CUSIP NO. 452521107

The following constitutes Amendment No. 6 to the Schedule 13D filed by the undersigned (the “Amendment No. 6”). This Amendment No. 6 amends the Schedule 13D as specifically set forth herein.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Item 3 is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

The Shares purchased by Series One were purchased with working capital (which may, at any given time, include margin loans made by brokerage firms in the ordinary course of business) in open market purchases, except as otherwise noted, as set forth in Schedule A, which is incorporated by reference herein. The aggregate purchase price of the 337,802 Shares beneficially owned by Series One is approximately $2,295,865, including brokerage commissions. The aggregate purchase price of the call options currently exercisable onto 195,000 Shares beneficially owned by Series One, as further described in Item 6 below, is approximately $672,060, including brokerage commissions.

The Shares purchased by VSO II were purchased with working capital (which may, at any given time, include margin loans made by brokerage firms in the ordinary course of business) in open market purchases, except as otherwise noted, as set forth in Schedule A, which is incorporated by reference herein. The aggregate purchase price of the 1,550,774 Shares beneficially owned by VSO II is approximately $10,588,357, including brokerage commissions.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following:

On January 5, 2018, the Reporting Persons sent a letter (the “Demand Letter”) to the Issuer demanding to inspect certain books and records of the Issuer to assess whether a majority of the Board, under the helm of Chairman Carl Schlachte, has breached its fiduciary duties to stockholders by failing to keep themselves reasonably informed.

In the Demand Letter, the Reporting Persons noted the Issuer’s prolonged underperformance under former CEO Victor Viegas’ stewardship. Yet, despite this underperformance, the Reporting Persons questioned why the Board would request Mr. Viegas’ resignation, without any succession planning. In the Reporting Persons view, such poor planning suggests a majority of the Board breached their fiduciary duties in failing to keep themselves reasonably informed of Mr. Viegas’ conduct over the years. The Reporting Persons also believe that the appointment of Mr. Schlachte as interim CEO is inadequate to protect stockholder value since Mr. Schlachte has served as Chairman of the Board since July 2012 and should be held equally accountable as Mr. Viegas for the Issuer’s dismal performance over the same period.

The Reporting Persons also expressed their concerns in the Demand Letter with the Board’s restructuring plan, which included a 41% reduction in workforce. While the Reporting Persons believe this is a step in the right direction, the Reporting Persons believe this should have happened much earlier and question whether a majority of the Board kept themselves reasonably informed regarding management’s budget proposals, business plans and overall strategy given the substantial size of the workforce reduction.

CUSIP NO. 452521107

The Reporting Persons also questioned in the Demand Letter whether a majority of the Board has undertaken a good faith effort to explore all means to maximize value for stockholders, including to fully consider and evaluate any proposal to acquire the Issuer that may have been received by the Board. In the Reporting Persons' view, the Issuer operates in a highly strategic area of the technology industry with an attractive competitive position and a compelling product, its touch feedback technology, the value of which is not reflected in the Issuer's current market price. At the same time, the industry in which the Issuer operates is consolidating, which makes the Reporting Persons believe that there could be a number of credible buyers that would be interested in acquiring the Issuer at a price that could return significant value to stockholders. However, based on historic discussions with Chairman Schlachte and the overly generous compensation packages paid to Board members, the Reporting Persons are concerned that Chairman Schlachte and other members comprising the majority of the Board may not have the same alignment of interests as stockholders to fully consider any acquisition proposals that may be received by the Issuer. In particular, Chairman Schlachte has received in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000) in total compensation over his tenure as Chairman, despite the Issuer's poor performance. The Reporting Persons also note that none of the directors have purchased any material amount of stock and therefore have little of their own dollars at risk. In addition, the recent adoption of a "poison pill" in response to the Reporting Persons' nomination of directors was, in the Reporting Persons' view, yet another attempt by the incumbent directors to maintain their control of the Issuer and disenfranchise stockholders.

On January 11, 2018, the Issuer's counsel sent a letter rejecting the Demand Letter.

The Reporting Persons sent the Demand Letter to protect stockholder value. In light of the significant decisions that need to be made at the Issuer, including the appointment of a new CEO, and the Reporting Persons' concerns with the majority of the Board's oversight and possible breaches of fiduciary duties, the Reporting Persons believe it is imperative that they obtain immediate Board representation to better align the Board's interests with stockholders.

On December 29, 2017, the Reporting Persons had a discussion with Sharon Holt, the Issuer's lead independent director, to express their concerns and request the immediate appointment of their nominees, Steve L. Domenik and Eric Singer, to the Board so that stockholders could weigh in on the important decisions facing the Issuer. On January 4, 2017, the Issuer communicated that the Board would not appoint Messrs. Domenik or Singer to the Board.

The Reporting Persons are alarmed that the Board would choose to pursue a costly proxy fight at the Annual Meeting rather than agree to appoint two stockholder representatives to the Board. The Reporting Persons intend to hold each director accountable if the Board continues to waste stockholder resources on an unnecessary contested election, by paying egregious compensation to directors, by adopting other stockholder unfriendly measures to further entrench themselves, and by failing to fully evaluate all opportunities to monetize value for all stockholders.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

Item 5(a)-(c) is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

The aggregate percentage of Shares reported owned by each Reporting Person is based upon 29,251,243 Shares outstanding, which is the total number of Shares outstanding as of October 27, 2017 as reported in the Issuer's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 3, 2017.
