Dear Fellow HomeStreet Shareholder:

As you probably know, Blue Lion Capital is the owner of approximately 6.1% of HomeStreet, Inc. (HMST) and is soliciting votes against two long-serving directors that have been re-nominated by the Company. We urge you to vote AGAINST Scott Boggs and Douglas Smith using the BLUE proxy card.

Unfortunately, you may or may not be aware of the following:

HomeStreet has never disclosed* that Douglas Smith, the Chairman of the compensation committee, is the son of HomeStreet CEO Mark Mason's longstanding business partner, Gordon Smith.

HomeStreet has never disclosed* that it loaned money to Gordon Smith's company, which was previously run by Mr. Mason.

HomeStreet has never disclosed* that it loaned money to various entities controlled by Chairman Emeritus David Ederer and/or his son, Daniel Ederer. At least one of those loans appears to be in an amount in excess of the purchase price of the property that secures the loan.

We believe shareholders deserve to know more about these related party transactions. We have prepared a supplemental presentation, which is attached, that describes what we do know. We encourage you to read it in conjunction with our larger presentation on HomeStreet's board and what we believe are its failings. All of our materials are available to shareholders at www.HelpFixHMST.com.

Additionally, please note that FIG Partners published an independent research report today estimating that our proposals could nearly double HomeStreet's 2019 EPS, to $4.08 per share versus consensus estimates of $2.08, by increasing after-tax earnings by an additional $38 million!

Please vote AGAINST Mr. Boggs and Mr. Smith to ensure greater transparency and better governance at HomeStreet. Please feel free to call or email with any questions.

NOTE REGARDING DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS

*The business relationships between Mr. Mason and the father of Mr. Smith, Mr. Ederer and his son, and the related loans are items that may impact Mr. Smith's and Mr. Ederer's independence, but HomeStreet has not described them in any detail in its proxy statement, as we believe is required by Item 407(a)(3) of Regulation S-K. This Item requires that HomeStreet describe, by specific category or type, any transactions, relationships or arrangements related to a specific independent director not disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) that were considered by the board of directors in assessing a director's independence. And just in case an issuer might overlook the importance of this disclosure, the instruction to this Item says that the description of the specific categories or types of transactions, relationships or arrangements must be provided in such detail as is necessary to fully describe the nature of the transactions, relationships or arrangements. In other words, the SEC meant it when it said that "a primary purpose of the federal proxy rules is to provide shareholders with full disclosure of all information for the exercise of their voting rights under state law and the corporation's charter." Exchange Act Release No. 56160, July 27, 2007.
