On June 19, 2013, Southeastern Asset Management, Inc. (“Southeastern”) provided the following memo to its clients:

[SOUTHEASTERN ASSET MANAGEMENT, INC. LETTERHEAD]

Date: June 18, 2013
To: The Clients of Southeastern Asset Management, Inc.
From: The Principals of Southeastern Asset Management, Inc.
Subject: Dell Update

We are writing to update you on developments regarding our position in Dell. As many of you know, we have been diligently working on a superior proposal to the Michael Dell/Silver Lake management led buyout. Unfortunately, the merger agreement Dell’s Board entered into with Michael Dell and Silver Lake has made it difficult to construct an acceptable alternative that the Dell Special Committee could endorse. Because of Icahn Associates’ structure, capital and expertise, Icahn is better suited to lead the efforts required to generate an alternative that will provide more value to Dell shareholders.

We therefore have agreed to sell a portion of Southeastern’s shares to Icahn Associates, making Icahn Dell’s largest outside shareholder. Specifically, we have agreed to sell approximately 72 million shares of Dell, which equates to half of our client holdings for $13.52 per share, a price that represents the mid-point between the $13.65 per share offer price and the closing market price on June 17, 2013. We continue as a 13D group filer with Icahn and intend to vote our remaining shares against the Michael Dell/Silver Lake going private proposal. Icahn’s strengthened position to pursue financing options should increase the probability of a more valuable outcome than the current bid for our clients’ remaining stake.

This transaction with Icahn Associates not only attempts to maximize our Dell result, but also provides broader flexibility for our clients’ portfolios. We appreciate the strong support we have received from our investors throughout our opposition to the Dell buyout. We will continue to move forward in a way that best represents the interests of our investment partners.
