ACL SEMICONDUCTORS INC.
 NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 (UNAUDITED)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The condensed consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of ACL Semiconductors Inc. and its subsidiaries, Atlantic Components Ltd. and Alpha Perform Technology Limited (collectively, "ACL" or the "Company"). The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete consolidated financial statements. These condensed consolidated financial statements and related notes should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 filed in the Form 10-K filed by the Company on April 14, 2005. In the opinion of management, these condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments which are of a normal recurring nature and which are necessary to present fairly the consolidated financial position of ACL as of March 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004, and the results of operations for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 and the cash flows for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2005 and 2004. The results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2005 are not necessarily indicative of the results, which may be expected for the entire fiscal year. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in preparation of the condensed consolidated financial statements.

NATURE OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

ACL Semiconductors Inc. ("Company" or "ACL") was incorporated under the State of Delaware on September 17, 2002. Through a reverse-acquisition of Atlantic Components Ltd., a Hong Kong based company, effective September 30, 2003, the Company's principal activities are distribution of electronic components under the "Samsung" brandname which comprise DRAM and graphic RAM, FLASH, SRAM and MASK ROM for the Hong Kong and Southern China markets. Atlantic Components Ltd., its wholly owned subsidiary, was incorporated in Hong Kong on May 30, 1991 with limited liability. On October 2, 2003, the Company set up a wholly-owned subsidiary, Alpha Perform Technology Limited ("Alpha"), a British Virgin Islands company, to provide services on behalf of the Company in jurisdictions outside of Hong Kong. Effective January 1, 2004, the Company has ceased the operations of Alpha and all the related activities are consolidated with those of Atlantic.

CURRENCY REPORTING

Amounts reported in the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements and disclosures are stated in U.S. Dollars, unless stated otherwise. The functional currency of the Company's subsidiaries, which accounted for most of the Company's operations, is reported in Hong Kong dollars ("HKD"). Foreign currency transactions (outside Hong Kong) during the period are translated into HKD according to the prevailing exchange rate at the relevant transaction dates. Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the balance sheet dates are translated into HKD at period-end exchange rates.

For the purpose of preparing these condensed consolidated financial statements, the financial statements of ACL reported in HKD have been translated into U.S. Dollars at US$1.00=HKD7.8, a fixed exchange rate maintained between the United States and China.

2. EARNINGS PER COMMON SHARE

In accordance with SFAS No. 128, "Earnings Per Share," the basic earnings (loss) per common share is computed by dividing net earnings (loss) available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings (loss) per common share is computed similarly to basic earnings (loss) per common share, except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive. For the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company has 1,339,286 and 350,000 shares of common stock equivalents upon conversion of the convertible note payable based on the quoted market price at the end of each reporting period. The common stock equivalents for 2004 were excluded from the computation of diluted loss per share as their effect is antidilutive.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

TRANSACTIONS WITH MR. YANG

As of March 31, 2005, the Company had an outstanding receivable from Mr. Yang, the President and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company and its largest stockholder, totaling $283,828. Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q past.

Mr. Yang has majority equity interest in two entities which own 100% of Global Mega.

TRANSACTIONS WITH TFT TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED

During the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company sold $1,460 and $0, respectively, to TFT Technologies ("TFT").

The Company has not experienced any bad debt from this customer in the past. There are no outstanding accounts receivable due from Systematic as of March 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004.

Mr. Yang and his wife own 100% interest of TFT.

TRANSACTIONS WITH CITY ROYAL LTD.

In August 2004, the Company was in negotiation with The DahSing Bank Limited (the "DahSing Bank") for an additional amount of its available line of credit. As a condition to the extension of additional credit to the Company, DahSing Bank requested additional collateral to secure the increased amount on the line. In order to meet the increased security requirement, the Company loaned $611,446 to City Royal Limited to pay off the mortgage loan on a residential property owned by City Royal Limited and pledged to DahSing Bank as collateral to secure the Company's borrowings from DahSing Bank. In consideration thereof, DahSing Bank made available additional borrowings of HK$10 million (approximately US$1,282,000). The loan is unsecured and bears no interest. In February 2005, City Royal Limited sold the residential property and has repaid the loan through transferring the entire proceeds from the sale of HK$8,000,000 (approximately $1,025,641) to the Company which was required to be deposited in DahSing Bank as collateral for the Company's line and the cash is restricted as to withdraw. Until the facility line is terminated with the bank, the Company cannot withdraw the funds out, therefore, the amount of $1,025,641 was classified as "Restricted Cash". The excess of the proceeds over the loan receivable from City Royal Limited in the amount of $414,195 was recorded as loan payable to related party in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2005.

The loan to City Royal Limited was non-interest bearing, in consideration of which City Royal Limited did not charge an arrangement fee to the Company in respect of the security pledge in favor of Dah Sing Bank. The primary purpose of the loan, from the Company's perspective, was to advance the business of the Company by enabling it to secure additional lines of financing in excess of the loan amount from DahSing Bank. The Company settled this loan in February 2005 and received payment in the full amount of $611,446. The Company believes that the above-referenced loan does not violate the general prohibition against loans made by publicly-traded companies to its directors and executive officers set forth in Section 402 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 ("Section 402") as its primary purpose was to advance the business of the Company. However, no assurance can be given that the Securities and Exchange Commission or U.S. federal government will agree with the Company's position and, in the event such loan is determined to be a violation of Section 402, the criminal penalties of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, could apply.

Mr. Yang's wife and Mr. Yang's mother-in-law are shareholders of City Royal Limited with a total of 100% interest.

Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q

(4) CONVERTIBLE NOTE PAYABLE:

On December 31, 2003, the Company issued a 12% subordinated convertible note in the amount of $250,000 to Professional Traders Fund, Inc. ("PTF"). The borrowing amount is due and payable on December 31, 2004. The interest is payable in arrears on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31, 2004. The Company is in default at December 31, 2004 and accordingly, interest is accrued at a rate of 15% on and after the date of the default, and the Company is obligated to pay a default penalty equal to 30% of the unpaid principal and interest. At the option of the debt holder, such unpaid principal, interest and default penalty can be paid with shares of the Company's common stock at conversion price, which is defined in the following paragraph.

The holder of this note, at its option, can convert the outstanding balance of the debt into shares of common stock at the conversion price, which is defined as 40% of the average closing price of the stock three trading days immediately prior to the Notice of Conversion date or the interest payment date or the debt maturity date. The conversion price shall not in any case exceed $1 per share.

Pursuant to the terms of a Limited Guarantee and Security Agreement, the debt is guaranteed by 1.2 million shares of the Company's common stock beneficially owned by three shareholders of which 700,000 are restricted shares and 500,000 are freely traded shares.

The Company had agreed to file a registration statement for the conversion shares within 60 days of the funding of the note and agreed to use reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to be declared effective within 150 days of the funding of the note. If the Company fails to meet either of such timelines, a 1% penalty per month on the funded amount of the note will be levied against the Company. Accordingly, the Company is incurring a 1% penalty per month on the funded amount of the note.

During the year ended December 31, 2004, PTF converted principal note balance of $100,000 into 222,980 shares of common stock and outstanding accrued interest of $12,385 into 29,579 shares of common stock through the shares pledged by three shareholders. Accordingly, the Company's shareholders issued directly to PTF a total of 252,559 common shares. The value of the converted principal and accrued interest, totaling $112,385 at March 31, 2005, has been recorded as a liability to the shareholders in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. As of March 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004, the gross outstanding balance of this note totaled $150,000.

In February 2005, PTF filed a lawsuit against the Company for unpaid note balance of $150,000, unpaid interest of $4,500, default interest of $938, liquidated damage of $30,000 and default damage of $55,350 and the related legal cost. The Company is in the process of negotiating a settlement with PTF and has accrued the maximum liabilities including all the amounts being claimed by PTF as of March 31, 2005. The accrued interest and penalties totaling $90,788 are included in the accrued expenses in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. Also, PTF is seeking reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs; however, since the attorneys' fees and costs are unknown and cannot be reasonably estimated, the legal cost was not accrued as of March 31, 2005.

5. BANK FACILITIES

With respect to all of the above referenced debt and credit arrangements, pursuant to a debenture deed dated April 20, 2001, the Company pledged its assets as collateral collectively to a bank group in Hong Kong comprised of Dah Sing Bank Limited, The Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, and DBS Bank (Hong Kong) Ltd. (formerly Overseas Trust Bank Limited) for all current and future borrowings from the bank group by the Company. In addition to the above pledged collateral, the debt is also secured by:

1. a personal guarantee given by Mr. Alan Chung-Lun Yang ("Mr. Yang") limited to approximately US$6,900,000 to The Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited;
2. a fixed cash deposit of $1,025,641 as collateral for loans from Dah Sing Bank Limited;
3. a personal guarantee given by Mr. Yang for unlimited amount together with a key man life insurance policy on Mr. Yang for $1,000,000 and a personal guarantee to Dah Sing Bank Limited.

6. ECONOMIC DEPENDENCE

The Company's distribution operations are dependent on the availability of an adequate supply of electronic components under the "Samsung" brand name which have historically been principally supplied to the Company by Samsung Electronics H.K. Co., Ltd. ("Samsung HK"), a subsidiary of Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., a Korean public company. Samsung HK supplied approximately 84% and 75% of materials to the Company for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 respectively. However, there is no written supply contract between the Company and Samsung HK and, accordingly, there is no assurance that Samsung HK will continue to supply sufficient electronic components to the Company on terms and prices acceptable to the Company or in volumes sufficient to meet the Company's current and anticipated demand, nor can assurance be given that the Company would be able to secure sufficient products from other third party supplier(s) on acceptable terms. In addition, the Company's operations and business viability is to a large extent dependent on the provision of management services and financial support by Mr. Yang.

For the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company purchased from Samsung HK $23,905,780 and $22,690,948, respectively. At March 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004, included in accounts payable, net of rebate receivable due from Samsung was $2,450,508 and $3,836,804, respectively.

7. COMMITMENT AND CONTINGENCIES

In April 2005, Friedland Capital, Inc. ("Friedland") filed a lawsuit against the Company for unpaid services in the amount of approximately $78,000 and fair value of options plus related interest and legal cost. The Company is in the process of negotiating a settlement with Friedland and believes the fair value of the services should not exceed $70,000. The Company has accrued approximately $78,000 for the settlement and related expenses during the three months ended March 31, 2005 in the accompanying condensed financial statements, which is the management's best estimate of the related liability.

Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q

In February 2005, Professional Trader Funds ("PTF") filed a lawsuit against the Company for repayments of the outstanding note payable in the amount of $150,000 plus interest, penalties and legal fees. See Note 4 for details.

8. RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In December 2003, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (FAS) No. 132 (Revised 2003) "Employers' Disclosures about Pensions and Other Postretirement Benefits." This standard replaces FAS-132 of the same title which was previously issued in February 1998. The revised FAS-132 was issued in response to concerns expressed by financial statement users about their need for more transparency of pension information. The revised standard increases the existing GAAP disclosures for defined benefit pension plans and other defined benefit postretirement plans. However, it does not change the measurement or recognition of those plans as required under: FAS-87, "Employers' Accounting for Pensions"; FAS-88, "Employers' Accounting for Settlements and Curtailments of Defined Benefit Pension Plans and for Termination Benefits"; and FAS-106, "Employers' Accounting for Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions." Specifically, the revised standard requires companies to provide additional disclosures about pension plan assets, benefit obligations, cash flows, and benefit costs of defined benefit pension plans and other defined benefit postretirement plans. Also, for the first time, companies are required to provide a breakdown of plan assets by category, such as debt, equity and real estate, and to provide certain expected rates of return and target allocation percentages for these asset categories. The revised FAS-132 is effective for financial statements with fiscal years ending after December 15, 2003 and for interim periods beginning after December 15, 2003. The adoption of this Statement is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

In March 2005, the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107 ("SAB 107"). The interpretations in SAB 107 express views of the staff regarding the interaction between Statement of Financial Accounting Standards Statement No. 123 (revised 2004), "Share-Based Payment" ("Statement 123(R)") and certain SEC rules and regulations and provide the staff's views regarding the valuation of share-based payment arrangements for public companies. In particular SAB 107 provides guidance related to share-based payment transactions with nonemployees, the transition from public entity status, valuation methods (including assumptions such as expected volatility and expected term), the accounting for certain redeemable financial instruments issued under share-based payment arrangements, the classification of compensation expense, non-GAAP financial measures, first-time adoption of Statement 123(R) in an interim period, capitalization of compensation cost related to share-based payment arrangements, the accounting for income tax effects of share-based payment arrangements upon adoption of Statement 123(R), the modification of employee share options prior to adoption of Statement 123(R) and disclosures in Management's Discussion and Analysis subsequent to adoption of Statement 123(R). The Company is in the process of evaluating whether the adoption of SAB 107 will have a significant impact on the Company's overall results of operations or financial position.

9. RECLASSIFICATION

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2004 condensed consolidated financial statements to conform to the 2005 presentation. These reclassification has not effected on the previously reported net income.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

THIS MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND OTHER PORTIONS OF THIS REPORT CONTAIN FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION THAT INVOLVE RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES. THE COMPANY'S ACTUAL RESULTS COULD DIFFER MATERIALLY FROM THOSE ANTICIPATED BY THE FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION.

ANY REFERENCE TO "ACL", THE "COMPANY" OR THE "REGISTRANT", "WE", "OUR" OR "US" MEANS ACL SEMICONDUCTORS INC. AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES.

OVERVIEW

CORPORATE BACKGROUND

The Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiaries Atlantic Components Limited, a Hong Kong corporation ("Atlantic") and Alpha Perform Technology Limited ("Alpha"), (and Alpha as it is no longer active during the year of 2004 and during three months ended March 31, 2005), is engaged primarily in the business of distribution of memory products under "Samsung" brandname which principally comprise DRAM and Graphic RAM, FLASH, SRAM and MASK ROM for the Hong Kong and Southern China markets.

As of March 31, 2005, ACL had more than 120 active customers in Hong Kong and Southern China.

ACL is in the mature stage of operations. As a result, the relationships between sales, cost of sales, and operating expenses reflected in the financial information included in this document to a large extent represent future expected financial relationships. Much of the cost of sales and operating expenses reflected in our financial statements are recurring in nature.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") recently issued Financial Reporting Release No. 60, "CAUTIONARY ADVICE REGARDING DISCLOSURE ABOUT CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES" ("FRR 60"), suggesting companies provide additional disclosure and commentary on their most critical accounting policies. In FRR 60, the SEC defined the most critical accounting policies as the ones that are most important to the portrayal of a company's financial condition and operating results, and require management to make its most difficult and subjective judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates of matters that are inherently uncertain. Based on this definition, ACL's most critical accounting policies include: inventory valuation, which affects cost of sales and gross margin; policies for revenue recognition, and allowance for doubtful accounts. The methods, estimates and judgments ACL uses in applying these most critical accounting policies have a significant impact on the results ACL reports in its consolidated financial statements.

INVENTORY VALUATION. Our policy is to value inventories at the lower of cost or market on a part-by-part basis. This policy requires us to make estimates regarding the market value of our inventories, including an assessment of excess or obsolete inventories. We determine excess and obsolete inventories based on an estimate of the future demand for our products within a specified time horizon, generally 12 months. The estimates we use for demand are also used for near-term capacity planning and inventory purchasing and are consistent with our revenue forecasts. If our demand forecast is greater than our actual demand we may be required to take additional excess inventory charges, which will decrease gross margin and net operating results in the future.

Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q

ALLOWANCE FOR DOUBTFUL ACCOUNTS. ACL maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the inability of ACL's customers to make required payments. ACL's allowance for doubtful accounts is based on ACL's assessment of the collectibility of specific customer accounts, the aging of accounts receivable, ACL's history of bad debts, and the general condition of the industry. If a major customer's credit worthiness deteriorates, or ACL's customers' actual defaults exceed ACL's historical experience, ACL's estimates could change and impact ACL's reported results.

CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

The following table presents the Company's contractual obligations as of March 31, 2005 over the next five years and thereafter:

Payments by Period

	AMOUNT	LESS THAN 1 YEAR	1-3 YEARS	4-5 YEARS	AFTER 5 YEARS
Operating Leas	66,346	34,615	31,731	---	---

ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES; ANTICIPATED EFFECT OF GROWTH

Below is a brief description of basic accounting principles which the Company has adopted in determining its recognition of sales and expenses, as well as a brief description of the effects that the Company believes its anticipated growth will have on the Company's sales and expenses in the next 12 months.

NET SALES

Sales from Samsung are recognized upon the transfer of legal title of the electronic components to the customers. At March 31, 2005, ACL had more than 120 active customers.

The quantities of memory products the Company sells fluctuate with changes in demand from its customers. The prices set by Samsung that the Company must charge its customers are expected to fluctuate as a result of prevailing economic conditions and their impact on the market. Since the second half of year 2003, the Company has experienced increased demand for Samsung memory products among personal and corporate users in the Hong Kong and Southern China regions due to a recovery of their economies, in particular for the first quarter of 2004. The Company believes that increased market demand in Hong Kong and Southern China exceeds the planned production of most memory products manufacturers in the world and has resulted in upward pressure in average pricing of the memory products offered by the Company in these regions. The Company expects this upward trend in average pricing of the available memory products in these regions to continue over the next 12 months. Due to insufficient allocation of memory products from Samsung HK, Atlantic's principal supplier of Samsung memory products, during the three months ended March 31, 2005, the Company had to source certain Samsung memory products from other Samsung memory products importers rather than directly from Samsung HK. For PC field, due to DDR2 memory standard started up and compete with old type DDR, most of PC makers were torn between the Intel market planning. There was uncertainty in early first quarter of 2005, Intel aggressively promoted DDR2 but not successful, therefore, Intel switched back to support DDR+DDR2 combo products near end of the first quarter of 2005. Overall supply was then slow down by selection and decision from PC makers. Also, end customers were hesitated to buy new PC between 3 standards of DDR, DDR +DDR2, and DDR2 only. In the first quarter of 2004, such different selections do not exist which caused the demand in PC memory revenue be stronger during the three months ended March 31, 2004 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2005. However, the revenues are expected to be increased and stabilized for the rest of 2005 as DDR2 is expected to become the main stream products.

For Consumer products, there was a surge of NAND Flash demand for MP3 player, Flash card (Data storage) products, and a growth of 50% of revenue came as a result. There is forecast of increase in NAND Flash demand through out this year, and the consumption of density 1G bit and 2G bit will switch to 2G bit and 4G bit as main stream in the second and the third quarters of 2005; and 8G bit will domain at the fourth quarter of 2005. Sales revenue is expect to increase significantly in remaining of 2005.

However, the drop of PC memory revenue in the first quarter of 2005 exceeded the gain of NAND Flash, and an overall drop of 3.1% occurred.

COST OF SALES

Cost of sales consists of costs of goods purchased from Samsung HK, and purchases from other Samsung authorized distributors. Many factors affect the Company's gross margin, including, but not limited to, the volume of production orders placed on behalf of its customers, the competitiveness of the memory products industry and the availability of cheaper Samsung memory products from overseas Samsung distributors due to regional demand and supply situations. Nevertheless, the Company's procurement operations are supported by Samsung HK, although there is no written long-term supply agreement in place between Atlantic and Samsung HK.

OPERATING EXPENSES

The Company's operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 were comprised of sales and marketing and general and administrative expenses only.

Sales and marketing expenses consisted primarily of salaries and external commissions paid to external sales personnel and costs associated with advertising and marketing activities.

General and administrative expenses include all corporate and administrative functions that serve to support the Company's current and future operations and provide an infrastructure to support future growth. Major items in this category include management and staff salaries, rent/leases, professional services, and travel and entertainment. The Company expects these expenses to increase as a result of increased legal and accounting fees anticipated in connection with the Company's compliance with ongoing reporting and accounting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission and as a result of anticipated expansion by the Company of its business operations. Sales and marketing expenses are expected to fluctuate as a percentage of sales due to the addition of sales personnel and various marketing activities planned throughout the year.

Interest expense, including finance charges, relates primarily to Atlantic's short-term and long-term bank borrowings, which the Company intends to reduce, and amortization of discount on the convertible debenture.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following table sets forth unaudited statements of operations data for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 and should be read in conjunction with the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and the Company's financial statements and the related notes appearing elsewhere in this document.

UNAUDITED THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2005 COMPARED TO THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2004

NET SALES

Sales decreased by $903,621 or 3.1% from $29,549,875 in the three months ended March 31, 2004 to $28,646,254 in the three months ended March 31, 2005. This decrease resulted primarily from the recession of IT industry, especially in PC field and consumer products for the first quarter of 2005.

COST OF SALES

Cost of sales decreased by $589,851, or 2.1%, from $28,273,223 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 to $27,683,372 for the three months ended March 31, 2004. The decrease in cost of sales decreased in proportion to the decrease of sales stated above. As a percentage of sales, cost of sales increased slightly to 96.6% of sales in the three months ended March 31, 2005 from 95.7% of sales in the three months ended March 31, 2004.

GROSS PROFIT

Gross profit decreased by $313,770 or 24.6%, from $1,276,652 for the three months ended March 31, 2004 to $962,882 for the three months ended March 31, 2005. The decrease in gross profits resulted primarily from the decrease in sales by the Company for the three months ended March 31, 2005. The Company's gross profit % decreased slightly to 3.3% of sales in the three months ended March 31, 2005 from 4.3% of sales in the three months ended March 31, 2004, as a result of slight recession of IT industry for the first quarter of 2005.

OPERATING EXPENSES

Sales and marketing expenses increased by $133,221 or 863.1%, from $15,435 for the three months ended March 31, 2004 to $148,656 for the three months ended March 31, 2005. This increase was principally attributable to the sales commission expenses incurred for the first quarter of 2005. As a percentage of sales, sales and marketing expenses increased to 0.5% of sales for the three months ended March 31, 2005 when compared to 0.05% of sales for the three months ended March 31, 2004. We expect sales and marketing expenses to increase in fiscal 2005 due to an expected increase in sales and potential consolidation of Classic upon our acquisition expected to occur in the year of 2005.

General and administrative expenses decreased $236,628 or 31.6% from $748,659 in the three months ended March 31, 2004 to $512,031 in the three months ended March 31, 2005. This decrease was principally attributable to professional costs for services performed after the Company became a publicly traded company. Majority of the accounting and legal services were performed during the three months ended March 31, 2004. We expect the general and administrative expenses to remain at the current level until the consolidation of Classic taking place.

Income from operations for the Company was $302,195 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 compared to an income of $512,558 for the three months ended March 31, 2004, decrease of income by $210,363 or 41.0%. This decrease was primarily the result of decrease of gross profit during the first quarter of 2005.

OTHER INCOME (EXPENSES)

Interest expense decreased by $95,732, or 68.9%, to $43,210 in the three months ended March 31, 2005, from $138,942 in the three months ended March 31, 2004. Excluding $98,296 interest expense incurred in the three months ended March 31, 2004 related to amortization of discount on convertible note payable which is non-cash in nature, as a percentage of sales, interest expense was $40,646 in the three months ended March 31, 2004. Excluding the above-mentioned amortization of discount on convertible note payable, interest expense of ACL increased to 0.2% of sales for the three months ended March 31, 2005 from 0.1% for the three months ended March 31, 2004 due to a reduction by the Company of its need to open and draw down on letters of credits to obtain goods from its suppliers. We expect our interest expense excluding the amortization of convertible note to continue to decrease as we repay our long-term bank borrowings, which decrease is expected to be offset by consolidation of the line-of-credit and long-term bank borrowings of Classic after our acquisition anticipated in the fourth quarter of 2005.

Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q

The Company's net income decreased by $130,009 or 40.5% from $320,901 for the three months ended March 31, 2004 to an income of $190,892 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 due primarily to drop in gross profit.

INCOME TAX

Income tax increased by $13,767 or 26.2% from $52,547 for the three months ended March 31, 2004 to $66,314 for the three months ended March 31, 2005, representing, however, an increase in our effective tax rate to 19.8% from 14.1% for such respective periods. Such increase resulted from the fact that during the first three months of 2004, a portion of income was attributed to technical support and procurement services and allocated to Alpha. Such services were performed out of Hong Kong which was not subject to Hong Kong income tax in accordance with Hong Kong income tax laws.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's principal sources of liquidity have historically been cash provided by operations, bank lines of credit and credit terms from suppliers. The Company's principal uses of cash have been for operations and working capital. The Company anticipates these uses will continue to be its principal uses of cash in the future. See Note 5 of the Notes to Financial Statements for a description of the Company's banking arrangements.

The Company may require additional financing in order to reduce its short-term and long-term debts and implement its business plan. The Company currently anticipates a need of approximately $3.5 million in additional financing to repay bank borrowings. In order to meet anticipated demand for Samsung's memory products in the Southern China market over the next 12 months, the Company anticipates an additional need of working capital of at least $2.0 million to finance the cash flow required to finance the purchase of Samsung memory products from Samsung HK one day in advance of the release of goods from Samsung HK's warehouse before receiving payments from customers upon physical delivery of such goods in Hong Kong which, in most instances, takes approximately two days from the date of such delivery. In certain limited instances, customers of Atlantic are permitted up to thirty (30) days to make payment for purchased memory products. As the anticipated cash generated by the Company's operations are insufficient to fund its growth requirements, it will need to obtain additional funds. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain the necessary additional capital on a timely basis or on acceptable terms, if at all. The Company's business growth and prospects would be materially and adversely affected. As a result of any such financing, if it is an equity financing, the holders of the Company's common stock may experience substantial dilution. In addition, as its results may be negatively impacted and thus delayed as a result of political and economic factors beyond the management's control, the Company's capital requirements may increase.

Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those expected caused by: pricing pressures in the industry; a downturn in the economy in general or in the memory products sector; an unexpected decrease in demand for Samsung's memory products; a decrease in its ability to attract new customers; an increase in competition in the memory products market; and the ability or inability of some of ACL's customers to obtain financing. These factors or additional risks and uncertainties not known to ACL or that it currently deems immaterial may impair business operations and may cause ACL's actual results to differ materially from its historical operating results.

Although ACL believes its expectations of future growth are reasonable, it cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. ACL is under no duty to update its expectation after the date of this report to confirm them to actual results or to make changes in its expectations.

In the three months ended March 31, 2005, net cash provided by operating activities was $93,896 while in the three months ended March 31, 2004, net cash used for operating activities was $138,410, an increase of $232,306. Increase was primarily due to decrease of accounts receivable.

In the three months ended March 31, 2005, net cash used for investing activities was $418,118 while in the three months ended March 31, 2004, ACL used $28,506 in investing activities, an increase cash used of $389,612. Increase was primarily due to the restricted cash held by the bank as collateral for borrowings.

In the three months ended March 31, 2005, net cash provided by financing activities was $301,258 while in the three months ended March 31, 2004, net cash used in financing activities was $117,688, an increase of $418,946. Increase was primarily due to the borrowings from City Royal Limited as cash collateral for its facility line.

An essential element of the Company's growth in the future will be to obtain adequate additional working capital to meet anticipated market demand from PC users (business and personal) in the southern part of China.

ITEM 3: QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

ACL is exposed to market risk for changes in interest rates as its bank borrowings accrue interest at floating rates of 0.5% to 1.0% over the Best Lending Rate (currently at 5.5% per annum) prevailing in Hong Kong. For the three months ended March 31, 2005, ACL did not generate any material interest income or incurred material interest expense. Accordingly, ACL believes that changes in interest rates will not have a material effect on its liquidity, financial condition or results of operations.

IMPACT OF INFLATION

ACL believes that its results of operations are not significantly impacted by moderate changes in inflation rates as it expects it will be able to pass these costs by component price increases to its customers.

SEASONALITY

ACL has not experienced any material seasonality in sales fluctuations over the past 2 years in the memory products markets.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q

The Company has established disclosure controls and procedures to ensure that material information relating to the Company, including Atlantic, is made known to the officers who certify the Company's financial reports and to other members of senior management and the Board of Directors.

(a) EVALUATION OF DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES. Based on their evaluation as of March 31, 2005, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-14(c) and 15d-14(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act")) are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms.

(b) CHANGES IN INTERNAL CONTROLS. In connection with the evaluation of the Company's internal controls as of March 31, 2005, the Company's Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer have determined that there are no changes to the Company's internal controls over financial reporting that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially effect, the Company's internal controls over financial reporting.

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In the ordinary course of business we may be subject to litigation from time to time. There is no past, pending or, to our knowledge, threatened litigation or administrative action (including litigation or action involving our officers, directors or other key personnel) which in our opinion has, had, or is expected to have, a material adverse effect upon our business, prospects financial condition or operations.

Professional Traders Fund, LLC ("PTF") filed a complaint, dated February 8, 2005, against us in the Southern District of New York alleging breach of contract for the nonpayment of a 12% subordinated convertible note from us to PTF in the principal amount of $250,000. PTF seeks $239,850 plus default interest, costs and attorneys fees. We have not filed an answer to such action by PTF. PTF has moved in the action to hold us in default.

Friedland Capital, Inc. ("Friedland") filed a complaint, dated May 3, 2005, against us in the Superior Court of New Castle County, State of Delaware alleging breach of an agreement whereby Friedland agreed to provide advisory services for a fee of $15,000 per month. Friedland seeks $78,225.35 and certain options to purchase shares of common stock. We have not filed an answer to such action by Friedland. We are currently negotiating settlement terms.

ITEM 6. EXHIBITS AND REPORTS ON FORM 10-Q

(a) Exhibits:

31.1 Certification of Chief Executive Officer pursuant to Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002
