Open Houses Scheduled from April 7 through April 16 on Oahu, Hawaii Island, Maui, Molokai and Lanai JUNO BEACH, Fla., and HONOLULU, March 23, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- NextEra Energy, Inc. (NYSE:NEE) and Hawaiian Electric Company, Inc., Hawaii Electric Light Company, Inc. and Maui Electric Company Limited (collectively referred to as Hawaiian Electric), subsidiaries of Hawaiian Electric Industries, Inc. (NYSE:HE) (HEI), members of the public with the opportunity to provide input directly to company officials. The open houses will take place on Oahu, Hawaii Island, Maui, Molokai and Lanai from April 7 to April 16.

"Since we announced our merger late last year, we've been gratified at the reception we've received as well as the high level of interest in this important topic for Hawaii," said Eric Gleason, president of NextEra Energy Hawaii, LLC.

Hawaii's dependence on imported oil, integrating more rooftop solar energy and, importantly, lowering customer bills.
We recognize that addressing Hawaii's energy challenges requires Hawaii-specific energy solutions, and that is why we look forward to meeting with and listening to residents across Hawaii. The meetings will provide us with the opportunity to receive valuable feedback while allowing residents to learn more about NextEra Energy and the significant near- and long-term benefits this merger will deliver to Hawaiian Electric customers and the state of Hawaii."

"In selecting NextEra Energy as our partner, we will join a company that shares our community and environmental values, has a proven track record of lowering electric bills, is the world's largest generator of renewable energy from the wind and sun, and is committed to rooftop solar in Hawaii," said Alan Oshima, Hawaiian Electric's president and
