BACKGROUND TO SOLICITATION

- v We made our first investment in Shares of BITS in May 2006 and currently own approximately 8.5% of the outstanding Shares.
- v On December 18, 2008, we delivered a letter to the Board's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the "Nominating Committee") recommending that Mr. Martin be considered for appointment to the Board. At the time, we owned approximately 7.5% of the outstanding Shares. In the letter, we noted our significant long-term investment in the Company and discussed Mr. Martin's extensive qualifications in building and investing in technology businesses, which we believed could help catalyze the realization of a number of timely and compelling market opportunities that were available to the Company. We also expressed our desire for fresh perspectives and new expertise on the Board and requested the opportunity to meet with the Nominating Committee to discuss the foregoing.
- v On January 22, 2009, Mr. Martin met with Amos Kaminski, the Chairman of the Nominating Committee, for lunch in New York, New York to discuss Mr. Martin's qualifications as a potential Board member.
- v On May 14, 2009, Mr. Martin met with the entire Board for breakfast in Cambridge, Massachusetts.
- v On February 1, 2010, we sent an email to Anna M. Chagnon, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, indicating that we had identified a number of strong candidates for election as directors, i.e., the Nominees, that we believe would add value to the Board.
- v On February 8, 2010, Mr. Martin had a telephone conversation with Ms. Chagnon and Mr. Kaminski to discuss our February 1, 2010 email and the qualifications of the Nominees. During the call, Ms. Chagnon and Mr. Kaminski informed us that they were not interested in adding Mr. Martin to the Board but would consider the Nominees. This was the first time the Company directly responded to our recommendation to add Mr. Martin to the Board. After the call, Mr. Martin sent Ms. Chagnon and Mr. Kaminski biographical and contact information for each of the Nominees.
- v On February 19, 2010, we received an email from Ms. Chagnon notifying us that the Board had increased the size of the Board from five to six directors and appointed Jonathan Kagan to fill the resulting vacancy. Ms. Chagnon noted that a formal announcement would be made on February 22, 2010.
- v On February 22, 2010, the Company issued a press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Kagan to the Board. To date, the Company has failed to file a Form 8-K with the SEC disclosing the appointment of Mr. Kagan and other related information required by applicable securities laws.

vOn February 26, 2010, we delivered a formal nomination letter to the Secretary of BITS nominating the Nominees for election to the Board at the Annual Meeting. Simultaneously with the submission of the nomination letter, we also delivered a letter to Ms. Chagnon questioning whether the Nominees, who were initially recommended by us as potential candidates to the Nominating Committee, were seriously considered by the Company. In the letter, we also stated that our nomination of the Nominees was necessary given the approaching deadline for stockholders to nominate directors and that it was our hope that an amicable resolution to this matter involving a meaningful reconstitution of the Board could be reached.

vDuring March 2010, we engaged in various discussions with Ms. Chagnon and Mr. Kaminski regarding a framework for a potential settlement involving a reconstitution of the Board. To date, no agreement or understanding has been reached by the parties regarding a settlement.

REASONS FOR THE SOLICITATION

As one of the largest stockholders of BITS, we have serious concerns about the ability of the incumbent Board to effectively oversee the changes we believe are necessary in order to maximize stockholder value. We are seeking to elect our Nominees who are committed to bringing a fresh perspective and much needed accountability to the Board. We are not seeking control of the Board. If elected, our Nominees will, subject to their fiduciary duties as directors, endeavor to work with the other members of the Board to explore all growth opportunities for the Company's technologies and take all other actions necessary to maximize stockholder value.

We Believe the Board Has Failed to Take Advantage of Growth Opportunities for the Company's Technologies

Over the past ten years, BITS has developed and launched a number of new technological initiatives, including browsing technology for mobile devices (BOLT/ThunderHawk), variable data and Web-to-print multi-channel publishing products (PageFlex), and the MyFonts website as a universal source for fonts from a wide variety of international font vendors and designers. However, in our opinion, none of these efforts have realized their full potential due to the Board's and management's poor execution of these initiatives. PageFlex and MyFonts each appear to drive less than $10 million in annual revenues (the Company does not disclose specific segment results), even though both offerings have garnered critical acclaim, market leadership, and have been publicly marketed for most of the last decade.

The Company's mobile browsing technology has also yet to achieve significant revenues, if any at all, almost seven years after its launch. The Company announced its first BOLT licensing deals in the fourth quarter of 2009, or more than three years after the Company first went into trials with potential partners. In comparison, Opera Software ASA ("Opera"), one of the Company's mobile browser competitors, generated over $100 million in revenues in 2009, with the majority of such revenue attributable to its browser technology. In the fourth quarter of 2009 alone, Opera's browser was pre-installed on 83 new mobile phones.

Given this poor track record of developing and expanding the Company's existing technologies, we do not believe the current Board is capable of taking BITS to the next level.

We Believe the Board Has Not Demonstrated the Ability to Create Stockholder Value in the Fast-Changing Technology Sector

BITS' products compete in a number of fast moving technology sectors that require a quick-responding and tech savvy board to capitalize on potential market opportunities and create stockholder value. Unfortunately, in our view, the Company and the Board have failed in this respect. In late 2006, Xerox paid $54 million for XMPie, a competitor to BITS' PageFlex. In our opinion, the Board should have considered selling PageFlex and possibly the entire Company at this time, since the Company arguably had a superior product and the Xerox deal posed a significant risk to the competitive dynamics of the industry. Instead, the Board did nothing and as a result, PageFlex now lacks market scale. In our opinion, the Company should either use its balance sheet to bulk up PageFlex in order to gain scale advantages and bottom line benefits, or sell the business entirely.

Similarly, we believe the window of opportunity in mobile browsing technology could quickly close if the Company does not execute its initiatives aggressively. With only a skeletal sales force focused on selling BOLT products, we are not confident that BITS can capitalize on existing market opportunities.

In contrast, our Nominees have demonstrated an ability to make early stage technology businesses, like BITS, successful and create stockholder value.

We Believe Fresh Perspectives Are Needed at the Board Level

With the exception of Jonathan Kagan, who was only recently appointed to the Board in late February 2010, the Company's incumbent independent directors have almost 75 years of total board service at the Company and have overseen its strategic shortfalls. That is equal to almost four years of Board experience per $1 million in annual revenues – an unacceptable rate of return in our opinion.

BITS' Incumbent Independent Directors

Director's Name	Age	Years on BITS Board
George Beitzel	81	21 years
Amos Kaminski	80	25 years
David Lubrano	79	23 years

We believe the Board needs renewed focus with fresh enthusiasm, expertise and perspectives that our highly qualified Nominees possess. Additionally, we believe the extended tenures of the independent directors represent a potential material weakness in the Company's corporate governance and oversight policies.

In contrast, our Nominees are adept to the fast-changing world of technology and prepared to breathe fresh perspectives into BITS.

We Believe the Company Needs to Streamline Its Operating Focus and Gain Scale

While the Company leverages a common technological capability across many of its product lines, it is our strong view that the Company is trying to do too much for its small size. Each of the Company's key initiatives, like Web-to-Print Publishing, Mobile Browsing, Font and Font Technology, and Font Marketing, compete against significantly larger and oftentimes more focused competitors. In Web-to-Print, PageFlex is now trying to compete with bundled solutions from companies like Xerox ($8.6 billion market cap) and incumbent design competitors like Adobe ($18.4 billion market cap); in Wireless Browsing, BOLT faces Opera ($400 million market cap), Google ($180 billion market cap), and a slew of private and non-profit competitors; and in Font and Font Technology, and Font Marketing, the Company competes against Monotype Images ($390 million market cap) and other private competitors.

We believe the Company should have a focused business approach on products where it has the best and highest probability for success. The Company should prudently but also aggressively invest its technology, sales, management, and balance sheet resources against the most fruitful opportunities that will create scale advantages and drive the best returns on capital. The Company's resources should not be spread so thin. We believe the Company should sell unattractive products and businesses, and consider selling the entire business if a clear path to unlocking greater stockholder value is not determined.

Our Nominees have the expertise to make and effectively implement these types of strategic decisions.

We Believe the Company Needs to Enhance Its Sales and Marketing Capabilities

BITS disclosed in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 that it only has 22 employees devoted to sales and marketing. That works out to an average of less than six sales associates for each of the Company's four major product initiatives, although we believe the number of sales associates solely focused on mobile technology products is even lower. In comparison, Opera, the Company's primary mobile browser competitor, has over 100 employees devoted to sales and marketing. Given that BITS' management has emphasized that browsing is one of the Company's best growth opportunities in a still largely untapped and fast-growing market, we are perplexed as to why the Company has an inadequate level of resources committed to this endeavor.

We believe the Company simply lacks the necessary focus to successfully commercialize and market its new technologies. This is clearly evidenced by the fact that BITS' mobile browsing product line has failed to generate significant revenue, if any at all, seven years after its launch and PageFlex is still a sub-scale business despite ten years of development.

If elected, our Nominees would work to identify and focus on the Company's best growth opportunities and invest in sales and marketing resources necessary to make its most promising technologies successful in the marketplace.

We Wish to Provide the Stockholders With the Opportunity to Elect Directors Who Are Focused on Unlocking the Company's True Potential in a Timely Fashion

If elected, our Nominees' first priority would be to evaluate each of BITS' businesses and begin to make prudent decisions about where the Company should allocate its resources moving forward. Their goals would be to narrow the Company's focus to its best growth opportunities, take the necessary steps to gain scale advantages and bottom line benefits in those areas, and invest more resources in sales and marketing, which we believe are necessary to accelerate growth.

Our Nominees, if elected, will at all times be focused on creating a clear and sensible path to maximizing growth, profits, and stockholder value.

None of the Nominees is a party adverse to BITS or any of its subsidiaries or has a material interest adverse to BITS or any of its subsidiaries in any material pending legal proceedings.

YOU ARE URGED TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES ON THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

Only stockholders of record on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each Share is entitled to one vote. Stockholders who sell Shares before the Record Date (or acquire them without voting rights after the Record Date) may not vote such Shares. Stockholders of record on the Record Date will retain their voting rights in connection with the Annual Meeting even if they sell such Shares after the Record Date. Based on publicly available information, we believe that the only outstanding classes of securities of BITS entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting are the Shares.

Shares represented by properly executed GOLD proxy cards will be voted at the Annual Meeting as marked and, in the absence of specific instructions, will be voted FOR the election of the Nominees, FOR the election of the candidates who have been nominated by the Company other than [], [] and [], and in the discretion of the persons named as proxies on all other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

According to BITS' proxy statement for the Annual Meeting, the Board intends to nominate six candidates for election as directors at the Annual Meeting. This Proxy Statement is soliciting proxies to elect not only our Nominees, but also the candidates who have been nominated by the Company other than [], [] and []. This gives stockholders who wish to vote for our Nominees and such other persons the ability to do so. Under applicable proxy rules we are required either to solicit proxies only for our Nominees, which could result in limiting the ability of stockholders to fully exercise their voting rights with respect to BITS' nominees, or to solicit for our Nominees and for fewer than all of the Company's nominees, which enables a stockholder who desires to vote for our Nominees to also vote for those of the Company's nominees for whom we are soliciting proxies. The names, backgrounds and qualifications of the Company's nominees, and other information about them, can be found in the Company's proxy statement. There is no assurance that any of the Company's nominees will serve as directors if our Nominees are elected.

QUORUM

The presence in person or by a properly executed proxy of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding Shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Votes to "withhold authority" for any director nominee and abstentions on any other business which may properly be brought before the Annual Meeting will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting.

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. A vote to "withhold authority" for any director nominee will have no impact on the election of directors.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting is required for the approval of any other business which may properly be brought before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

DISCRETIONARY VOTING

Shares held in “street name” and held of record by banks, brokers or nominees may not be voted by such banks, brokers or nominees unless the beneficial owners of such Shares provide them with instructions on how to vote.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES

Stockholders of BITS may revoke their proxies at any time prior to exercise by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy) or by delivering a written notice of revocation. The delivery of a subsequently dated proxy which is properly completed will constitute a revocation of any earlier proxy. The revocation may be delivered either to Raging Capital in care of Okapi Partners LLC at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement or to BITS at 500 Nickerson Road, Marlborough, Massachusetts 01752-4695, or any other address provided by BITS. Although a revocation is effective if delivered to BITS, Raging Capital requests that either the original or photostatic copies of all revocations be mailed to Raging Capital in care of Okapi Partners LLC at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement so that Raging Capital will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when proxies have been received from the holders of record on the Record Date of a majority of the outstanding Shares. Additionally, Okapi Partners LLC may use this information to contact stockholders who have revoked their proxies in order to solicit later dated proxies for the election of the Nominees.

IF YOU WISH TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES TO THE BOARD, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN PROMPTLY THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The solicitation of proxies pursuant to this Proxy Statement is being made by Raging Capital. Proxies may be solicited by mail, facsimile, telephone, telegraph, Internet, in person and by advertisements.
