Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

Portland General Electric Company's (PGE, or the Company) Coyote Springs natural gas-fired plant located in Boardman, Oregon has been out of service since August 24, 2013 due to equipment failures. Coyote Springs has a net capacity of 246 megawatts, which represents approximately 9% of the Company's total net generating capacity. The Company estimates the repair costs to approximate $2 million. The repairs are expected to be completed and the plant back online by mid-November 2013. At this time, repair costs are expected to be included in operating and maintenance expense. Any potential insurance recovery of the repair costs is subject to a $2.5 million deductible for each event.

As a result of this unplanned outage, the Company expects to incur incremental replacement power costs of approximately $6 million.

PGE will host a conference call with financial analysts and investors on November 1, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. ET to discuss financial results for the third quarter 2013, as well as provide an update on our earnings guidance for the full year, including the impact of the Coyote Springs outage.
