Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

During Invesco Ltd.'s (NYSE:IVZ) fourth quarter earnings call on January 26, 2017, the following disclosure regarding Invesco Mortgage Capital Inc. (NYSE:IVR or the "Company") was made in prepared remarks by Invesco Ltd.'s management. (Invesco Ltd. is the indirect parent of the Company's manager, Invesco Advisers, Inc.):

"Long-term passive net flows were also impacted by an outflow of $1.3 billion, reflecting a reduction in leverage in our mortgage capital business, IVR. This move was in support of our portfolio management strategy."

As of December 31, 2016, the Company's management estimates the Company's total assets declined $1.2 billion and debt-to-equity ratio declined by 0.2x to approximately 5.8x.

The reductions in the Company's total assets and debt-to-equity ratio are consistent with management's comments during its third quarter earnings call on November 4, 2016 in anticipation of risks associated with the U.S. presidential election, Brexit and a possible Federal interest rate hike in December 2016.
