Compensatory Arrangements with Mr. Lopez

The material terms of Mr. Lopez’s employment are as follows:

(a) Mr. Lopez’s annual base salary is $210,000. He is eligible to participate in the Company’s 2015 Management Incentive Variable Compensation Plan with an annual target bonus of $65,000.

(b) The Company has granted Mr. Lopez options to purchase a total of 40,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company pursuant to the Company’s 2004 Equity Incentive Plan. The grant will vest over 48 months, vesting 25% of the shares after twelve months of employment, and vesting in additional 1/48th increments each month for the following 36 months.

(c) Mr. Lopez will participate in the benefit programs available to the Company’s employees and executive officers.

In connection with his employment, Mr. Lopez executed an Executive Employment Agreement (the “Employment Agreement”), the form of which is incorporated herein by reference from the Company’s Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 8, 2012. Under the terms of the Employment Agreement, which is scheduled to expire on March 15, 2015 and expected to be renewed, termination of his employment may occur at any point, with or without Cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement). Should termination of employment without Cause occur, or if Mr. Lopez becomes disabled and is unable to continue his employment and is therefore terminated, he is entitled under the Employment Agreement to (i) receive his regular base salary for a period of three (3) months plus one month for each completed two years of service up to a maximum of six (6) months following termination, (ii) receive reimbursement for payment of his COBRA premiums for the lesser of the same amount of time or until he is eligible for the health insurance benefits provided by another employer, (iii) receive a pro-rata share of the full variable compensation amount to which he would otherwise be entitled to under the Management Variable Incentive Compensation Plan for the quarter in which he is terminated, as well as being entitled to purchase from the Company at book value certain items that were purchased by the Company for his use, which may include a personal computer, a cellular phone and other similar items. Stock options granted to the Employee shall cease vesting immediately upon the date of termination of employment, but vested stock options will be exercisable after termination for up to the greater of ninety (90) days after termination of employment or twenty-five percent (25%) of the Employee's service with the Company, up to a one year post-termination exercise period. In addition, this post-termination exercise period will be restricted to the original term of the stock options and as required to avoid additional taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 409A. None of the above consideration will be paid unless the Executive executes without subsequent revocation a general release of claims satisfactory to the Company.

There are no family relationships between Mr. Lopez and any director or executive officer of the Company which would require disclosure under Item 401(d) of Regulation S-K.
