

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On May 19, 2017, the United States Federal Trade Commission issued a request for additional information in connection with our pending acquisition of CTP-656 and other assets related to the treatment of cystic fibrosis from Concert Pharmaceuticals, Inc. The second request was issued under notification requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended. We intend to work cooperatively with the FTC as it reviews the transaction.

Additional Information about the Transaction and Where to Find It

This disclosure is being made in respect of the proposed asset purchase with Concert. The proposed asset purchase and the asset purchase agreement will be submitted to Concert's shareholders for their consideration and approval. In connection with the proposed asset purchase, Concert has filed a proxy statement with the SEC. This disclosure does not constitute a solicitation of any vote or proxy from any shareholder of Concert. Investors are urged to read the proxy statement carefully and in its entirety and any other relevant documents or materials filed or to be filed with the SEC or incorporated by reference in the proxy statement, because they contain important information about the proposed asset sale. The definitive proxy statement has been mailed to Concert's shareholders. In addition, the proxy statement and other documents are available free of charge at the SEC's internet website, www.sec.gov. The proxy statement and other pertinent documents may also be obtained free of charge at the Investors section of Concert's website, www.concertpharma.com, or by directing a written request to Concert Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Attn: Investor Relations, in writing, at 99 Hayden Ave, #500, Lexington, MA 02421.

Certain Information Concerning Participants

Vertex and its directors, executive officers and other members of management and employees may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies in connection with the proposed asset purchase. Information about Vertex's directors and executive officers is included in Vertex's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 filed with the SEC on February 23, 2017.

Forward-looking Statements

This current report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, without limitation, statements regarding (i) our plans with respect to working with the FTC and (ii) the pending acquisition of CTP-656 and other assets related to the treatment of cystic fibrosis from Concert Pharmaceuticals, Inc. While we believe the forward-looking statements contained in this filing are accurate, these forward-looking statements represent our beliefs only as of the date of this report, and there are a number of factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements. Those risks and uncertainties include, among other things, that we may not be able to obtain regulatory approval for our pending transaction with Concert and other risks listed under Risk Factors in our annual report and quarterly reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available through our website at www.vrtx.com. We disclaim any obligation to update the information contained in this report as new information becomes available.
