Edgar Filing: UNISYS CORP - Form 8-K

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(e) On January 2, 2008, Unisys Corporation and Joseph W. McGrath, its President and Chief Executive Officer, entered into an agreement which provides for Mr. McGrath to receive certain benefits in the event his employment with the company is terminated. Mr. McGrath's previous agreement with the company ended on December 31, 2007.

Under the new agreement, if Mr. McGrath's employment is terminated by the company without cause or by Mr. McGrath for good reason (defined generally as a reduction in aggregate compensation target, a reduction in duties or authority or removal as chief executive officer), Mr. McGrath will be entitled to receive an amount equal to two times (i) his base salary (at its then current rate) plus(ii) his annual bonus (in an amount equal to the average percentage of target bonus paid to him for the three years preceding the employment termination date times the target bonus amount in effect on the termination date). This termination payment is to be paid in a lump sum in cash within 30 days of the date of termination, subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. Mr. McGrath and his eligible dependents will also be entitled to continued medical and dental coverage, at the same costs applicable to active employees, for up to two years following termination of employment. Such coverage will cease if Mr. McGrath becomes employed during such two-year period.

The agreement also provides that, in the event of Mr. McGrath's disability or death, all compensation and benefits under the agreement will terminate. In such event, Mr. McGrath or his estate will instead receive (i) if termination by reason of disability or death occurs prior to the bonus payment date for the previous award year, a bonus for such year determined by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion after receiving a recommendation from the Compensation Committee of the Board, (ii) a bonus for the year in which the termination by reason of disability or death occurs equal to a pro rata portion, based on the period of service rendered in such year, of the bonus amount paid for the previous year, (iii) benefits under the retirement, welfare, incentive, fringe and perquisite programs generally available to executive officers upon disability or death and (iv) any deferred balance under the company's deferred compensation plans.

If Mr. McGrath's employment is terminated for cause or by Mr. McGrath for other than good reason, he will be entitled only to the benefits provided to the company's executive employees upon termination of employment.

The agreement includes non-compete, non-solicitation and non-disparagement provisions effective for 12 months from the date of termination of employment. In the event Mr. McGrath breaches any of these provisions, the company will have the right to terminate any payments due to him under the second paragraph above.
