Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Amendment of Compensatory Arrangements with C. Jeffrey Knittel

Other than C. Jeffrey Knittel, President of Transportation and International Finance, none of the executive officers of CIT Group Inc. (“CIT” or the “Company”) is party to any employment agreement with the Company and, except for Mr. Knittel, none of our executive officers has any individual agreement that provides for cash severance payments upon termination of employment or in connection with a change of control. In 2013, the Company adopted the CIT Employee Severance Plan, which covers all of our U.S. employees. Under the CIT Employee Severance Plan, each of our executive officers is eligible to receive a cash severance amount equal to 52 weeks of base salary, a severance bonus (prorated based on prior short-term incentives), a payment equal to 102% of the cost of premiums for coverage in accordance with the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended (“COBRA”), for 52 weeks, which amount will be increased to cover applicable taxes, and certain outplacement services. In the event of a qualifying Change of Control termination, each of our executive officers is eligible to receive a cash severance amount equal to two times the sum of base salary plus short-term incentive, a severance bonus (prorated based on prior short-term incentives), a payment equal to 102% of COBRA premiums for a maximum of 24 months (notwithstanding any statutory limitations on the length of COBRA coverage), which amount will be increased to cover applicable taxes, and certain outplacement services.

Under Mr. Knittel’s employment agreement, as amended and restated, in the event of a Change of Control (as defined in Mr. Knittel’s employment agreement), the term of his employment agreement will be extended to the second anniversary of the Change of Control. In addition, should his employment be terminated “Without Cause” or by Mr. Knittel for “Good Reason” (each as defined in his employment agreement) during the two-year extension period, Mr. Knittel will receive the same severance payments and benefits described above for a termination “Without Cause” except that an amount equal to two and one-half times salary and bonus will become payable in lieu of continued salary and bonus for two years.

On July 14, 2014, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, on the recommendation of management, determined that it is in the best interests of the Company to ensure that the severance provisions applicable to Mr. Knittel upon the occurrence of a Change in Control are the same as the severance provisions applicable to all other executive officers. Therefore, the Compensation Committee approved an amendment to Mr. Knittel’s employment agreement to remove the previous provisions regarding termination upon a Change in Control and to provide that Mr. Knittel would be covered by the Change in Control provisions of the CIT Severance Plan upon a Change in Control. All other provisions of Mr. Knittel’s employment agreement, including all other provisions governing termination of employment, will remain in effect under circumstances other than a Change in Control. See “Narrative Information Relating to Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control”, in the Company’s Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders and Proxy Statement dated April 3, 2014.

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On July 15, 2014, the Board of Directors of CIT Group Inc. (“CIT” or the “Company”) approved the addition of a new Article XII to CIT’s By-laws which provides that, unless the Company consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the Company, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or other employee of the Company to the Company or the Company’s stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim against the Company or any director or officer or other employee of the Company arising pursuant to any provision of the Delaware General Corporation Law or CIT’s Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws, or (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine shall be a state court located within the State of Delaware (or, if no state court located within the State of Delaware has jurisdiction, the federal district court for the District of Delaware).

The intent of the amendment to CIT's By-laws is to avoid excessive costs and inefficiencies that the Company may incur from time to time from multijurisdictional litigation of the type described in Article XII of the By-laws.

The Amended and Restated By-laws, as so amended, are attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
