News Release

April 12, 2003

ICICI Bank branches in Gujarat and Mumbai to remain open on April 13 and 14, 2003

As stated in the press release issued on April 11, 2003 by ICICI Bank (NYSE: IBN), rumours have been circulated in the State of Gujarat regarding the Bank's financial position. ICICI Bank reiterates that the Bank is a solvent organisation and depositors', bondholders and lenders' funds are safe with ICICI Bank. The Reserve Bank of India has also issued a statement clarifying that ICICI Bank has adequate liquidity and its financial position is sound. However, consequent to the rumours, the Bank's branches in Gujarat and a few other locations have witnessed higher than normal customer transactions today. The Bank has made all necessary arrangements to service customers at its branches across the country. The Bank's ATMs are functioning normally. In order to service customer demands, the Bank's branches in Gujarat and Mumbai will remain open during normal business hours on April 13 and 14, 2003 in spite of these days being bank holidays.

ICICI Bank wishes to thank the Reserve Bank of India and other banks and institutions for their guidance and support.
