his services. In addition, directors who are not employees of the Company receive a fee of $500 for each Board meeting attended. No fees are awarded to directors for attendance at meetings of the Audit or Executive Compensation Committees of the Board.

The following table sets forth the compensation of the Company's directors for the fiscal year ended January 2, 2008.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Executive Compensation Committee reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis and the related compensation table with management. Based on such review and discussion, the Committee recommended to the Board that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Information Statement and in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

As of January 2, 2008, the Company had no equity compensation plans.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, requires certain officers of the Company and its directors, and persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of any registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership in such securities and changes in ownership in such securities with the SEC and the Company.

Based solely on a review of the reports and written representations provided to the Company by the above referenced persons, the Company believes that during fiscal year 2007 all filing requirements applicable to its reporting officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were timely satisfied except for 13 delinquent Form 4 filings by Glen Ceiley resulting in 26 transactions being untimely reported.

FINANCIAL CODE OF ETHICAL CONDUCT

The Company has adopted a financial code of ethics applicable to the Company's senior executive and financial officers. You may receive, without charge, a copy of the Financial Code of Ethical Conduct by contacting our Corporate Secretary at 1500 N. Lakeview Avenue, Anaheim, California 92807.

There were no other fees billed by Squar Milner for the fiscal years ended January 2, 2008 or December 27, 2006 for services rendered to the Company, other than the services described above.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Board approved the Company's engagement of the firm Squar, Milner, Peterson, Miranda & Williamson LLP ("Squar Milner") to serve as the Company's independent accountants and to audit and report on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 2, 2008.

The Audit Committee has discussed with Squar Milner the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61 (Certification of Statements on Auditing Standards) as modified or supplemented.

Based on its review and discussions with management and Squar Milner, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 2, 2008 and the Annual Report to Shareholders.

Respectfully submitted,

Jay Conzen, Chairman
Stephen Catanzaro
William L. Means

OTHER MATTERS

The Board is not aware of any other matters to come before the meeting.

Any other matter which may be considered at the Annual Meeting will be approved if the votes cast favoring the matter exceed the votes opposing the matter, unless a greater number of affirmative votes or voting by classes is required by Florida law or the Company's Articles of Incorporation.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Proposals of shareholders to be presented at the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must be received by the Company (addressed to the attention of the Corporate Secretary) not later than February 24, 2009 to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy or information statement materials relating to that meeting. To be submitted at the meeting, any such proposal must be a proper subject for shareholder action under the laws of the State of Florida, and must otherwise conform to applicable regulations of the SEC.

The Company may solicit proxies in connection with next year's Annual Meeting which confer discretionary authority to vote on any shareholder proposals of which the Company does not receive notice by May 9, 2009. Proposals should be sent to the Company's executive office to the attention of the Corporate Secretary.
