1.	New Chief Financial Officer Announcement

NEW CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

British Airways announces that its group treasurer and head of taxation, Keith Williams, will succeed John Rishton as chief financial officer on 1 January, 2006 following the resignation of the latter with effect from 31 December to join Amsterdam based retailer, Ahold.

Martin Broughton, the airline's chairman said: "Keith played a critical part in restoring the company's balance sheet and returning it to a position of financial health. He has a great knowledge of the company and has the personality needed for the role."

Willie Walsh, chief executive designate, said: "I am very sorry to see John go but delighted to welcome Keith to the leadership team. He has an excellent reputation inside and outside British Airways. I've worked closely with Keith in the last five months and I look forward to working with him closely in the years ahead."
