Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(c) Farmer Bros. Co., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), previously reported that Isaac N. Johnston, Jr. resigned as Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company effective January 6, 2017 to pursue another opportunity. While the Company’s search for a permanent Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer is ongoing, on February 1, 2017, the Board of Directors of the Company appointed Rene E. Peth to perform the functions of interim principal financial and accounting officer, effective immediately. Ms. Peth, age 52, is currently the Company’s Vice President, Corporate Controller and has served in this role since December 2013, responsible for the Company’s financial statements, general ledger, managing all accounting functions, and communications with external auditors. She will continue to serve in this role while taking over the Company’s principal financial and accounting officer responsibilities on an interim basis.

Prior to joining the Company, Ms. Peth served as Chief Financial Officer of AKH Company, Inc., doing business as Discount Tire Centers, a tire retailer and wholesale distributor, where she was responsible for overseeing all financial operations, accounting and IT, including financial reporting for 41 retail locations and the wholesale division, cash management and banking, from April 2012 to December 2013. Prior to that, Ms. Peth served as Chief Financial Officer from 2003 to 2011 and Controller from 2000 to 2003, of Intercontinental Art, Inc., a manufacturer, importer and distributor of wall art décor. Ms. Peth’s responsibilities included oversight of all financial operations, accounting, customer service, IT, HR, legal, manufacturing and distribution, directing, among other things, strategic/operations planning, forecasting, budgeting, treasury, cash management and risk management. Ms. Peth’s other experience includes serving as Controller for Vista Paint Corporation, a manufacturer, distributor and retailer of architectural and industrial coatings, where she was responsible for all finance and accounting functions, and Accounting Supervisor and Senior Accountant of Pilkington PLC, an international manufacturer of plastic, glass and reinforced/composite products. Ms. Peth received her undergraduate degree in Accounting from the University of Wisconsin.

Effective February 1, 2017, the Company and Ms. Peth will enter into the Company’s standard form of Indemnification Agreement for directors and officers. Pursuant to the Indemnification Agreement, the Company will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless Ms. Peth against all expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any threatened, pending or completed proceeding by reason of her status as an officer of the Company. The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Indemnification Agreement, the form of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 (to update the schedule of indemnitees) and incorporated herein by reference.

The selection of Ms. Peth to perform the functions of interim principal financial and accounting officer was not pursuant to any arrangement or understanding with respect to any other person. There are no family relationships between Ms. Peth and any director or executive officer of the Company, and there are no transactions between Ms. Peth and the Company that would be required to be reported under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
