promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is eligible to report (and, if such institutional investor beneficially owns greater than 5% of the Company's common stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Company Common Stock"), then outstanding, does in fact report) beneficial ownership of Company Common Stock on Schedule 13G; (2) such institutional investor is not required to file a Schedule 13D (or any successor or comparable report) with respect to its beneficial ownership of the Company Common Stock; and (3) such institutional investor shall "Beneficially Own" less than 15% of the Company Common Stock then outstanding; provided, however, that a Person who would constitute a Qualified Institutional Investor except for its failure to satisfy clause (3) above shall nonetheless constitute a Qualified Institutional Investor if (A) such Person or an Affiliate of such Person shall have, as of December 31, 2004, reported beneficial ownership of greater than 5% of the Company Common Stock for a period of two consecutive years and shall thereafter continuously beneficially own greater than 5% of the Company Common Stock then outstanding prior to the time of determination, (B) such Person shall be the Beneficial Owner of less than 15% of the Company Common Stock then outstanding (including in such calculation the holdings of all such Person's Affiliates and Associates other than those which, under published interpretations of the SEC or its Staff, are eligible to file separate reports on Schedule 13G with respect to their beneficial ownership of the Company Common Stock), and (C) such Person shall be the Beneficial Owner of less than 30% of the Company Common Stock then outstanding (including in such calculation the holdings of all such Person's Affiliates and Associates). Under the terms of the Rights Agreement, a "Person" (other than the Company, any subsidiary of the Company, any employee benefit plan of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, or any entity holding Company Common Stock for or pursuant to the terms of any such plan) who does not meet the aforementioned exception is deemed an "Acquiring Person" if such Person is the Beneficial Owner of 10% or more of the Company Common Stock.
