Explanatory Note

On March 19, 2015, Blue Earth, Inc. (the Company) received a staff determination letter from the Nasdaq (Nasdaq) stating that the Company was not in compliance with its rules for continued listing, Rule 5635(d), because it violated the shareholder approval requirement. The violation was based on the Staff's determination to aggregate the shares issuable in three recent transactions for determining whether the 20% threshold for shareholder approval has been triggered. As a result, the Company has agreed with the applicable parties described below to amend and modify the terms of two of these transactions in order to achieve compliance. On May 18, 2015, the Company received notice from Nasdaq that as a result of the amendments, the Company has regained compliance with Rule 5635(d) and therefore is no longer subject to a possible delisting.

Section 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Jackson 2015 Transaction

As reported in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 13, 2015, on March 10, 2015, the Company entered into a Note and Warrant Purchase Agreement with Jackson Investment Group, LLC (Jackson), pursuant to which Jackson purchased a $10 million 12% Senior Secured Convertible Note (the Loan). The Note is due September 10, 2015 (Maturity) and may be prepaid at any time without any premium. The Note accrues interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date of issuance and is payable at Maturity in cash, or at Jackson's sole option, in shares of Common Stock. Solely to the extent the Note is not converted prior to maturity, Jackson has an option (the Option) to purchase up to 10,000,000 shares for six (6) months commencing upon repayment of the Note. Jackson also received 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock as a commitment fee and a warrant (the Warrant) to purchase 2,000,000 shares ending March 10, 2020. Initially, the Company and Jackson had agreed upon a conversion price for the note and exercise prices for the Warrant and Option at $1.00 per share of Common Stock respectively.

On May 13, 2015, in connection with the efforts to obtain compliance with the Nasdaq, the Company and Jackson entered into a Global Amendment and an Allonge reflecting that all conversion and exercise prices would be adjusted to $1.02 per share of Common Stock ab initio (based on a book value of $1.0198 per share as of December 31, 2014).

TCA Transaction

As reported in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 27, 2015, the Company and each of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries and TCA Global Credit Master Fund, LP (TCA) entered into a Second Amendment to Credit Agreement, originally entered into as of January 31, 2013, but

The Loan is secured by various assets and 400,000 shares of newly issued Series D Convertible Preferred Stock of the Company (the Series D Preferred Stock) solely convertible in the event of a default in payment.

On May 14, 2015, TCA, the Company and all of the Company's subsidiaries) entered into a Global Amendment to amend the relevant documents to provide an absolute restriction on any conversion of the Series D Preferred Stock by TCA in excess of 2,500,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company.

These shares had been issued as part of the Company's offer to Mr. Eggleston to become employed with the Company. Upon the cancellation, the Company shall approve an award of 10,000 shares of restricted common stock that will be issued pursuant to the Company's Equity Incentive Plan. The purpose of the cancellation and re-issuance is for the Company to maintain compliance with the applicable Nasdaq equity compensation shareholder approval rules.

Section 3.03 Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders
