To A	ll Ther	aSense Employees:
perio	d unde	ook another important step in the process of completing the merger with Abbott with the clearance of antitrust review. The waiting in the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act has expired. Simply put, this means that the Federal Trade Commission and the ment of Justice have found that the merger of the two companies does not pose antitrust issues.
		that completion of this deal remains subject to approval by a majority of TheraSense stockholders and customary closing conditions, her regulatory approvals. As previously reported, we anticipate closing the deal in the second quarter.
		nue to move closer to completion of the merger, I will keep you updated on all important milestones. In the meantime, please remain your work. Our future success continues to depend on maintaining strong business momentum.
