Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

In connection with the signing of an agreement for the sale of the semiconductor wafer fabrication facility in San Antonio, Texas (the “San Antonio Facility”) of Maxim Integrated Products, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”) to TJ Texas, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Supplier”) and indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Tower Semiconductor Ltd., an Israeli corporation, on November 18, 2015, the Company and Maxim Integrated Products International, Ltd., an Ireland corporation and indirect-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (together with the Company, “Maxim”) entered into a supply agreement (the “Supply Agreement”) with the Supplier, pursuant to which Maxim will procure from the Supplier minimum quantities of silicon wafers upon which integrated circuits are made that are designed by Maxim. The Supplier will manufacture minimum quantities of silicon wafers and provide to Maxim foundry services, all in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Supply Agreement. The Supply Agreement also contains certain customary representations, warranties, liability limitations, and confidentiality and indemnity obligations. The Supply Agreement becomes effective upon the closing of the sale of the San Antonio Facility, which is currently scheduled to occur in January 2016.

The foregoing description of the Supply Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Supply Agreement, which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending December 26, 2015.
