EL PASO CORPORATION ANNOUNCES COMPLETION OF SUBSIDIARY NOTES OFFERING

HOUSTON, TEXAS, MAY 27, 2003--El Paso Corporation (NYSE:EP) announced today that its wholly owned subsidiary, El Paso Production Holding Company, has closed a private placement of $1.2 billion of 7.75-percent, 10-year senior unsecured notes with registration rights. The proceeds of the offering were used to repay intercompany obligations to El Paso Corporation. El Paso then used the proceeds to repay early its $1.2-billion, 9.75-percent, two-year secured interim term loan that was completed in March 2003.

"This financing is another important accomplishment in El Paso's 2003 Operational and Financial Plan," said Dwight Scott, executive vice president and chief financial officer. "This transaction reduces the company's annual interest expense by $24 million dollars and eliminates debt maturity obligations of $300 million in June 2004, $300 million in September 2004, and $600 million in March 2005. The significant reduction in borrowing costs on this transaction relative to the March term loan reflects the improvement in the company's liquidity, substantial progress on asset sales, and a clear path to future debt reduction."

El Paso Corporation is the leading provider of natural gas services and the largest pipeline company in North America. The company has core businesses in pipelines, production, and midstream services. Rich in assets, El Paso is committed to developing and delivering new energy supplies and to meeting the growing demand for new energy infrastructure. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release includes forward-looking statements and projections, made in reliance on the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The company has made every reasonable effort to ensure that the information and assumptions on which these statements and projections are based are current, reasonable, and complete. However, a variety of factors could cause actual results to differ materially from the projections, anticipated results or other expectations expressed in this release, including, without limitation, our ability to attract and retain qualified members of the Board of Directors; the successful recruitment and retention of a qualified CEO; the successful implementation of the 2003 operational and financial plan; the successful implementation of the settlement related to the Western Energy Crisis; material and adverse impacts from our proxy contest with Selim Zilkha/Oscar Wyatt; actions by the credit rating agencies; the successful close of financing transactions; our ability to successfully exit the energy trading business; our ability to divest of certain non-core assets; changes in commodity prices for oil, natural gas, and power; general economic and weather conditions in geographic regions or markets served by El Paso Corporation and its affiliates, or where operations of the company and its affiliates are located; the uncertainties associated with governmental regulation; political and currency risks associated with international operations of the company and its affiliates; inability to realize anticipated synergies and cost savings associated with restructurings and divestitures on a timely basis; difficulty in integration of the operations of previously acquired companies, competition, and other factors described in the company's (and its affiliates') Securities and Exchange Commission filings. While the company makes these statements and projections in good faith, neither the company nor its management can guarantee that anticipated future results will be achieved. Reference must be made to those filings for additional important factors that may affect actual results. The company assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements made herein or any other forward-looking statements made by the company, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
