Consolidated Financial Statements for the Six Months Ended June 30, 2010 and 2011 and
Independent Accountants' Review Report

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REVIEW REPORT

The Board of Directors and Shareholders
Advanced Semiconductor Engineering, Inc.

We have reviewed the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Advanced Semiconductor Engineering, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively the "Company") as of June 30, 2010 and 2011, and the related consolidated statements of income, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the six months then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to issue a report on these consolidated financial statements based on our reviews.

We conducted our reviews in accordance with Statement of Auditing Standards No. 36, "Review of Financial Statements" issued by the Accounting Research and Development Foundation ("ARDF") of the Republic of China. A review consists principally of applying analytical procedures to financial data and making inquiries of officers responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China, the objective of which is to express an opinion regarding the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the consolidated financial statements of the Company referred to above for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the Republic of China.

As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company completed the tender offering for the common shares of Universal Scientific Industrial Co., Ltd. ("USI") in February 2010. Upon the completion of the tender offering, USI became a subsidiary of the Company. As a result, the consolidated results of operations of USI and its subsidiaries from the date of acquisition have been included in the consolidated financial statements referred to above.

Our reviews also comprehended the translation of New Taiwan dollar amounts into U.S. dollar amounts and such translation has been made in conformity with the basis stated in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements. Such U.S. dollar amounts are presented solely for the convenience of the readers.

USI Acquisition

In February 2010, in order to enhance the technical and business cooperation relationship, the Company had launched a cash and stock tender offer to buy the additional outstanding common shares of USI not owned by the Company at a fixed price of NT$21 per share, which was comprised of a fixed 0.34 share of ASE Inc.'s common shares owned by the subsidiaries, J&R Holding and ASE Test, and a cash consideration determined pursuant to the formula (equivalent to NT$21 less 0.34 multiplied by the lowest of the average closing price of ASE Inc.'s common shares for the last one, three and five trading days prior to the last day of the tender offer period). The total consideration was NT$13,475,056 thousand of which 218,167 thousand shares of ASE Inc. were delivered by the subsidiaries (Note 20). In addition, ASE Inc. continued to acquire additional outstanding common shares of USI not owned by the Company with a total consideration of NT$4,667,117 thousand in August 2010.

EEMS Test Singapore Pte. Ltd. Acquisition

The Company, through ASE Singapore, acquired 100% shareholdings of EEMS Test Singapore Pte. Ltd. from its parent company, EEMS Asia Pte. Ltd., in August 2010 with a total consideration of US$ 72,163 thousand. EEMS Test Singapore Pte. Ltd. was renamed to ASE Singapore II Pte. Ltd. and subsequently merged into ASE Singapore on January 1, 2011.

The abovementioned acquisitions were accounted for as a purchase as prescribed by ROC Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 25, "Business Combinations-Accounting Treatment under Purchase Method".

Foreign Currency Transactions and Translation of Foreign-currency Financial Statements

The financial statements of foreign subsidiaries are translated into New Taiwan dollars at the following exchange rates:

- a. Assets and liabilities - at exchange rates prevailing on the balance sheet date;
- b. Shareholders' equity - at historical exchange rates;
- c. Income and expenses - at average exchange rates for the period

Exchange differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of foreign subsidiaries are recognized as a separate component of shareholders' equity.

Non-derivative foreign-currency transactions are recorded in local currencies at the rates of exchange in effect when the transactions occur. Exchange differences arising from settlement of foreign-currency assets and liabilities are recognized in profit or loss.

At the balance sheet date, foreign-currency monetary assets and liabilities are revalued using prevailing exchange rates and the exchange differences are recognized in profit or loss.

At the balance sheet date, foreign-currency nonmonetary assets (such as equity instruments) and liabilities that are measured at fair value are revalued using prevailing exchange rates. When a gain or loss on a nonmonetary item is recognized in shareholders' equity, any exchange component of that gain or loss shall be recognized in shareholders' equity. Conversely, when a gain or loss on a nonmonetary item is recognized in earnings, any exchange component of that gain or loss shall be recognized in earnings.

Foreign-currency nonmonetary assets and liabilities that are carried at cost continue to be stated at exchange rates at trade dates.

If the functional currency of an equity-method investee is a foreign currency, translation adjustments will result from the translation of the investee's financial statements into the reporting currency of the Company. Such adjustments are accumulated and reported as a separate component of shareholders' equity.

Accounting Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the Republic of China requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Current and Noncurrent Assets and Liabilities

Current assets include cash and cash equivalents, and those assets held primarily for trading purposes or to be realized, sold or consumed within twelve months from the balance sheet date. All other assets such as property, plant and equipment and intangible assets are classified as noncurrent. Current liabilities are obligations incurred for trading purposes or to be settled within twelve months from the balance sheet date. All other liabilities are classified as noncurrent.

Because the Company's real estate business has an operating cycle greater than one year, its classification of current or noncurrent assets and liabilities related to the real estate business is based on its operating cycle.

Cash Equivalents

Repurchase agreements collateralized by government bonds with maturities of less than three months from the date of purchase are classified as cash equivalents.

Financial Assets and Liabilities at Fair Value through Profit or Loss

The Company recognizes a financial asset or financial liability on its balance sheet when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. A financial asset is derecognized when the Company has lost control of its contractual rights over the financial asset. A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation specified in the relevant contract is discharged, cancelled or expired.

Financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”) are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets at FVTPL are recognized immediately in profit or loss. At each balance sheet date subsequent to initial recognition, financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL are remeasured at fair value, with changes in fair value recognized directly in profit or loss in the period in which they arise. Cash dividends received subsequently (including those received in the period of investment) are recognized as income for the period. On derecognition of a financial asset or a financial liability, the difference between its carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable or consideration paid and payable is recognized in profit or loss. A regular way purchase or sale of financial assets is recognized and derecognized on a settlement date basis.

A derivative that does not qualify for hedge accounting is classified as a financial asset or a financial liability held for trading. If the fair value of the derivative is positive, the derivative is recognized as a financial asset; otherwise, the derivative is recognized as a financial liability.

Fair value is determined as follows: Open-end mutual funds - the net asset value; publicly traded stocks - the closing-price at the balance sheet date; bonds and other financial instruments with no quoted price in an active market - using valuation techniques.

Available-for-sale Financial Assets

Available-for-sale financial assets are initially recognized at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition. Changes in fair value of financial assets are reported in a separate component of shareholders’ equity. The corresponding accumulated gains or losses are recognized in earnings when the financial asset is derecognized from the balance sheet. A regular way purchase or sale of financial assets is recognized and derecognized on a settlement date basis.

The recognition, derecognition and the basis for fair value of available-for-sale financial assets are the same with those of financial assets at FVTPL.

Cash dividends are recognized on the ex-dividend date. Stock dividends are not recognized as investment income but are recorded as an increase in the number of shares. The total number of shares subsequent to the increase is used for recalculation of cost per share.

If certain objective evidence indicates that an available-for-sale financial asset is impaired, a loss is recognized currently; if, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases, for equity securities, the previously recognized impairment loss is reversed to the extent of the decrease and recorded as an adjustment to shareholders’ equity; for debt securities, the amount of the decrease is recognized in earnings, provided that the decrease is clearly attributable to an event which occurred after the impairment loss was recognized.

Hedging Accounting

Derivatives that are designated and effective as hedging instruments are measured at fair value, with subsequent changes in fair value recognized either in profit or loss, or in shareholders’ equity, depending on the nature of the hedging relationship.

Hedge accounting recognizes the offsetting effects on profit or loss of changes in the fair values of the hedging instrument and the hedged item as follows:

Fair value hedge

The gain or loss from remeasuring the hedging instrument at fair value and the gain or loss on the hedged item attributable to the hedged risk are recognized in profit or loss.

b. Cash flow hedge

The portion of the gain or loss on the hedging instrument that is determined to be an effective hedge is recognized in shareholders' equity. The amount recognized in shareholders' equity is recognized in profit or loss in the same period or periods during which the hedged forecasted transaction or an asset or liability arising from the hedged forecasted transaction affects profit or loss. However, if all or a portion of a loss recognized in shareholders' equity is not expected to be recovered in the future, the amount that is not expected to be recovered is reclassified into profit or loss.

Financial Assets Carried at Cost

Investments that do not have a quoted market price in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured are carried at their original cost. The accounting for dividends on financial assets carried at cost is the same with that for dividends on available-for-sale financial assets. If certain objective evidence indicates that such a financial asset is impaired, a loss is recognized currently. A subsequent reversal of such impairment loss is not allowed.

Bond Investments with No Active Market

Bond investments with fixed or determinable payments and with no quoted prices in an active market are carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Those financial assets are initially measured at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition. Gains or losses are recognized when the financial assets are derecognized, impaired or amortized.

If certain objective evidence indicates that a bond investment with no active market is impaired, a loss is recognized currently. If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease is clearly attributable to an event which occurred after the impairment loss was recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss is reversed to the extent of the decrease. The reversal may not result in a carrying amount that exceeds the amortized cost that would have been determined as if no impairment loss had been recognized.

Impairment of Accounts Receivable

As discussed in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company adopted the newly revised SFAS No. 34, "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" ("SFAS No. 34"). Accounts receivable are assessed for impairment at the end of each reporting period. The Company first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists individually for accounts receivable, then includes in a group basis with historical collective experience and similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment.

The carrying amount of the accounts receivable is reduced through the use of an allowance account. The amount of the impairment loss recognized is the difference between the carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the receivable's original effective interest rate.

Impairment of Non-Financial Assets

When an asset's (primarily property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and equity method investments) recoverable amount is lower than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount by recording an impairment loss. When the recoverable amount subsequently increases, the impairment loss previously recognized is reversed and recorded as a gain. However, the carrying amount of an asset (other than goodwill) after the reversal of the impairment loss should not exceed the carrying amount of the asset that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortization, as if no impairment loss had been recognized.

Allowances for Sales Discount

Allowances for sales discounts are generally recorded in the same period the related revenue is recognized on the basis of historical experience, management's judgment, and relevant factors.

Inventories and Inventories Related to Construction Business

Inventories, including raw materials (materials received from customers for processing, mainly semiconductor wafers, are excluded from inventories as title and risk of loss remain with the customers), supplies, work in process, finished goods, and materials and supplies in transit, are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Inventory write-downs are made on an item by item basis. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price of inventories less all estimated costs to complete production and selling expenses necessary to make the sale. Raw materials and supplies are recorded at moving average cost; work in process and finished goods are recorded at standard cost and adjusted to the approximate weighted average cost at the balance sheet date.

Inventory for property development business includes buildings and land held for sale and construction in progress. Prior to the completion, borrowing costs directly attributable to construction in progress are capitalized as part of the cost of the asset. Construction in progress is transferred to buildings and land held for sale upon completion of the construction. Construction in progress and buildings and land held for sale are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value and related write-downs are made on an item by item basis. The amounts received in advance of real estate property are first recorded as advance receipts and then recognized as revenue when the construction is completed and the title and significant risk of the real estate property are transferred to customers. Cost of sales of buildings and land held for sale are recognized based on the ratio of property sold to the total property developed.

Equity Method Investments

Investments in companies of which the Company owns at least 20% but less than 50% of the outstanding voting shares or where the Company exercises significant influence over the investee companies' operating and financial policy decisions are accounted for using the equity method. The acquisition cost is allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their fair values at the date of acquisition, and the excess of the acquisition cost over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired, representing goodwill, shall not be amortized.

Gains or losses from downstream or upstream transactions with equity method investees are eliminated in proportion to the Company's percentage of ownership in the investee.

When the Company subscribes for additional investees' shares at a percentage different from its existing ownership percentage, the resulting carrying amount of the investment in the investees differs from the amount of the Company's share in the investee's net equity. The Company records such a difference as an adjustment to equity method investments with the corresponding amount charged or credited to capital surplus. When the adjustment should be debited to capital surplus, but the capital surplus arising from long-term investment is insufficient, the difference is debited to retained earnings.

Property, Plant and Equipment and Idle Assets

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment. Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of property, plant and equipment are capitalized as part of the cost of those assets. Major additions and improvements to property, plant and equipment are capitalized, while maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred.

Assets held under capital leases are initially recognized as assets of the Company at the lower of their fair value at the inception of the lease or the present value of the minimum lease payments; the corresponding liability is included in the balance sheet as capital lease obligations. The interest included in lease payments is expensed when paid.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over estimated service lives, which range as follows: buildings and improvements, 2 to 60 years; machinery and equipment, transportation equipment and furniture and fixtures, 2 to 10 years; and leased assets and leasehold improvements, 3 to 6 years.

Idle assets are stated at the lower of fair value or carrying amount. The carrying amount in excess of the fair value is recognized as an impairment loss. The remaining book value is depreciated using the straight-line method.

When property, plant and equipment and idle assets are retired or disposed of, their cost, accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is credited or charged to non-operating income or losses.

Intangible Assets

Patents and land use rights purchased are initially recorded at cost. Land use rights, patents, acquired special technology, customer relationships and other intangible assets arising from business acquisitions are initially recorded at fair value at the date of acquisition.

Intangible assets are amortized based on the pattern in which the economic benefits are consumed or using the straight-line method over the estimated service lives, which range as follows: land use rights, 50 to 60 years; others, 3 to 20 years.

Goodwill represents the excess of the consideration paid for an acquisition over the fair value of identifiable net assets acquired. Effective January 1, 2006, goodwill is no longer amortized and instead is tested for impairment annually.

Deferred Charges

Deferred charges mainly consist of tools and computer systems software. Amortization of deferred charge is computed on a straight-line basis over 2 to 5 years.

Pension Cost

Pension cost under defined benefit plans are determined by actuarial valuations. Contributions made under defined contribution plans are recognized as pension cost during the period in which employees render services.

Curtailment or settlement gains or losses of the defined benefit plans are recognized as part of the net pension cost for the period.

Income Taxes

The Company applies intra-period and inter-period allocations to its income tax, whereby deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for (1) the items adjusted directly in shareholders' equity and (2) the tax effects of temporary differences, loss carryforwards and unused tax credits. Valuation allowances are provided to the extent, if any, that it is more likely than not that deferred income tax assets will not be realized. A deferred tax asset or liability is classified as current or noncurrent in accordance with the classification of its related asset or liability. However, if a deferred tax asset or liability does not relate to an asset or liability in the financial statements, then it is classified as either current or noncurrent based on the expected length of time before it is realized or settled.

The taxable temporary differences between the book value and tax basis of equity method investments in foreign subsidiaries are not recognized as deferred income tax liabilities since the Company could control the timing of reversal of the temporary differences and would not reverse them in the foreseeable future and will, in effect, exist indefinitely.

Any tax credits arising from purchases of machinery, equipment and technology and research and development expenditures are recognized using the flow-through method.

Adjustments of prior years' income tax are added to or deducted from the current year's tax provision.

Income tax on undistributed earnings is recorded by ASE Inc. and subsidiaries under jurisdiction of ROC at the rate of 10% and is recorded as an expense in the year shareholders resolve the distribution of earnings.

Stock-based Compensation

Employee stock options granted on or after January 1, 2008 are accounted for under ROC SFAS No. 39, "Accounting for Share-based Payment." Under the statement, the value of the stock options granted, which is equal to the best available estimate of the number of stock options expected to vest multiplied by the grant-date fair value, is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, with a corresponding adjustment to capital surplus - employee stock options. The estimate is revised if subsequent information indicates that the number of stock options expected to vest differs from previous estimates.

Employee stock options granted on or before December 31, 2007 were accounted for under the interpretations issued by the ROC ARDF. The Company adopted the intrinsic value method under which compensation cost was recognized on a straight-line basis over the vesting period.

Treasury Stock

Treasury stock is stated at cost and shown as a deduction in shareholders' equity. When ASE Inc. retires treasury stock, the treasury stock account is reduced and the common stock as well as the capital surplus - capital in excess of par value are reversed on a pro rata basis. When the book value of the treasury stock exceeds the sum of the par value and capital surplus - capital in excess of par value, the difference is charged to capital surplus - treasury stock transactions and to retained earnings for any remaining amount. When treasury stock is disposed of, the book value of the treasury stock is removed from the accounts. When the selling price of the treasury stock exceeds the book value of the treasury stock, the difference is credited to capital surplus - treasury stock transactions.

ASE Inc.'s shares held by its subsidiaries are accounted for as treasury stock and, accordingly, the cost of such shares is reclassified from equity method investments to treasury stock. Cash dividends received by subsidiaries from ASE Inc. are recorded as capital surplus - treasury stock transactions.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues from semiconductor packaging and testing services are recognized upon completion of the services or shipment. Revenue from electronic manufacturing services is recognized when the Company has transferred to the buyer the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods, primarily upon shipment. The amounts received in advance of real estate property are first recorded as advance receipts and then recognized as revenue when the construction is completed and the title and significant risk of the real estate property are transferred to customers. Revenue from others is recognized upon completion of the services or delivery of goods because the earnings process has been completed and the economic benefits associated with the transaction have been realized or are realizable.

Revenues are determined using the fair value taking into account related sales discounts agreed by the Company and customers. Since the receivables from sales are collectible within one year and such transactions are frequent, the fair value of receivables is equivalent to the nominal amount of cash received or receivable.

U.S. Dollar Amounts

The Company prepares its consolidated financial statements in New Taiwan dollars. A translation of the consolidated financial statements into U.S. dollars is included solely for the convenience of the reader, and has been translated from New Taiwan dollars at the exchange rate as set forth in the statistical release of the Federal Reserve Board, which was NT$28.79 to US$1.00 as of June 30, 2011. The translation should not be construed as a representation that the New Taiwan dollar amounts have been, could have been, or could in the future be, converted into U.S. dollars at this or any other rate of exchange.

3. ACCOUNTING CHANGE

Recognition and Measurement of Financial Instruments

From January 1, 2011, the Company adopted the newly revised SFAS No. 34. The main revisions require that loans and receivables originated by the Company are now covered by SFAS No. 34. This accounting change did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2011.

Operating Segments

From January 1, 2011, the Company adopted the newly issued SFAS No. 41, "Operating Segments" ("SFAS No. 41"). The statement requires that segment information be disclosed based on the information regarding the components of the Company that management uses to make decisions regarding operating matters. SFAS No. 41 requires identification of operating segments on the basis of internal reports that are regularly reviewed by the Company's chief operating decision maker in order to allocate resources to the segments and assess their performance. This statement supersedes SFAS No. 20, "Segment Reporting". The Company conformed to the disclosure requirements as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2011. The information for the six months ended June 30, 2010 has been recast to reflect the new segment reporting requirement.

c. Cross currency swap contracts

As of June 30, 2011, the notional amount of the outstanding contract of ASE Inc. was NT$953,940 thousand against US$30,000 thousand. Interest receipts and payments are based on stated interest rates. The contract will mature in September 2011.

d. Foreign currency option contracts

The outstanding foreign currency option contracts of the Company as of June 30, 2011 were as follows:

Currency	Maturity Date	Contract Amount (In Thousands)

Note 1: The abovementioned contracts are monthly settled with 24 valuation periods totally. However, the counter-party has the right to terminate the contract prior to the maturity date.

-24-

The outstanding foreign currency option contracts of a subsidiary as of June 30, 2010 were as follows:

Contract	Maturity Date	Contract Amount (In Thousands)	Strike Price

Noncurrent portion	$ 203,797	$ 271,035	$ 9,414

The private-placement shares held by the Company is a legally enforceable restriction that prevents their trading for a specified period. As of June 30, 2010, the Company could not reliably measure fair value of the shares, so they were measured at cost (Note 10). Subsequently, the Company could reliably measure the effects of restriction, which were consistent with those of other market participants, so the abovementioned shares previously classified as financial assets carried at cost were transferred to available-for-sale financial assets – current and noncurrent, resulting in an unrealized loss of NT$55,241 thousand (US$1,919 thousand) for the six months ended June 30, 2011.

Pursuant to the above loan agreements, the Company should maintain certain financial ratios. Such financial ratios are calculated based on annual audited consolidated financial statements or semi-annual reviewed consolidated financial statements. As of June 30, 2011, the Company was in compliance with all of the loan covenants. As of June 30, 2010, ASE Inc. was waived to be comply with loan covenants and the subsidiaries were all in compliance.

As of June 30, 2010 and 2011, loans of NT$13,323,457 thousand and NT$8,250,333 thousand (US$286,569 thousand), respectively, would mature within one year. The Company, however, had obtained new long term credit lines to refinance the loans on a long-term basis before June 30, 2010 and 2011, respectively, and therefore such loans were not classified as current portion of long-term bank loans.

Defined Contribution Pension Plans

- a. Based on the pension plan under the ROC Labor Pension Act, the Company makes monthly contributions to employees' individual pension accounts at 6% of monthly salaries and wages.
- b. According to local regulations, the subsidiaries in China, USA, Malaysia, Singapore and Mexico also make contributions to local governments.

Defined Benefit Pension Plans

- a. The Company has a defined benefit pension plan under the ROC Labor Standards Law. The pension benefits are calculated based on the length of service and average base salary in the six months prior to retirement. The Company contributes a certain percentage of monthly salaries of its ROC employees to a retirement fund, which is deposited with the Bank of Taiwan.
- b. ASE Japan has a pension plan under which eligible employees with more than ten years of service are entitled to receive pension benefits based on their length of service and salary at the time of termination. In addition, ASE Korea has a pension plan under which eligible employees and directors with more than one year of service are entitled to receive a lump-sum payment upon termination of their service with ASE Korea, based on their length of service and salary at the time of termination.
- c. In addition, ASE Inc., ASE Test, Inc. and ASE Electronics maintain pension plans for executive managers.

Pension costs were NT$605,351 thousand and NT$616,773 thousand (US$21,423 thousand) for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, respectively.

20. SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

Common Stock

The authorized capital stock was NT$95,000,000 thousand and NT$15,000,000 thousand of which the Company has not completed the registration. In addition, the Company reserved common stock of NT$6,000,000 thousand and NT$8,000,000 thousand for convertible bonds and employee stock option plans, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, employees exercised options and paid NT$160,535 thousand (10,955 thousand shares) and NT$472,291 thousand (22,640 thousand shares), of which NT$69,033 thousand (4,571 thousand shares) and NT$45,991 thousand (2,468 thousand shares) were recorded as "capital received in advance" as of June 30, 2010 and 2011, respectively. Employees exercised options and paid NT$338,869 thousand for 17,608 thousand shares from July 1, 2010 to December 31, 2010.

In addition, the shareholders' meetings held in June 2010 resolved to distribute stock dividends out of capital surplus and retained earnings in the amount of NT$5,494,970 thousand (549,497 thousand shares). The Company made a capital reduction in the amount of NT$370,000 thousand (US$12,582 thousand) for 37,000 thousand shares through the retirement of treasury stock in January 2011. The Company has completed the registration formalities for all the abovementioned increases and reductions of capital.

American Depositary Shares

ASE Inc. issued ADS, each ADS represents five common shares. As of June 30, 2010 and 2011, 47,471 thousand and 77,516 thousand ADS were outstanding and represented approximately 237,355 thousand and 387,580 thousand common shares of ASE Inc., respectively.

Capital Surplus

Under the ROC Company Law, capital surplus from paid-in capital in excess of par value, treasury stock transactions and reversed interest of convertible bonds may be transferred to capital, subject to a limited equal to a specified percentage of paid-in capital.

Capital surplus from equity method investments may not be used for any purpose.

-33-

Appropriation of Retained Earnings

The Articles of Incorporation of ASE Inc. provide that the annual net income shall be distributed in the following order:

- a. Replenishment of losses;
- b. 10.0% as legal reserve;
- c. Special reserve in accordance with laws or regulations set forth by the authorities concerned;
- d. An amount equal to the excess of the income from equity method investments over cash dividends as special reserve;
- e. Not more than 2.0% of the remainder from a. to d. as compensation to directors and supervisors;
- f. Between 7.0% to 10.0% of the remainder from a. to d. as a bonus to employees, of which 7.0% shall be distributed in accordance with the employee bonus plan and the excess shall be distributed to specified employees as decided by the board of directors; and
- g. The remainder from a. to f. as dividends to shareholders.

Employees referred to f. above include employees of subsidiary companies that meet certain conditions, which are to be prescribed by the board of directors.

The Company is currently in the business stability stage. To meet the capital needs for business development now and in the future and satisfy the requirements of shareholders for cash inflow, the Company shall use residual dividend policy to distribute dividends, of which the cash dividend distribution rate is not lower than 30% of the total dividend amount, with the remainder to be distributed as stock dividends. A distribution plan is also to be made by the board of directors and passed by resolution of the shareholders' meeting.

For the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, the bonus to employees of ASE Inc. was NT$721,122 thousand and NT$680,078 thousand (US$23,622 thousand), respectively, and the compensation to directors and supervisors of ASE Inc. was NT$142,822 thousand and NT$135,589 thousand (US$4,710 thousand), respectively. The bonus to employees and compensation to directors and supervisors represented 10% and 2%, respectively, of net income (net of the bonus and compensation). Significant differences between such estimated amounts and the amounts proposed by the board of directors in the following year are adjusted in the current year. If the actual amounts subsequently resolved by the shareholders differ from the proposed amounts, the differences are recorded in the year of shareholders' resolution as a change in accounting estimate. If a share bonus is resolved to be distributed to employees, the number of shares is determined by dividing the amount of the share bonus by the closing price (after considering the effect of cash and stock dividends) of the shares of the day immediately preceding the shareholders' meeting.

Based on a directive issued by the Securities and Futures Bureau, an amount equal to the net debit balance of certain shareholders' equity accounts (including unrealized loss on financial instruments, net loss not recognized as pension cost and cumulative transaction adjustments) shall be transferred from unappropriated earnings to a special reserve. In addition, the excess of book value over market value of treasury shares held by subsidiaries shall be also transferred from unappropriated earnings to a special reserve based on the proportion owned by ASE Inc. Any special reserve appropriated may be reversed to the extent of the decrease in the net debit balance.

Under the ROC Company Law, the appropriation for legal reserve shall be made until the reserve reaches the paid-in capital. The reserve may be used to offset a deficit, or be distributed as dividends and bonuses for the portion in excess of 50% of paid-in capital if the Company has no unappropriated earnings and the reserve balance has exceeded 50% of paid-in capital. Also, when the reserve has reached 50% of paid-in capital, up to 50% thereof may be transferred to capital stock if the Company doesn't have a deficit.

The appropriation of 2009 and 2010 earnings resolved at the Company's annual shareholders' meetings is as follows:

	Appropriation of Earnings			Dividends Per Share
	2009	2010	US$ (Note 2)	2009	2010
	NT$	NT$		NT$	NT$
Legal reserve	$ 674,455	$ 1,833,750	$ 63,694

	$ 7,268,420	$ 13,995,943	$ 486,139	$ 1.20	$ 1.80

The stock dividends appropriation of 2010 earnings were registered effectively to the Financial Supervisory Commission under the Executive Yuan and will take effect on August 20, 2011 resolved by the Company's board of directors. In addition, the Company's board of directors also resolved that the cash dividends will be distributed on September 16, 2011.

Aside from the 2009 and 2010 earnings appropriations listed above, the shareholders also resolved to distribute the bonus to employees and compensation to directors and supervisors in cash. The information was as follows:

	2009 NT$	2010 NT$	US$ (Note 2)
Bonus to employees	$ 607,009	$ 1,523,133	$ 52,905
Compensation to directors and supervisors	120,000	304,200	10,566

The differences between the approved amounts of the bonus to employees and compensation to directors and supervisors and the accrual amounts reflected in the consolidated financial statements for 2009 and 2010 were primarily due to changes in estimates. The differences were NT$1,402 thousand and NT$427 thousand (US$15 thousand) and had been adjusted in earnings for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, respectively.

Information regarding the bonus to employees and the compensation to directors and supervisors is available on the Market Observation Post System website of the TSE.

ASE Inc. issued common shares in connection with its merger with subsidiaries. The shares held by its subsidiaries were reclassified from equity method investments to treasury stock.

In addition, as discussed in Note 2, 218,167 thousand shares of ASE Inc. held by subsidiaries were used as the consideration of NT$5,246,916 thousand for the USI Acquisition in February 2010. The difference between the consideration and the book value of the treasury stock, amounting to NT$1,271,532 thousand was recorded under capital surplus - treasury stock transactions. Stock dividends received in 2010 by the subsidiaries from ASE Inc. were 10,427 thousand shares.

Although these shares are treated as treasury stock in the consolidated financial statements, the shareholders are entitled to exercise their rights on these shares, except for participation in capital increases through cash contributions and exercise of voting rights.

EMPLOYEE STOCK OPTION PLANS

ASE Inc. Option Plans

In order to attract, retain and reward employees, ASE Inc. has four employee stock option plans, including the 2010 plan authorized to grant for 200,000 thousand units. Each unit represents the right to purchase one share of common stock of ASE Inc. when exercised. Under the terms of the plans, stock option rights are granted at an exercise price equal to or not less than the closing price of the common shares listed on the TSE on the date of grant. The option rights of these plans are valid for ten years and exercisable at certain percentages subsequent to the second anniversary of the grant date.

Information regarding stock options for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011 was as follows:

ASE Mauritius Inc. Option Plan

ASE Mauritius Inc. has an employee stock option plan which granted 30,000 thousand units in December 2007. Under the terms of the plan, each unit represents the right to purchase one share of common stock of ASE Mauritius Inc. when exercised. The options are valid for ten years and exercisable at certain percentages subsequent to the second anniversary of the grant date. Information regarding stock options for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011 was as follows:

For the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, the remaining contractual life is 7.5 years and 6.5 years, respectively.

USI Option Plans

USI had employee stock option plans in place prior to its acquisition by the Company. Under the terms of the plans, each unit represented the right to purchase one share of common stock of USI when exercised. The option rights of these plans were valid for ten years and exercisable at certain percentages subsequent to the second anniversary of the grant date. In June 2010, USI reached an agreement with its employees to cancel unexercised options with cash compensation at a fixed amount per unit. Compensation cost of NT$138,507 thousand was recognized for the six months ended June 30, 2010.

USIE Option Plans

The terms of the plans issued by USIE were the same with that of the USI option plans. Information regarding stock options for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011 was as follows:

Options granted by ASE Inc. and USIE during 2010 and 2011 were valued using the Hull & White Model (2004) with Ritchken's Trinomial Tree Model (1995) and the inputs for the model were as follows:

	ASE Inc.	USIE
Assumptions:
Share price/market price at grant date	NT$28.60-28.75	US$2.49-2.62
Exercise price	NT$28.60-28.75	US$2.42-2.94

Expected life	10 years	10 years
Expected dividend yield	4%	-
Risk - free interest rate	1.5620%-1.8087%	1.6306%-1.7997%

Expected volatility of ASE Inc. and USIE is based on the historical stock price volatility over the past 10 years of ASE Inc. and the comparable companies of USIE, respectively. To allow for the effects of early exercise, ASE Inc. and USIE assumed that employees would exercise the options after the vesting date when the stock price was 1.58-1.69 times the exercise price.

For the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, termination of employment resulted in forfeiture of stock options granted after January 1, 2008 of ASE Inc. and USIE amounting to 195 thousand units and 2,088 thousand units, respectively. As of June 30, 2011, the estimated percentage of forfeiture due to termination of employment over the remaining vesting period of ASE Inc. and USIE was 1.8%-4.0%.

Compensation cost recognized by the Company for the options granted after January 1, 2008 was NT$79,645 thousand and NT$249,075 thousand (US$8,651 thousand) for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, respectively.

Had the Company used the fair value based method to evaluate the options granted on or before December 31, 2007, the pro forma information of the Company for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011 would have been as follows:

Under Article 10 of the ROC Statute for Industrial Innovation passed by the ROC Legislative Yuan in April 2010, a profit-seeking enterprise may deduct up to 15% of its research and development expenditures from its income tax payable for the fiscal year in which these expenditures are incurred, but this deduction should not exceed 30% of the income tax payable for that fiscal year. This incentive took effect from January 1, 2010 and is effective till December 31, 2019.

In May 2010, the ROC Legislative Yuan passed the amendment of Article 5 of the ROC Income Tax Law, which reduced a profit-seeking enterprise's income tax rate from 20% to 17%, effective January 1, 2010.

c. The tax holidays for the Company are as follows:

- 1) A portion of ASE Inc.'s income from packaging of semiconductors is exempt from income tax for five years ending December 2013, respectively. A portion of ASE Chung Li branch's income from manufacturing, processing and testing of semiconductors is exempt from income tax for five years ending December 2011.
- 2) A portion of ASE Test, Inc.'s and PowerASE's income are exempt from income tax for five years.
- 3) Some China subsidiaries were eligible to enjoy the five-year tax holiday (two-year tax exemption and subsequent three-year 50% reduction of applicable tax rate) starting from the first profit-making year, or qualify as high technology enterprises which are entitled to research and development tax credits and a reduced tax rate of 15%, or were eligible to deduct several times of research and development expenses from their taxable income.

Under new income tax laws, the distribution of China-sourced income generated after January 1, 2008 is subject to a 10% withholding tax, and enterprises originating from those countries that have tax treaties with China may apply for lower withholding tax rates.

d. As of June 30, 2011, unused tax credits, which may be utilized to offset future income tax, were set forth below:

e. Income tax returns of ASE Inc. have been examined by the ROC tax authorities through 2006. ASE Inc. disagreed with the result of examinations relating to its income tax returns from 2002 to 2006 and applied for related tax appeals and procedures. ASE Inc. has recognized the related income tax expense in the year upon completion of examinations.

f. Information regarding Imputation Tax System

As of June 30, 2010 and 2011, the balance of the Imputation Credit Account ("ICA") amounted to NT$1,199,669 thousand and NT$1,250,697 thousand (US$43,442 thousand), respectively. The creditable ratio for the distribution of 2010 and 2011 earnings is 12.47% (actual) and 6.02% (estimated), respectively.

Under the Integrated Income Tax System, ROC resident shareholders are allowed a tax credit for their proportionate share of the income tax paid in the ROC by the Company on earnings generated since January 1, 1998. Non-resident shareholders are allowed only a tax credit from the 10% income tax on undistributed earnings, which can be used to reduce the withholding income tax on dividends. An ICA is maintained by the Company for such income tax and the tax credit allocated to each shareholder. The maximum credit available for allocation to each shareholder cannot exceed the balance shown in the ICA on the date of distribution of dividends. The expected creditable ratio for the 2010 earnings may be adjusted, depending on the ICA balance on the date of dividend distribution.

The ROC ARDF issued Interpretation 96-052 that requires companies to recognize bonuses paid to employees, directors and supervisors as compensation expenses. These bonuses were previously recorded as appropriations from earnings. If the Company may settle the bonus to employees by cash or shares, the Company should presume that the entire amount of the bonus will be settled in shares and the resulting potential shares should be included in the weighted average number of shares outstanding used in the calculation of diluted EPS, if the shares have a dilutive effect. The number of shares is estimated by dividing the entire amount of the bonus by the closing price (after consideration of the dilutive effect of dividends) of the shares at the balance sheet date. Such dilutive effect of the potential shares needs to be included in the calculation of diluted EPS until the shareholders resolve the number of shares to be distributed to employees at their meeting in the following year.

The weighted average number of shares outstanding for EPS calculation has been retroactively adjusted for the issuance of stock dividends and common stock issued from capital surplus. The pro forma retroactively adjusted EPS was as follows:

b. Methods and assumptions used in the estimation of fair values of financial instruments were as follows:

- 1) The aforementioned financial instruments do not include cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, other receivables, short-term borrowings, accounts payable, accrued expenses and payable for properties. Due to their short term nature, these financial instruments' carrying amounts approximate their fair values.
- 2) Fair values of financial assets at FVTPL and available-for-sale financial assets were determined using their quoted market prices in an active market. Fair values of derivatives, private-placement shares and financial notes were determined using valuation techniques incorporating estimates and assumptions which are similar with those generally used by other market participants to price financial instruments.
- 3) Financial assets carried at cost and bond investments with no active market have no quoted prices in active markets and entail an unreasonably high cost to obtain verifiable fair values. Therefore, no fair value is presented.
- 4)

The carrying amounts of guarantee deposits and restricted assets reflect their fair values due to their short term nature.

- 5) The interest rates of long-term loans were mainly floating; therefore, their fair values approximate carrying amounts.
- c. Valuation gains from changes in fair value of financial instruments determined using valuation techniques were NT$189,963 thousand and NT$55,656 thousand (US$1,933 thousand) for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, respectively.
- d. As of June 30, 2010 and 2011, financial assets exposed to fair value interest rate risk amounted to NT$117,193 thousand and NT$475,989 thousand (US$16,533 thousand), respectively, financial liabilities exposed to fair value interest rate risk amounted to NT$51,892 thousand and NT$4,968 thousand (US$173 thousand), respectively, financial assets exposed to cash flow interest rate risk amounted to NT$19,949,448 thousand and NT$16,330,031 thousand (US$567,212 thousand), respectively, and financial liabilities exposed to cash flow interest rate risk amounted to NT$68,387,213 thousand and NT$65,503,816 thousand (US$2,275,228 thousand), respectively.
- e. For the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, interest income of NT$127,896 thousand and NT$145,996 thousand (US$5,071 thousand), and interest expense (including capitalized interest) of NT$872,625 thousand and NT$858,017 thousand (US$29,802 thousand) were associated with financial assets or liabilities other than those at FVTPL.

f. Strategy for financial risk

The derivative instruments employed by the Company are to mitigate risks arising from ordinary business operation. All derivative transactions entered into by the Company are designated as either hedging or trading, which are governed by separate internal guidelines and controls. Derivative transactions entered into for hedging purposes must hedge risk against fluctuations in foreign exchange and interest rates arising from operating activities. The currency and the amount of derivative instruments held by the Company must match its assets and liabilities.

g. Information about financial risk

1) Market risk

All derivative financial instruments are mainly held to hedge the exchange rate fluctuations of foreign-currency-denominated assets and liabilities and interest rate fluctuations on its floating rate long-term loans. Exchange gains or losses on these derivative contracts are likely to be offset by gains or losses on the hedged assets and liabilities. Interest rate risks are also controlled because the expected cost of capital is fixed. Thus, market risk for derivative contracts is believed to be immaterial.

The Company holds open-end mutual funds, financial notes and quoted stocks, which are subject to market risk. The fair value of these investments will decrease by approximately NT$8,600 thousand (US$299 thousand) if their market price decreases by 1%.

2) Credit risk

Credit risk represents the potential loss that would be incurred by the Company if counter-parties or third parties breached contracts. Credit risk represents the positive fair values of contracts as of the balance sheet date. The counter-parties to the foregoing financial instruments are reputable financial institutions and business organizations. Management does not expect the Company's exposure to default by those parties to be material.

3) Liquidity risk

The Company's operating funds and credit line are deemed sufficient to meet cash flow demand; therefore, the Company's liquidity risk is not considered to be significant.

The Company's investments in open-end mutual funds and financial notes are traded in active markets and can be disposed of quickly at close to their fair values. The Company's bond investments with no active market and financial assets carried at cost have no active markets; therefore, liquidity risk for such assets is expected to be high.

4) Cash flow interest rate risk

The Company's loans are mainly floating interest rate debts. When the market interest rate increases by 1%, the Company's annual cash outflows will increase by approximately NT$644,000 thousand (US$22,369 thousand).

h. Fair value hedge and cash flow hedge

The Company entered into interest rate swap contracts and cross currency swap contracts to hedge exposures from fluctuations in both foreign exchange and interest rates arising from its long-term loans and receivables between the Company and its affiliates.

1) The fair value of the interest rate swap contracts as of June 30, 2010 and 2011 was a loss of NT$279,419 thousand and a loss of NT$95,493 thousand (US$3,317 thousand), respectively. The outstanding interest rate swap contracts of the Company as of June 30, 2010 and 2011 were as follows:

Maturity Date	Notional Amount (In Thousands)	Interest Rates Paid (%)	Interest Rate Received (%)	Expected Period for Further Cash Demand	Expected Period for the Recognition of Gains or Losses from Hedge
June 30, 2010
2013.03	NT$10,440,000	2.45-2.48	0.511	2008-2013	2008-2013

28. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

a. As of June 30, 2011, the outstanding derivative contracts and covenants of loan agreements were discussed in other Notes.

b. The Company leases the land on which their buildings are situated under various operating lease agreements with the ROC government expiring on various dates through August 2020. The agreements grant these entities the option to renew the leases and reserve the right for the lessor to adjust the lease payments upon an increase in the assessed value of the land and to terminate the leases under certain conditions. In addition, the Company leases buildings, machinery and equipment under non-cancelable operating leases.

Future minimum lease payments under the above-mentioned operating leases as of June 30, 2011 were as follows:

	NT$	US$ (Note 2)
From July 1 to December 31, 2011	$ 130,907	$ 4,547
2012	132,584	4,605
2013	32,514	1,129
2014	25,025	869
2015 and thereafter	58,147	2,020
Total minimum lease payments	$ 379,177	$ 13,170

c. As of June 30, 2011, unused letters of credit of the Company were approximately NT$679,000 thousand (US$23,585 thousand).

d. As of June 30, 2011, commitments to purchase machinery and equipment of the Company were approximately NT$6,760,000 thousand (US$234,804 thousand), of which NT$401,591 thousand (US$13,949 thousand) had been prepaid.

e. As of June 30, 2011, outstanding commitments related to construction of buildings of the Company were approximately NT$3,619,000 thousand (US$125,703 thousand), of which NT$591,196 thousand (US$20,535 thousand) had been prepaid.

f. The Company entered into technology license agreements with foreign companies which will expire on various dates through 2013. Pursuant to the agreements, the Company shall pay royalties based on specified percentages of sales volume and licensing fees to the counter parties. Royalties and licensing fees paid for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2011 were NT$94,000 thousand and NT$42,352 thousand (US$1,471 thousand), respectively.

g. Tessera Inc. (“Tessera”) filed an amended complaint in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California in February 2006 adding the Company to a suit alleging that the Company infringed patents owned by Tessera (the “California Litigation”). The district court in the California Litigation has vacated the trial schedule and stayed all proceedings pending a final resolution of the investigation of the United States International Trade Commission. The United States Patent and Trademark Office has also instituted reexamination proceedings on all the patents Tessera has asserted in the California Litigation and the ITC Investigation.

Up to date, the impact of the California Litigation or the ITC Investigation cannot be estimated.

29. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company’s board of directors resolved in June 2011 to issue 5-year secured bonds and each bond would have a face value of NT$50,000 thousand (US$1,737 thousand). The total issued amount is anticipated to be NT$8,000,000 thousand (US$277,874 thousand) and will be used to improve the financial structure. The bonds were registered and approved by the Financial Supervisory Commission under the Executive Yuan on August 1, 2011.

ANNEX B

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2011

Net Revenues

Net revenues increased 9.9% to NT$92,259.6 million (US$3,204.6 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from NT$83,970.4 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010, primarily due to (i) an increase in revenues from electronic manufacturing services ("EMS") in the first half of 2011 compared to the first half of 2010 as the Company acquired additional shares in USI in February 2010 and therefore revenues from EMS in the first half of 2010 reflected only five months of revenue contribution, and (ii) an increase in revenues from both the packaging and testing businesses due to an increase in sales volume given the better general market conditions in 2011 as compared to 2010.

Gross Profit

Gross profit increased 0.9% to NT$17,622.4 million (US$612.1 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from NT$17,471.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010. The Company's gross profit as a percentage of net revenues, or gross margin, decreased to 19.1% in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from 20.8% in the six months ended June 30, 2010. This decrease was primarily due to an increase in the raw material costs as a percentage of net revenues. Raw material costs in the six months ended June 30, 2011 were NT$43,662.5 million (US$1,516.6 million) compared to NT$39,238.4 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010. As a percentage of net revenues, raw material costs increased to 47.3% in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from 46.7% in the six months ended June 30, 2010, primarily because net revenues in the six months ended June 30, 2011 contain six months of the revenues derived from the EMS business which has greater raw material costs, whereas net revenues in the six months ended June 30, 2010 only contain revenues from February to June from the EMS business. Depreciation, amortization and rental expenses in the six months ended June 30, 2011 were NT$10,664.7 million (US$370.4 million), compared to NT$8,658.2 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010. As a percentage of net revenues, depreciation, amortization and rental expenses increased to 11.6% in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from 10.3% in the six months ended June 30, 2010. This increase was primarily because the Company acquired more equipment in 2010, especially in the second and third quarters. Labor cost in the six months ended June 30, 2011 was NT$10,919.3 million (US$379.3 million) compared to NT$9,639.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010. As a percentage of net revenues, labor cost slightly increased to 11.8% in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from 11.5% in the six months ended June 30, 2010.

Operating Income

Operating income decreased 10.3% to NT$9,008.2 million (US$312.9 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 compared to NT$10,042.3 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010. The Company's operating income as a percentage of net revenues, or operating margin, decreased to 9.8% in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from 12.0% in the six months ended June 30, 2010, primarily due to a decrease in the gross margin. Operating expense increased 15.9% to NT$8,614.2 million (US$299.2 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 compared to NT$7,429.6 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010. The increase in operating expense was primarily due to increases in the research and development expense, and general and administrative expense. General and administrative expense increased 14.5% to NT$3,893.7 million (US$135.2 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from NT$3,400.0 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010, primarily due to an increase in labor cost.

General and administrative expense represented 4.2% of the Company's net revenues in the six months ended June 30, 2011 compared to 4.0% in the six months ended June 30, 2010. Research and development expense increased 16.5% to NT$3,334.1 million (US$115.8 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from NT$2,860.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010. Research and development expense represented 3.6% of the Company's net revenues in the six months ended June 30, 2011 compared to 3.4% in the six months ended June 30, 2010. This increase in the research and development expense was primarily due to an increase in labor cost. The increase in labor cost for general and administrative expense and research and development expense was primarily due to an increase in headcount and share-based compensation expense recognized for the option grant in the second quarter of 2010.

Non-Operating Income (Expense)

The Company incurred a net non-operating income of NT$837.2 million (US$29.1 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 compared to a net non-operating expense of NT$585.8 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010. This increase was primarily due to increases in dividend income from financial assets carried at cost and a net gain on foreign exchange and gain on valuation of financial assets. The dividend income increased from NT$8.7 million in the first half of 2010 to NT$595.9 million (US$20.7 million) in the corresponding period of 2011. In addition, the Company incurred a net foreign exchange gain and gain on valuation of financial assets of NT$310.0 million (US$10.8 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 compared to a net foreign exchange loss of NT$107.4 million in the corresponding period of 2010. The increase in net foreign exchange gain and gain on valuation of financial assets was primarily due to gains from the currency forward contracts, swap contracts and cross currency swap contracts which we utilize from time to time to reduce the impact of foreign currency fluctuations on our results of operations.

Net Income

Net income, excluding minority interest, decreased 4.9% to NT$7,618.4 million (US$264.6 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from NT$8,007.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010. The Company's diluted earning per share decreased 6.7% to NT$1.25 (US$0.04) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from diluted earnings per share of NT$1.34 in the six months ended June 30, 2010. The Company's income tax expense increased 83.8% to NT$1,960.9 million (US$68.1 million) in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from NT$1,066.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2010, primarily due to (i) an increase in pre-tax income, (ii) the capital gains tax incurred as a result of the share transfers between the subsidiaries of the Company due to the Company's internal restructuring in 2011 and (iii) undistributed earnings tax expense recognized in June 2011.
