Item 5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 24, 2008, as part of its regular review of compensation matters and market practices, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Ultra Clean Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) approved the execution by the Company of change of control severance agreements (the “Severance Agreements”) with each of Messrs. Granger, Sexton and Savage in view of the prior expiration of Mr. Sexton’s employment agreement and the limited remaining duration of Mr. Granger’s employment agreement and the desire to have consistent severance benefits among the executive officers. As part of this review, the Compensation Committee amended the Company’s severance policy for executive officers to include severance benefits in the absence of change of control for Messrs. Granger, Sexton and Savage. The Severance Agreements, along with the amended severance policy, supersede the severance benefits set forth in Mr. Granger’s employment agreement (which will be terminated concurrently with the execution of the Severance Agreement) and Mr. Savage’s offer letter.

Upon execution of the Severance Agreements, each of these officers will be eligible to receive the following severance benefits if he is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason within 12 months following a change of control, subject to signing a general release of claims:

- 150% (or 200% for Mr. Granger) of his then current base salary;
- 150% (or 200% for Mr. Granger) of his average annual cash bonus over the prior 3 years;
- vesting of 100% of his unvested and outstanding equity awards (except for performance stock awards which remain subject to performance criteria as of the termination date); and
 - reimbursement of COBRA costs for up to 18 months (or 24 months for Mr. Granger)

Pursuant to the amended severance policy, each of these officers is eligible to receive the following severance benefits if he is terminated without cause and signs a general release of claims:

- 100% (or 150% for Mr. Granger) of his then current annual base salary;
- 100% (or 150% for Mr. Granger) of his average annual cash bonus over the prior 3 years;
- vesting of the unvested and outstanding equity awards that would have vested within 12 months (or 18 months for Mr. Granger), except for performance stock awards which remain subject to performance criteria as of the termination date; and
 - reimbursement of COBRA costs for up to 12 months (or 18 months for Mr. Granger).

Severance benefits for the other executive officers under the policy as previously filed were not changed.
