Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 12, 2012, the Sixth Judicial District Court of Nevada entered an order (the “Order”) vacating the November 2012 trial date for the litigation between Coeur Rochester, Inc., a subsidiary of Coeur d'Alene Mines Corporation, and Rye Patch Gold Corp. and Rye Patch Gold US, Inc. relating to certain disputed unpatented federal mining claims. Coeur Rochester's motion, which Rye Patch did not oppose, cited several important pending pre-trial issues yet to be resolved, including competing motions for partial summary judgment and the pending appellate proceedings relating to the appointment of the Special Master. Coeur Rochester's motion also cited the substantial amount of discovery yet to be completed, which includes discovery on Rye Patch Gold Corp. related to defenses and claims raised by Rye Patch after the previous written discovery deadline. A new trial date has not yet been set. The Order requires the parties to set a new trial date with the Court by October 22, 2012.
