Riverview Bancorp, Inc. Completes Acquisition of American Pacific Bank
Friday April 22, 8:00 pm ET

VANCOUVER, Wash.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--April 22, 2005--Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (Nasdaq:RVSB - News), parent company of Riverview Community Bank in Vancouver, Washington, announced today that it had completed its acquisition of American Pacific Bank, located in Portland, Oregon. As a result of the acquisition, American Pacific Bank, which operates three branches in Oregon, including two in metropolitan Portland, has been merged with and into Riverview Community Bank.

"I want to thank the American Pacific Bank team and welcome our new customers, employees and shareholders to the Riverview family," said Pat Sheaffer, Chairman and CEO of Riverview Bancorp. "On April 25, 2005, all American Pacific branches will re-open under the Riverview banner and we expect that all major systems conversions will be completed. The customers of American Pacific will continue to be served by the same familiar faces they have always done business with and will receive the extraordinary level of local, personal service they have come to expect."

"The acquisition represents Riverview's entry into the attractive Portland market area and highlights our commitment to expand into selective new, high-growth banking markets around the Portland metropolitan area," Sheaffer continued. "American Pacific has a strong commercial lending team and is one of the few community banks in the area. Together, we are well positioned to take advantage of future expansion opportunities, and this acquisition allows us to leverage our existing franchise and increase and deepen our relationships with our new customers."

"We also are excited about our new partnership with key community bankers who share our passion for providing high-quality customer service. Donovan L. Wabs, Senior Vice President and Director of Real Estate Lending at American Pacific, will continue in a leadership role at Riverview Community Bank by managing commercial lending in Portland. Donovan will continue to be assisted in this endeavor with his team of experienced commercial lenders and loan assistants from American Pacific. In addition, Dean Sterner, will join the Riverview family as Branch Manager of the Portland Downtown office. With over 25 years of branch management and lending experience, Dean is ideally suited to understanding and meeting the financial needs of our retail and commercial clients. We strongly believe the combination of American Pacific branches with the strength of Riverview's resources in these markets will increase the franchise value of Riverview and contribute to long-term shareholder value," Sheaffer added.

Each American Pacific share of stock will be converted into either shares of Riverview common stock, or cash at $11.94 per share, subject to the election and allocation process. In the aggregate American Pacific shareholders will receive 788,593 shares of Riverview common stock or a per share exchange ratio of .5630 shares of Riverview stock for each share of American Pacific stock less any fractional shares, and an aggregate payment of $16,757,593 in cash, or $11.94 per share for the 2,804,618 shares of American Pacific, issued and outstanding on the effective date. Fractional share interest of Riverview common stock will be paid at a rate of $21.20 per share.
