ITEM 5. Other Event

Mid America Apartment Communities, Inc. (MAA)

MEMPHIS, TN, January 20, 2003 - Mid-America Apartment Communities (NYSE:MAA) announced the second acquisition by its joint venture with Crow Holdings. The Preserve at Arbor Lakes, a 284-unit apartment community located in Jacksonville, FL, was acquired for $22.1 million. Mid-America has a 1/3 interest in the property, and manages the property on behalf of the partnership. Funding was provided by a $14.9 million draw on the Joint Venture's credit facility with Freddie Mac and equity contributed pro rata by Crow Holdings and Mid-America. The property is located just off Southside Boulevard in one of the fastest growing areas in Jacksonville, which is a market in which Mid-America owns 2,846 apartment units. Memphis Commercial Group acted as broker representing the joint venture.

Eric Bolton, President and CEO of Mid-America said, "We are pleased with the addition of this solid investment to our partnership with Crow Holdings. The Jacksonville market has performed well for Mid-America and we look forward to excellent investment returns from this community. We continue to seek attractive investments through this partnership in stable growth markets throughout the southeastern US and Texas."

Mid-America Apartment Communities is a NYSE traded multifamily REIT specializing in the acquisition, redevelopment and management of apartment properties throughout the southeast and south central US with over 33,000 units under ownership and management. Crow Holdings is a group of international, diversified investment holding companies that owns and directs the investments of the Trammell Crow family and manages investments on behalf of the Trammell Crow
