Item 5. Other Events

On April 22, 2002, Express Scripts received an administrative subpoena duces tecum issued by the U.S. Attorney's Office in Boston, Massachusetts. On April 26, 2002, a substantially identical subpoena was issued to Express Scripts' wholly-owned subsidiary Diversified Pharmaceutical Services, Inc. ("DPS"). The Company has not been advised that it or DPS is a target of any investigation. The subpoenas state that they are issued in connection with an investigation of various health care offenses and other federal crimes. The subpoenas ask for information pertaining to Express Scripts' and DPS' relationship with TAP Pharmaceuticals, and specifically with respect to TAP's two principal drugs, Lupron and Prevacid. The Company believes that its services and business practices are in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations in all material respects, and it will cooperate in the investigation. The Company cannot predict the outcome of the investigation at this time; however, if Express Scripts were to become a target of the investigation, an unfavorable outcome could result in the imposition of monetary fines or penalties, or injunctive or administrative remedies.
